Preface

The present publication is designed to serve, in a practical and convenient form, as a manual to students of constitutional law in all countries, and at the same time as an authoritative work of reference to a wider circle interested in the principles of government throughout the world.

Its contents are taken from official sources, which are when possible specified.

Considerations of space and cost have rendered it impossible to reproduce all the documents in extenso. A number are printed in full on account of their importance or in order to serve as specimens, but in many cases space is economised by omitting features which are unimportant or common to all instruments of the particular kind. In certain instances the mere indication of legislation has made it possible to dispense with the reproduction of texts.

BRITISH EMPIRE

The Statute of Westminster

Act of the Imperial Parliament to give Effect to certain Resolutions passed by Imperial Conferences held in the years 1926 and 1930.

[22 Geo. V, c. 4.—December 11, 1931.]

Whereas the delegates of His Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom, the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State and Newfoundland, at Imperial Conferences holden at Westminster in the years of our Lord 1926 and 1930 did concur in making the declarations and resolutions set forth in the reports of the said Conferences :

And whereas it is meet and proper to set out by way of preamble to this Act that, inasmuch as the Crown is the symbol of the free association of the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations, and as they are united by a common allegiance to the Crown, it would be in accord with the established constitutional position of all the members of the Commonwealth in relation to one another that any alteration in the law touching the succession to the Throne or the royal style and titles shall hereafter require the assent as well of the Parliaments of all the Dominions as of the Parliament of the United Kingdom :

And whereas it is in accord with the established constitutional position that no law hereafter made by the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall extend to any of the said Dominions as part of the law of that Dominion otherwise than at the request and with the consent of that Dominion :

And whereas it is necessary for the ratifying, confirming and establishing of certain of the said declarations and resolutions of the said Conferences that a law be made and enacted in due form by authority of the Parliament of the United Kingdom :

And whereas the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State and Newfoundland have severally requested and consented to the submission of a measure to the Parliament of the United Kingdom for making such provision with regard to the matters aforesaid as is hereafter in this Act contained :

Now, therefore, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. In this Act the expression "Dominion" means any of the following Dominions, that is to say, the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State and Newfoundland.

2. (1) "The Colonial Laws Validity Act, 1865,"⁽¹⁾ shall not apply to any law made after the commencement of this Act by the Parliament of a Dominion.

(2) No law and no provision of any law made after the commencement of this Act by the Parliament of a Dominion shall be void or inoperative on the ground that it is repugnant to the law of England, or to the provisions of any existing or future Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom, or to any order, rule or regulation made under any such Act, and the powers of the Parliament of a Dominion shall include the power to repeal or amend any such Act, order, rule or regulation in so far as the same is part of the law of the Dominion.

3. It is hereby declared and enacted that the Parliament of a Dominion has full power to make laws having extra-territorial operation.

4. No Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom passed after the commencement of this Act shall extend, or be deemed to extend, to a Dominion as part of the law of that Dominion, unless it is expressly declared in that Act that that Dominion has requested, and consented to, the enactment thereof.

5. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this Act, sections 735 and 736 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894,"⁽²⁾ shall be construed as though reference therein to the Legislature of a British possession did not include reference to the Parliament of a Dominion.

6. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this Act, section 4 of "The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890"⁽³⁾ (which requires certain laws to be reserved for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure or to contain a suspending clause), and so much of section 7 of that Act as requires the approval of His Majesty in Council to any rules of court for regulating the practice and procedure of a Colonial Court of Admiralty, shall cease to have effect in any Dominion as from the commencement of this Act.

7. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to apply to the repeal, amendment or alteration of "The British North America Acts," 1867⁽¹⁾ to 1930,⁽²⁾ or any order, rule or regulation made thereunder.

(2) The provisions of section 2 of this Act shall extend to laws made by any of the Provinces of Canada and to the powers of the Legislatures of such Provinces.

(3) The powers conferred by this Act upon the Parliament of Canada or upon the Legislatures of the Provinces shall be restricted to the enactment of laws in relation to matters within the competence of the Parliament of Canada or of any of the Legislatures of the Provinces respectively.

8. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to confer any power to repeal or alter the constitution or "The Constitution Act" of the Commonwealth of Australia⁽³⁾ or "The Constitution Act" of the Dominion of New Zealand⁽⁴⁾ otherwise than in accordance with the law existing before the commencement of this Act.

9. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorise the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia to make laws on any matter within the authority of the States of Australia, not being a matter within the authority of the Parliament or Government of the Commonwealth of Australia.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to require the concurrence of the Parliament or Government of the Commonwealth of Australia in any law made by the Parliament of the United Kingdom with respect to any matter within the authority of the States of Australia, not being a matter within the authority of the Parliament or Government of the Commonwealth of Australia, in any case where it would have been in accordance with the constitutional practice existing before the commencement of this Act that the Parliament of the United Kingdom should make that law without such concurrence.

(3) In the application of this Act to the Commonwealth of Australia the request and consent referred to in section 4 shall mean the request and consent of the Parliament and Government of the Commonwealth.

10. (1) None of the following sections of this Act, that is to say, sections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, shall extend to a Dominion to which this section applies as part of the law of that Dominion unless that section is adopted by the Parliament of the Dominion, and any Act of that Parliament adopting any section of this Act may provide that the adoption shall have effect either from the commencement of this Act or from such later date as is specified in the adopting Act.

(2) The Parliament of any such Dominion as aforesaid may at any time revoke the adoption of any section referred to in sub-section (1) of this section.

(3) The Dominions to which this section applies are the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand and Newfoundland.

11. Notwithstanding anything in "The Interpretation Act, 1889,"⁽¹⁾ the expression "colony" shall not, in any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed after the commencement of this Act, include a Dominion or any Province or State forming part of a Dominion.

12. This Act may be cited as "The Statute of Westminster, 1931."

(iii) The navy, the army, the air force, the territorial force, or any other naval, military, or air force, or the defence of the realm, or any other naval, military or air force matter (including any pensions and allowances payable to persons who have been members of or in respect of service in any such force or their widows or dependants, and provision for the training, education, employment and assistance for the reinstatement in civil life of persons who have ceased to be members of any such force) ; or

(v) Dignities or titles of honour ; or

(vi) Treason, treason felony, alienage, naturalisation, or aliens as such, or domicile ; or

(vii) Trade with any place out of the part of Ireland within their jurisdiction, except so far as trade may be affected by the exercise of the powers of taxation given to the said Parliaments, or by regulations made for the sole purpose of preventing contagious disease, or by steps taken by means of inquiries or agencies out of the part of Ireland within their jurisdiction for the improvement of the trade of that part or for the protection of traders of that part from fraud ; the granting of bounties on the export of goods ; quarantine ; navigation, including merchant shipping (except as respects inland waters, the regulation of harbours, and local health regulations) ; or

(viii) Submarine cables ; or

(xi) Lighthouses, buoys or beacons (except so far as they can consistently with any general Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom be constructed or maintained by a local harbour authority) ; or

(xiii) Trade marks, designs, merchandise marks, copyright, or patent rights ; or

(xiv) Any matter which by this Act is declared to be a reserved matter, so long as it remains reserved.

Any law made in contravention of the limitations imposed by this section shall, so far as it contravenes those limitations, be void.

(2) The limitation on the powers of the said Parliaments to the making of laws with respect to matters exclusively relating to the portion of Ireland within their respective jurisdictions shall not be construed so as to prevent the said Parliaments by identical legislation making laws respecting matters affecting both Southern and Northern Ireland.

5. (1) In the exercise of their power to make laws under this Act neither the Parliament of Southern Ireland nor the Parliament of Northern Ireland shall make a law so as either directly or indirectly to establish or endow any religion, or prohibit or restrict the free exercise thereof, or give a preference, privilege, or advantage, or impose any disability or disadvantage, on account of religious belief or religious or ecclesiastical status, or make any religious belief or religious ceremony a condition of the validity of any marriage, or affect prejudicially the right of any child to attend a school receiving public money without attending the religious instruction at that school, or alter the constitution of any religious body except where the alteration is approved on behalf of the religious body by the governing body thereof, or divert from any religious denomination the fabric of cathedral churches, or, except for the purpose of roads, railways, lighting, water, or drainage works, or other works of public utility upon payment of compensation, any other property, or take any property without compensation.

(2) Where any Act of the Parliament of Southern Ireland or the Parliament of Northern Ireland deals with any matter with respect to which that Parliament has power to make laws which is dealt with by any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed after the appointed day and extending to the part of Ireland within its jurisdiction, the Act of the Parliament of Southern Ireland or the Parliament of Northern Ireland shall be read subject to the Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and so far as it is repugnant to that Act, but no further, shall be void.

(3) Any order, rule or regulation made in pursuance of, or having the force of, an Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom shall be deemed to be a provision of an Act within the meaning of this section.

(3) The Senate of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland may not amend any bills so far as they impose taxation or appropriate revenue or moneys for the services of the Government of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, or for services administered by the Council of Ireland, and may not amend any bill so as to increase any proposed charges or burdens on the people.

(4) Any bill which appropriates revenue or moneys for the ordinary annual services of the Government of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, or services administered by the Council of Ireland, shall deal only with that appropriation.

17. (1) If the House of Commons of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland pass any public bill, which is sent up to the Senate of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland at least one month before the end of the session, and the Senate of Southern or Northern Ireland reject or fail to pass it or pass it with amendments to which the House of Commons will not agree, and if the House of Commons in the next session again pass the bill with or without any amendments which have been made or agreed to by the Senate, and the Senate reject or fail to pass it or pass it with amendments to which the House of Commons will not agree, the Lord Lieutenant may, during that session, convene a joint sitting of the members of such two Houses.

(2) The members present at any such joint sitting may deliberate and shall vote together upon the bill as last proposed by the House of Commons and upon the amendments, if any, which have been made therein by one House and not agreed to by the other, and any such amendments which are affirmed by a majority of the total number of members of such two Houses present at such sitting shall be taken to have been carried.

Provided that, if the Senate of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland shall reject or fail to pass any bill dealing with the imposition of taxation or the appropriation of revenue or moneys for the public service, such joint sitting may be convened during the same session in which the Senate so reject or fail to pass such bill.

18. (1) The powers, privileges, and immunities of the Senate and House of Commons of Southern Ireland and the Senate and House of Commons of Northern Ireland, and of the members and of the committees thereof, shall be such as may be defined by Act of the

(7) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that the holders of the offices in the executive of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland named in the Order shall not be disqualified for being members of the Senate or House of Commons of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland respectively by reason of holding office under the Crown, and, except as otherwise provided by Act of the Parliament of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland, the Order shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act, and on acceptance of any such office the seat of any such person in the House of Commons of Southern Ireland or Northern Ireland shall not be vacated.

(1) Quebec shall have the fixed number of 65 members.

(2) There shall be assigned to each of the other Provinces such a number of members as will bear the same proportion to the number of its population (ascertained at such census) as the number 65 bears to the number of the population of Quebec (so ascertained).

(3) In the computation of the number of members for a Province a fractional part not exceeding one-half of the whole number requisite for entitling the Province to a member shall be disregarded; but a fractional part exceeding one-half of that number shall be equivalent to the whole number.

(4) On any such re-adjustment the number of members for a Province shall not be reduced unless the proportion which the number of the population of the Province bore to the number of the aggregate population of Canada at the then last preceding re-adjustment of the number of members for the Province is ascertained at the then latest census to be diminished by one-twentieth part or upwards.

(5) Such re-adjustment shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

51A. Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a Province shall always be entitled to a number of members in the House of Commons not less than the number of senators representing such Province.

52. The number of members of the House of Commons may be from time to time increased by the Parliament of Canada, provided the proportionate representation of the Provinces prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed.

Money Votes : Royal Assent

53. Bills for appropriating any part of the public revenue, or for imposing any tax or impost, shall originate in the House of Commons.

54. It shall not be lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any vote, resolution, address or bill for the appropriation of any part of the public revenue, or of any tax or impost, to any purpose that has not been first recommended to that House by message of the Governor-General in the session in which such vote, resolution, address or bill is proposed.

55. Where a bill passed by the Houses of the Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of this Act and to Her Majesty's instructions, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

56. Where the Governor-General assents to a bill in the Queen's name, he shall by the first convenient opportunity send an authentic copy of the Act to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and if the Queen in Council within 2 years after receipt thereof by the Secretary of State thinks fit to disallow the Act, such disallowance (with a certificate of the Secretary of State of the day on which the Act was received by him) being signified by the Governor-General, by speech or message to each of the Houses of the Parliament or by proclamation, shall annul the Act from and after the day of such signification.

57. A bill reserved for the signification of the Queen's pleasure shall not have any force unless and until, within 2 years from the day on which it was presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, the Governor-General signifies, by speech or message to each of the Houses of the Parliament or by proclamation, that it has received the assent of the Queen in Council.

An entry of every such speech, message or proclamation shall be made in the journal of each House, and a duplicate thereof duly attested shall be delivered to the proper officer to be kept among the records of Canada.

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by certain Letters Patent bearing even date⁽¹⁾ herewith we have constituted, ordered and declared that there shall be a Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "our said Governor-General") in and over our Dominion of Canada (hereinafter called "our said Dominion"), And we have thereby authorised and commanded our said Governor-General to do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said office, and to the trust we have reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed him by virtue of the said Letters Patent and of such Commission as may be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and to such laws as are or shall hereafter be in force in our said Dominion : Now, therefore, we do, by these our Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet, declare our pleasure to be as follows :—

1. Our said Governor-General for the time being shall, with all due solemnity, cause our Commission under our Sign Manual and Signet, appointing our said Governor-General for the time being, to be read and published in the presence of the Chief Justice for the time being, or other judge of the Supreme Court of our said Dominion, and of the members of the Privy Council in our said Dominion.

Our said Governor-General, and every other officer appointed to administer the Government of our said Dominion, shall take the oath of allegiance in the form following: "I, do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George, his heirs and successors, according to law. So help me God;" and likewise he or they shall take the usual oath for the due execution of the office of our Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over our said Dominion, and for the due and impartial administration of justice; which oaths the said Chief Justice for the time being of our said Dominion, or, in his absence, or in the event of his being otherwise incapacitated, any judge of the Supreme Court of our said Dominion shall, and he is hereby required to, tender and administer unto him or them.

2. And we do authorise and require our said Governor-General from time to time, by himself or by any other person to be authorised by him in that behalf, to administer to all and to every person or persons, as he shall think fit, who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit in our said Dominion, the said oath of allegiance, together with such other oath or oaths as may from time to time be prescribed by any laws or statutes in that behalf made and provided.

3. And we do require our said Governor-General to communicate forthwith to the Privy Council for our said Dominion these our Instructions, and likewise all such others, from time to time, as he shall find convenient for our service to be imparted to them.

4. [Identical, mutatis mutandis, with clause 7 of the Instructions in respect of Australia: see page 88.]

5. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor-General, as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf, when any crime or offence against the laws of our said Dominion has been committed for which the offender may be tried therein, to grant a pardon to any accomplice, in such crime or offence, who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders if more than one; and further, to grant to any offender convicted of any such crime or offence in any court, or before any judge, justice or magistrate, within our said Dominion, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender, for such period as to our said Governor-General may seem fit, and to remit any fines, penalties or forfeitures which may become due and payable to us. Government of our said Dominion, our said Governor-General shall, before deciding as to either pardon or reprieve, take those interests specially into his own personal consideration in conjunction with such advice as aforesaid.

The senators shall be chosen for a term of 6 years, and the names of the senators chosen for each State shall be certified by the Governor to the Governor-General.

8. The qualification of electors of senators shall be in each State that which is prescribed by this constitution, or by the Parliament, as the qualification for electors of members of the House of Representatives; but in the choosing of senators each elector shall vote only once.

9. The Parliament of the Commonwealth may make laws prescribing the method of choosing senators, but so that the method shall be uniform for all the States. Subject to any such law, the Parliament of each State may make laws prescribing the method of choosing the senators for that State.

The Parliament of a State may make laws for determining the times and places of elections of senators for the State.

10. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, but subject to this constitution, the laws in force in each State, for the time being, relating to elections for the more numerous House of the Parliament of the State shall, as nearly as practicable, apply to elections of senators for the State.

11. The Senate may proceed to the despatch of business, notwithstanding the failure of any State to provide for its representation in the Senate.

12. The Governor of any State may cause writs to be issued for elections of senators for the State. In case of the dissolution of the Senate the writs shall be issued within 10 days from the proclamation of such dissolution.

13. As soon as may be after the Senate first meets, and after each first meeting of the Senate following a dissolution thereof, the Senate shall divide the senators chosen for each State into two classes, as nearly equal in number as practicable; and the places of the senators of the first class shall become vacant at the expiration of 3 years, and the places of those of the second class at the expiration of 6 years, from the beginning of their term of service; and afterwards the places of senators shall become vacant at the expiration of 6 years from the beginning of their term of service.

The election to fill vacant places shall be made within one year before the places are to become vacant.

For the purposes of this section the term of service of a senator shall be taken to begin on the first day of July following the day of his election, except in the cases of the first election and of the election next after any dissolution of the Senate, when it shall be taken to begin on the first day of July preceding the day of his election.

14. Whenever the number of senators for a State is increased or diminished, the Parliament of the Commonwealth may make such provision for the vacating of the places of senators for the State as it deems necessary to maintain regularity in the rotation.

15. If the place of a senator becomes vacant before the expiration of his term of service, the Houses of Parliament of the State for which he was chosen shall, sitting and voting together, choose a person to hold the place until the expiration of the term, or until the election of a successor as hereinafter provided, whichever first happens. But if the Houses of Parliament of the State are not in session at the time when the vacancy is notified, the Governor of the State, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, may appoint a person to hold the place until the expiration of 14 days after the beginning of the next session of the Parliament of the State, or until the election of a successor, whichever first happens.

At the next general election of members of the House of Representatives, or at the next election of senators for the State, whichever first happens, a successor shall, if the term has not then expired, be chosen to hold the place from the date of his election until the expiration of the term.

The name of any senator so chosen or appointed shall be certified by the Governor of the State to the Governor-General.

16. The qualifications of a senator shall be the same as those of a member of the House of Representatives.

17. The Senate shall, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, choose a senator to be the President of the Senate; and as often as the office of President becomes vacant the Senate shall again choose a senator to be the President.

The President shall cease to hold his office if he ceases to be a senator. He may be removed from office by a vote of the Senate, or he may resign his office or his seat by writing addressed to the Governor-General.

18. Before or during any absence of the President, the Senate may choose a senator to perform his duties in his absence.

19. A senator may, by writing addressed to the President, or to the Governor-General if there is no President or if the President is absent from the Commonwealth, resign his place, which thereupon shall become vacant.

20. The place of a senator shall become vacant if for two consecutive months of any session of the Parliament he, without the permission of the Senate, fails to attend the Senate.

21. Whenever a vacancy happens in the Senate, the President, or if there is no President or if the President is absent from the Commonwealth the Governor-General, shall notify the same to the Governor of the State in the representation of which the vacancy has happened.

22. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the presence of at least one-third of the whole number of the senators shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the Senate for the exercise of its powers.

23. Questions arising in the Senate shall be determined by a majority of votes, and each senator shall have one vote. The President shall in all cases be entitled to a vote ; and when the votes are equal the question shall pass in the negative.

PART III.—The House of Representatives

24. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members directly chosen by the people of the Commonwealth, and the number of such members shall be, as nearly as practicable, twice the number of the senators.

The number of members chosen in the several States shall be in proportion to the respective numbers of their people, and shall, until the Parliament otherwise provides, be determined, whenever necessary, in the following manner :—

(i) A quota shall be ascertained by dividing the number of the people of the Commonwealth, as shown by the latest statistics of the Commonwealth, by twice the number of the senators.

(ii) The number of members to be chosen in each State shall be determined by dividing the number of the people of the State, as shown by the latest statistics of the Commonwealth, by the quota ; and if on such division there is a remainder greater than one-half of the quota, one more member shall be chosen in the State.

But notwithstanding anything in this section, five members at least shall be chosen in each original State.

25. For the purposes of the last section, if by the law of any State all persons of any race are disqualified from voting at elections for the more numerous House of the Parliament of the State, then, in reckoning the number of the people of the State or of the Commonwealth, persons of that race resident in that State shall not be counted.

26. Notwithstanding anything in section 24, the number of members to be chosen in each State at the first election shall be as follows :—

New South Wales	23
Victoria	20
Queensland	8
South Australia..	6
Tasmania	5

Provided that if Western Australia is an original State, the numbers shall be as follows :—

New South Wales	26
Victoria	23
Queensland	9
South Australia..	7
Western Australia	5
Tasmania	5

27. Subject to this constitution, the Parliament may make laws for increasing or diminishing the number of the members of the House of Representatives.

28. Every House of Representatives shall continue for 3 years from the first meeting of the House, and no longer, but may be sooner dissolved by the Governor-General.

29. Until the Parliament of the Commonwealth otherwise provides, the Parliament of any State may make laws for determining the divisions in each State for which members of the House of Representatives may be chosen, and the number of members to be chosen for each division. A division shall not be formed out of parts of different States.

In the absence of other provision, each State shall be one electorate.

30. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the qualification of electors of members of the House of Representatives shall be in each State that which is prescribed by the law of the State as the qualification of electors of the more numerous House of Parliament of the State; but in the choosing of members each elector shall vote only once.

31. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, but subject to this constitution, the laws in force in each State for the time being relating to elections for the more numerous House of the Parliament of the State shall, as nearly as practicable, apply to elections in the State of members of the House of Representatives.

32. The Governor-General in Council may cause writs to be issued for general elections of members of the House of Representatives.

After the first general election, the writs shall be issued within 10 days from the expiry of a House of Representatives or from the proclamation of a dissolution thereof.

33. Whenever a vacancy happens in the House of Representatives, the Speaker shall issue his writ for the election of a new member, or if there is no Speaker or if he is absent from the Commonwealth the Governor-General in Council may issue the writ.

34. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the qualifications of a member of the House of Representatives shall be as follows :—

(i) He must be of the full age of 21 years, and must be an elector entitled to vote at the election of members of the House of Representatives, or a person qualified to become such elector, and must have been for 3 years at the least a resident within the limits of the Commonwealth as existing at the time when he is chosen.

(ii) He must be a subject of the Queen, either natural-born or for at least 5 years naturalised under a law of the United Kingdom, or of a Colony which has become or becomes a State, or of the Commonwealth, or of a State.

35. The House of Representatives shall, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, choose a member to be the Speaker of the House, and as often as the office of Speaker becomes vacant the House shall again choose a member to be the Speaker.

The Speaker shall cease to hold his office if he ceases to be a member. He may be removed from office by a vote of the House, or he may resign his office or his seat by writing addressed to the Governor-General.

36. Before or during any absence of the Speaker, the House of Representatives may choose a member to perform his duties in his absence.

37. A member may by writing addressed to the Speaker, or to the Governor-General if there is no Speaker or if the Speaker is absent from the Commonwealth, resign his place, which thereupon shall become vacant.

38. The place of a member shall become vacant if for 2 consecutive months of any session of the Parliament he, without the permission of the House, fails to attend the House.

39. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the presence of at least one-third of the whole number of the members of the House of Representatives shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the House for the exercise of its powers.

40. Questions arising in the House of Representatives shall be determined by a majority of votes other than that of the Speaker. The Speaker shall not vote unless the numbers are equal, and then he shall have a casting vote.

PART IV.—Both Houses of the Parliament

41. No adult person who has or acquires a right to vote at elections for the more numerous House of the Parliament of a State shall, while the right continues, be prevented by any law of the Commonwealth from voting at elections for either House of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

42. Every senator and every member of the House of Representatives shall before taking his seat make and subscribe before the Governor-General, or some person authorised by him, an oath or affirmation of allegiance in the form set forth in the schedule to this constitution.

43. A member of either House of the Parliament shall be incapable of being chosen or of sitting as a member of the other House.

44. Any person who—

But sub-section (iv) does not apply to the office of any of the Queen's Ministers of State for the Commonwealth, or of any of the Queen's Ministers for a State, or to the receipt of pay, half pay, or a pension by any person as an officer or member of the Queen's navy or army, or to the receipt of pay as an officer or member of the naval or military forces of the Commonwealth by any person whose services are not wholly employed by the Commonwealth.

45. If a senator or member of the House of Representatives—

(i) Becomes subject to any of the disabilities mentioned in the last preceding section ; or

(ii) Takes the benefit, whether by assignment, composition, or otherwise, of any law relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors ; or

(iii) Directly or indirectly takes or agrees to take any fee or honorarium for services rendered to the Commonwealth, or for services rendered in the Parliament to any person or State ; his place shall thereupon become vacant.

46. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, any person declared by this constitution to be incapable of sitting as a senator or as a member of the House of Representatives shall, for every day on which he so sits, be liable to pay the sum of £100 to any person who sues for it in any court of competent jurisdiction.

47. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, any question respecting the qualification of a senator or of a member of the House of Representatives, or respecting a vacancy in either House of the Parliament, and any question of a disputed election to either House, shall be determined by the House in which the question arises.

48. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, each senator and each member of the House of Representatives shall receive an allowance of £400 a year, to be reckoned from the day on which he takes his seat.

49. The powers, privileges, and immunities of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, and of the members and the committees of each House, shall be such as are declared by the Parliament, and until declared shall be those of the Commons House of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and of its members and committees, at the establishment of the Commonwealth.

50. Each House of the Parliament may make rules and orders with respect to—

But a proposed law shall not be taken to appropriate revenue or moneys, or to impose taxation, by reason only of its containing provisions for the imposition or appropriation of fines or other pecuniary penalties, or for the demand or payment or appropriation of fees for licences, or fees for services under the proposed law.

The Senate may not amend proposed laws imposing taxation, or proposed laws appropriating revenue or moneys for the ordinary annual services of the Government.

The Senate may not amend any proposed law so as to increase any proposed charge or burden on the people.

The Senate may at any stage return to the House of Representatives any proposed law which the Senate may not amend, requesting, by message, the omission or amendment of any items or provisions therein. And the House of Representatives may, if it thinks fit, make any of such omissions or amendments, with or without modifications.

55. Laws imposing taxation shall deal only with the imposition of taxation, and any provision therein dealing with any other matter shall be of no effect.

Laws imposing taxation, except laws imposing duties of customs or of excise, shall deal with one subject of taxation only ;

but laws imposing duties of customs shall deal with duties of customs only, and laws imposing duties of excise shall deal with duties of excise only.

56. A vote, resolution, or proposed law for the appropriation of revenue or moneys shall not be passed unless the purpose of the appropriation has in the same session been recommended by message of the Governor-General to the House in which the proposal originated.

57. If the House of Representatives passes any proposed law, and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it, or passes it with amendments to which the House of Representatives will not agree, and if after an interval of 3 months the House of Representatives, in the same or the next session, again passes the proposed law with or without any amendments which have been made, suggested, or agreed to by the Senate, and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it, or passes it with amendments to which the House of Representatives will not agree, the Governor-General may dissolve the Senate and the House of Representatives simultaneously. But such dissolution shall not take place within 6 months before the date of the expiry of the House of Representatives by effluxion of time.

If after such dissolution the House of Representatives again passes the proposed law, with or without any amendments which have been made, suggested, or agreed to by the Senate, and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it, or passes it with amendments to which the House of Representatives will not agree, the Governor-General may convene a joint sitting of the members of the Senate and of the House of Representatives.

The members present at the joint sitting may deliberate and shall vote together upon the proposed law as last proposed by the House of Representatives, and upon amendments, if any, which have been made therein by one House and not agreed to by the other, and any such amendments which are affirmed by an absolute majority of the total number of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives shall be taken to have been carried, and if the proposed law, with the amendments, if any, so carried is affirmed by an absolute majority of the total number of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, it shall be taken to have been duly passed by both Houses of the Parliament, and shall be presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent.

58. When a proposed law passed by both Houses of the Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to this constitution, that he assents in the Queen's name, or that he withholds assent, or that he reserves the law for the Queen's pleasure.

The Governor-General may return to the House in which it originated any proposed law so presented to him, and may transmit therewith any amendments which he may recommend, and the Houses may deal with the recommendation.

59. The Queen may disallow any law within one year from the Governor-General's assent, and such disallowance on being made known by the Governor-General by speech or message to each of the Houses of the Parliament, or by proclamation, shall annul the law from the day when the disallowance is so made known.

60. A proposed law reserved for the Queen's pleasure shall not have any force unless and until within 2 years from the day on which it was presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent the Governor-General makes known, by speech or message to each of the Houses of the Parliament, or by proclamation, that it has received the Queen's assent.

CHAPTER II.—THE EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT

61. The executive power of the Commonwealth is vested in the Queen and is exercisable by the Governor-General as the Queen's representative, and extends to the execution and maintenance of this constitution, and of the laws of the Commonwealth.

62. There shall be a Federal Executive Council to advise the Governor-General in the government of the Commonwealth, and the members of the Council shall be chosen and summoned by the Governor-General and sworn as Executive Councillors, and shall hold office during his pleasure.

63. The provisions of this constitution referring to the Governor-General in Council shall be construed as referring to the Governor-General acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council.

64. The Governor-General may appoint officers to administer such departments of State of the Commonwealth as the Governor-General in Council may establish.

Such officers shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General. They shall be members of the Federal Executive Council, and shall be the Queen's Ministers of State for the Commonwealth.

After the first general election no Minister of State shall hold office for a longer period than 3 months unless he is or becomes a senator or a member of the House of Representatives.

65. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the Ministers of State shall not exceed seven in number, and shall hold such offices as the Parliament prescribes, or, in the absence of provision, as the Governor-General directs.

66. There shall be payable to the Queen, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Commonwealth, for the salaries of the Ministers of State, an annual sum which, until the Parliament otherwise provides, shall not exceed £12,000 a year.

67. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the appointment and removal of all other officers of the Executive Government of the Commonwealth shall be vested in the Governor-General in Council, unless the appointment is delegated by the Governor-General in Council or by a law of the Commonwealth to some other authority.

68. The command in chief of the naval and military forces of the Commonwealth is vested in the Governor-General as the Queen's representative.

69. On a date or dates to be proclaimed by the Governor-General after the establishment of the Commonwealth the following departments of the public service in each State shall become transferred to the Commonwealth :—

Posts, telegraphs and telephones.

Naval and military defence.

Lighthouses, lightships, beacons and buoys.

Quarantine.

But the departments of customs and of excise in each State shall become transferred to the Commonwealth on its establishment.

70. In respect of matters which, under this constitution, pass to the Executive Government of the Commonwealth, all powers and functions which at the establishment of the Commonwealth are vested in the Governor of a Colony, or in the Governor of a Colony with the advice of his Executive Council, or in any authority of a Colony, shall vest in the Governor-General, or in the Governor-General in Council, or in the authority exercising powers under the Commonwealth, as the case requires.

CHAPTER III.—THE JUDICATURE

71. The judicial power of the Commonwealth shall be vested in a Federal Supreme Court, to be called " the High Court of Australia," and in such other federal courts as the Parliament creates, and in such other courts as it invests with federal jurisdiction. The High Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, and so many other justices, not less than two, as the Parliament prescribes.

72. The justices of the High Court and of the other courts created by the Parliament—

(i) Shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council.

(ii) Shall not be removed except by the Governor-General in Council, on an address from both Houses of the Parliament in the same session, praying for such removal on the ground of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.

(iii) Shall receive such remuneration as the Parliament may fix; but the remuneration shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

73. The High Court shall have jurisdiction, with such exceptions and subject to such regulations as the Parliament prescribes, to hear and determine appeals from all judgments, decrees, orders, and sentences—

(i) Of any justice or justices exercising the original jurisdiction of the High Court ;

(ii) Of any other federal court, or court exercising federal jurisdiction ; or of the Supreme Court of any State, or of any other court of any State from which at the establishment of the Commonwealth an appeal lies to the Queen in Council ;

(iii) Of the Inter-State Commission, but as to questions of law only ;

and the judgment of the High Court in all such cases shall be final and conclusive.

But no exception or regulation prescribed by the Parliament shall prevent the High Court from hearing and determining any appeal from the Supreme Court of a State in any matter in which at the establishment of the Commonwealth an appeal lies from such Supreme Court to the Queen in Council.

Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the conditions of and restrictions on appeals to the Queen in Council from the Supreme Courts of the several States shall be applicable to appeals from them to the High Court.

74. No appeal shall be permitted to the Queen in Council from a decision of the High Court upon any question, howsoever arising, as to the limits inter se of the constitutional powers of the Commonwealth and those of any State or States, or as to the limits inter se of the constitutional powers of any two or more States, unless the High Court shall certify that the question is one which ought to be determined by Her Majesty in Council.

The High Court may so certify if satisfied that for any special reason the certificate should be granted, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to Her Majesty in Council on the question without further leave.

Except as provided in this section, this constitution shall not impair any right which the Queen may be pleased to exercise by virtue of her royal prerogative to grant special leave of appeal from the High Court to Her Majesty in Council. The Parliament may make laws limiting the matters in which such leave may be asked, but proposed laws containing any such limitation shall be reserved by the Governor-General for Her Majesty's pleasure.

75. In all matters—

(i) Arising under any treaty ;

(ii) Affecting consuls or other representatives of other countries ;

(iii) In which the Commonwealth, or a person suing or being sued on behalf of the Commonwealth, is a party ;

(iv) Between States, or between residents of different States, or between a State and a resident of another State ;

(v) In which a writ of mandamus or prohibition or an injunction is sought against an officer of the Commonwealth ;
the High Court shall have original jurisdiction.

76. The Parliament may make laws conferring original jurisdiction on the High Court in any matter—

(i) Arising under this constitution, or involving its interpretation.

(ii) Arising under any laws made by the Parliament.

(iii) Of Admiralty and maritime jurisdiction.

(iv) Relating to the same subject-matter claimed under the laws of different States.

77. With respect to any of the matters mentioned in the last two sections the Parliament may make laws—

(i) Defining the jurisdiction of any federal court other than the High Court.

(ii) Defining the extent to which the jurisdiction of any federal court shall be exclusive of that which belongs to or is invested in the courts of the States.

(iii) Investing any court of a State with federal jurisdiction.

78. The Parliament may make laws conferring rights to proceed against the Commonwealth or a State in respect of matters within the limits of the judicial power.

79. The federal jurisdiction of any court may be exercised by such number of judges as the Parliament prescribes.

80. The trial on indictment of any offence against any law of the Commonwealth shall be by jury, and every such trial shall be held in the State where the offence was committed, and if the offence was not committed within any State the trial shall be held at such place or places as the Parliament prescribes.

CHAPTER IV.—FINANCE AND TRADE

81. All revenues or moneys raised or received by the Executive Government of the Commonwealth shall form one Consolidated Revenue Fund, to be appropriated for the purposes of the Commonwealth in the manner and subject to the charges and liabilities imposed by this constitution.

82. The costs, charges, and expenses incident to the collection, management, and receipt of the Consolidated Revenue Fund shall form the first charge thereon ; and the revenue of the Commonwealth shall in the first instance be applied to the payment of the expenditure of the Commonwealth.

83. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury of the Commonwealth except under appropriation made by law.

But until the expiration of one month after the first meeting of the Parliament the Governor-General in Council may draw from the Treasury and expend such moneys as may be necessary for the maintenance of any department transferred to the Commonwealth and for the holding of the first elections for the Parliament.

84. When any department of the public service of a State becomes transferred to the Commonwealth, all officers of the department shall become subject to the control of the Executive Government of the Commonwealth.

Any such officer who is not retained in the service of the Commonwealth shall, unless he is appointed to some other office of equal emolument in the public service of the State, be entitled to receive from the State any pension, gratuity, or other compensation, payable under the law of the State on the abolition of his office.

Any such officer who is retained in the service of the Commonwealth shall preserve all his existing and accruing rights, and shall be entitled to retire from office at the time, and on the pension or retiring allowance, which would be permitted by the law of the State if his service with the Commonwealth were a continuation of his service with the State. Such pension or retiring allowance shall be paid to him by the Commonwealth; but the State shall pay to the Commonwealth a part thereof, to be calculated on the proportion which his term of service with the State bears to his whole term of service, and for the purpose of the calculation his salary shall be taken to be that paid to him by the State at the time of the transfer.

Any officer who is, at the establishment of the Commonwealth, in the public service of a State, and who is, by consent of the Governor of the State with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, transferred to the public service of the Commonwealth, shall have the same rights as if he had been an officer of a department transferred to the Commonwealth and were retained in the service of the Commonwealth.

85. When any department of the public service of a State is transferred to the Commonwealth—

(i) All property of the State of any kind, used exclusively in connexion with the department, shall become vested in the Commonwealth; but, in the case of the departments controlling customs and excise and bounties, for such time only as the Governor-General in Council may declare to be necessary.

(ii) The Commonwealth may acquire any property of the State of any kind used, but not exclusively used, in connexion with the department; the value thereof shall, if no agreement can be made, be ascertained in, as nearly as may be, the manner in which the value of the land, or of an interest in land, taken by the State for public purposes is ascertained under the law of the State in force at the establishment of the Commonwealth.

(iii) The Commonwealth shall compensate the State for the value of any property passing to the Commonwealth under this section ; if no agreement can be made as to the mode of compensation, it shall be determined under laws to be made by the Parliament.

(iv) The Commonwealth shall, at the date of the transfer, assume the current obligations of the State in respect of the department transferred.

86. On the establishment of the Commonwealth, the collection and control of duties of customs and of excise, and the control of the payment of bounties, shall pass to the Executive Government of the Commonwealth.

87. During a period of 10 years after the establishment of the Commonwealth and thereafter until the Parliament otherwise provides, of the net revenue of the Commonwealth from duties of customs and of excise not more than one-fourth shall be applied annually by the Commonwealth towards its expenditure.

The balance shall, in accordance with this constitution, be paid to the several States, or applied towards the payment of interest on debts of the several States taken over by the Commonwealth.

88. Uniform duties of customs shall be imposed within 2 years after the establishment of the Commonwealth.

89. Until the imposition of uniform duties of customs—

(i) The Commonwealth shall credit to each State the revenues collected therein by the Commonwealth.

(ii) The Commonwealth shall debit to each State—

(a) The expenditure therein of the Commonwealth incurred solely for the maintenance or continuance, as at the time of transfer, of any department transferred from the State to the Commonwealth.

(b) The proportion of the State, according to the number of its people, in the other expenditure of the Commonwealth.

(iii) The Commonwealth shall pay to each State month by month the balance (if any) in favour of the State.

90. On the imposition of uniform duties of customs the power of the Parliament to impose duties of customs and of excise, and to grant bounties on the production or export of goods, shall become exclusive.

On the imposition of uniform duties of customs all laws of the several States imposing duties of customs or of excise, or offering bounties on the production or export of goods, shall cease to have effect, but any grant of or agreement for any such bounty lawfully made by or under the authority of the Government of any State shall be taken to be good if made before the 30th day of June, 1898, and not otherwise.

91. Nothing in this constitution prohibits a State from granting any aid to or bounty on mining for gold, silver, or other metals, nor from granting, with the consent of both Houses of the Parliament of the Commonwealth expressed by resolution, any aid to or bounty on the production or export of goods.

92. On the imposition of uniform duties of customs, trade, commerce, and intercourse among the States, whether by means of internal carriage or ocean navigation, shall be absolutely free.

But notwithstanding anything in this constitution, goods imported before the imposition of uniform duties of customs into any State, or into any Colony which, whilst the goods remain therein, becomes a State, shall, on thence passing into another State within 2 years after the imposition of such duties, be liable to any duty chargeable on the importation of such goods into the Commonwealth, less any duty paid in respect of the goods on their importation.

93. During the first 5 years after the imposition of uniform duties of customs, and thereafter until the Parliament otherwise provides—

(i) The duties of customs chargeable on goods imported into a State and afterwards passing into another State for consumption, and the duties of excise paid on goods produced or manufactured in a State and afterwards passing into another State for consumption, shall be taken to have been collected not in the former but in the latter State.

(ii) Subject to the last sub-section, the Commonwealth shall credit revenue, debit expenditure, and pay balances to the several States as prescribed for the period preceding the imposition of uniform duties of customs.

94. After 5 years from the imposition of uniform duties of customs, the Parliament may provide, on such basis as it deems fair, for the monthly payment to the several States of all surplus revenue of the Commonwealth.

95. Notwithstanding anything in this constitution, the Parliament of the State of Western Australia, if that State be an original State, may, during the first 5 years after the imposition of uniform duties of customs, impose duties of customs on goods passing into that State and not originally imported from beyond the limits of the Commonwealth; and such duties shall be collected by the Commonwealth.

But any duty so imposed on any goods shall not exceed during the first of such years the duty chargeable on the goods under the law of Western Australia in force at the imposition of uniform duties, and shall not exceed during the second, third, fourth and fifth of such years respectively, four-fifths, three-fifths, two-fifths, and one-fifth of such latter duty, and all duties imposed under this section shall cease at the expiration of the fifth year after the imposition of uniform duties.

If at any time during the 5 years the duty on any goods under this section is higher than the duty imposed by the Commonwealth on the importation of the like goods, then such higher duty shall be collected on the goods when imported into Western Australia from beyond the limits of the Commonwealth.

96. During a period of 10 years after the establishment of the Commonwealth and thereafter until the Parliament otherwise provides, the Parliament may grant financial assistance to any State on such terms and conditions as the Parliament thinks fit.

97. Until the Parliament otherwise provides, the laws in force in any Colony which has become or becomes a State with respect to the receipt of revenue and the expenditure of money on account of the Government of the Colony, and the review and audit of such receipt and expenditure, shall apply to the receipt of revenue and the expenditure of money on account of the Commonwealth in the State in the same manner as if the Commonwealth, or the Government or an officer of the Commonwealth, were mentioned whenever the Colony, or the Government or an officer of the Colony, is mentioned.

98. The power of the Parliament to make laws with respect to trade and commerce extends to navigation and shipping, and to railways the property of any State.

99. The Commonwealth shall not, by any law or regulation of trade, commerce, or revenue, give preference to one State or any part thereof over another State or any part thereof.

100. The Commonwealth shall not, by any law or regulation of trade or commerce, abridge the right of a State or of the residents therein to the reasonable use of the waters of rivers for conservation or irrigation.

101. There shall be an Inter-State Commission, with such powers of adjudication and administration as the Parliament deems necessary for the execution and maintenance, within the Commonwealth, of the provisions of this constitution relating to trade and commerce, and of all laws made thereunder.

102. The Parliament may by any law with respect to trade or commerce forbid, as to railways, any preference or discrimination by any State, or by any authority constituted under a State, if such preference or discrimination is undue and unreasonable, or unjust to any State; due regard being had to the financial responsibilities incurred by any State in connexion with the construction and maintenance of its railways. But no preference or discrimination shall, within the meaning of this section, be taken to be undue and unreasonable, or unjust to any State, unless so adjudged by the Inter-State Commission.

103. The members of the Inter-State Commission—

- (i) Shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council.
- (ii) Shall hold office for 7 years, but may be removed within that time by the Governor-General in Council, on an address from both Houses of the Parliament in the same session praying for such removal on the ground of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.
- (iii) Shall receive such remuneration as the Parliament may fix ; but such remuneration shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

104. Nothing in this constitution shall render unlawful any rate for the carriage of goods upon a railway, the property of a State, if the rate is deemed by the Inter-State Commission to be necessary for the development of the territory of the State, and if the rate applies equally to goods within the State and to goods passing into the State from other States.

105. The Parliament may take over from the States their public debts, or a proportion thereof according to the respective numbers of their people as shown by the latest statistics of the Commonwealth, and may convert, renew, or consolidate such debts, or any part thereof ; and the States shall indemnify the Commonwealth in respect of the debts taken over, and thereafter the interest payable in respect of the debts shall be deducted and retained from the portions of the surplus revenue of the Commonwealth payable to the several States, or if such surplus is insufficient, or if there is no surplus, then the deficiency or the whole amount shall be paid by the several States.

105A.—(1.) The Commonwealth may make agreements with the States with respect to the public debts of the States, including—

- (a) the taking over of such debts by the Commonwealth ;
- (b) the management of such debts ;
- (c) the payment of interest and the provision and management of sinking funds in respect of such debts ;
- (d) the consolidation, renewal, conversion, and redemption of such debts ;
- (e) the indemnification of the Commonwealth by the States in respect of debts taken over by the Commonwealth ; and
- (f) the borrowing of money by the States or by the Commonwealth, or by the Commonwealth for the States.

(2.) The Parliament may make laws for validating any such agreement made before the commencement of this section.

(3.) The Parliament may make laws for the carrying out by the parties thereto of any such agreement.

(4.) Any such agreement may be varied or rescinded by the parties thereto.

(5.) Every such agreement and any such variation thereof shall be binding upon the Commonwealth and the States parties thereto notwithstanding anything contained in this constitution or the constitution of the several States or in any law of the Parliament of the Commonwealth or of any State.

(6.) The powers conferred by this section shall not be construed as being limited in any way by the provisions of section 105 of this constitution.

CHAPTER V.—THE STATES

106. The constitution of each State of the Commonwealth shall, subject to this constitution, continue as at the establishment of the Commonwealth, or as at the admission or establishment of the State, as the case may be, until altered in accordance with the constitution of the State.

107. Every power of the Parliament of a Colony which has become or becomes a State, shall, unless it is by this constitution exclusively vested in the Parliament of the Commonwealth or withdrawn from the Parliament of the State, continue as at the establishment of the Commonwealth, or as at the admission or establishment of the State, as the case may be.

108. Every law in force in a Colony which has become or becomes a State, and relating to any matter within the powers of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, shall, subject to this constitution, continue in force in the State; and, until provision is made in that behalf by the Parliament of the Commonwealth, the Parliament of the State shall have such powers of alteration and of repeal in respect of any such law as the Parliament of the Colony had until the Colony became a State.

109. When a law of a State is inconsistent with a law of the Commonwealth, the latter shall prevail, and the former shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be invalid.

110. The provisions of this constitution relating to the Governor of a State extend and apply to the Governor for the time being of the State, or other chief executive officer or administrator of the Government of the State.

111. The Parliament of a State may surrender any part of the State to the Commonwealth; and upon such surrender, and the acceptance thereof by the Commonwealth, such part of the State shall become subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Commonwealth.

112. After uniform duties of customs have been imposed, a State may levy on imports or exports, or on goods passing into or out of the State, such charges as may be necessary for executing the inspection laws of the State; but the net produce of all charges so levied shall be for the use of the Commonwealth; and any such inspection laws may be annulled by the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

113. All fermented, distilled, or other intoxicating liquids passing into any State or remaining therein for use, consumption, sale, or storage, shall be subject to the laws of the State as if such liquids had been produced in the State.

114. A State shall not, without the consent of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, raise or maintain any naval or military force, or impose any tax on property of any kind belonging to the Commonwealth, nor shall the Commonwealth impose any tax on property of any kind belonging to a State.

115. A State shall not coin money, nor make anything but gold and silver coin a legal tender in payment of debts.

116. The Commonwealth shall not make any law for establishing any religion, or for imposing any religious observance, or for prohibiting the free exercise of any religion, and no religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office or public trust under the Commonwealth.

117. A subject of the Queen, resident in any State, shall not be subject in any other State to any disability or discrimination which would not be equally applicable to him if he were a subject of the Queen resident in such other State.

118. Full faith and credit shall be given throughout the Commonwealth to the laws, the public Acts and records, and the judicial proceedings of every State.

119. The Commonwealth shall protect every State against invasion and, on the application of the Executive Government of the State, against domestic violence.

120. Every State shall make provision for the detention in its prisons of persons accused or convicted of offences against the laws of the Commonwealth, and for the punishment of persons convicted of such offences, and the Parliament of the Commonwealth may make laws to give effect to this provision.

CHAPTER VI.—NEW STATES

121. The Parliament may admit to the Commonwealth or establish new States, and may upon such admission or establishment make or impose such terms and conditions, including the extent of representation in either House of the Parliament, as it thinks fit.

122. The Parliament may make laws for the government of any territory surrendered by any State to and accepted by the Commonwealth, or of any territory placed by the Queen under the authority of and accepted by the Commonwealth, or otherwise acquired by the Commonwealth, and may allow the representation of such territory in either House of the Parliament to the extent and on the terms which it thinks fit.

123. The Parliament of the Commonwealth may, with the consent of the Parliament of a State, and the approval of the majority of the electors of the State voting upon the question, increase, diminish, or otherwise alter the limits of the State, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed on, and may, with the like consent, make provision respecting the effect and operation of any increase or diminution or alteration of territory in relation to any State affected.

124. A new State may be formed by separation of territory from a State, but only with the consent of the Parliament thereof, and a new State may be formed by the union of two or more States or parts of States, but only with the consent of the Parliaments of the States affected.

CHAPTER VII.—MISCELLANEOUS

125. The seat of Government of the Commonwealth shall be determined by the Parliament, and shall be within territory which shall have been granted to or acquired by the Commonwealth, and shall be vested in and belong to the Commonwealth, and shall be in the State of New South Wales, and be distant not less than 100 miles from Sydney.

Such territory shall contain an area of not less than 100 square miles, and such portion thereof as shall consist of Crown lands shall be granted to the Commonwealth without any payment therefor.

The Parliament shall sit at Melbourne until it meet at the seat of Government.

126. The Queen may authorise the Governor-General to appoint any person, or any persons jointly or severally, to be his deputy or deputies within any part of the Commonwealth, and in that capacity to exercise during the pleasure of the Governor-General such powers and functions of the Governor-General as he thinks fit to assign to such deputy or deputies, subject to any limitations expressed or directions given by the Queen; but the appointment of such deputy or deputies shall not affect the exercise by the Governor-General himself of any power or function.

127. In reckoning the numbers of the people of the Commonwealth, or of a State or other part of the Commonwealth, aboriginal natives shall not be counted.

CHAPTER VIII.—ALTERATION OF THE CONSTITUTION

128. This constitution shall not be altered except in the following manner :—

The proposed law for the alteration thereof must be passed by an absolute majority of each House of the Parliament, and not less than 2 nor more than 6 months after its passage through both Houses the proposed law shall be submitted in each State to the electors qualified to vote for the election of members of the House of Representatives.

But if either House passes any such proposed law by an absolute majority, and the other House rejects or fails to pass it or passes it with any amendment to which the first-mentioned House will not agree, and if after an interval of 3 months the first-mentioned House in the same or the next session again passes the proposed law by an absolute majority with or without any amendment which has been made or agreed to by the other House, and such other House rejects or fails to pass it or passes it with any amendment to which the first-mentioned House will not agree, the Governor-General may submit the proposed law as last proposed by the first-mentioned House, and either with or without any amendments subsequently agreed to by both Houses, to the electors in each State qualified to vote for the election of the House of Representatives.

When a proposed law is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Parliament prescribes. But until the qualification of electors of members of the House of Representatives becomes uniform throughout the Commonwealth, only one-half the electors voting for and against the proposed law shall be counted in any State in which adult suffrage prevails.

And if in a majority of the States a majority of the electors voting approve the proposed law, and if a majority of all the electors voting also approve the proposed law, it shall be presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent.

No alteration diminishing the proportionate representation of any State in either House of the Parliament, or the minimum number of representatives of a State in the House of Representatives, or increasing, diminishing, or otherwise altering the limits of the State, or in any manner affecting the provision of the constitution in relation thereto, shall become law unless the majority of the electors voting in that State approve the proposed law.

3. The Governor-General may constitute and appoint, in our name and on our behalf, all such judges, commissioners, justices of the peace, and other necessary officers and Ministers of our said Commonwealth, as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by us.

4. The Governor-General, so far as we ourselves lawfully may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, may remove from his office, or suspend from the exercise of the same, any person exercising any office of our said Commonwealth, under or by virtue of any commission or warrant granted, or which may be granted, by us in our name or under our authority.

No such powers or authorities shall vest in such Lieutenant-Governor, or such other person or persons, until he or they shall have taken the oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor-General of our said Commonwealth, and in the manner provided by the Instructions⁽¹⁾ accompanying these our Letters Patent, or any other Instructions amending the same.

Now, therefore, we do, by these our Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet, declare our pleasure to be as follows :—

2. Our said Governor-General of our said Commonwealth shall take the oath of allegiance in the form provided by an Act passed in the session holden in the 31st and 32nd years of our reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths⁽¹⁾;" and likewise the usual oath for the due execution of the office of our Governor-General in and over our said Commonwealth, and for the due and impartial administration of justice; which oaths our said Governor and Commander-in-Chief of our Colony of New South Wales, or, in his absence, our Lieutenant-Governor or other officer administering the Government of our said Colony, shall and he is hereby required to tender and administer unto him.

4. Every Governor-General, and every other officer appointed to administer the Government of our said Commonwealth after our said first appointed Governor-General, shall take the oath of allegiance in the form provided by an Act passed in the session holden in the 31st and 32nd years of our reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths ;" and likewise the usual oath for the due execution of the office of our Governor-General in and over our said Commonwealth, and for the due and impartial administration of justice ; which oaths the Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, or some other judge of the said court or the Chief Justice or some other judge of the Supreme Court of any of the States of our said Commonwealth, shall and he is hereby required to tender and administer unto him or them.

5. And we do authorise and require our said Governor-General from time to time, by himself or by any other person to be authorised by him in that behalf, to administer to all and to every persons or person, as he shall think fit, who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit in our said Commonwealth, the said oath of allegiance, together with such other oath or oaths as may from time to time be prescribed by any laws or statutes in that behalf made and provided.

6. And we do require our said Governor-General to communicate forthwith to the members of the Executive Council for our said Commonwealth these our Instructions, and likewise all such others, from time to time, as he shall find convenient for our service to be imparted to them.

7. Our said Governor-General is to take care that all laws assented to by him in our name, or reserved for the signification of our pleasure thereon, shall, when transmitted by him, be fairly abstracted in the margins, and be accompanied, in such cases as may seem to him necessary, with such explanatory observations as may be required to exhibit the reasons and occasions for proposing such laws ; and he shall also transmit fair copies of the journals and minutes of the proceedings of the Parliament of our said Commonwealth, which he is to require from the clerks, or other proper officers in that behalf, of the said Parliament.

8. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor-General, as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf when any crime or offence against the laws of our Commonwealth has been committed for which the offender may be tried within our said Commonwealth, to grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime or offence who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders, if more than one ; and further, to grant to any offender convicted of any such crime or offence in any court, or before any judge, justice, or magistrate, within our said Commonwealth, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender, for such period as to our said Governor-General may seem fit, and to remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may become due and payable to us. Provided always, that our said Governor-General shall not in any case, except where the offence has been of a political nature, make it a condition of any pardon or remission of sentence that the offender shall be banished from or shall absent himself from our said Commonwealth. And we do hereby direct and enjoin that our said Governor-General shall not pardon or reprove any such offender without first receiving in capital cases the advice of the Executive Council for our said Commonwealth, and in other cases the advice of one, at least, of his Ministers ; and in any case in which such pardon or reprove might directly affect the interests of our Empire, or of any country or place beyond the jurisdiction of the Government of our said Commonwealth, our said Governor-General shall, before deciding as to either pardon or reprove, take those interests specially into his own personal consideration in conjunction with such advice as aforesaid.

9. Except for the purpose of visiting our Territory of Papua, or any other territory now or hereafter placed under the administration of the Government of our said Commonwealth, the Governor-General shall not, upon any pretence whatever, quit our said Commonwealth without having first obtained leave from us for so doing under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

STATES OF AUSTRALIA

According to the Official Year Book of New South Wales, 1928-9 (page 32), the constitution of that State is not framed completely in "The State Constitution Act" of 1902⁽¹⁾ and is not entirely written, but is drawn from seven diverse sources, viz. : certain Imperial statutes ; the Letters Patent, and Instructions to the Governor ; an element of inherited English law ; some Federal statutes ; sundry State statutes ; numerous legal decisions ; and a large element of English and local convention. The general position in regard to the other States of the Commonwealth is somewhat similar, but their constitutions are not identical. Letters Patent and Instructions have, however, been issued for each State, corresponding in large measure with the subjoined documents for New South Wales.

One of the principal differences between the constitutions of the various States is in respect of the Upper House of Parliament or Legislative Council. In New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Western Australia and Tasmania the Legislative Council is elective, though the details of the elective basis vary, while in Queensland there is no Upper House.

3. We do also by these our Letters Patent declare our will and pleasure as follows:—

4. [Identical, mutatis mutandis, with clause 3 of the Letters Patent in respect of New Zealand: see page 128.]

5. “I, A.B., do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria. So help me God.”

47. Every person authorised by law to make his solemn affirmation or declaration instead of taking an oath may make such affirmation or declaration in lieu of the said oath.

48-52. [Repealed.]

53. It shall be competent to the said General Assembly (except and subject as hereinafter mentioned) to make laws for the peace, order and good government of New Zealand, provided that no such laws be repugnant to the law of England ; and the laws so to be made by the said General Assembly shall control and supersede any laws or ordinances in any wise repugnant thereto which may have been made or ordained prior thereto by any Provincial Council ; and any law or ordinance made or ordained by any Provincial Council in pursuance of the authority hereby conferred upon it, and on any subject whereon under such authority as aforesaid it is entitled to legislate, shall, so far as the same is repugnant to or inconsistent with any Act passed by the General Assembly, be null and void.

54. It shall not be lawful for the House of Representatives or the Legislative Council to pass, or for the Governor to assent to, any bill appropriating to the public service any sum of money from or out of Her Majesty's revenue within New Zealand, unless the Governor on Her Majesty's behalf shall first have recommended to the House of Representatives to make provision for the specific public service towards which such money is to be appropriated, and (save as herein otherwise provided) no part of Her Majesty's revenue within New Zealand shall be issued except in pursuance of warrants under the hand of the Governor directed to the Public Treasurer thereof.

PART I.—Powers of the Council and House respectively

5. Proposed laws appropriating revenue or moneys or imposing taxation shall not originate in the Council. But a proposed law shall not be taken to appropriate revenue or moneys, or to impose taxation, by reason only of its containing provisions for the imposition or appropriation of fines or other pecuniary penalties, or for the demand or payment or appropriation of fees for licences, or fees for services under the proposed law. The Council may not amend proposed laws imposing taxation or proposed laws appropriating revenue or moneys for the ordinary annual services of the Government. The Council may not amend any proposed law so as to increase any proposed charge or burden on the people. The Council may at any stage return to the House any proposed law which the Council may not amend, requesting, by message, the omission or amendment of any items or provisions therein; and the House may, if it thinks fit, make any such omission or amendment, with or without modifications.

6. (1) If a money bill, having been passed by the House, and sent up to the Council at least one month before the end of the session, is not passed by the Council without amendment within one month after it is so sent up to the Council, the bill shall, unless the House directs to the contrary, be presented to the Governor and become an Act of Parliament on the Governor's assent being signified, notwithstanding that the Council has not consented to the bill.

(2) A money bill means a public bill which, in the opinion of the Speaker of the House, contains only provisions dealing with all or any of the following subjects—namely, the imposition, repeal, remission, alteration, or regulation of taxation; the imposition for the payment of debt or other financial purposes of charges on the Consolidated Fund, or on money provided by Parliament, or the variation or repeal of any such charges; supply; the appropriation, receipt, custody, issue or audit of accounts of public money; the raising or guarantee of any loan or the repayment thereof; or subordinate matters incidental to those subjects or any of them.

(3) There shall be endorsed on every money bill when it is sent up to the Council, and when it is presented to the Governor for assent, the certificate of the Speaker of the House, signed by him, that it is a money bill.

(4) Any certificate of the Speaker of the House given under this section shall be conclusive for all purposes, and shall not be questioned in any court of law.

(5) In every bill presented to the Governor under the preceding provisions of this section the words of enactment shall be as follows, that is to say:—

“Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the House of Representatives of New Zealand in this present Parliament assembled, in accordance with the provisions of “The Legislative Council Act, 1914,” and by the authority of the same, as follows.”

(6) Any alteration of a bill necessary to give effect to the last preceding sub-section shall not be deemed to be an amendment of the bill.

7. (1) If the House passes any public bill, other than a money bill, which is sent up to the Council at least one month before the end of the session and the Council rejects or fails to pass it, or passes it with amendments to which the House will not agree, and if the House in the next session again passes the bill, with or without any amendments which have been made or agreed to by the Council, and the Council rejects or fails to pass it within one month after it is sent up to the Council, or passes it with amendments to which the House will not agree, the Governor may during that session convene a joint sitting of the members of the two Houses of Parliament.

(2) The members present at such joint sitting may deliberate and shall vote together upon the bill as last proposed by the House.

(3) If the bill as last proposed by the House is affirmed by the vote of a majority of the total number of members of both Houses of Parliament present at such joint sitting at the time when such vote is taken, it shall be deemed to have been duly passed by both Houses of Parliament.

(4) If the bill as last proposed by the House is not affirmed by the vote of a majority of the total number of members of both Houses of Parliament present at such joint sitting at the time when such vote is taken, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, dissolve both the Council and the House simultaneously :

Provided that the Governor shall not so dissolve the Council and the House simultaneously within the last 6 months of the period of 3 years referred to in sub-section (2) of section 13 of the principal Act⁽¹⁾.

8. In this Part of this Act the expressions "revenue," "moneys," "taxation," "public money," and "loan" respectively do not include the revenues or moneys of, or taxation to be levied by, or loans to be raised by, a local authority.

9. Except as provided in this part of this Act, the Council shall have equal power with the House in respect of all proposed laws.

PART II.—Constitution of the Council, and Electoral Divisions

10. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, members of the Council shall after the commencement of this Act be elected and not appointed.

(2) The members of the Council so to be elected shall be elected in every electoral division hereinafter mentioned by the votes of those of the inhabitants of New Zealand who are entitled to vote at an election of a member of the House of Representatives in any electoral district within the electoral division.

11. Except as provided by this section, every elected member of the Council (other than a member elected by the Council to fill a vacancy as provided by section 20 hereof) shall continue to hold his seat until the dissolution or expiry of the Parliament which takes place next after the expiration of 5 years from the date of his election, and no longer :

Provided that if the Governor under the powers conferred on him by section 7 hereof dissolves both the Council and the House simultaneously the seat of every elected member of the Council shall be vacated by and at the date of the proclamation of such dissolution.

12. The first election of members to the Council shall take place simultaneously with the first election of members of the House held after the commencement of this Act, and, except as provided by this section, the next and every succeeding election of members of the Council shall take place simultaneously with the election of members of the House held next after the expiration of 5 years from the last preceding election of members of the Council :

Provided that if the Governor under the powers conferred on him by section 7 hereof dissolves both the Council and the House simultaneously an election of members of the Council shall be held simultaneously with the election of members of the House held consequent upon such dissolution.

13. (1) For the purpose of the election of members of the Council as aforesaid, New Zealand is hereby divided into four electoral divisions, to be known respectively as "The First Electoral Division," "the Second Electoral Division," "the Third Electoral Division" and "the Fourth Electoral Division."

(2) The said electoral divisions shall, until altered by the Representation Commissions as provided by this Act, be such as shall be defined by Order in Council published in the Gazette.

(3) Such definition of the electoral divisions shall be determined in accordance with the rules specified in section 16 hereof, the words "the Governor-General in Council" being for this purpose substituted for the words "the Commissions."

14. (1) At the first election of members of the Council pursuant to this Act there shall be elected 7 members for the First Electoral Division, 7 for the Second Electoral Division, 5 for the Third Electoral Division and 5 for the Fourth Electoral Division.

(2) At every election after the first election there shall be elected 40 members from the four electoral divisions in the numbers ascertained in the manner hereinafter provided. Until the Representation Commissions alter the boundaries of the electoral divisions the numbers to be elected at the second and subsequent elections shall be 11 from each of the First and Second Electoral Divisions, and 9 from each of the Third and Fourth Electoral Divisions.

15. Whenever after the commencement of this Act the Representation Commissions divide New Zealand into electoral districts as provided by section 22 of the principal Act—

(a) The number of the European population in each island being ascertained by the last preceding census, the number 40 shall be divided into such two even numbers as most nearly represent the proportion which the number of the population in one island bears to the number of the population in the other island.

(b) The Governor shall cause such division of the number 40 to be made in such manner as he thinks fit, and shall cause notice of the result to be gazetted.

(c) The total number of members to be elected to the Council for both islands being 40, the total number to be elected from each island shall be ascertained by the notice so gazetted.

16. The Representation Commissions for each island, sitting together as a Joint Commission, shall, immediately after the gazetting of the proclamations determining the boundaries of the electoral districts, proceed to determine the boundaries of the electoral divisions in each island, and the number of members to be elected by each electoral division, according to the following rules:—

(a) There shall be in each island two electoral divisions.

(b) The boundary between the First and Second and between the Third and Fourth Electoral Divisions respectively shall be one continuous line from sea to sea, consisting of the boundary or boundaries of one or more electoral districts, so that every electoral district shall be entirely within an electoral division.

(c) The First Electoral Division shall be the northern part of the North Island, the Second Electoral Division shall be the southern part of the North Island, the Third Electoral Division shall be the northern part of the South Island, and the Fourth Electoral Division shall be the southern part of the South Island.

(d) The boundaries shall be such as in the opinion of the Commissions provide with the nearest approximation that the population of the First Electoral Division shall be the same as the population of the Second Electoral Division, and that the population of the Third Electoral Division shall be the same as the population of the Fourth Electoral Division.

17. The Representation Commissions as a Joint Commission shall report to the Governor the boundaries of the electoral divisions fixed by them, and also the number of members ascertained and determined by them to be elected by each electoral division; and the Governor shall cause such report to be published in the Gazette, and such report shall have the force of law as from the date of such publication for the purposes of the election of members of the Council to be held next after such date.

18. (1) Any person who under the provisions of the principal Act may be elected a member of the House, but no other, may be elected a member of the Council, except that a member of the House shall not be elected a member of the Council.

(2) When and so soon as women are eligible for election as members of the House they shall also be eligible for nomination and election as members of the Council, and also to be chosen members under section 20 hereof.

(3) If any person is elected both for the Council and the House, or is elected a member of either House of Parliament while he is a member of the other, his seat in each such House of Parliament shall be vacated.

19. If at any election under this Act the number of candidates for any electoral division does not equal the number to be elected for that division, the Council shall, within 21 days from the day when it is next in session after such election, choose by ballot of all the members of the Council then present such number of persons qualified to be elected members of the Council as provided by section 18 hereof as will, with the candidates elected, make up the number required, and such persons so chosen by the Council shall be and continue members of the Council for the same period as the candidates who were declared elected at such election after nomination.

20. If the seat of any elected member of the Council becomes vacant during the term for which such member was elected, the Council shall, within 21 days from the day when it is next in session after the occurrence of such vacancy, choose by ballot of all the members of the Council then present a person, not being a member of either House of Parliament, to fill such vacancy. A member so chosen shall retain his seat for as long as the member whose seat became vacant would have retained it if such vacancy had not occurred.

21. (1) The Governor may from time to time, in His Majesty's name, by instrument under the Public Seal of New Zealand, summon to the Council male persons of the Maori race, not being persons disqualified pursuant to section 2 of the principal Act from holding seats in or of sitting or voting as members of the Council. The number of members holding office pursuant to this section shall not at any time exceed 3.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section 3 of the principal Act, every person appointed a member of the Council under this section shall hold his seat therein for 6 years, to be reckoned from the date of the instrument of his appointment, and no longer; but every such person may from time to time be reappointed.

22. (1) Every member of the Council who at the commencement of this Act holds an appointment for life shall continue to be a member of the Council, notwithstanding the passing of this Act, so long as he is qualified pursuant to the provisions of the principal Act.

(2) Every member of the Council who at the commencement of this Act holds an appointment for a term of years shall continue to be a member of the Council until the expiration of the term for which he was so appointed, notwithstanding the passing of this Act, so long as he is qualified pursuant to the provisions of the principal Act.

comprising the territories, islands and countries forming the Colony of New Zealand as defined in the above-recited Act, passed in the session holden in the 26th and 27th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act to alter the Boundaries of New Zealand," together with the further islands and territories included within the boundaries of the Colony of New Zealand by the above-recited proclamations of the Governor thereof, dated respectively the 21st day of July, 1887, and the 10th day of June, 1901; and that appointments to the said office when vacant shall be made by Commission under our Sign Manual and Signet.

2. We do hereby authorise, empower, and command our said Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "the Governor-General") to do and execute all things that belong to his said office, according to the tenor of these our Letters Patent and of such Commission as may be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by our Order in our Privy Council, or by us, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and to such laws as are now or shall hereafter be in force in the Dominion.

3. Every person appointed to fill the office of Governor-General shall, with all due solemnity, before entering on any of the duties of his office, cause the Commission appointing him to be Governor-General to be read and published at the seat of Government, in the presence of the Chief Justice, or some other judge of the Supreme Court of the Dominion, and of the members of the Executive Council thereof, which being done, he shall then and there take before them the oath of allegiance, in the form provided by an Act passed in the session holden in the 31st and 32nd years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths";⁽¹⁾ and likewise the usual oath for the due execution of the office of Governor-General and for the due and impartial administration of justice; which oaths the said Chief Justice or judge is hereby required to administer.

7. The Governor-General may constitute and appoint, in our name and on our behalf, all such judges, commissioners, justices of the peace and other necessary officers and Ministers of the Dominion as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by us.

8. When any crime has been committed within the Dominion or for which the offender may be tried therein, the Governor-General may as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf, grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders if more than one; and further, may grant to any offender convicted in any court, or before any judge, or other magistrate, within the Dominion, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence for such period as the Governor-General thinks fit; and further may remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures due or accrued to us. Provided always that the Governor-General shall in no case, except where the offence has been of a political nature unaccompanied by any other grave crime, make it a condition of any pardon or remission of sentence that the offender shall absent himself or be removed from the Dominion.

9. The Governor-General may, so far as we ourselves lawfully may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, remove from his office, or suspend from the exercise of the same, any person exercising any office or place within the Dominion under or by virtue of any commission or warrant granted, or which may be granted, by us, in our name, or under our authority.

10. The Governor-General may exercise all powers lawfully belonging to us in respect of the summoning, proroguing, or dissolving any legislative body, which now is or hereafter may be established within the Dominion, and in respect of the appointment of members thereto.

11. In the event of the death, incapacity, or removal of the Governor-General, or of his departure from the Dominion, our Lieutenant-Governor, or, if there be no such officer in the Dominion, then such person or persons as we may appoint under our Sign Manual and Signet, shall, during our pleasure, administer the Government of the Dominion, first taking the oaths hereinbefore directed to be taken by the Governor-General, and in the manner herein prescribed; which being done, we do hereby authorise, empower, and command our Lieutenant-Governor, and every other such administrator as aforesaid, to do and execute during our pleasure all things that belong to the office of Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief according to the tenor of these our Letters Patent, and according to our Instructions as aforesaid, and the laws of the Dominion.

12. In the event of the Governor-General having occasion to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government or from the Dominion, he may in every such case, by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Dominion, constitute and appoint our Lieutenant-Governor, or if there be no such officer, then any other person to be his deputy during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform, and execute for and on behalf of the Governor-General during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in the Governor-General by these our Letters Patent, as shall in and by such instrument be specified and limited, but no others. Provided, nevertheless, that, by the appointment of a deputy as aforesaid, the power and authority of the Governor-General shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected, otherwise than we may at any time hereafter think proper to direct.

In witness whereof we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent. Witness ourself at Westminster, the 11th day of May in the 8th year of our reign.

By warrant under the King's Sign Manual.

6. Royal Instructions, 1917.

Whereas by certain Letters Patent⁽¹⁾ bearing even date herewith we have constituted, ordered, and declared that there shall be a Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief (therein and hereinafter called "the Governor-General") in and over our Dominion of New Zealand (therein and hereinafter called "the Dominion"):

And whereas we have thereby authorised and commanded the Governor-General to do and execute all things that belong to his said office, according to the tenor of our said Letters Patent, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet or by our Order in our Privy Council or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and to such laws as are now or shall hereafter be in force in the Dominion :

Now know you that we do by these our Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet direct and enjoin and declare our will and pleasure as follows :—

1. In these our Instructions, unless inconsistent with the context, the term "the Governor-General" shall include every person for the time being administering the Government of the Dominion, and the term "the Executive Council" shall mean the members of the Executive Council for the Dominion who are for the time being the responsible advisers of the Governor-General.
2. The Governor-General may, whenever he thinks fit, require any person in the public service to take the oath of allegiance, together with such other oath or oaths as may from time to time be prescribed by any law in force in the Dominion. The Governor-General is to administer such oaths or cause them to be administered by some public officer of the Dominion.
3. The Governor-General shall forthwith communicate these our Instructions to the Executive Council, and likewise all such others, from time to time, as he shall find convenient for our service to impart to them.
4. The Executive Council shall not proceed to the despatch of business unless two members at the least (exclusive of the Governor-General or of the member presiding) be present and assisting throughout the whole of the meetings at which any such business shall be despatched.
5. In the execution of the powers and authorities vested in him, the Governor-General shall be guided by the advice of the Executive Council, but if in any case he shall see sufficient cause to dissent from the opinion of the said Council, he may act in the exercise of his said powers and authorities in opposition to the opinion of the Council, reporting the matter to us without delay, with the reasons for his so acting.

In any such case it shall be competent to any member of the said Council to require that there be recorded upon the minutes of the Council the grounds of any advice or opinion that he may give upon the question.

6. The Governor-General is to take care that all laws assented to by him in our name, or reserved for the signification of our pleasure thereon, shall, when transmitted by him, be fairly abstracted in the margins, and be accompanied, in such cases as may seem to him necessary, with such explanatory observations as may be required to exhibit the reasons and occasions for proposing such laws; and he shall also transmit fair copies of the journals and minutes of the proceedings of the Parliament of the Dominion which he is to require from the clerks, or other proper officers in that behalf, of the said Parliament.

7. The Governor-General shall not pardon or reprove any offender without first receiving in capital cases the advice of the Executive Council, and in other cases the advice of one, at least, of his Ministers; and in any case in which such pardon or reprove might directly affect the interests of our Empire, or of any country or place beyond the jurisdiction of the Government of the Dominion, the Governor-General shall, before deciding as to either pardon or reprove, take those interests specially into his own personal consideration in conjunction with such advice as aforesaid.

8. All commissions granted by the Governor-General to any persons to be judges, justices of the peace, or other officers, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be granted during pleasure only.

9. The Governor-General shall not quit the Dominion without having first obtained leave from us for so doing under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, except for the purpose of visiting the Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, or the Governor of any neighbouring colony or State for periods not exceeding one month at any one time, nor exceeding in the aggregate one month for every year's service in the Dominion.

10. The temporary absence of the Governor-General for any period not exceeding one month shall not, if he have previously informed the Executive Council, in writing, of his intended absence, and if he have duly appointed a deputy in accordance with our said Letters Patent, nor shall any extension of such period sanctioned by one of our Principal Secretaries of State and not exceeding 14 days, be deemed a departure from the Dominion within the meaning of our said Letters Patent.

11. From and after the date of the coming into operation of our above-recited Letters Patent of even date, the Instructions issued to the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand under the Sign Manual and Signet of His late Majesty King Edward VII, bearing date the 18th day of November, 1907, shall, without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, be revoked.

Given at our Court at Saint James's this 11th day of May, 1917, in the 8th year of our reign.

Whereas, by the aforementioned article 22, paragraph 8, it is provided that the degree of authority, control or administration to be exercised by the mandatory, not having been previously agreed upon by the members of the League, shall be explicitly defined by the Council of the League of Nations :

The supply of intoxicating spirits and beverages to the natives shall be prohibited.

4. The military training of the natives, otherwise than for purposes of internal police and the local defence of the territory, shall be prohibited. Furthermore, no military or naval bases shall be established or fortifications erected in the territory.

5. Subject to the provisions of any local law for the maintenance of public order and public morals, the mandatory shall ensure in the territory freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship, and shall allow all missionaries, nationals of any State member of the League of Nations, to enter into, travel and reside in the territory for the purpose of prosecuting their calling.

6. The mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council, containing full information with regard to the territory, and indicating the measures taken to carry out the obligations assumed under articles 2, 3, 4 and 5.

7. The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of the present mandate.

The mandatory agrees that, if any dispute whatever should arise between the mandatory and another member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation or the application of the provisions of the mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for by article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations.

The present declaration shall be deposited in the archives of the League of Nations. Certified copies shall be forwarded by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations to all Powers signatories of the treaty of peace with Germany.

- i. Act of Parliament, 1909 (as amended to 1937).

[9 Edw. VII, c. 9.—September 20, 1909.]

Whereas it is desirable for the welfare and future progress of South Africa that the several British Colonies therein should be united under one Government in a legislative union under the Crown of Great Britain and Ireland :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the union of the Colonies of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, the Transvaal, and the Orange River Colony on terms and conditions to which they have agreed by resolution of their respective Parliaments, and to define the executive, legislative, and judicial powers to be exercised in the government of the Union :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the establishment of Provinces with powers of legislation and administration in local matters and in such other matters as may be specially reserved for provincial legislation and administration :

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the eventual admission into the Union or transfer to the Union of such parts of South Africa as are not originally included therein :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

I.—PRELIMINARY

1. The people of the Union acknowledge the sovereignty and guidance of Almighty God.

2. In this Act, unless it is otherwise expressed or implied, "heirs and successors" shall be taken to mean His Majesty's heirs and successors in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as determined by the laws relating to the succession of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the words "the Union" shall be taken to mean the Union of South Africa as constituted under this Act, and the words "Houses of Parliament," "House of Parliament," or "Parliament," shall be taken to mean the Parliament of the Union.

3. The provisions of this Act referring to the King shall extend to His Majesty's heirs and successors in the sovereignty of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

II.—THE UNION

4. It shall be lawful for the King, with the advice of the Privy Council, to declare by proclamation⁽¹⁾ that, on and after a day therein appointed, not being later than one year after the passing of this Act, the Colonies of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, the Transvaal, and the Orange River Colony, hereinafter called "the Colonies," shall be united in a legislative union under one Government under the name of "the Union of South Africa." On and after the day appointed by such proclamation the Government and Parliament of the Union shall have full power and authority within the limits of the Colonies, but the King may at any time after the proclamation appoint a Governor-General for the Union.

5. The provisions of this Act shall, unless it is otherwise expressed or implied, take effect on and after the day so appointed.

6. The Colonies mentioned in section 4 shall become original Provinces of the Union under the names of "Cape of Good Hope," "Natal," "Transvaal" and "Orange Free State," as the case may be. The original Provinces shall have the same limits as the respective Colonies at the establishment of the Union.

7. Upon any Colony entering the Union, "The Colonial Boundaries Act, 1895,"⁽²⁾ and every other Act applying to any of the Colonies as being self-governing Colonies or Colonies with responsible Government, shall cease to apply to that Colony, but as from the date when this Act takes effect every such Act of Parliament shall apply to the Union.

⁽²⁾ State Papers, Vol. LXXXVII, page 967.

III.—EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT

8. [Repealed.]

15. The appointment and removal of all officers of the public service of the Union shall be vested in the Governor-General in Council, unless the appointment is delegated by the Governor-General in Council or by this Act or by a law of Parliament to some other authority.

Senate

24. For 10 years after the establishment of the Union the constitution of the Senate shall, in respect of the original Provinces, be as follows :—

(ii) The senators to be nominated by the Governor-General in Council shall hold their seats for 10 years. One-half of their number shall be selected on the ground mainly of their thorough acquaintance, by reason of their official experience or otherwise, with the reasonable wants and wishes of the coloured races in South Africa. If the seat of a senator so nominated shall become vacant, the Governor-General in Council shall nominate another person to be a senator, who shall hold his seat for 10 years.

House of Assembly

32. The House of Assembly shall be composed of members directly chosen by the voters of the Union in electoral divisions delimited as hereinafter provided.

34. The number of members to be elected in each Province, as provided in section 33, shall be increased from time to time as may be necessary in accordance with the following provisions :—

(i) In this section the expression—

“adult Union nationals” means Union nationals (both male and female) of the age of 21 years or over, but does not include members of His Majesty’s regular forces on full pay, other than members of the South African Permanent Force constituted under section 1 of “The South Africa Defence Act Amendment Act, 1922” (Act No. 22 of 1922) ;

(ii) In 1911, and every 5 years thereafter, till 1951 and thereafter every 10 years, a census of the European population of the Union shall be taken for the purposes of this Act.

(iii) After any such census the number of European adult Union nationals in each Province shall be compared with the number of European adult Union nationals as ascertained at the census of 1936, and, in the case of any Province where an increase is shown, as compared with the census of 1936, equal to the quota of the Union or any multiple thereof, the number of members allotted to such Province in the last preceding section shall be increased by an additional member or an additional number of members equal to such multiple, as the case may be.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, no additional member shall be allotted to any Province until the total number of European adult Union nationals in such Province exceeds the quota of the Union multiplied by the number of members allotted to such Province for the time being, and thereupon additional members shall be allotted to such Province in respect only of such excess.

(v) As soon as the number of members of the House of Assembly to be elected in the original Provinces in accordance with the preceding sub-sections reaches the total of 150, such total shall not be further increased unless and until Parliament otherwise provides; and subject to the provisions of the last preceding section the distribution of members among the Provinces shall be such that the proportion between the number of members to be elected at any time in each Province and the number of European adult Union nationals in such Province, as ascertained at the last preceding census, shall as far as possible be identical throughout the Union.

35. (1) Parliament may by law prescribe the qualifications which shall be necessary to entitle persons to vote at the election of members of the House of Assembly, but no such law shall disqualify any person (other than a native, as defined in section 1 of "The Representation of Natives Act, 1936") in the Province of the Cape of Good Hope who, under the laws existing in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope at the establishment of the Union, is or may become capable of being registered as a voter from being so registered in the Province of the Cape of Good Hope by reason of his race or colour only, or disqualify any native, as so defined, who under the said Act would be or might become capable of being registered in the Cape native voters' roll instituted under that Act from being so registered, or alter the number of the members of the House of Assembly who in terms of the said Act may be elected by the persons registered in the said roll, unless the bill embodying such disqualification or alteration be passed by both Houses of Parliament sitting together, and at the third reading be agreed to by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of both Houses. A bill so passed at such joint sitting shall be taken to have been duly passed by both Houses of Parliament.

(2) No person (other than a native as so defined) who at the passing of any such law is registered as a voter in any Province shall be removed from the register by reason only of any disqualification based on race or colour.

36. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, the qualifications of parliamentary voters, as existing in the several Colonies at the establishment of the Union, shall be the qualifications necessary to entitle persons in the corresponding Provinces to vote for the election of members of the House of Assembly: Provided that no member of His Majesty's regular forces on full pay shall be entitled to be registered as a voter.

37. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the laws in force in the Colonies at the establishment of the Union relating to elections for the more numerous Houses of Parliament in such Colonies respectively, the registration of voters, the oaths or declarations to be taken by voters, returning officers, the powers and duties of such officers, the proceedings in connection with elections, election expenses, corrupt and illegal practices, the hearing of election petitions and the proceedings incident thereto, the vacating of seats of members, and the proceedings necessary for filling such vacancies, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the elections in the respective Provinces of members of the House of Assembly.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any of the said laws contained, at any general election of members of the House of Assembly, all polls shall be taken on one and the same day in all the electoral divisions throughout the Union, such day to be appointed by the Governor-General in Council.

38. Between the date of the passing of this Act and the date fixed for the establishment of the Union, the Governor in Council of each of the Colonies shall nominate a judge of any of the Supreme or High Courts of the Colonies, and the judges so nominated shall, upon acceptance by them respectively of such nomination, form a joint commission, without any further appointment, for the purpose of the first division of the Provinces into electoral divisions. The High Commissioner for South Africa shall forthwith convene a meeting of such commission at such time and place in one of the Colonies as he shall fix and determine. At such meeting the commissioners shall elect one of their number as chairman of such commission. They shall thereupon proceed with the discharge of their duties under this Act, and may appoint persons in any Province to assist them or to act as assessors to the commission or with individual members thereof for the purpose of inquiring into matters connected with the duties of the commission. The commission may regulate their own procedure and may act by a majority of their number. All moneys required for the payment of the expenses of such commission before the establishment of the Union in any of the Colonies shall be provided by the Governor in Council of such Colony. In case of the death, resignation, or other disability of any of the Commissioners before the establishment of the Union, the Governor in Council of the Colony in respect of which he was nominated shall forthwith nominate another judge to fill the vacancy. After the establishment of the Union the expenses of the commission shall be defrayed by the Governor-General in Council, and any vacancies shall be filled by him.

39. The commission shall divide each Province into electoral divisions, each returning one member.

40. (1) For the purpose of such division as is in the last preceding section mentioned, the quota of each Province shall be obtained by dividing the total number of voters in the Province, as ascertained at the last registration of voters, by the number of members of the House of Assembly to be elected therein.

(2) Each Province shall be divided into electoral divisions in such a manner that each such division shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section, contain a number of voters, as nearly as may be, equal to the quota of the Province.

(3) The Commissioners shall give due consideration to—

- (a) community or diversity of interests ;
- (b) means of communication ;
- (c) physical features ;
- (d) existing electoral boundaries ;
- (e) sparsity or density of population ;

in such manner that, while taking the quota of voters as the basis of division, the commissioners may, whenever they deem it necessary, depart therefrom, but in no case to any greater extent than 15 per cent. more or 15 per cent. less than the quota.

41. As soon as may be after every census referred to in paragraph (11) of section 34, the Governor-General in Council shall appoint a commission consisting of three judges of the Supreme Court of South Africa to carry out any re-division which may have become necessary as between the different electoral divisions in each Province and to provide for the allocation of the number of members to which such Province may have become entitled under the provisions of this Act. In carrying out such re-division and allocation the commission shall have the same powers and proceed upon the same principles as are by this Act provided in regard to the original division.

42. (1) The joint commission constituted under section 38, and any subsequent commission appointed under the provisions of the last preceding section, shall submit to the Governor-General in Council—

(a) a list of electoral divisions, with the names given to them by the commission and a description of the boundaries of every such division ;

(b) a map or maps showing the electoral divisions into which the provinces have been divided ;

(c) such further particulars as they consider necessary.

(2) The Governor-General in Council may refer to the commission for its consideration any matter relating to such list or arising out of the powers or duties of the commission.

(3) The Governor-General in Council shall proclaim the names and boundaries of the electoral divisions as finally settled and certified by the commission, or a majority thereof, and thereafter, until there shall be a re-division, the electoral divisions as named and defined shall be the electoral divisions of the Union in the Provinces.

(4) If any discrepancy shall arise between the description of the divisions and the aforesaid map or maps, the description shall prevail.

43. Any alteration in the number of members of the House of Assembly to be elected in the several Provinces, and any re-division of the Provinces into electoral divisions, shall, in respect of the election of members of the House of Assembly, come into operation at the next general election held after the completion of the re-division or of any allocation consequent upon such alteration, and not earlier.

44. The qualifications of a member of the House of Assembly shall be as follows :—

(i) by birth, or

(ii) by domicile as a British subject, or

(iii) by naturalisation, or otherwise, in terms of Act 40 of 1927 or of Act 14 of 1932.

For the purposes of this section, residence in a Colony before its incorporation in the Union shall be treated as residence in the Union.

45. Every House of Assembly shall continue for 5 years from the first meeting thereof, and no longer, but may be sooner dissolved by the Governor-General.

46. The House of Assembly shall, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, choose a member to be the Speaker of the House, and, as often as the office of Speaker becomes vacant, the House shall again choose a member to be the Speaker. The Speaker shall cease to hold his office if he ceases to be a member. He may be removed from office by a vote of the House, or he may resign his office or his seat by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor-General.

47. Prior to or during the absence of the Speaker, the House of Assembly may choose a member to perform his duties in his absence.

48. A member may, by writing under his hand⁽¹⁾ addressed to the Speaker, or, if there is no Speaker, or if the Speaker is absent from the Union, to the Governor-General, resign his seat, which shall thereupon become vacant.

49. The presence of at least 30 members of the House of Assembly shall be necessary to constitute a meeting of the House for the exercise of its powers.

50. All questions in the House of Assembly shall be determined by a majority of votes of members present other than the Speaker or the presiding member, who shall, however, have and exercise a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.

Both Houses of Parliament

51. Every senator and every member of the House of Assembly shall, before taking his seat, make and subscribe before the Governor-General, or some person authorised by him, an oath or affirmation of allegiance in the following form :—

(a) becomes subject to any of the disabilities mentioned in the last preceding section ; or

(b) ceases to be qualified as required by law ; or

(c) fails for a whole ordinary session to attend without the special leave of the Senate or the House of Assembly, as the case may be ;

his seat shall thereupon become vacant.

55. If any person who is by law incapable of sitting as a senator or member of the House of Assembly shall, while so disqualified and knowing or having reasonable grounds for knowing that he is so disqualified, sit or vote as a member of the Senate or the House of Assembly, he shall be liable to a penalty of £100 for each day on which he shall so sit or vote, to be recovered on behalf of the Treasury of the Union by action in any superior court of the Union.

(d) in respect of any further period of absence not exceeding 25 days on which he so fails to attend during a session at which the estimates of expenditure for the ordinary administrative services of a financial year are considered.

(4) The amount of the allowances paid under this section shall be charged annually to the Consolidated Revenue Fund and the provision of this sub-section shall be deemed to be an appropriation of every such amount.

57. The powers, privileges, and immunities of the Senate and of the House of Assembly and of the members and committees of each House shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be such as are declared by Parliament, and until declared shall be those of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope and of its members and committees at the establishment of the Union.

(2) The Senate may not amend any bills so far as they impose taxation or appropriate revenue or moneys for the services of the Government.

(3) The Senate may not amend any bill so as to increase any proposed charges or burden on the people.

63. If the House of Assembly passes any bill and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it or passes it with amendments to which the House of Assembly will not agree, and if the House of Assembly in the next session again passes the bill with or without any amendments which have been made or agreed to by the Senate and the Senate rejects or fails to pass it or passes it with amendments to which the House of Assembly will not agree, the Governor-General may during that session convene a joint sitting of the members of the Senate and House of Assembly. 97. The Governor-General in Council may, during the absence, illness, or other incapacity of the Chief Justice of South Africa, or of any judge of appeal, appoint any other judge of the Supreme Court of South Africa to act temporarily as such Chief Justice, or judge of appeal, as the case may be.

98. (1) The several Supreme Courts of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, and the Transvaal, and the High Court of the Orange River Colony shall, on the establishment of the Union, become provincial divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa within their respective Provinces, and shall each be presided over by a Judge-President.

(2) The court of the eastern districts of the Cape of Good Hope, the High Court of Griqualand, the High Court of Witwatersrand, and the several circuit courts, shall become local divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa within the respective areas of their jurisdiction as existing at the establishment of the Union.

(3) The said provincial and local divisions, referred to in this Act as "superior courts," shall, in addition to any original jurisdiction exercised by the corresponding courts of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union, have jurisdiction in all matters—

(a) in which the Government of the Union or a person suing or being sued on behalf of such Government is a party ;

(b) in which the validity of any provincial ordinance shall come into question.

(4) Unless and until Parliament shall otherwise provide, the said superior courts shall, mutatis mutandis, have the same jurisdiction in matters affecting the validity of elections of members of the House of Assembly and Provincial Councils as the corresponding courts of the Colonies have at the establishment of the Union in regard to parliamentary elections in such Colonies respectively.

99. All judges of the Supreme Courts of the Colonies, including the High Court of the Orange River Colony, holding office at the establishment of the Union shall on such establishment become judges of the Supreme Court of South Africa, assigned to the divisions of the Supreme Court in the respective Provinces, and shall retain all such rights in regard to salaries and pensions as they may possess at the establishment of the Union. The Chief Justices of the Colonies holding office at the establishment of the Union shall on such establishment become the Judges-President of the divisions of the Supreme Court in the respective Provinces, but shall so long as they hold that office retain the title of "Chief Justice" of their respective Provinces.

100. The Chief Justice of South Africa, the judges of appeal, and all other judges of the Supreme Court of South Africa to be appointed after the establishment of the Union shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council, and shall receive such remuneration as Parliament shall prescribe, and their remuneration shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

101. The Chief Justice of South Africa and other judges of the Supreme Court of South Africa shall not be removed from office except by the Governor-General in Council on an address from both Houses of Parliament in the same session praying for such removal on the ground of misbehaviour or incapacity.

102. Upon any vacancy occurring in any division of the Supreme Court of South Africa, other than the Appellate Division, the Governor-General in Council may, in case he shall consider that the number of judges of such court may with advantage to the public interest be reduced, postpone filling the vacancy until Parliament shall have determined whether such reduction shall take place.

103. (1) In every civil case in which, according to the law in force at the establishment of the Union, an appeal might have been made to the Supreme Court of any of the Colonies from a superior court in any of the Colonies, or from the High Court of Southern Rhodesia, the appeal shall be made only to the Appellate Division, except in cases of orders or judgments given by a single judge, upon applications by way of motion or petition or on summons for provisional sentence or judgments as to costs only, which by law are left to the discretion of the court. The appeal from any such orders or judgments shall be made to the provincial division corresponding to the court which before the establishment of the Union would have had jurisdiction in the matter. There shall be no further appeal against any judgment given on appeal by such provincial division except to the Appellate Division, and then only if such provincial division shall have given special leave to appeal: Provided that if such provincial division shall have refused special leave to appeal, the Appellate Division may, on application being made thereto, grant such special leave and may vary any order as to costs made by such provincial division in refusing such special leave.

(2) If any court grants special leave to appeal under the provisions of sub-section (1) the court may order the appellant to find security for the costs of appeal in such an amount as may be fixed by such court and may fix the time within which such security shall be found.

104. In every case, civil or criminal, in which at the establishment of the Union an appeal might have been made from the Supreme Court of any of the Colonies or from the High Court of the Orange River Colony to the King in Council, the appeal shall be made only to the Appellate Division: Provided that the right of appeal in any civil suit shall not be limited by reason only of the value of the matter in dispute or the amount claimed or awarded in such suit.

105. (1) In every case, civil or criminal, in which at the establishment of the Union an appeal might have been made from a court of resident magistrate or other inferior court to a superior court in any of the Colonies, the appeal shall be made to the corresponding division of the Supreme Court of South Africa; but there shall be no further appeal against any judgment given on appeal by such division except to the Appellate Division and then only if such corresponding division shall have given special leave to appeal: Provided that if such corresponding division shall have refused special leave to appeal, the Appellate Division may on application being made thereto grant such special leave and may vary any order as to costs made by such corresponding division in refusing such special leave.

(2) If any court grants special leave to appeal under the provisions of sub-section (1) the court may order the appellant to find security for the costs of appeal in such an amount as may be fixed by such court and may fix the time within which such security shall be found.

106. There shall be no appeal from the Supreme Court of South Africa or from any division thereof to the King in Council, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to impair any right which the King in Council may be pleased to exercise to grant special leave to appeal from the Appellate Division to the King in Council. Parliament may make laws limiting the matters in respect of which such special leave may be asked, but bills containing any such limitation shall be reserved by the Governor-General for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure: Provided that nothing in this section shall affect any right of appeal to His Majesty in Council from any judgment given by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court under or in virtue of "The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890."⁽¹⁾

107. The Chief Justice of South Africa and the judges of appeal may, subject to the approval of the Governor-General in Council, make rules for the conduct of the proceedings of the Appellate Division and prescribing the time and manner of making appeals thereto. Until such rules shall have been promulgated, the rules in force in the Supreme Court of the Cape of Good Hope at the establishment of the Union shall, mutatis mutandis, apply.

108. The Chief Justice and other judges of the Supreme Court of South Africa may, subject to the approval of the Governor-General in Council, frame rules for the conduct of the proceedings of the several provincial and local divisions. Until such rules shall have been promulgated, the rules in force at the establishment of the Union in the respective courts which become divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa shall continue to apply therein.

109. The Appellate Division shall sit in Bloemfontein, but may from time to time for the convenience of suitors hold its sittings at other places within the Union.

110. (1) On the hearing of an appeal from a court consisting of a single judge, three judges of the Appellate Division shall form a quorum; and on the hearing of an appeal from a court consisting of two or more judges, four judges of the Appellate Division shall form a quorum:

Provided that if four judges of the Appellate Division sit to hear an appeal and are equally divided as to any judgment or order, or part thereof, to be given on appeal, any part of the judgment or order of the court from which the appeal is made, in respect whereof such judges are so divided, shall stand and shall be deemed to be the judgment or order of the Appellate Division:

Provided, further, that the costs arising out of any matter in respect whereof such judges are so divided shall be awarded to the party in whose favour such matter was decided by the court from which the appeal is made, subject to the power of such judges, or three of them, to make any other order as to the costs which they may deem equitable.

(2) If after argument on an appeal has been heard a judge who sat at the hearing dies or retires, or becomes otherwise incapable of acting before judgment has been given on the appeal, then—

(a) if the argument was heard before three judges, the judgments of the two remaining judges if in agreement ; or

(b) if the argument was heard before four judges, the judgments of the three remaining judges if in agreement ; or

(c) if the argument was heard before five judges, the judgments of the four remaining judges if in agreement, or of any three of them which are in agreement ; shall be the judgment of the court.

(3) No judge shall sit in the hearing of an appeal against a judgment or order given in a case which was heard before him.

111. The process of the Appellate Division shall run throughout the Union, and all its judgments or orders shall have full force and effect in every Province, and shall be executed in like manner as if they were original judgments or orders of the provincial division of the Supreme Court of South Africa in such Province.

112. The registrar of every provincial division of the Supreme Court of South Africa, if thereto requested by any party in whose favour any judgment or order has been given or made by any other division, shall, upon the deposit with him of an authenticated copy of such judgment or order and on proof that the same remains unsatisfied, issue a writ or other process for the execution of such judgment or order, and thereupon such writ or other process shall be executed in like manner as if it had been originally issued from the division of which he is registrar.

113. Any provincial or local division of the Supreme Court of South Africa to which it may be made to appear that any civil suit pending therein may be more conveniently or fitly heard or determined in another division may order the same to be removed to such other division, and thereupon such last-mentioned division may proceed with such suit in like manner as if it had been originally commenced therein.

114. The Governor-General in Council may appoint a registrar of the Appellate Division and such other officers thereof as shall be required for the proper despatch of the business thereof.

115. (1) The laws regulating the admission of advocates and attorneys to practise before any superior court of any of the Colonies shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the admission of advocates and attorneys to practise in the corresponding division of the Supreme Court of South Africa.

(2) All advocates and attorneys entitled at the establishment of the Union to practise in any superior court of any of the Colonies shall be entitled to practise as such in the corresponding division of the Supreme Court of South Africa.

(3) All advocates and attorneys entitled to practise before any provisional division of the Supreme Court of South Africa shall be entitled to practise before the Appellate Division.

116. All suits, civil or criminal, pending in any superior court of any of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall stand removed to the corresponding division of the Supreme Court of South Africa, which shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the same, and all judgments and orders of any superior court of any of the Colonies given or made before the establishment of the Union shall have the same force and effect as if they had been given or made by the corresponding division of the Supreme Court of South Africa. All appeals to the King in Council which shall be pending at the establishment of the Union shall be proceeded with as if this Act had not been passed.

VII.—FINANCE AND RAILWAYS

117. All revenues, from whatever source arising, over which the several Colonies have at the establishment of the Union power of appropriation, shall vest in the Governor-General in Council. There shall be formed a Railway and Harbour Fund, into which shall be paid all revenues raised or received by the Governor-General in Council from the administration of the railways, ports, and harbours, and such fund shall be appropriated by Parliament to the purposes of the railways, ports, and harbours in the manner prescribed by this Act. There shall also be formed a Consolidated Revenue Fund, into which shall be paid all other revenues raised or received by the Governor-General in Council, and such fund shall be appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of the Union in the manner prescribed by this Act, and subject to the charges imposed thereby.

118. The Governor-General in Council shall, as soon as may be after the establishment of the Union, appoint a commission, consisting of one representative from each Province, and presided over by an officer from the Imperial service, to institute an inquiry into the financial relations which should exist between the Union and the Provinces. Pending the completion of that inquiry and until Parliament otherwise provides, there shall be paid annually out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Administrator of each Province—

(a) an amount equal to the sum provided in the estimates for education, other than higher education, in respect of the financial year, 1908-9, as voted by the Legislature of the corresponding Colony during the year 1908;

(b) such further sums as the Governor-General in Council may consider necessary for the due performance of the services and duties assigned to the Provinces respectively.

Until such inquiry shall be completed and Parliament shall have made other provision, the Executive Committees in the several Provinces shall annually submit estimates of their expenditure for the approval of the Governor-General in Council, and no expenditure shall be incurred by any Executive Committee which is not provided for in such approved estimates.

119. The annual interest of the public debts of the Colonies and any sinking funds constituted by law at the establishment of the Union shall form a first charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

120. No money shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or the Railway and Harbour Fund except under appropriation made by law. But, until the expiration of 2 months after the first meeting of Parliament, the Governor-General in Council may draw therefrom and expend such moneys as may be necessary for the public service, and for railway and harbour administration respectively.

121. All stocks, cash, bankers' balances, and securities for money belonging to each of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall be the property of the Union: Provided that the balances of any funds raised at the establishment of the Union by law for any special purposes in any of the Colonies shall be deemed to have been appropriated by Parliament for the special purposes for which they have been provided.

122. Crown lands, public works, and all property throughout the Union, movable or immovable, and all rights of whatever description belonging to the several Colonies at the establishment of the Union, shall vest in the Governor-General in Council subject to any debt or liability specially charged thereon.

123. All rights in and to mines and minerals, and all rights in connection with the searching for, working for, or disposing of, minerals or precious stones, which at the establishment of the Union are vested in the Government of any of the Colonies, shall on such establishment vest in the Governor-General in Council.

124. The Union shall assume all debts and liabilities of the Colonies existing at its establishment, subject, notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Act, to the conditions imposed by any law under which such debts or liabilities were raised or incurred, and without prejudice to any rights of security or priority in respect of the payment of principal, interest, sinking fund, and other charges conferred on the creditors of any of the Colonies, and may, subject to such conditions and rights, convert, renew, or consolidate such debts.

125. All ports, harbours, and railways belonging to the several Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall from the date thereof vest in the Governor-General in Council. No railway for the conveyance of public traffic, and no port, harbour, or similar work, shall be constructed without the sanction of Parliament.

126. Subject to the authority of the Governor-General in Council, the control and management of the railways, ports, and harbours of the Union shall be exercised through a Board consisting of not more than three commissioners, who shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council, and a Minister of State, who shall be chairman. Each commissioner shall hold office for a period of 5 years, but may be re-appointed. He shall not be removed before the expiration of his period of appointment, except by the Governor-General in Council for cause assigned, which shall be communicated by message to both Houses of Parliament, within one week after the removal, if Parliament be then sitting, or, if Parliament be not sitting, then within one week after the commencement of the next ensuing session. The salaries of the commissioners shall be fixed by Parliament and shall not be reduced during their respective terms of office.

127. The railways, ports, and harbours of the Union shall be administered on business principles, due regard being had to agricultural and industrial development within the Union and promotion, by means of cheap transport, of the settlement of an agricultural and industrial population in the inland portions of all Provinces of the Union. So far as may be, the total earnings shall be not more than are sufficient to meet the necessary outlays for working, maintenance, betterment, depreciation, and the payment of interest due on capital not being capital contributed out of railway or harbour revenue, and not including any sums payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund in accordance with the provisions of sections 130 and 131. The amount of interest due on such capital invested shall be paid over from the Railway and Harbour Fund into the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The Governor-General in Council shall give effect to the provisions of this section as soon as and at such time as the necessary administrative and financial arrangements can be made, but in any case shall give full effect to them before the expiration of 4 years from the establishment of the Union. During such period, if the revenues accruing to the Consolidated Revenue Fund are insufficient to provide for the general service of the Union, and if the earnings accruing to the Railway and Harbour Fund are in excess of the outlays specified herein, Parliament may by law appropriate such excess or any part thereof towards the general expenditure of the Union, and all sums so appropriated shall be paid over to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

128. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the last preceding section, the Board may establish a fund out of railway and harbour revenue to be used for maintaining, as far as may be, uniformity of rates notwithstanding fluctuations in traffic.

129. All balances standing to the credit of any fund established in any of the Colonies for railway or harbour purposes at the establishment of the Union shall be under the sole control and management of the Board, and shall be deemed to have been appropriated by Parliament for the respective purposes for which they have been provided.

130. Every proposal for the construction of any port or harbour works or of any line of railway, before being submitted to Parliament, shall be considered by the Board, which shall report thereon, and shall advise whether the proposed works or line of railway should or should not be constructed. If any such works or line shall be constructed contrary to the advice of the Board, and if the Board is of opinion that the revenue derived from the operation of such works or line will be insufficient to meet the costs of working and maintenance, and of interest on the capital invested therein, it shall frame an estimate of the annual loss which, in its opinion, will result from such operation. Such estimate shall be examined by the Controller and Auditor-General, and when approved by him the amount thereof shall be paid over annually from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Railway and Harbour Fund : Provided that, if in any year the actual loss incurred, as calculated by the Board and certified by the Controller and Auditor-General, is less than the estimate framed by the Board, the amount paid over in respect of that year shall be reduced accordingly so as not to exceed the actual loss incurred. In calculating the loss arising from the operation of any such work or line, the Board shall have regard to the value of any contributions of traffic to other parts of the system which may be due to the operation of such work or line.

131. If the Board shall be required by the Governor-General in Council or under any Act of Parliament or resolution of both Houses of Parliament to provide any services or facilities either gratuitously or at a rate of charge which is insufficient to meet the costs involved in the provision of such services or facilities, the Board shall at the end of each financial year present to Parliament an account approved by the Controller and Auditor-General, showing, as nearly as can be ascertained, the amount of the loss incurred by reason of the provision of such services and facilities, and such amount shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Railway and Harbour Fund.

133. In order to compensate Pietermaritzburg and Bloemfontein for any loss sustained by them in the form of diminution of prosperity or decreased rateable value by reason of their ceasing to be the seats of government of their respective Colonies, there shall be paid from the Consolidated Revenue Fund for a period not exceeding 25 years to the municipal councils of such towns a grant of 2 per cent. per annum on their municipal debts, as existing on the 31st day of January, 1909, and as ascertained by the Controller and Auditor-General. The commission appointed under section 118 shall, after due inquiry, report to the Governor-General in Council what compensation should be paid to the municipal councils of Cape Town and Pretoria for the losses, if any, similarly sustained by them. Such compensation shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund for a period not exceeding 25 years, and shall not exceed 1 per cent. per annum on the respective municipal debts of such towns as existing on the 31st January, 1909, and as ascertained by the Controller and Auditor-General. For the purposes of this section Cape Town shall be deemed to include the municipalities of Cape Town, Green Point, and Sea Point, Woodstock, Mowbray, and Rondebosch, Claremont, and Wynberg, and any grant made to Cape Town shall be payable to the councils of such municipalities in proportion to their respective debts. One half of any such grants shall be applied to the redemption of the municipal debts of such towns respectively. At any time after the tenth annual grant has been paid to any of such towns the Governor-General in Council, with the approval of Parliament, may after due inquiry withdraw or reduce the grant to such town.

VIII.—GENERAL

134. The election of senators and of members of the Executive Committees of the Provincial Councils as provided in this Act shall, whenever such election is contested, be according to the principle of proportional representation, each voter having one transferable vote. The Governor-General in Council, or, in the case of the first election of the Senate, the Governor in Council of each of the Colonies, shall frame regulations prescribing the method of voting and of transferring and counting votes and the duties of returning officers in connection therewith, and such regulations or any amendments thereof after being duly promulgated shall have full force and effect unless and until Parliament shall otherwise provide.

135. Subject to the provisions of this Act, all laws in force in the several Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall continue in force in the respective Provinces until repealed or amended by Parliament, or by the Provincial Councils in matters in respect of which the power to make ordinances is reserved or delegated to them. All legal commissions in the several Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall continue as if the Union had not been established.

136. There shall be free trade throughout the Union, but until Parliament otherwise provides the duties of custom and of excise leviable under the laws existing in any of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall remain in force.

137. Both the English and Dutch⁽¹⁾ languages shall be official languages of the Union, and shall be treated on a footing of equality, and possess and enjoy equal freedom, rights, and privileges; all records, journals, and proceedings of Parliament shall be kept in both languages, and all bills, Acts, and notices of general public importance or interest issued by the Government of the Union shall be in both languages.

138. All persons who have been naturalised in any of the Colonies shall be deemed to be naturalised throughout the Union.

139. The administration of justice throughout the Union shall be under the control of a Minister of State, in whom shall be vested all powers, authorities, and functions which shall at the establishment of the Union be vested in the Attorneys-General of the Colonies.

140. Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section, all officers of the public service of the Colonies shall at the establishment of the Union become officers of the Union.

141. (1) As soon as possible after the establishment of the Union, the Governor-General in Council shall appoint a Public Service Commission to make recommendations for such reorganisation and readjustment of the departments of the public service as may be necessary. The Commission shall also make recommendations in regard to the assignment of officers to the several Provinces.

(2) The Governor-General in Council may after such Commission has reported assign from time to time to each Province such officers as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the services reserved or delegated to it, and such officers on being so assigned shall become officers of the Province. Pending the assignment of such officers, the Governor-General in Council may place at the disposal of the Provinces the services of such officers of the Union as may be necessary.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any service or department under the control of the Railway and Harbour Board, or to any person holding office under the Board.

142. After the establishment of the Union the Governor-General in Council shall appoint a permanent Public Service Commission with such powers and duties relating to the appointment, discipline, retirement, and superannuation of public officers as Parliament shall determine.

143. Any officer of the public service of any of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union who is not retained in the service of the Union or assigned to that of a Province shall be entitled to receive such pension, gratuity, or other compensation as he would have received in like circumstances if the Union had not been established.

144. Any officer of the public service of any of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union who is retained in the service of the Union or assigned to that of a Province shall retain all his existing and accruing rights, and shall be entitled to retire from the service at the time at which he would have been entitled by law to retire, and on the pension or retiring allowance to which he would have been entitled by law in like circumstances if the Union had not been established.

145. The services of officers in the public service of any of the Colonies at the establishment of the Union shall not be dispensed with by reason of their want of knowledge of either the English or Dutch language.

146. Any permanent officer of the Legislature of any of the Colonies who is not retained in the service of the Union, or assigned to that of any Province, and for whom no provision shall have been made by such Legislature, shall be entitled to such pension, gratuity, or compensation as Parliament may determine.

147. The control and administration of native affairs and of matters specially or differentially affecting Asiatics throughout the Union shall vest in the Governor-General in Council, who shall exercise all special powers in regard to native administration hitherto vested in the Governors of the Colonies or exercised by them as supreme chiefs, and any lands vested in the Governor or Governor and Executive Council of any Colony for the purpose of reserves for native locations shall vest in the Governor-General in Council, who shall exercise all special powers in relation to such reserves as may hitherto have been exercisable by any such Governor or Governor and Executive Council, and no lands set aside for the occupation of natives which cannot at the establishment of the Union be alienated except by an Act of the colonial Legislature shall be alienated or in any way diverted from the purposes for which they are set apart except under the authority of an Act of Parliament.

148. (1) All rights and obligations under any conventions or agreements which are binding on any of the Colonies shall devolve upon the Union at its establishment.

(2) The provisions of the railway agreement between the Governments of the Transvaal, the Cape of Good Hope, and Natal, dated the 2nd of February, 1909, shall, as far as practicable, be given effect to by the Government of the Union.

IX.—NEW PROVINCES AND TERRITORIES

149. Parliament shall not—

(a) Alter the boundaries of any Province, divide a Province into two or more Provinces, or form a new Province out of Provinces within the Union, except on the petition of the Provincial Council of every Province whose boundaries are affected thereby.

(b) Abolish any Provincial Council or abridge the powers conferred on Provincial Councils under section 85, except by petition to Parliament by the Provincial Council.

150. The King, with the advice of the Privy Council, may on addresses from the Houses of Parliament of the Union admit into the Union the territories administered by the British South Africa Company on such terms and conditions as to representation and otherwise in each case as are expressed in the addresses and approved by the King, and the provisions of any Order in Council in that behalf shall have effect as if they had been enacted by the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

151. The King, with the advice of the Privy Council, may, on addresses from the Houses of Parliament of the Union, transfer to the Union the government of any territories, other than the territories administered by the British South Africa Company, belonging to or under the protection of His Majesty, and inhabited wholly or in part by natives, and upon such transfer the Governor-General in Council may undertake the government of such territory upon the terms and conditions embodied in the schedule to this Act.

X.—AMENDMENT OF ACT

152. Parliament may by law repeal or alter any of the provisions of this Act : Provided that no provision thereof, for the operation of which a definite period of time is prescribed, shall during such period be repealed or altered : And provided further that no repeal or alteration of the provisions contained in this section, or in sections 33 and 34 (until the number of members of the House of Assembly has reached the limit therein prescribed, or until a period of 10 years has elapsed after the establishment of the Union, whichever is the longer period), or in sections 35 and 137, shall be valid unless the bill embodying such repeal or alteration shall be passed by both Houses of Parliament sitting together, and at the third reading be agreed to by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of both Houses. A bill so passed at such joint sitting shall be taken to have been duly passed by both Houses of Parliament.

XI.—SUPPLEMENTARY

153. This Act may be cited as "The South Africa Act, 1909."

SCHEDULE

1. After the transfer of the government of any territory belonging to or under the protection of His Majesty, the Governor-General in Council shall be the legislative authority, and may by proclamation make laws for the peace, order, and good government of such territory: Provided that all such laws shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within 7 days after the issue of the proclamation or, if Parliament be not then sitting, within 7 days after the beginning of the next session, and shall be effectual unless and until both Houses of Parliament shall by resolutions passed in the same session request the Governor-General in Council to repeal the same, in which case they shall be repealed by proclamation.
2. The Prime Minister shall be charged with the administration of any territory thus transferred, and he shall be advised in the general conduct of such administration by a Commission consisting of not fewer than three members with a secretary, to be appointed by the Governor-General in Council, who shall take the instructions of the Prime Minister in conducting all correspondence relating to the territories, and shall also under the like control have custody of all official papers relating to the territories.
3. The members of the Commission shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council, and shall be entitled to hold office for a period of 10 years, but such period may be extended to successive further terms of 5 years. They shall each be entitled to a fixed annual salary, which shall not be reduced during the continuance of their term of office, and they shall not be removed from office except upon addresses from both Houses of Parliament passed in the same session praying for such removal. They shall not be qualified to become, or to be, members of either House of Parliament. One of the members of the Commission shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council as vice-chairman thereof. In case of the absence, illness, or other incapacity of any member of the commission, the Governor-General in Council may appoint some other fit and proper person to act during such absence, illness, or other incapacity.
4. It shall be the duty of the members of the Commission to advise the Prime Minister upon all matters relating to the general conduct of the administration of, or the legislation for, the said territories. The Prime Minister, or another Minister of State nominated by the Prime Minister to be his deputy for a fixed period, or, failing such nomination, the vice-chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Commission, and in case of an equality of votes shall have a casting vote. Two members of the commission shall form a quorum. In case the Commission shall consist of four or more members, three of them shall form a quorum.

5. Any member of the Commission who dissents from the decision of a majority shall be entitled to have the reasons for his dissent recorded in the minutes of the Commission.
6. The members of the Commission shall have access to all official papers concerning the territories, and they may deliberate on any matter relating thereto and tender their advice thereon to the Prime Minister.
7. Before coming to a decision on any matter relating either to the administration, other than routine, of the territories or to legislation therefor, the Prime Minister shall cause the papers relating to such matter to be deposited with the secretary to the Commission, and shall convene a meeting of the Commission for the purpose of obtaining its opinion on such matter.
8. Where it appears to the Prime Minister that the despatch of any communication or the making of any order is urgently required, the communication may be sent or order made, although it has not been submitted to a meeting of the Commission or deposited for the perusal of the members thereof. In any such case the Prime Minister shall record the reasons for sending the communication or making the order and give notice thereof to every member.
9. If the Prime Minister does not accept a recommendation of the Commission or proposes to take some action contrary to their advice, he shall state his views to the Commission, who shall be at liberty to place on record the reasons in support of their recommendation or advice. This record shall be laid by the Prime Minister before the Governor-General in Council, whose decision in the matter shall be final.
10. When the recommendations of the Commission have not been accepted by the Governor-General in Council, or action not in accordance with their advice has been taken by the Governor-General in Council, the Prime Minister, if thereto requested by the Commission, shall lay the record of their dissent from the decision or action taken and of the reasons therefor before both Houses of Parliament, unless in any case the Governor-General in Council shall transmit to the Commission a minute recording his opinion that the publication of such record and reasons would be gravely detrimental to the public interest.
11. The Governor-General in Council shall appoint a Resident Commissioner for each territory, who shall, in addition to such other duties as shall be imposed on him, prepare the annual estimates of revenue and expenditure for such territory, and forward the same to the secretary to the Commission for the consideration of the Commission and of the Prime Minister. A proclamation shall be issued by the Governor-General in Council, giving to the provisions for revenue and expenditure made in the estimates as finally approved by the Governor-General in Council the force of law.

12. There shall be paid into the Treasury of the Union all duties of customs levied on dutiable articles imported into and consumed in the territories, and there shall be paid out of the Treasury annually towards the cost of administration of each territory a sum in respect of such duties which shall bear to the total customs revenue of the Union in respect of each financial year the same proportion as the average amount of the customs revenue of such territory for the 3 completed financial years last preceding the taking effect of this Act bore to the average amount of the whole customs revenue for all the Colonies and territories included in the Union received during the same period.

so, however, that that contribution shall not bear a higher proportion to the total cost of such services than that which the amount payable under paragraph 12 of this schedule from the Treasury of the Union towards the cost of the administration of the territory bears to the total customs revenue of the Union on the average of the 3 years immediately preceding the year for which the contribution is made.

20. The King may disallow any law made by the Governor-General in Council by proclamation for any territory within one year from the date of the proclamation, and such disallowance on being made known by the Governor-General by proclamation shall annul the law from the day when the disallowance is so made known.

21. The members of the Commission shall be entitled to such pensions or superannuation allowances as the Governor-General in Council shall by proclamation provide, and the salaries and pensions of such members and all other expenses of the Commission shall be borne by the territories in the proportion of their respective revenues.

24. The Commission shall prepare an annual report on the territories, which shall, when approved by the Governor-General in Council, be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

25. All bills to amend or alter the provisions of this schedule shall be reserved for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure.

- i. Letters Patent, 1876 (as amended 1905).

Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith : To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting :

Whereas we did, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster the 6th day of September, 1869, in the 33rd year of our reign, constitute and appoint our trusty and well-beloved Colonel Stephen John Hill (now Sir Stephen John Hill, Knight Commander of our most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George), Companion of our most Honourable Order of the Bath, to be, during our pleasure, our Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our Island of Newfoundland and its dependencies. And whereas we are desirous of making effectual and permanent provision for the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our said Island of Newfoundland and its dependencies without making new Letters Patent on each demise of the said office : Now know ye that we have revoked and determined, and by these presents do revoke and determine, the said recited Letters Patent, and every clause, article, and thing therein contained: And further know ye, that we, of our special grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have thought fit to constitute, order, and declare, and do by these presents constitute, order, and declare, that there shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "our said Governor") in and over our Island of Newfoundland, and the islands adjacent, and all the coast of Labrador⁽¹⁾ from the entrance of Hudson's Straits to a line to be drawn due north and south, from Anse Sablon on the said coast to the 52nd degree of north latitude, and all the islands adjacent to that part of the said coast of Labrador, as also of all forts and garrisons erected and established, or which shall be erected or established within or on the islands and coast aforesaid (which said islands and coast, together with the Island of Newfoundland, are hereinafter referred to as "our said Colony"), and that the person who shall fill the said office of Governor shall be, from time to time, appointed by Commission under our Sign Manual and Signet. And we do hereby authorise and command our said Governor to do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said command, and to the trust we have reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed him by virtue of these present Letters Patent, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by our Order in our Privy Council, or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such laws and ordinances as are or shall hereafter be in force in our said Colony.

2. And we do hereby declare our pleasure to be that there shall be an Executive Council for our said Colony, and that the said Council shall consist of such persons as are now or may at any time be declared by any law enacted by the Legislature of our said Colony to be members of our said Council, and of such other persons as our said Governor shall, from time to time, in our name and on our behalf, but subject to any law as aforesaid, appoint under the Public Seal to be members of our said Council.

3. And we do hereby declare our pleasure to be that there shall be within our said Colony a Legislative Council which shall consist of such members as at or immediately before the publication of these presents were members of our said Council and of such and so many other members as shall hereafter be from time to time nominated and appointed by us under our Sign Manual and Signet, or provisionally appointed by our said Governor until our pleasure thereon shall be known : Provided, nevertheless, and we do hereby declare our pleasure to be, that the total number of the members of the said Legislative Council for the time being resident within our said Colony shall not at any time, by such provisional appointments, be raised to a greater number in the whole than 15 : Provided also that every member of our said Council shall hold his place therein during our pleasure, and shall be removable by any instruction or warrant issued by us under our Sign Manual and Signet, and with the advice of our Privy Council.

4. And we do authorise and empower our said Governor, with the advice and consent of our said Executive Council, by writs issued in our name, to summon and call together the General Assembly of our said Colony, and also from time to time, in the lawful and accustomed manner, to prorogue the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly of our said Colony, and from time to time to dissolve the said House of Assembly.

5. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, with the advice and consent of the said Legislative Council and Assembly of our said Colony, to make laws for the public peace, welfare, and good government of our said Colony.

6. [Identical, mutatis mutandis, with clause 2 of the Letters Patent in respect of Canada : see page 52.]

7. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, in our name and on our behalf, to make and execute, under the said Seal, grants and dispositions of any lands which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by us within our said Colony.

8. [Identical, mutatis mutandis, with clause 3 of the Letters Patent in respect of Canada : see page 52.]

9. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf, when any crime has been committed within our said Colony, or for which the offender may be tried therein, to grant a pardon to any accomplice, not being the actual perpetrator of such crime, who shall give such information and evidence as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the principal offender ; and further, to grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any court, or before any judge, justice or magistrate, within our said Colony, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender, for such period as to our said Governor may seem fit, and to remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures, which may become due and payable to us. Provided always that our said Governor shall in no case make it a condition of any pardon or remission of sentence that the offender shall be banished from, or shall absent himself from our said Colony.

10. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, so far as we lawfully may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, to remove from his office, or to suspend from the exercise of the same, any person exercising any such office or place within our said Colony, under or by virtue of any Commission or warrant granted, or which may be granted, by us in our name, or under our authority.

11. In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of our said Governor out of our said Colony, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until our further pleasure is signified therein, be, and the same are hereby vested in such person as may be appointed by us under our Sign Manual and Signet, to be our Lieutenant-Governor of our said Colony, or if there shall be no such Lieutenant-Governor in our said Colony, then in such person or persons as may be appointed by us under our Sign Manual and Signet to administer the Government of the same; and in case there shall be no person or persons within our said Colony so appointed by us, then in the President for the time being of the Legislative Council of our said Colony.

Provided that, in the event of our said Governor having occasion to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government, or from our said Colony for the purpose of visiting our Dominion of Canada on public business, he may in every such case by an instrument under the Public Seal of our said Colony, constitute and appoint our Lieutenant-Governor, or if there be no such officer or if such officer be absent or unable to act, then any other person, to be his deputy during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform, and execute for and on his behalf during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in our said Governor, by these our Letters Patent, as shall in and by such instrument be specified and limited, but no others. Every such deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as our said Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided, nevertheless, that by the appointment of a deputy as aforesaid, the power and authority of our said Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected, otherwise than we may at any time hereafter think proper to direct. Provided further that if any such deputy shall have been duly appointed it shall not be necessary during the continuance in office of such deputy for any person to assume the Government of our said Colony as Administrator thereof.

12. And we do hereby require and command all our officers and Ministers, civil and military, and all other inhabitants of our said Colony, to be obedient, aiding, and assisting unto our said Governor, or, in the event of his death, incapacity, or absence, to such person or persons as may from time to time, under the provisions of these our Letters Patent, administer the Government of our said Colony.

13-14. [Identical, mutatis mutandis, with clauses 9-10 of the Letters Patent in respect of Australia: see page 86.]

In witness whereof we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent. Witness ourself at Westminster, the 28th day of March, in the 39th year of our reign.

By warrant under the Queen's Sign Manual.

2. Royal Instructions, 1876.

VICTORIA R.

Whereas by certain Letters Patent bearing even date⁽¹⁾ herewith, we have constituted, ordered and declared that there shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "our said Governor") in and over our Island of Newfoundland and its dependencies (hereinafter called "our said Colony"). And we have thereby authorised and commanded our said Governor to do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said command, and to the trust we have reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed him by virtue of the said Letters Patent and of the Commission to be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him, under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by our Order in our Privy Council, or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such laws and ordinances as are or shall hereafter be in force in our said Colony. Now, therefore, we do by these our Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet declare our pleasure to be that our said Governor for the time being shall with all due solemnity cause our Commission under our Sign Manual and Signet, appointing our said Governor for the time being, to be read and published in the presence of the Chief Justice of our said Colony for the time being, and of the members of our Executive Council thereof; and we do further declare our pleasure to be that our said Governor and every other officer appointed to administer the Government of our said Colony shall take the oath of allegiance in the form provided by an Act passed in the session holden in the 31st and 32nd years of our reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths"⁽²⁾; and likewise that he or they take the usual oath for the due execution of the office and trust of our Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our said Colony, and for the due and impartial administration of justice, which said oaths the Chief Justice for the time being of our said Colony, or, in his absence, or in the event of his being otherwise incapacitated, the senior judge then present, or, failing such judge, the senior member present of our said Executive Council, shall and he is hereby required to tender and administer unto him or them.

(1) Page 222.

(2) 31 & 32 Vict., c. 72.

2. [Practically identical, mutatis mutandis, with the same clause of the Royal Instructions in respect of Canada : see page 55.]

3. And we do require our said Governor to communicate forthwith to our Executive Council for our said Colony these our Instructions, and likewise all such others from time to time as he shall find convenient for our service to be imparted to them.

4. And we do hereby direct and enjoin that our said Executive Council shall not proceed to the despatch of business unless duly summoned by authority of our said Governor, and unless three members at the least (exclusive of himself or the member presiding) be present and assisting throughout the whole of the meetings at which any such business shall be despatched.

5. And we do further direct and enjoin that our said Governor do attend and preside at the meetings of our said Executive Council, unless when prevented by some necessary or reasonable cause ; and that in his absence such member as may be appointed by him in that behalf, or, in the absence of any such member, the senior member of the said Executive Council actually present shall preside at all such meetings, the seniority of the members of the Council being regulated according to the order of their respective appointments as members of our said Council.

6. And we do further direct and enjoin that a full and exact journal or minute be kept of all the deliberations, acts, proceedings, votes, and resolutions of our said Executive Council, and that at each meeting of the said Council the minutes of the last meeting be read over, confirmed, or amended, as the case may require, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business. And we do further direct that twice in each year a full transcript of all the minutes of the said Council for the preceding half year be transmitted to us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

7. And we do further direct and enjoin that, in the execution of the powers and authorities committed to our said Governor by our said Letters Patent, he shall in all cases consult with our said Executive Council, excepting only in cases which may be of such a nature that, in his judgment, our service would sustain material prejudice by consulting our Council thereupon, or when the matters to be decided shall be too unimportant to require their advice, or too urgent to admit of their advice being given by the time within which it may be necessary for him to act in respect of any such matters. Provided that in all such urgent cases he shall subsequently, and at the earliest practicable period, communicate to the said Executive Council the measures which he may so have adopted, with the reasons thereof.

8. And we do authorise our said Governor, in his discretion, and if it shall in any case appear right, to act in the exercise of the power committed to him by our said Letters Patent, in opposition to the advice which may in any such case be given to him by the members of our said Executive Council. Provided, nevertheless, that in every such case he shall fully report to us by the first convenient opportunity such proceeding with the grounds and reasons thereof.

9. And whereas we have by our said Letters Patent provided that the Legislative Council of our said Colony shall be constituted in the manner therein appointed : Now we do declare our pleasure to be that five members of the said Legislative Council shall be a quorum for the despatch of the business thereof.

10. And we do authorise and empower our said Governor, from time to time, by an instrument under the Public Seal of our said Colony, to appoint one member of the said Legislative Council to preside therein, and to remove him and appoint another in his stead.

11. And we do confirm all standing rules and orders heretofore made by our authority for ensuring punctuality of attendance of the members of the said Legislative Council, and for the prevention of meetings of the said Council being held without convenient notice to the several members thereof, and for maintaining order and method in the despatch of business, and in the conduct of all debates in the said Council ; and we do authorise and empower the said Legislative Council to make such other and further rules and orders as may to them appear requisite for the above-mentioned purposes, not being repugnant to these our Instructions, or to any other Instructions which our said Governor may receive from us.

12. And we do further direct and enjoin that minutes shall be regularly kept of the proceedings of the said Legislative Council, and that at each meeting of the said Council the minutes of the last preceding meeting be read over, confirmed, or amended, as the case may require, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business. And we do further direct and enjoin that our said Governor shall transmit fair copies of the journals and minutes of the proceedings of the legislative bodies of our said Colony, which he is to require from the clerks or other proper officers in that behalf of the said legislative bodies.

13. And whereas we have empowered our said Governor, by our said Letters Patent, to summon and call together the General Assembly of our said Colony, we do further direct and enjoin that the persons thereupon duly elected to be members of the said Assembly shall, before their sitting, take the said oath of allegiance, which oath he shall commission fit persons, under the Seal of our said Colony, to tender and administer unto them ; and until the same shall be so taken, no person shall be capable of sitting though elected.

14. And in the enactment of laws within our said Colony, we do direct and enjoin that our said Governor observes, as far as may be practicable, the following rules and instructions (that is to say) :—

15. The style of enacting such laws shall be by “ The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Officer administering the Government (as the case may be), Council and Assembly,” and no other.

16. In the passing of all laws, each different matter is to be provided for by a different law, without intermixing in one and the same law such things as have no proper relation to each other, and no clause is to be inserted in or annexed to any law which shall be foreign to what the title of such law imports, and no perpetual clause is to be part of any temporary law.

17. Our said Governor is not to assent in our name to any bill of any of the classes hereinafter specified, that is to say :—

(1) Any bill for the divorce of persons joined together in holy matrimony.

(2) Any bill whereby any grant of land or money or other donation or gratuity may be made to himself.

(3) Any bill whereby any paper or other currency may be made a legal tender, except the coin of the realm or other gold or silver coin.

(4) Any bill imposing differential duties.

(5) Any bill the provisions of which shall appear inconsistent with obligations imposed upon us by treaty.

(6) Any bill interfering with the discipline or control of our forces in our said Colony by land and sea.

(7) Any bill of an extraordinary nature and importance whereby our prerogative, or the rights and property of our subjects not residing in our said Colony, or the trade and shipping of the United Kingdom and its dependencies, may be prejudiced.

(8) Any bill containing provisions to which our assent has been once refused, or which have been disallowed by us :—

Unless such bill shall contain a clause suspending the operation of such bill until the signification in our said Colony of our pleasure thereupon, or unless our said Governor shall have satisfied himself that an urgent necessity exists requiring that such bill be brought into immediate operation, in which case he is authorised to assent in our name to such bill unless the same shall be repugnant to the law of England, or inconsistent with any obligations imposed upon us by treaty. But he is to transmit to us, by the earliest opportunity, the bill so assented to, together with his reasons for assenting thereto.

18. And we do further direct and enjoin our said Governor to transmit to us, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, a transcript in duplicate of every law which has been assented to by him in our name, together with a marginal abstract thereof duly authenticated under the Public Seal of our said Colony, and that such transcript shall be accompanied with such explanatory observations as may be required to exhibit the reasons and occasion for proposing such laws ; and that in case any such law shall at any time be disallowed, and so signified by us, our heirs and successors, under our or their Sign Manual and Signet, or by Order of our or their Privy Council unto him, then such law as shall be so disallowed shall from thenceforth cease, determine, and become utterly void and of none effect, anything to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

19. And whereas we have by our said Letters Patent authorised and empowered our said Governor as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf, to grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any court, or before any judge, justice or magistrate within our said Colony, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions ; Now we do hereby direct and enjoin our said Governor to call upon the judge who presided at the trial of any offender who shall have been condemned to suffer death by the sentence of any court within our said Colony to make to our said Governor a written report of the case of such offender, and such report of the said judge shall by our said Governor be taken into consideration at the first meeting thereafter which may be conveniently held of our said Executive Council, where the said judge may be specially summoned to attend ; and our said Governor shall not pardon or reprieve any such offender as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to him expedient so to do, upon receiving the advice of our Executive Council therein, but in all such cases he is to decide either to extend or to withhold a pardon or reprieve, according to his own deliberate judgment, whether the members of our said Executive Council concur therein or otherwise ; entering, nevertheless, on the minutes of the said Council a minute of his reasons at length, in case he should decide any such questions in opposition to the judgment of the majority of the members thereof.

20. And we do further direct and enjoin that all commissions granted by our said Governor to any person or persons to be judges, justices of the peace, or other officers, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be granted during pleasure only.

21. And whereas our said Governor will receive through one of our Principal Secretaries of State a book of tables in blank, commonly called " the Blue Book," to be annually filled up with certain returns, relative to the revenue and expenditure, militia, public works, legislation, civil establishment, pensions, population, schools, course of exchange, imports and exports, agricultural produce, manufactures, and other matters in the said " Blue Book " more particularly specified with reference to the state and condition of our said Colony : Now we do hereby direct and enjoin that all such returns be accurately prepared, and punctually transmitted to us from year to year through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

22. And whereas great prejudice may happen to our service and to the security of our said Colony by the absence therefrom of our said Governor, he shall not upon any pretence whatsoever quit our said Colony without having first obtained leave from us for so doing under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

3. Act of Parliament, 1933.

[24 Geo. V, c. 2.—December 21, 1933.]

Whereas an address has been presented to His Majesty by the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of Newfoundland in the terms set forth in the first schedule to this Act:

And whereas the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of Newfoundland have passed an Act entitled "The Loan Act, 1933," which Act is in this Act referred to as "The Loan Act," and is set out in the second schedule to this Act:

Now, therefore, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) It shall be lawful for His Majesty by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Realm to make provision for the suspension of the operation of the existing Letters Patent dated the 28th day of March, 1876,⁽¹⁾ constituting the office of Governor of Newfoundland, and of the existing Letters Patent dated the 17th day of July, 1905,⁽¹⁾ regarding the absence of the Governor, and to make provision for the administration of Newfoundland during the period while the operation of the existing Letters Patent is suspended on the basis of the recommendations of the Royal Commission referred to in the said address.

(2) Any Letters Patent issued under the foregoing sub-section may contain a provision reserving power to His Majesty to revoke or amend those Letters Patent, but before the passing of any further Letters Patent terminating the suspension of the operation of the existing Letters Patent or making any such altered provision for the administration of Newfoundland during the period while the operation of the existing Letters Patent is suspended as would empower the Governor to act in the administration of Newfoundland otherwise than on the advice of a Commission of Government constituted in accordance with the said recommendations, a draft of the further Letters Patent shall be laid before each House of Parliament for a period of 21 days during the session of Parliament and, if an address is presented to His Majesty by either House of Parliament against any of the provisions contained in the draft, no further proceedings shall be taken on the draft, without prejudice to the making of a new draft :

Provided that in reckoning any such period of 21 days as aforesaid, no account shall be taken of any time during which both Houses of Parliament are adjourned for more than 4 days.

SCHEDULES

First Schedule

Address presented to His Majesty by the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of Newfoundland

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

Most Gracious Sovereign :

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Council and Assembly of Newfoundland, humbly approach Your Majesty praying that—

Whereas in the present emergency Your Majesty's Island of Newfoundland is unable from its own resources to defray the interest charges on the public debt :

And whereas the Royal Commission appointed by Your Majesty's warrant bearing the date the 17th day of February, 1933, to examine into the future of Newfoundland has recommended that for the time being, until such time as the Island may become self-supporting again, the administration of the Island should be vested in His Excellency the Governor acting on the advice of a specially created Commission of Government and that during such period Your Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom should assume general responsibility for the finances of Newfoundland and should, in particular, make such arrangements as may be deemed just and practicable with a view to securing to Newfoundland a reduction in the present burden of public debt :

And whereas Your Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom have signified their readiness subject to the approval of Parliament to accept the recommendations of the Royal Commission and have made detailed proposals for carrying those recommendations into effect :

Now, therefore, Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to suspend the Letters Patent under the Great Seal bearing the date at Westminster the 28th day of March, 1876, and Letters Patent under the Great Seal bearing the date at Westminster the 17th day of July, 1905, and to issue new Letters Patent which would provide for the administration of the Island, until such time as it may become self-supporting again, on the basis of the recommendations which are contained in the report of the Royal Commission and of which a summary is set out in the annex hereto :

And further that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to cause to be laid before the Parliament of the United Kingdom at its present session such a measure as may enable them to be given immediate effect.

Annex

Extract from Report of Royal Commission appointed by His Majesty's Warrant bearing date the 17th day of February, 1933

We therefore recommend that the Newfoundland Government, recognising that it is impossible for the Island to surmount unaided the unprecedented difficulties that now confront it, should make an immediate appeal for the sympathetic co-operation of Your Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom in the adoption and execution of a joint plan of reconstruction, of which the following would be the main features :—

(a) The existing form of government would be suspended until such time as the Island may become self-supporting again.

(b) A special Commission of Government would be created which would be presided over by His Excellency the Governor, would be vested with full legislative and executive authority, and would take the place of the existing Legislature and Executive Council.

(c) The Commission of Government would be composed of six members, exclusive of the Governor, three of whom would be drawn from Newfoundland and three from the United Kingdom.

(d) The Government Departments in the Island would be divided into six groups. Each group would be placed in the charge of a member of the Commission of Government, who would be responsible for the efficient working of the Departments in the group, and the Commission would be collectively responsible for the several Departments.

(e) The proceedings of the Commission of Government would be subject to supervisory control by Your Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, and the Governor-in-Commission would be responsible to the Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs in the United Kingdom for the good government of the Island.

(f) Your Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom would, for their part, assume general responsibility for the finances of the Island until such time as it may become self-supporting again, and would, in particular, make such arrangements as may be deemed just and practicable with a view to securing to Newfoundland a reduction in the present burden of the public debt.

(g) It would be understood that, as soon as the Island's difficulties are overcome and the country is again self-supporting, responsible government, on request from the people of Newfoundland, would be restored.

Whereas, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal bearing date at Westminster the 28th day of March, 1876,⁽¹⁾ Her Majesty Queen Victoria did constitute the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our Island of Newfoundland and its dependencies;

And whereas by further Letters Patent bearing the date at Westminster the 17th day of July, 1905,⁽¹⁾ His late Majesty King Edward VII did amend the aforesaid Letters Patent;

And whereas we have received an address⁽²⁾ from the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Island praying that we may be graciously pleased to suspend the aforesaid Letters Patent and to issue new Letters Patent which would provide for the administration of the said Island, until such time as it may become self-supporting again, on the basis of the recommendations which are contained in the report of the Royal Commission appointed by us on the 17th day of February, 1933, and of which a summary is set out in the annex to the said address;

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland entitled "The Newfoundland Act, 1933,"⁽³⁾ it was provided that it should be lawful for us by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal to make provision for the suspension of the operation of the aforesaid Letters Patent of the 28th March, 1876, and the 17th July, 1905, and to make provision for the administration of Newfoundland during the period whilst the operation of the aforesaid Letters Patent is suspended;

Now know ye that we do hereby declare our will and pleasure to be that, as from the coming into effect of these our Letters Patent, the operation of the aforesaid Letters Patent of the 28th March, 1876, and the 17th July, 1905, shall be suspended pending the further declaration of our pleasure, without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder; and we do further ordain that, during the period whilst the operation of the aforesaid Letters Patent is suspended, the following provisions shall be made for the administration of our Island of Newfoundland and its dependencies:—

1. We do by these presents constitute, order and declare that there shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "our said Governor") in and over our Island of Newfoundland; and the islands adjacent; and all the coast of Labrador from a line drawn due north from the eastern boundary of the bay or harbour of Anse Sablon on the said coast to the 52nd degree of north latitude, and from thence westward along that parallel until it reaches the Romaine River and then northward along the left or east bank of that river and its head-waters to their source and from thence due north to the crest of the watershed or height of land there and from thence westward and northward along the crest of the watershed of the rivers flowing into the Atlantic Ocean until it reaches Cape Chidley; and all the islands adjacent to that part of the said coast of Labrador; as also of all forts and garrisons erected and established, or which shall be erected or established within or on the islands and coast aforesaid (which said islands and coast, together with the Island of Newfoundland, are hereinafter referred to as "our said Island"), and that the person who shall fill the said office of Governor shall be, from time to time, appointed by Commission under our Sign Manual and Signet. And we do hereby authorise and command our said Governor to do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said command, and to the trust we have reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed him by virtue of these present Letters Patent, or any Letters Patent amending the same, and of such Commission as may be or may have been issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such laws and ordinances as are or shall hereafter be in force in our said Island.

2. And we do hereby declare our pleasure to be that there shall be a Commission of Government for our said Island (hereinafter called "the said Commission") and that the said Commission shall consist of six persons appointed by us under our Sign Manual and Signet, of whom three shall be persons ordinarily resident in our said Island and three shall be persons ordinarily resident without our said Island. Every such person shall hold his place in the Commission during our pleasure.

3. Whenever any member of the said Commission shall by writing under his hand resign his place in the said Commission or shall die or be suspended from the exercise of his functions as a member of the said Commission or be absent from our said Island or be declared by the Governor to be incapable of exercising his functions as a member of the said Commission, the Governor may, by an instrument under the Public Seal, appoint some person to be provisionally a member of the said Commission in the place of the member so resigning or dying or being suspended or being absent or declared incapable.

Such person shall forthwith cease to be a member of the said Commission if his appointment is disallowed by us or if the member in whose place he was appointed shall be released from suspension or, as the case may be, shall return to our said Island or shall be declared by the Governor capable of again discharging his functions in the said Commission.

The Governor shall without delay report to us, for our confirmation or disallowance, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, every provisional appointment of any person as a member of the said Commission. Every such person shall hold his place in the Commission during our pleasure and the Governor may, by an instrument under the Public Seal, revoke any such appointment.

4. And we do hereby direct and enjoin that the said Commission of Government shall not proceed to the despatch of business unless duly summoned by authority of our said Governor, and unless three members at the least (exclusive of himself or the member presiding) be present and assisting throughout the whole of the meetings at which any such business shall be despatched.

5. And we do further direct and enjoin that our said Governor do attend and preside at the meetings of the said Commission of Government, unless when prevented by some necessary or reasonable cause; and that in his absence such member as may be elected to be vice-chairman by the said Commission from among the members of the said Commission who are persons ordinarily resident in our said Island shall preside at all such meetings.

6. And we do further direct and enjoin that a full and exact journal or minute be kept of all the deliberations, acts, proceedings, votes and resolutions of the said Commission and that at each meeting of the said Commission the minutes of the last meeting be read over, confirmed, or amended, as the case may require, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business. And we do further direct that twice in each year a full transcript of all the minutes of the said Commission for the preceding half year be transmitted to us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

7. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, with the advice and consent of the said Commission, to make laws for the peace, welfare and good government of our said Island, and any such law may amend, add to, alter or repeal any law passed by the Legislature heretofore subsisting in our said Island.

8. And we do further direct and enjoin that the style of enacting such laws shall be by "The Governor, by and with the advice of the Commission of Government" and no other.

9. And we do further direct and enjoin that no bill, vote, resolution or address for the appropriation of any part of the public revenue or for imposing any tax or impost shall be passed or adopted by the said Commission unless such bill, vote, resolution or address have first been recommended by our said Governor.

10. And we do further direct and enjoin that all laws shall be enacted and all other matters coming before the said Commission shall be decided by unanimity or, if on any matter there be not unanimity, by a majority of the votes given and in the latter event our said Governor and each member of the Commission actually present shall each exercise one vote.

11. And we do further direct and enjoin that no law made by our said Governor with the advice and consent of the said Commission shall take effect until our said Governor shall have assented thereto in our name and shall have signed the same in token of such assent.

12. It shall be lawful for us, our heirs and successors, by Order of our or their Privy Council, to disallow any law within one year from the date of the Governor's assent thereto and such disallowance on being made known by the Governor by proclamation in the Gazette, shall annul the law from the day when the disallowance is so made known.

13. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor to keep and use the Public Seal of our said Island for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Public Seal.

14. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, in our name and on our behalf, to make and execute, under the said Seal, grants and dispositions of any lands which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by us within our said Island.

15. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor to constitute and appoint all such judges, justices of the peace and other necessary officers in our said Island as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by us.

16. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, as he shall see occasion in our name and on our behalf, when any crime has been committed within our said Island, or for which the offender may be tried therein, to grant a pardon to any accomplice, not being the actual perpetrator of such crime, who shall give such information and evidence as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the principal offender; and further, to grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any court, or before any judge, justice or magistrate, within our said Island, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender, for such period as to our said Governor may seem fit, and to remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures, which may become due and payable to us. Provided always that our said Governor shall in no case make it a condition of any pardon or remission of sentence that the offender shall be banished from, or shall absent himself from our said Island.

17. And we do further authorise and empower our said Governor, so far as we lawfully may, to remove from his office, or to suspend from the exercise of the same, any person exercising any such office or place within our said Island, under or by virtue of any Commission or warrant granted, or which may be granted, by us in our name, or under our authority.

18. If the Governor shall be unable to administer the Government of our said Island by reason of any of the following causes, namely, death, incapacity, removal or departure from the Island, our Lieutenant-Governor or if there shall be no such officer in the Island or if such officer shall be unable to administer the Government of the Island by reason of any of the causes aforesaid, then such person or persons as we may appoint, under our Sign Manual and Signet, shall, during our pleasure, administer the Government of the Island, with all the powers and authorities vested in our said Governor by these our Letters Patent according to the tenour of these our Letters Patent and according to our Instructions as aforesaid and the laws of our said Island.

19. In the event of our said Governor having occasion to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government, or from our said Island for the purpose of visiting our Dominion of Canada on public business, he may in every such case, by an instrument under the Public Seal of our said Island, constitute and appoint our Lieutenant-Governor, or if there be no such officer or if such officer be absent or unable to act, then any other person, to be his deputy during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform, and execute for and on his behalf during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in our said Governor, by these our Letters Patent, as shall in and by such instrument be specified and limited, but no others. Every such deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as our said Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided, nevertheless, that by the appointment of a deputy as aforesaid, the power and authority of our said Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected, otherwise than we may at any time hereafter think proper to direct. Provided further that if any such deputy shall have been duly appointed it shall not be necessary during the continuance in office of such deputy for any person to assume the Government of our said Island as Administrator thereof.

20. And we do hereby require and command all our officers, civil and military, and all other inhabitants of our said Island, to be obedient, aiding, and assisting unto our said Governor, or, in the event of his death, incapacity, or absence, to such person or persons as may from time to time, under the provisions of these our Letters Patent, administer the Government of our said Island.

21. In the construction of these our Letters Patent the term "Governor" shall, unless inconsistent with the context, include every person for the time being administering the Government of our said Island.

22. And we do hereby reserve to ourselves, our heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter, or amend these our Letters Patent as to us or them shall seem meet.

23. And we do further direct and enjoin that these our Letters Patent shall be read and proclaimed at such place or places as our said Governor shall think fit within our said Island of Newfoundland, and shall come into operation on a day⁽¹⁾ to be fixed by our said Governor by proclamation in the Official Gazette.

In witness whereof we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent. Witness ourself at Westminster, the 30th day of January in the 24th year of our reign.

By warrant under the King's Sign Manual.

5. Royal Instructions, 1934.

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by certain Letters Patent bearing even date⁽²⁾ herewith we have constituted, ordered and declared that there shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "our said Governor") in and over our Island of Newfoundland and its dependencies (hereinafter called "our said Island"). And we have thereby authorised and commanded our said Governor to do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said command, and to the trust we have reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed him by virtue of the said Letters Patent and of the Commission to be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him, under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such laws and ordinances as are or shall hereafter be in force in our said Island. Now, therefore, we do by these our Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet, declare our pleasure to be that every person hereafter appointed to be our said Governor shall with all due solemnity cause our Commission under our Sign

(2) Page 234.

Manual and Signet, appointing our said Governor for the time being, to be read and published in the presence of the Chief Justice of our said Island for the time being, and we do further declare our pleasure to be that every person hereafter appointed to be our said Governor and every other officer appointed to administer the Government of our said Island shall take the oath of allegiance in the form provided by an Act passed in the session holden in the 31st and 32nd years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths";⁽¹⁾ and likewise that he or they take the usual oath for the due execution of the office and trust of our Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our said Island, and for the due and impartial administration of justice, which said oaths the Chief Justice for the time being of our said Island, or, in his absence or in the event of his being otherwise incapacitated, the senior judge then present, or failing such judge the senior member present of the Commission of Government, shall and he is hereby required to tender and administer unto him or them.

2. [Practically identical, mutatis mutandis, with the same clause of the Royal Instructions in respect of Canada: see page 55.]

3. And we do require our said Governor to communicate forthwith to the Commission of Government for our said Island these our Instructions, and likewise all such others from time to time as he shall find convenient for our service to be imparted to them.

4. And we do further direct and enjoin that, in the execution of the powers and authorities committed to our said Governor by our said Letters Patent, he shall in all cases consult with and act in accordance with the decision of the said Commission, excepting only in cases where, in his judgment, the matters to be decided shall be too unimportant to require their advice, or too urgent to admit of their advice being given by the time within which it may be necessary for him to act in respect of any such matters. Provided that in all such urgent cases he shall subsequently, and at the earliest practicable period, communicate to the said Commission the measures which he may so have adopted, with the reasons thereof.

5. And we do further direct and enjoin that our said Governor is not to assent in our name to any bill of any of the classes hereinafter specified, that is to say:—

(1) Any bill for divorce.

(2) Any bill whereby any grant of land or money or other donation or gratuity may be made to himself.

(3) Any bill affecting the currency of the Island.

(4) Any bill imposing differential duties.

(5) Any bill the provisions of which shall appear inconsistent with obligations imposed upon us by treaty.

(6) Any bill interfering with the discipline or control of our forces in our said Island by land and sea.

(7) Any bill of an extraordinary nature and importance whereby our prerogative, or the rights and property of our subjects not residing in our said Island, or the trade and shipping of the United Kingdom and its dependencies, may be prejudiced.

(8) Any bill containing provisions to which our assent has been once refused, or which have been disallowed by us :—

Unless our said Governor shall have previously obtained our instructions upon such bill through one of our Principal Secretaries of State or unless such bill shall contain a clause suspending the operation of such bill until the signification in our said Island of our pleasure thereupon, or unless our said Governor shall have satisfied himself that an urgent necessity exists requiring that such bill be brought into immediate operation, in which case he is authorised to assent in our name to such bill unless the same shall be repugnant to the law of England, or inconsistent with any obligations imposed upon us by treaty. But he is to transmit to us, by the earliest opportunity, the bill so assented to, together with his reasons for assenting thereto.

6. And we do further direct and enjoin our said Governor to transmit to us, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, a transcript in duplicate of every law which has been assented to by him in our name, together with a marginal abstract thereof duly authenticated under the Public Seal of our said Island, and that such transcript shall be accompanied with such explanatory observations as may be required to exhibit the reasons and occasion for proposing such laws.

7. And whereas we have by our said Letters Patent authorised and empowered our said Governor as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf, to grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any court, or before any judge, justice or magistrate within our said Island, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions ; Now we do hereby direct and enjoin our said Governor to call upon the judge who presided at the trial of any offender who shall have been condemned to suffer death by the sentence of any court within our said Island to make to our said Governor a written report of the case of such offender, and such report of the said judge shall by our said Governor be taken into consideration at the first meeting thereafter which may be conveniently held of the said Commission, where the said judge may be specially summoned to attend ; and our said Governor shall not pardon or reprieve any such offender as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to him expedient so to do, upon receiving the advice of the Commission therein, but in all such cases he is to decide either to extend or to withhold a pardon or reprieve, according to his own deliberate judgment, whether the members of the said Commission concur therein or otherwise; entering, nevertheless, on the minutes of the said Commission a minute of his reasons at length, in case he should decide any such questions in opposition to the judgment of the said Commission.

8. And we do further direct and enjoin that all commissions granted by our said Governor to any person or persons to be judges, justices of the peace, or other officers, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be granted during pleasure only, and whenever our said Governor shall appoint to any vacant office or employment of which the initial emoluments amount to or exceed 1,200 dollars a year, any person not by us specially directed to be appointed thereto, he shall at the same time distinctly inform such person that such appointment is to be considered only as temporary and provisional until our allowance or disallowance thereof be signified.

9. And whereas great prejudice may happen to our service and to the security of our said Island by the absence therefrom of our said Governor, he shall not upon any pretence whatsoever quit our said Island without having first obtained leave from us for so doing under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

10. In these our Instructions the term "Governor" shall, unless inconsistent with the context, include every person for the time being administering the Government of our said Island.

Given at our Court at Saint James's this 30th day of January, 1934, in the 24th year of our reign.

EMPIRE OF INDIA

[26 Geo. V, c. 2.—August 2, 1935.]

PART I.—INTRODUCTORY

2. (1) All rights, authority and jurisdiction heretofore belonging to His Majesty the King, Emperor of India, which appertain or are incidental to the government of the territories in India for the time being vested in him, and all rights, authority and jurisdiction exercisable by him in or in relation to any other territories in India, are exercisable by His Majesty, except in so far as may be otherwise provided by or under this Act, or as may be otherwise directed by His Majesty :

Provided that any powers connected with the exercise of the functions of the Crown in its relations with Indian States shall in India, if not exercised by His Majesty, be exercised only by, or by persons acting under the authority of, His Majesty's representative for the exercise of those functions of the Crown.

(2) The said rights, authority and jurisdiction shall include any rights, authority or jurisdiction heretofore exercisable in or in relation to any territories in India by the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State in Council, the Governor-General, the Governor-General in Council, any Governor or any local Government, whether by delegation from His Majesty or otherwise.

3. (1) The Governor-General of India is appointed by His Majesty by a Commission under the Royal Sign Manual and has—

(a) all such powers and duties as are conferred or imposed on him by or under this Act ; and

(b) such other powers of His Majesty, not being powers connected with the exercise of the functions of the Crown in its relations with Indian States, as His Majesty may be pleased to assign to him.

(2) His Majesty's representative for the exercise of the functions of the Crown in its relations with Indian States is appointed by His Majesty in like manner and has such powers and duties in connection with the exercise of those functions (not being powers or duties conferred or imposed by or under this Act on the Governor-General) as His Majesty may be pleased to assign to him.

(3) It shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint one person to fill both the said offices.

4. There shall be a Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's Forces in India appointed by warrant under the Royal Sign Manual.

PART II.—THE FEDERATION OF INDIA

Chapter I.—Establishment of Federation and Accession of Indian States

5. (1) It shall be lawful for His Majesty, if an address in that behalf has been presented to him by each House of Parliament and if the condition hereinafter mentioned is satisfied, to declare by proclamation that as from the day therein appointed there shall be united in a Federation under the Crown, by the name of "the Federation of India"—

(a) the Provinces hereinafter called "Governors' Provinces"; and

(b) the Indian States which have acceded or may thereafter accede to the Federation; and in the Federation so established there shall be included the Provinces hereinafter called "Chief Commissioners' Provinces."

(2) The condition referred to is that States—

(a) the Rulers whereof will, in accordance with the provisions contained in part II of the first schedule to this Act, be entitled to choose not less than 52 members of the Council of State; and

(b) the aggregate population whereof, as ascertained in accordance with the said provisions, amount to at least one-half of the total population of the States as so ascertained, have acceded to the Federation.

6. (1) A State shall be deemed to have acceded to the Federation if His Majesty has signified his acceptance of an instrument of accession executed by the Ruler thereof, whereby the Ruler for himself, his heirs and successors—

(a) declares that he accedes to the Federation as established under this Act, with the intent that His Majesty the King, the Governor-General of India, the Federal Legislature, the Federal Court and any other Federal authority established for the purposes of the Federation shall, by virtue of his instrument of accession, but subject always to the terms thereof, and for the purpose only of the Federation, exercise in relation to his State such functions as may be vested in them by or under this Act; and

(b) assumes the obligation of ensuring that due effect is given within his State to the provisions of this Act so far as they are applicable therein by virtue of his instrument of accession;

Provided that an instrument of accession may be executed conditionally on the establishment of the Federation on or before a specified date, and in that case the State shall not be deemed to have acceded to the Federation if the Federation is not established until after that date.

(2) An instrument of accession shall specify the matters which the Ruler accepts as matters with respect to which the Federal Legislature may make laws for his State, and the limitations, if any, to which the power of the Federal Legislature to make laws for his State, and the exercise of the executive authority of the Federation in his State, are respectively to be subject.

(3) A Ruler may, by a supplementary instrument executed by him and accepted by His Majesty, vary the instrument of accession of his State by extending the functions which by virtue of that instrument are exercisable by His Majesty or any Federal authority in relation to his State.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring His Majesty to accept any instrument of accession or supplementary instrument unless he considers it proper so to do, or as empowering His Majesty to accept any such instrument if it appears to him that the terms thereof are inconsistent with the scheme of Federation embodied in this Act :

Provided that after the establishment of the Federation, if any instrument has in fact been accepted by His Majesty, the validity of that instrument or of any of its provisions shall not be called in question and the provisions of this Act shall, in relation to the State, have effect subject to the provisions of the instrument.

(5) It shall be a term of every instrument of accession that the provisions of this Act mentioned in the second schedule thereto may, without affecting the accession of the State, be amended by or by authority of Parliament, but no such amendment shall, unless it is accepted by the Ruler in a supplementary instrument, be construed as extending the functions which by virtue of the instrument are exercisable by His Majesty or any Federal authority in relation to the State.

(6) An instrument of accession or supplementary instrument shall not be valid unless it is executed by the Ruler himself, but, subject as aforesaid, references in this Act to the Ruler of a State include references to any persons for the time being exercising the powers of the Ruler of the State, whether by reason of the Ruler's minority or for any other reason.

(7) After the establishment of the Federation the request of a Ruler that his State may be admitted to the Federation shall be transmitted to His Majesty through the Governor-General, and after the expiration of 20 years from the establishment of the Federation the Governor-General shall not transmit to His Majesty any such request until there has been presented to him by each Chamber of the Federal Legislature, for submission to His Majesty, an address praying that His Majesty may be pleased to admit the State into the Federation.

(8) In this Act a State which has acceded to the Federation is referred to as "a Federated State," and the instrument by virtue of which a State has so acceded, construed together with any supplementary instrument executed under this section, is referred to as "the instrument of accession" of that State.

(9) As soon as may be after any instrument of accession or supplementary instrument has been accepted by His Majesty under this section, copies of the instrument and of His Majesty's acceptance thereof shall be laid before Parliament, and all courts shall take judicial notice of every such instrument and acceptance.

Chapter II.—The Federal Executive

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the executive authority of the Federation shall be exercised on behalf of His Majesty by the Governor-General, either directly or through officers subordinate to him, but nothing in this section shall prevent the Federal Legislature from conferring functions upon subordinate authorities, or be deemed to transfer to the Governor-General any functions conferred by any existing Indian law on any court, judge or officer, or on any local or other authority.

(2) References in this Act to the functions of the Governor-General shall be construed as references to his powers and duties in the exercise of the executive authority of the Federation and to any other powers and duties conferred or imposed on him as Governor-General by or under this Act, other than powers exercisable by him by reason that they have been assigned to him by His Majesty under part I of this Act.

(3) The provisions of the third schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the salary and allowances of the Governor-General and the provision to be made for enabling him to discharge conveniently and with dignity the duties of his office.

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the executive authority of the Federation extends—

(a) to the matters with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws ;

(b) to the raising in British India on behalf of His Majesty of naval, military and air forces and to the governance of His Majesty's forces borne on the Indian establishment ;

(c) to the exercise of such rights, authority and jurisdiction as are exercisable by His Majesty by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or otherwise in and in relation to the tribal areas :

Provided that—

(i) the said authority does not, save as expressly provided in this Act, extend in any Province to matters with respect to which the Provincial Legislature has power to make laws ;

(ii) the said authority does not, save as expressly provided in this Act, extend in any Federated State save to matters with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws for that State, and the exercise thereof in each State shall be subject to such limitations, if any, as may be specified in the instrument of accession of the State ;

(iii) the said authority does not extend to the enlistment or enrolment in any forces raised in India of any person unless he is either a subject of His Majesty or a native of India or of territories adjacent to India ; and

(iv) commissions in any such force shall be granted by His Majesty save in so far as he may be pleased to delegate that power by virtue of the provisions of part I of this Act or otherwise.

(2) The executive authority of the Ruler of a Federated State shall, notwithstanding anything in this section, continue to be exercisable in that State with respect to matters with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws for that State except in so far as the executive authority of the Federation becomes exercisable in the State to the exclusion of the executive authority of the Ruler by virtue of a Federal law.

ADMINISTRATION OF FEDERAL AFFAIRS

9. (1) There shall be a Council of Ministers, not exceeding ten in number, to aid and advise the Governor-General in the exercise of his functions, except in so far as he is by or under this Act required to exercise his functions or any of them in his discretion :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as preventing the Governor-General from exercising his individual judgment in any case where by or under this Act he is required so to do.

(2) The Governor-General in his discretion may preside at meetings of the Council of Ministers.

(3) If any question arises whether any matter is or is not a matter as respects which the Governor-General is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion or to exercise his individual judgment, the decision of the Governor-General in his discretion shall be final, and the validity of anything done by the Governor-General shall not be called in question on the ground that he ought or ought not to have acted in his discretion, or ought or ought not to have exercised his individual judgment.

10. (1) The Governor-General's Ministers shall be chosen and summoned by him, shall be sworn as members of the Council, and shall hold office during his pleasure.

(2) A Minister who for any period of 6 consecutive months is not a member of either Chamber of the Federal Legislature shall at the expiration of that period cease to be a Minister.

(3) The salaries of Ministers shall be such as the Federal Legislature may from time to time by Act determine and, until the Federal Legislature so determine, shall be determined by the Governor-General :

Provided that the salary of a Minister shall not be varied during his term of office.

(4) The question whether any and, if so, what advice was tendered by Ministers to the Governor-General shall not be inquired into in any court.

(5) The functions of the Governor-General with respect to the choosing and summoning and the dismissal of Ministers, and with respect to the determination of their salaries, shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

11. (1) The functions of the Governor-General with respect to defence and ecclesiastical affairs and with respect to external affairs, except the relations between the Federation and any part of His Majesty's dominions, shall be exercised by him in his discretion, and his functions in or in relation to the tribal areas shall be similarly exercised.

(2) To assist him in the exercise of those functions the Governor-General may appoint Counsellors, not exceeding three in number, whose salaries and conditions of service shall be such as may be prescribed by His Majesty in Council.

12. (1) In the exercise of his functions the Governor-General shall have the following special responsibilities, that is to say,—

(a) the prevention of any grave menace to the peace or tranquillity of India or any part thereof ;

(b) the safeguarding of the financial stability and credit of the Federal Government ;

(c) the safeguarding of the legitimate interests of minorities ;

(d) the securing to, and to the dependants of, persons who are or have been members of the public services of any rights provided or preserved for them by or under this Act and the safeguarding of their legitimate interests ;

(e) the securing in the sphere of executive action of the purposes which the provisions of chapter III of part V of this Act are designed to secure in relation to legislation ;

(f) the prevention of action which would subject goods of United Kingdom or Burmese origin imported into India to discriminatory or penal treatment ;

(g) the protection of the rights of any Indian State and the rights and dignity of the Ruler thereof ; and

(h) the securing that the due discharge of his functions with respect to matters with respect to which he is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion, or to exercise his individual judgment, is not prejudiced or impeded by any course of action taken with respect to any other matter.

(2) If and in so far as any special responsibility of the Governor-General is involved, he shall in the exercise of his functions exercise his individual judgment as to the action to be taken.

13. (2) The validity of anything done by the Governor-General shall not be called in question on the ground that it was done otherwise than in accordance with any instrument of Instructions issued to him.

14. (1) In so far as the Governor-General is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion or to exercise his individual judgment, he shall be under the general control of, and comply with such particular directions, if any, as may from time to time be given to him by, the Secretary of State, but the validity of anything done by the Governor-General shall not be called in question on the ground that it was done otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Before giving any directions under this section the Secretary of State shall satisfy himself that nothing in the directions requires the Governor-General to act in any manner inconsistent with any instrument of Instructions issued to him by His Majesty.

15. (1) The Governor-General may appoint a person to be his Financial Adviser.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Governor-General's Financial Adviser to assist by his advice the Governor-General in the discharge of his special responsibility for safeguarding the financial stability and credit of the Federal Government, and also to give advice to the Federal Government upon any matter relating to finance with respect to which he may be consulted.

(3) The Governor-General's Financial Adviser shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General, and the salary and allowances of the Financial Adviser and the numbers of his staff and their conditions of service shall be such as the Governor-General may determine.

(4) The powers of the Governor-General with respect to the appointment and dismissal of a Financial Adviser, and with respect to the determination of his salary and allowances and the numbers of his staff and their conditions of service, shall be exercised by him in his discretion :

Provided that, if the Governor-General has determined to appoint a Financial Adviser, he shall, before making any appointment other than the first appointment, consult his Ministers as to the person to be selected.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Advocate-General to give advice to the Federal Government upon such legal matters, and to perform such other duties of a legal character, as may be referred or assigned to him by the Governor-General, and in the performance of his duties he shall have right of audience in all courts in British India and, in a case in which Federal interests are concerned, in all courts in any Federated State.

17. (1) All executive action of the Federal Government shall be expressed to be taken in the name of the Governor-General.

(2) Orders and other instruments made and executed in the name of the Governor-General shall be authenticated in such manner as may be specified in rules to be made by the Governor-General, and the validity of an order or instrument which is so authenticated shall not be called in question on the ground that it is not an order or instrument made or executed by the Governor-General.

(3) The Governor-General shall make rules for the more convenient transaction of the business of the Federal Government, and for the allocation among Ministers of the said business in so far as it is not business with respect to which the Governor-General is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion.

(4) The rules shall include provisions requiring Ministers and Secretaries to Government to transmit to the Governor-General all such information with respect to the business of the Federal Govern-

LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE

30. (1) Subject to the special provisions of this part of this Act with respect to financial bills, a bill may originate in either Chamber.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section, a bill shall not be deemed to have been passed by the Chambers of the Legislature unless it has been agreed to by both Chambers, either without amendment or with such amendments only as are agreed to by both Chambers.

(3) A bill pending in the Legislature shall not lapse by reason of the prorogation of the Chambers.

(4) A bill pending in the Council of State which has not been passed by the Federal Assembly shall not lapse on a dissolution of the Assembly.

(5) A bill which is pending in the Federal Assembly or which having been passed by the Federal Assembly is pending in the Council of State shall, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section, lapse on a dissolution of the Assembly.

31. (1) If after a bill has been passed by one Chamber and transmitted to the other Chamber—

(a) the bill is rejected by the other Chamber ; or

(b) the Chambers have finally disagreed as to the amendments to be made in the bill ; or

(c) more than 6 months elapse from the date of the reception of the bill by the other Chamber without the bill being presented to the Governor-General for his assent, the Governor-General may, unless the bill has lapsed by reason of a dissolution of the Assembly, notify to the Chambers, by message if they are sitting or by public notification if they are not sitting, his intention to summon them to meet in a joint sitting for the purpose of deliberating and voting on the bill :

Provided that, if it appears to the Governor-General that the bill relates to finance or to any matter which affects the discharge of his functions in so far as he is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion or to exercise his individual judgment, he may so notify the Chambers notwithstanding that there has been no rejection of or final disagreement as to the bill and notwithstanding that the said period of 6 months has not elapsed, if he is satisfied that there is no reasonable prospect of the bill being presented to him for his assent without undue delay.

In reckoning any such period of 6 months as is referred to in this sub-section, no account shall be taken of any time during which the Legislature is prorogued or during which both Chambers are adjourned for more than 4 days.

(2) Where the Governor-General has notified his intention of summoning the Chambers to meet in a joint sitting, neither Chamber shall proceed further with the bill, but the Governor-General may at any time in the next session after the expiration of 6 months from the date of his notification summon the Chambers to meet in a joint sitting for the purpose specified in his notification and, if he does so, the Chambers shall meet accordingly :

Provided that, if it appears to the Governor-General that the bill is such a bill as is mentioned in the proviso to sub-section (1) of this section, he may summon the Chambers to meet in a joint sitting for the purpose aforesaid at any date, whether in the same session or in the next session.

(3) The functions of the Governor-General under the provisos to the two last preceding sub-sections shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

(4) If at the joint sitting of the two Chambers the bill, with such amendments, if any, as are agreed to in joint sitting, is passed by a majority of the total number of members of both Chambers present and voting, it shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have been passed by both Chambers :

Provided that at a joint sitting—

(a) if the bill, having been passed by one Chamber, has not been passed by the other Chamber with amendments and returned to the Chamber in which it originated, no amendment shall be proposed to the bill other than such amendments (if any) as are made necessary by the delay in the passage of the bill ;

(b) if the bill has been so passed and returned, only such amendments as aforesaid shall be proposed to the bill and such other amendments as are relevant to the matters with respect to which the Chambers have not agreed, and the decision of the person presiding as to the amendments which are admissible under this sub-section shall be final.

(5) A joint sitting may be held under this section and a bill passed thereat notwithstanding that a dissolution of the Assembly has intervened since the Governor-General notified his intention to summon the Chambers to meet therein.

32. (1) When a bill has been passed by the Chambers, it shall be presented to the Governor-General, and the Governor-General shall in his discretion declare either that he assents in His Majesty's name to the bill, or that he withholds assent therefrom, or that he reserves the bill for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure :

Provided that the Governor-General may in his discretion return the bill to the Chambers with a message requesting that they will reconsider the bill or any specified provisions thereof and, in particular, will consider the desirability of introducing any such amendments as he may recommend in his message, and the Chambers shall reconsider the bill accordingly.

(2) A bill reserved for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure shall not become an Act of the Federal Legislature unless and until, within 12 months from the day on which it was presented to the Governor-General, the Governor-General makes known by public notification that His Majesty has assented thereto.

(3) Any Act assented to by the Governor-General may be disallowed by His Majesty within 12 months from the day of the Governor-General's assent, and where any Act is so disallowed the Governor-General shall forthwith make the disallowance known by public notification, and as from the date of the notification the Act shall become void.

PROCEDURE IN FINANCIAL MATTERS

33. (1) The Governor-General shall in respect of every financial year cause to be laid before both Chambers of the Federal Legislature a statement of the estimated receipts and expenditure of the Federation for that year, in this part of this Act referred to as "the annual financial statement."

(2) The estimates of expenditure embodied in the annual financial statement shall show separately—

(a) the sums required to meet expenditure described by this Act as expenditure charged upon the revenues of the Federation ; and

(b) the sums required to meet other expenditure proposed to be made from the revenues of the Federation, and shall distinguish expenditure on revenue account from other expenditure, and indicate the sums, if any, which are included solely because the Governor-General has directed their inclusion as being necessary for the due discharge of any of his special responsibilities.

(3) The following expenditure shall be expenditure charged on the revenues of the Federation :—

(a) the salary and allowances of the Governor-General and other expenditure relating to his office for which provision is required to be made by Order in Council ;

(b) debt charges for which the Federation is liable, including interest, sinking fund charges and redemption charges, and other expenditure relating to the raising of loans and the service and redemption of debt ;

(c) the salaries and allowances of Ministers, of Counsellors, of the Financial Adviser, of the Advocate-General, of Chief Commissioners, and of the staff of the Financial Adviser ;

(d) the salaries, allowances, and pensions payable to or in respect of judges of the Federal Court, and the pensions payable to or in respect of judges of any High Court ;

(e) expenditure for the purpose of the discharge by the Governor-General of his functions with respect to defence and ecclesiastical affairs, his functions with respect to external affairs in so far as he is by or under this Act required in the exercise thereof to act in his discretion, his functions in or in relation to tribal areas, and his functions in relation to the administration of any territory in the direction and control of which he is under this Act required to act in his discretion : provided that the sum so charged in any year in respect of expenditure on ecclesiastical affairs shall not exceed 42 lakhs of rupees, exclusive of pension charges ;

(f) the sums payable to His Majesty under this Act out of the revenues of the Federation in respect of the expenses incurred in discharging the functions of the Crown in its relations with Indian States ;

(g) any grants for purposes connected with the administration of any areas in a Province which are for the time being excluded areas ;

(h) any sums required to satisfy any judgment, decree or award of any court or arbitral tribunal ;

(i) any other expenditure declared by this Act or any Act of the Federal Legislature to be so charged.

(4) Any question whether any proposed expenditure falls within a class of expenditure charged on the revenues of the Federation shall be decided by the Governor-General in his discretion.

34. (1) So much of the estimates of expenditure as relates to expenditure charged upon the revenues of the Federation shall not be submitted to the vote of the Legislature, but nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as preventing the discussion in either Chamber of the Legislature of any of those estimates other than estimates relating to expenditure referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (f) of sub-section (3) of the last preceding section.

(2) So much of the said estimates as relates to other expenditure shall be submitted in the form of demands for grants to the Federal Assembly and thereafter to the Council of State, and either Chamber shall have power to assent or to refuse to assent to any demand, or to assent to any demand subject to a reduction of the amount specified therein :

Provided that, where the Assembly have refused to assent to any demand, that demand shall not be submitted to the Council of State, unless the Governor-General so directs and, where the Assembly have assented to a demand subject to a reduction of the amount specified therein, a demand for the reduced amount only shall be submitted to the Council of State, unless the Governor-General otherwise directs ; and where, in either of the said cases, such a direction is given, the demand submitted to the Council of State shall be for such amount, not being a greater amount than that originally demanded, as may be specified in the direction.

(3) If the Chambers differ with respect to any demand the Governor-General shall summon the two Chambers to meet in a joint sitting for the purpose of deliberating and voting on the demand as to which they disagree, and the decision of the majority of the members of both Chambers present and voting shall be deemed to be the decision of the two Chambers.

(4) No demand for a grant shall be made except on the recommendation of the Governor-General.

35. (1) The Governor-General shall authenticate by his signature a schedule specifying—

(a) the grants made by the Chambers under the last preceding section ;

(b) the several sums required to meet the expenditure charged on the revenues of the Federation but not exceeding, in the case of any sum, the sum shown in the statement previously laid before the Legislature :

Provided that, if the Chambers have not assented to any demand for a grant or have assented subject to a reduction of the amount specified therein, the Governor-General may, if in his opinion the refusal or reduction would affect the due discharge of any of his special responsibilities, include in the schedule such additional amount, if any, not exceeding the amount of the rejected demand or the reduction, as the case may be, as appears to him necessary in order to enable him to discharge that responsibility.

(2) The schedule so authenticated shall be laid before both Chambers but shall not be open to discussion or vote therein.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section, no expenditure from the revenues of the Federation shall be deemed to be duly authorised unless it is specified in the schedule so authenticated.

37. (1) A bill or amendment making provision—

(a) for imposing or increasing any tax ; or
 (b) for regulating the borrowing of money or the giving of any guarantee by the Federal Government, or for amending the law with respect to any financial obligations undertaken or to be undertaken by the Federal Government ; or

(c) for declaring any expenditure to be expenditure charged on the revenues of the Federation, or for increasing the amount of any such expenditure, shall not be introduced or moved except on the recommendation of the Governor-General, and a bill making such provision shall not be introduced in the Council of State.

(2) A bill or amendment shall not be deemed to make provision for any of the purposes aforesaid by reason only that it provides for the imposition of fines or other pecuniary penalties, or for the demand or payment of fees for licences or fees for services rendered.

(3) A bill which, if enacted and brought into operation, would involve expenditure from the revenues of the Federation shall not be passed by either Chamber unless the Governor-General has recommended to that Chamber the consideration of the bill.

PROCEDURE GENERALLY

38. (1) Each Chamber of the Federal Legislature may make rules for regulating, subject to the provisions of this Act, their procedure and the conduct of their business :

Provided that as regards each Chamber the Governor-General shall in his discretion, after consultation with the President or the Speaker, as the case may be, make rules—

(a) for regulating the procedure of, and the conduct of business in, the Chamber in relation to any matter which affects the discharge of his functions in so far as he is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion or to exercise his individual judgment ;

(b) for securing the timely completion of financial business ;

(c) for prohibiting the discussion of, or the asking of questions on, any matter connected with any Indian State, other than a matter with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws for that State, unless the Governor-General in his discretion is satisfied that the matter affects Federal interests or affects a British subject, and has given his consent to the matter being discussed or the question being asked ;

(d) for prohibiting, save with the consent of the Governor-General in his discretion—

(i) the discussion of, or the asking of questions on, any matter connected with relations between His Majesty or the Governor-General and any foreign State or Prince ; or

(ii) the discussion, except in relation to estimates of expenditure of, or the asking of questions on, any matter connected with the tribal areas or the administration of any excluded area ; or

(iii) the discussion of, or the asking of questions on, any action taken in his discretion by the Governor-General in relation to the affairs of a Province ; or

(iv) the discussion of, or the asking of questions on, the personal conduct of the Ruler of any Indian State, or of a member of the ruling family thereof ; and, if and in so far as any rule so made by the Governor-General is inconsistent with any rule made by a Chamber, the rule made by the Governor-General shall prevail.

(2) The Governor-General, after consultation with the President of the Council of State and the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, may make rules as to the procedure with respect to joint sittings of, and communications between, the two Chambers.

The said rules shall make such provision for the purposes specified in the proviso to the preceding sub-section as the Governor-General in his discretion may think fit.

(3) Until rules are made under this section, the rules of procedure and standing orders in force immediately before the establishment of the Federation with respect to the Indian Legislature shall have effect in relation to the Federal Legislature subject to such modifications and adaptations as may be made therein by the Governor-General in his discretion.

(4) At a joint sitting of the two Chambers the President of the Council of State, or in his absence such person as may be determined by rules of procedure made under this section, shall preside.

39. All proceedings in the Federal Legislature shall be conducted in the English language :

Provided that the rules of procedure of each Chamber and the rules with respect to joint sittings shall provide for enabling persons unacquainted, or not sufficiently acquainted, with the English language to use another language.

40. (1) No discussion shall take place in the Federal Legislature with respect to the conduct of any judge of the Federal Court or a High Court in the discharge of his duties.

In this sub-section the reference to a High Court shall be construed as including a reference to any court in a Federated State which is a High Court for any of the purposes of part IX of this Act.

(2) If the Governor-General in his discretion certifies that the discussion of a bill introduced or proposed to be introduced in the Federal Legislature, or of any specified clause of a bill, or of any amendment moved or proposed to be moved to a bill, would affect the discharge of his special responsibility for the prevention of any grave menace to the peace or tranquillity of India or any part thereof, he may in his discretion direct that no proceedings, or no further proceedings, shall be taken in relation to the bill, clause or amendment, and effect shall be given to the direction.

Chapter IV.—Legislative Powers of Governor-General

42. (1) If at any time when the Federal Legislature is not in session the Governor-General is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action, he may promulgate such ordinances as the circumstances appear to him to require :

Provided that the Governor-General—

(a) shall exercise his individual judgment as respects the promulgation of any ordinance under this section if a bill containing the same provisions would under this Act have required his previous sanction to the introduction thereof into the Legislature ; and

(b) shall not, without instructions from His Majesty, promulgate any such ordinance if he would have deemed it necessary to reserve a bill containing the same provisions for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon.

(2) An ordinance promulgated under this section shall have the same force and effect as an Act of the Federal Legislature assented to by the Governor-General, but every such ordinance—

(a) shall be laid before the Federal Legislature and shall cease to operate at the expiration of 6 weeks from the reassembly of the Legislature, or, if before the expiration of that period resolutions disapproving it are passed by both Chambers, upon the passing of the second of those resolutions ;

(b) shall be subject to the provisions of this Act relating to the power of His Majesty to disallow Acts as if it were an Act of the Federal Legislature assented to by the Governor-General ; and

(c) may be withdrawn at any time by the Governor-General.

(3) If and so far as an ordinance under this section makes any provision which the Federal Legislature would not under this Act be competent to enact, it shall be void.

43. (1) If at any time the Governor-General is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action for the purpose of enabling him satisfactorily to discharge his functions in so far as he is by or under this Act required in the exercise thereof to act in his discretion or to exercise his individual judgment, he may promulgate such ordinances as in his opinion the circumstances of the case require.

(2) An ordinance promulgated under this section shall continue in operation for such period not exceeding 6 months as may be specified therein, but may by a subsequent ordinance be extended for a further period not exceeding 6 months.

(3) An ordinance promulgated under this section shall have the same force and effect as an Act of the Federal Legislature assented to by the Governor-General, but every such ordinance—

(a) shall be subject to the provisions of this Act relating to the power of His Majesty to disallow Acts as if it were an Act of the Federal Legislature assented to by the Governor-General ;

(b) may be withdrawn at any time by the Governor-General ;
and

(c) if it is an ordinance extending a previous ordinance for a further period, shall be communicated forthwith to the Secretary of State and shall be laid by him before each House of Parliament.

(4) If and so far as an ordinance under this section makes any provision which the Federal Legislature would not under this Act be competent to enact, it shall be void.

(5) The functions of the Governor-General under this section shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

44. (1) If at any time it appears to the Governor-General that, for the purpose of enabling him satisfactorily to discharge his functions in so far as he is by or under this Act required in the exercise thereof to act in his discretion or to exercise his individual judgment, it is essential that provision should be made by legislation, he may by message to both Chambers of the Legislature explain the circumstances which in his opinion render legislation essential, and either—

(a) enact forthwith, as a Governor-General's Act, a bill containing such provisions as he considers necessary ; or

(b) attach to his message a draft of the bill which he considers necessary.

(2) Where the Governor-General takes such action as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of the preceding sub-section, he may at any time after the expiration of one month enact, as a Governor-General's Act, the bill proposed by him to the Chambers either in the form of the draft communicated to them or with such amendments as he deems necessary, but before so doing he shall consider any address which may have been presented to him within the said period by either Chamber with reference to the bill or to amendments suggested to be made therein.

(3) A Governor-General's Act shall have the same force and effect, and shall be subject to disallowance in the same manner, as an Act of the Federal Legislature assented to by the Governor-General and, if and in so far as a Governor-General's Act makes any provision which the Federal Legislature would not under this Act be competent to enact, it shall be void.

(4) Every Governor-General's Act shall be communicated forthwith to the Secretary of State and shall be laid by him before each House of Parliament.

(5) The functions of the Governor-General under this section shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

Chapter V.—Provisions in Case of Failure of Constitutional Machinery

45. (1) If at any time the Governor-General is satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the government of the Federation cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he may by proclamation—

(a) declare that his function shall to such extent as may be specified in the proclamation be exercised by him in his discretion ;

(b) assume to himself all or any of the powers vested in or exercisable by any Federal body or authority, and any such proclamation may contain such incidental and consequential provisions as may appear to him to be necessary or desirable for giving effect to the objects of the proclamation, including provisions for suspending in whole or in part the operation of any provisions of this Act relating to any Federal body or authority :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall authorise the Governor-General to assume to himself any of the powers vested in or exercisable by the Federal Court or to suspend, either in whole or in part, the operation of any provision of this Act relating to the Federal Court.

(2) Any such proclamation may be revoked or varied by a subsequent proclamation.

(3) A proclamation issued under this section—

(a) shall be communicated forthwith to the Secretary of State and shall be laid by him before each House of Parliament ;

(b) unless it is a proclamation revoking a previous proclamation, shall cease to operate at the expiration of 6 months :

Provided that, if and so often as a resolution approving the continuance in force of such a proclamation is passed by both Houses of Parliament, the proclamation shall, unless revoked, continue in force for a further period of 12 months from the date on which under this sub-section it would otherwise have ceased to operate.

(4) If at any time the government of the Federation has for a continuous period of 3 years been carried on under and by virtue of a proclamation issued under this section, then, at the expiration of that period, the proclamation shall cease to have effect and the government of the Federation shall be carried on in accordance with the other provisions of this Act, subject to any amendment thereof which Parliament may deem it necessary to make, but nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as extending the power of Parliament to make amendments in this Act without affecting the accession of a State.

(5) If the Governor-General, by a proclamation under this section, assumes to himself any power of the Federal Legislature to make laws, any law made by him in the exercise of that power shall, subject to the terms thereof, continue to have effect until 2 years have elapsed from the date on which the proclamation ceases to have effect, unless sooner repealed or re-enacted by Act of the appropriate Legislature, and any reference in this Act to Federal Acts, Federal laws, or Acts or laws of the Federal Legislature shall be construed as including a reference to such a law.

(6) The functions of the Governor-General under this section shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

PART III.—THE GOVERNORS' PROVINCES

Chapter I.—The Provinces

46. (1) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section with respect to Berar, the following shall be Governors' Provinces, that is to say, Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the United Provinces, the Punjab, Bihar, the Central Provinces and Berar, Assam, the North West Frontier Province, Orissa, Sind, and such other Governors' Provinces as may be created under this Act.

(2) Burma shall cease to be part of India.

(3) In this Act the expression "Province" means, unless the context otherwise requires, a Governor's Province, and "provincial" shall be construed accordingly.

47. Whereas certain territory (in this Act referred to as "Berar") is under the sovereignty of His Exalted Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad, but is at the date of the passing of this Act, by virtue of certain agreements subsisting between His Majesty and His Exalted Highness, administered together with the Central Provinces:

And whereas it is in contemplation that an agreement shall be concluded between His Majesty and His Exalted Highness whereby, notwithstanding the continuance of the sovereignty of His Exalted Highness over Berar, the Central Provinces and Berar may be governed together as one Governor's Province under this Act by the name of "the Central Provinces and Berar":

Now, therefore—

(1) While any such agreement is in force—

(a) Berar and the Central Provinces shall, notwithstanding the continuance of the sovereignty of His Exalted Highness, be deemed to be one Governor's Province by the name of "the Central Provinces and Berar";

(b) any reference in this Act or in any other Act to British India shall be construed as a reference to British India and Berar, and any reference in this Act to subjects of His Majesty shall, except for the purposes of any oath of allegiance, be deemed to include a reference to Berari subjects of His Exalted Highness ;

(c) any provision made under this Act with respect to the qualifications of the voters for the Provincial Legislature of the Central Provinces and Berar, or the voters for the Council of State, shall be such as to give effect to any provisions with respect to those matters contained in the agreement :

(2) If no such agreement is concluded, or if such an agreement is concluded but subsequently ceases to have effect, references in this Act to the Central Provinces and Berar shall be construed as references to the Central Provinces, and His Majesty in Council may make such consequential modifications in the provisions of this Act relating to the Central Provinces as he thinks proper.

57. (1) If it appears to the Governor of a Province that the peace or tranquillity of the Province is endangered by the operations of any persons committing or conspiring, preparing or attempting to commit, crimes of violence which, in the opinion of the Governor, are intended to overthrow the Government as by law established, the Governor may, if he thinks that the circumstances of the case require him so to do for the purpose of combating those operations, direct that his functions shall, to such extent as may be specified in the direction, be exercised by him in his discretion and, until otherwise provided by a subsequent direction of the Governor, those functions shall to that extent be exercised by him accordingly.

(2) While any such direction is in force, the Governor may authorise an official to speak in and otherwise take part in the proceedings of the Legislature, and any official so authorised may speak and take part accordingly in the proceedings of the Chamber or Chambers of the Legislature, any joint sitting of the Chambers, and any committee of the Legislature of which he may be named a member by the Governor, but shall not be entitled to vote.

The Secretary of State shall lay the draft of the Order which it is proposed to recommend His Majesty to make under this sub-section before Parliament within 6 months from the passing of this Act.

(2) His Majesty may at any time by Order in Council—

(a) direct that the whole or any specified part of an excluded area shall become, or become part of, a partially excluded area ;

(b) direct that the whole or any specified part of a partially excluded area shall cease to be a partially excluded area or a part of such an area ;

and any such Order may contain such incidental and consequential provisions as appear to His Majesty to be necessary and proper, but save as aforesaid the Order in Council made under sub-section (1) of this section shall not be varied by any subsequent Order.

92. (1) The executive authority of a Province extends to excluded and partially excluded areas therein, but, notwithstanding anything in this Act, no Act of the Federal Legislature or of the Provincial Legislature shall apply to an excluded area or a partially excluded area, unless the Governor by public notification so directs, and the Governor in giving such a direction with respect to any Act may direct that the Act shall in its application to the area, or to any specified part thereof, have effect subject to such exceptions or modifications as he thinks fit.

(2) The Governor may make regulations for the peace and good government of any area in a Province which is for the time being an

Chapter VI.—Provisions in Case of Failure of Constitutional Machinery

93. [Reproduces generally, mutatis mutandis, and with minor variations, the provisions of section 45.]

PART IV.—THE CHIEF COMMISSIONERS' PROVINCES

94. (1) The following shall be the Chief Commissioners' Provinces, that is to say, the heretofore existing Chief Commissioners' Provinces of British Baluchistan, Delhi, Ajmer-Merwara, Coorg and the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the area known as "Panth Piploa," and such other Chief Commissioners' Provinces as may be created under this Act.

(2) Aden shall cease to be part of India.

(3) A Chief Commissioner's Province shall be administered by the Governor-General acting, to such extent as he thinks fit, through a Chief Commissioner to be appointed by him in his discretion.

95. (1) In directing and controlling the administration of British Baluchistan, the Governor-General shall act in his discretion.

(2) The executive authority of the Federation extends to British Baluchistan as it extends to other Chief Commissioners' Provinces, but, notwithstanding anything in this Act, no Act of the Federal Legislature shall apply to British Baluchistan unless the Governor-General in his discretion by public notification so directs, and the Governor-General in giving such a direction with respect to any Act may direct that the Act shall in its application to the Province, or to any specified part thereof, have effect subject to such exceptions or modifications as he thinks fit.

(3) The Governor-General may in his discretion make regulations for the peace and good government of British Baluchistan, and any regulations so made may repeal or amend any Act of the Federal Legislature or any existing Indian law which is for the time being applicable to the Province and, when promulgated by the Governor-General, shall have the same force and effect as an Act of the Federal Legislature which applies to the Province.

The provisions of part II of this Act relating to the power of His Majesty to disallow Acts shall apply in relation to any such regulations as they apply in relation to Acts of the Federal Legislature assented to by the Governor-General.

96. The provisions of sub-section (3) of the last preceding section shall apply in relation to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands as they apply in relation to British Baluchistan.

97. Until other provision is made by His Majesty in Council, the constitution, powers and functions of the Coorg Legislative Council, and the arrangements with respect to revenues collected in Coorg and expenses in respect of Coorg, shall continue unchanged.

98. The provisions of part III of this Act with respect to police rules and with respect to crimes of violence intended to overthrow the Government, including the provisions thereof relating to the non-disclosure of certain records and information, shall apply in relation to Chief Commissioners' Provinces as they apply in relation to Governors' Provinces, with the substitution for references to the Governor and the Chamber or Chambers of the Provincial Legislature of references to the Governor-General and the Chambers of the Federal Legislature.

PART V.—LEGISLATIVE POWERS

Chapter I.—Distribution of Powers

99. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Federal Legislature may make laws for the whole or any part of British India or for any Federated State, and a Provincial Legislature may make laws for the Province or for any part thereof.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by the preceding sub-section, no Federal law shall, on the ground that it would have extraterritorial operation, be deemed to be invalid in so far as it applies—

(a) to British subjects and servants of the Crown in any part of India ; or

(b) to British subjects who are domiciled in any part of India wherever they may be ; or

(c) to, or to persons on, ships or aircraft registered in British India or any Federated State wherever they may be ; or

(d) in the case of a law with respect to a matter accepted in the instrument of accession of a Federated State as a matter with respect to which the Federal Legislature may make laws for that State, to subjects of that State wherever they may be ; or

(c) in the case of a law for the regulation or discipline of any naval, military, or air force raised in British India, to members of, and persons attached to, employed with or following, that force, wherever they may be.

100. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the two next succeeding sub-sections, the Federal Legislature has, and a Provincial Legislature has not, power to make laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in list I in the seventh schedule to this Act (hereinafter called " the Federal Legislative List ").

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the next succeeding sub-section, the Federal Legislature, and, subject to the preceding sub-section, a Provincial Legislature also, have power to make laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in list III in the said schedule (hereinafter called " the Concurrent Legislative List ").

(3) Subject to the two preceding sub-sections, the Provincial Legislature has, and the Federal Legislature has not, power to make laws for a Province or any part thereof with respect to any of the matters enumerated in list II in the said schedule (hereinafter called " the Provincial Legislative List ").

(4) The Federal Legislature has power to make laws with respect to matters enumerated in the Provincial Legislative List except for a Province or any part thereof.

101. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as empowering the Federal Legislature to make laws for a Federated State otherwise than in accordance with the instrument of accession of that State and any limitations contained therein.

102. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding sections of this chapter, the Federal Legislature shall, if the Governor-General has in his discretion declared by proclamation (in this Act referred to as " a proclamation of emergency ") that a grave emergency exists whereby the security of India is threatened, whether by war or internal disturbance, have power to make laws for a Province or any part thereof with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the Provincial Legislative List :

Provided that no bill or amendment for the purposes aforesaid shall be introduced or moved without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in his discretion, and the Governor-General shall not give his sanction unless it appears to him that the provision proposed to be made is a proper provision in view of the nature of the emergency.

(2) Nothing in this section shall restrict the power of a Provincial Legislature to make any law which under this Act it has power to make, but if any provision of a provincial law is repugnant to any provision of a Federal law which the Federal Legislature has under this section power to make, the Federal law, whether passed before or after the provincial law, shall prevail, and the provincial law shall to the extent of the repugnancy, but so long only as the Federal law continues to have effect, be void.

(3) A proclamation of emergency—

(a) may be revoked by a subsequent proclamation ;

(b) shall be communicated forthwith to the Secretary of State and shall be laid by him before each House of Parliament ; and

(c) shall cease to operate at the expiration of 6 months, unless before the expiration of that period it has been approved by resolutions of both Houses of Parliament.

(4) A law made by the Federal Legislature which that Legislature would not but for the issue of a proclamation of emergency have been competent to make shall cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of 6 months after the proclamation has ceased to operate, except as respects things done or omitted to be done before the expiration of the said period.

103. If it appears to the Legislatures of two or more Provinces to be desirable that any of the matters enumerated in the Provincial Legislative List should be regulated in those Provinces by Act of the Federal Legislature, and if resolutions to that effect are passed by all the Chambers of those Provincial Legislatures, it shall be lawful for the Federal Legislature to pass an Act for regulating that matter accordingly, but any Act so passed may, as respects any Province to which it applies, be amended or repealed by an Act of the Legislature of that Province.

104. (1) The Governor-General may by public notification empower either the Federal Legislature or a Provincial Legislature to enact a law with respect to any matter not enumerated in any of the lists in the seventh schedule to this Act, including a law imposing a tax not mentioned in any such list, and the executive authority of the Federation or of the Province, as the case may be, shall extend to the administration of any law so made, unless the Governor-General otherwise directs.

(2) In the discharge of his functions under this section the Governor-General shall act in his discretion.

106. (1) The Federal Legislature shall not by reason only of the entry in the Federal Legislative List relating to the implementing of treaties and agreements with other countries have power to make any law for any Province except with the previous consent of the Governor, or for a Federated State except with the previous consent of the Ruler thereof.

(2) So much of any law as is valid only by virtue of any such entry as aforesaid may be repealed by the Federal Legislature and may, on the treaty or agreement in question ceasing to have effect, be repealed as respects any Province or State by a law of that Province or State.

(3) Nothing in this section applies in relation to any law which the Federal Legislature has power to make for a Province or, as the case may be, a Federated State, by virtue of any other entry in the Federal or the Concurrent Legislative List as well as by virtue of the said entry.

107. (1) If any provision of a provincial law is repugnant to any provision of a Federal law which the Federal Legislature is competent to enact or to any provision of an existing Indian law with respect to one of the matters enumerated in the Concurrent Legislative List, then, subject to the provisions of this section, the Federal law, whether passed before or after the provincial law, or, as the case may be, the existing Indian law, shall prevail and the provincial law shall, to the extent of the repugnancy, be void.

(2) Where a provincial law with respect to one of the matters enumerated in the Concurrent Legislative List contains any provision repugnant to the provisions of an earlier Federal law or an existing Indian law with respect to that matter, then, if the provincial law, having been reserved for the consideration of the Governor-General or for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure, has received the assent of the Governor-General or of His Majesty, the provincial law shall in that Province prevail, but nevertheless the Federal Legislature may at any time enact further legislation with respect to the same matter :

Provided that no bill or amendment for making any provision repugnant to any provincial law, which, having been so reserved, has received the assent of the Governor-General or of His Majesty, shall be introduced or moved in either Chamber of the Federal Legislature without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in his discretion.

(3) If any provision of a law of a Federated State is repugnant to a Federal law which extends to that State, the Federal law, whether passed before or after the law of the State, shall prevail and the law of the State shall, to the extent of the repugnancy, be void.

Chapter II.—Restrictions on Legislative Powers

108. (1) Unless the Governor-General in his discretion thinks fit to give his previous sanction, there shall not be introduced into, or moved in, either Chamber of the Federal Legislature, any bill or amendment which—

(a) repeals, amends or is repugnant to any provisions of any Act of Parliament extending to British India ; or

(b) repeals, amends or is repugnant to any Governor-General's or Governor's Act, or any ordinance promulgated in his discretion by the Governor-General or a Governor ; or

(c) affects matters as respects which the Governor-General is, by or under this Act, required to act in his discretion ; or

(d) repeals, amends or affects any Act relating to any police force ; or

(e) affects the procedure for criminal proceedings in which European British subjects are concerned ; or

(f) subjects persons not resident in British India to greater taxation than persons resident in British India or subjects companies not wholly controlled and managed in British India to greater taxation than companies wholly controlled and managed therein ; or

(g) affects the grant of relief from any Federal tax on income in respect of income taxed or taxable in the United Kingdom.

(2) Unless the Governor-General in his discretion thinks fit to give his previous sanction, there shall not be introduced into, or moved in, a Chamber of a Provincial Legislature any bill or amendment which—

(a) repeals, amends or is repugnant to any provisions of any Act of Parliament extending to British India ; or

(b) repeals, amends or is repugnant to any Governor-General's Act, or any ordinance promulgated in his discretion by the Governor-General ; or

(c) affects matters as respects which the Governor-General is by or under this Act required to act in his discretion ; or

(d) affects the procedure for criminal proceedings in which European British subjects are concerned, and unless the Governor of the Province in his discretion thinks fit to give his previous sanction, there shall not be introduced or moved any bill or amendment which—

(i) repeals, amends or is repugnant to any Governor's Act, or any ordinance promulgated in his discretion by the Governor ; or

(ii) repeals, amends or affects any Act relating to any police force.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any other provision in this Act which requires the previous sanction of the Governor-General or of a Governor to the introduction of any bill or the moving of any amendment.

110. Nothing in this Act shall be taken—

(a) to affect the power of Parliament to legislate for British India, or any part thereof ; or

(b) to empower the Federal Legislature, or any Provincial Legislature—

(i) to make any law affecting the Sovereign or the Royal Family, or the succession to the Crown, or the sovereignty, dominion or suzerainty of the Crown in any part of India, or the law of British nationality, or "The Army Act," "The Air Force Act," or "The Naval Discipline Act," or the law of prize or prize courts; or

(ii) except in so far as is expressly permitted by any subsequent provisions of this Act, to make any law amending any provision of this Act, or any Order in Council made thereunder, or any rules made under this Act by the Secretary of State, or by the Governor-General or a Governor in his discretion, or in the exercise of his individual judgment; or

(iii) except in so far as is expressly permitted by any subsequent provisions of this Act, to make any law derogating from any prerogative right of His Majesty to grant special leave to appeal from any court.

Chapter III.—Provisions with Respect to Discrimination, &c.

111. (1) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, a British subject domiciled in the United Kingdom shall be exempt from the operation of so much of any Federal or provincial law as—

(a) imposes any restriction on the right of entry into British India; or

(b) imposes by reference to place of birth, race, descent, language, religion, domicile, residence or duration of residence, any disability, liability, restriction or condition in regard to travel, residence, the acquisition, holding, or disposal of property, the holding of public office, or the carrying on of any occupation, trade, business or profession:

Provided that no person shall by virtue of this sub-section be entitled to exemption from any such restriction, condition, liability or disability as aforesaid if and so long as British subjects domiciled in British India are by or under the law of the United Kingdom subject in the United Kingdom to a like restriction, condition, liability, or disability imposed in regard to the same subject matter by reference to the same principle of distinction.

(2) For the purposes of the preceding sub-section, a provision, whether of the law of British India or of the law of the United Kingdom, empowering any public authority to impose quarantine regulations, or to exclude or deport individuals, wherever domiciled, who appear to that authority to be undesirable persons, shall not be deemed to be a restriction on the right of entry.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, if the Governor-General or, as the case may be, the Governor of any Province, by public notification certifies that for the prevention of any grave menace to the peace or tranquillity of any part of India or, as the case may be, of any part of the Province, or for the purpose of combating crimes of violence intended to overthrow the Government, it is expedient that the operation of the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section should be wholly or partially suspended in relation to any law, then while the notification is in force the operation of those provisions shall be suspended accordingly.

The functions of the Governor-General and of a Governor under this sub-section shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

112. (1) No Federal or provincial law which imposes any liability to taxation shall be such as to discriminate against British subjects domiciled in the United Kingdom or Burma or companies incorporated, whether before or after the passing of this Act, by or under the laws of the United Kingdom or Burma, and any law passed or made in contravention of this section shall, to the extent of the contravention, be invalid.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, a law shall be deemed to be such as to discriminate against such persons or companies as aforesaid if it would result in any of them being liable to greater taxation than that to which they would be liable if domiciled in British India or incorporated by or under the laws of British India, as the case may be.

(3) For the purposes of this section a company incorporated before the commencement of part III of this Act under any existing Indian law and registered thereunder in Burma shall be deemed to be a company incorporated by or under the laws of Burma.

113. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this chapter, a company incorporated, whether before or after the passing of this Act, by or under the laws of the United Kingdom, and the members of the governing body of any such company and the holders of its shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or bonds, and its officers, agents, and servants, shall be deemed to comply with so much of any Federal or provincial law as imposes in regard to companies carrying on or proposing to carry on business in British India requirements or conditions relating to or connected with—

(a) the place of incorporation of a company or the situation of its registered office, or the currency in which its capital or loan capital is expressed ; or

(b) the place of birth, race, descent, language, religion, domicile, residence or duration of residence of members of the governing body of a company, or of the holders of its shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or bonds, or of its officers, agents or servants :

Provided that no company or person shall by virtue of this section be deemed to comply with any such requirement or condition as aforesaid if and so long as a like requirement or condition is imposed by or under the law of the United Kingdom in regard to companies incorporated by or under the laws of British India and carrying on or proposing to carry on business in the United Kingdom.

(2) If and in so far as any total or partial exemption from, or preferential treatment in respect of, taxation imposed on companies by or under any Federal or provincial law depends on compliance with conditions as to any of the matters mentioned in sub-section (1) of this section, any company incorporated by or under the laws of the United Kingdom carrying on business in British India shall be deemed to satisfy those conditions and be entitled to the exemption or preferential treatment accordingly, so long as the taxation imposed by or under the laws of the United Kingdom on companies incorporated by or under the laws of British India and carrying on business in the United Kingdom does not depend on compliance with conditions as to any of the matters so mentioned.

114. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this chapter, a British subject domiciled in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to comply with so much of any Federal or provincial law as imposes in regard to companies incorporated or proposed to be incorporated, whether before or after the passing of this Act, by or under the laws of British India, any requirements or conditions relating to, or connected with, the place of birth, race, descent, language, religion, domicile, residence or duration of residence of members of the governing body of a company, or of the holders of its shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or bonds, or of its officers, agents or servants :

Provided that no person shall by virtue of this section be deemed to comply with any such requirement or condition as aforesaid if and so long as a like requirement or condition is imposed by or under the law of the United Kingdom in regard to companies incorporated or proposed to be incorporated by or under the laws of the United Kingdom on British subjects domiciled in British India.

(2) If and in so far as, in the case of any such companies as aforesaid, any total or partial exemption from, or preferential treatment in respect of, taxation imposed by or under any Federal or provincial law depends on compliance with conditions as to any of the matters aforesaid, then, so far as regards such members of its governing body and such of the holders of its shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or bonds, and such of its officers, agents, and servants, as are British subjects domiciled in the United Kingdom, any such company shall be deemed to satisfy those conditions and be entitled to the exemption or preferential treatment accordingly, so long as the taxation imposed by or under the laws of the United Kingdom on companies incorporated by or under those laws does not, as regards such of the members of a company's governing body, or such of the holders of its shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or bonds, or such of its officers, agents, or servants, as are British subjects domiciled in British India, depend on compliance with conditions as to any of the matters aforesaid.

(3) For the purposes of this section, but not for the purposes of any other provision of this chapter, a company incorporated before the commencement of part III of this Act under any existing Indian law and registered thereunder in Burma, shall be deemed to be a company incorporated by or under the laws of British India.

115. (1) No ship registered in the United Kingdom shall be subjected by or under any Federal or provincial law to any treatment affecting either the ship herself, or her master, officers, crew, passengers or cargo, which is discriminatory in favour of ships registered in British India except in so far as ships registered in British India are for the time being subjected by or under any law of the United Kingdom to treatment of a like character which is similarly discriminatory in favour of ships registered in the United Kingdom.

(2) This section shall apply in relation to aircraft as it applies in relation to ships.

(3) The provisions of this section are in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any of the preceding sections of this chapter.

PART VI.—ADMINISTRATIVE RELATIONS BETWEEN FEDERATION, PROVINCES AND STATES

GENERAL

122. (1) The executive authority of every Province and Federated State shall be so exercised as to secure respect for the laws of the Federal Legislature which apply in that Province or State.

(2) The reference in sub-section (1) of this section to laws of the Federal Legislature shall, in relation to any Province, include a reference to any existing Indian law applying in that Province.

(3) Without prejudice to any of the other provisions of this part of this Act, in the exercise of the executive authority of the Federation in any Province or Federated State regard shall be had to the interests of the Province or State.

123. (1) The Governor-General may direct the Governor of any Province to discharge as his agent, either generally or in any particular case, such functions in and in relation to the tribal areas as may be specified in the direction.

(2) If in any particular case it appears to the Governor-General necessary or convenient so to do, he may direct the Governor of any Province to discharge as his agent such functions in relation to defence, external affairs, or ecclesiastical affairs as may be specified in the direction.

(3) In the discharge of any such functions the Governor shall act in his discretion.

124. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the Governor-General may, with the consent of the Government of a Province or the Ruler of a Federated State, entrust either conditionally or unconditionally to that Government or Ruler, or to their respective officers, functions in relation to any matter to which the executive authority of the Federation extends.

(2) An act of the Federal Legislature may, notwithstanding that it relates to a matter with respect to which a Provincial Legislature has no power to make laws, confer powers and impose duties upon a Province or officers and authorities thereof.

(3) An Act of the Federal Legislature which extends to a Federated State may confer powers and impose duties upon the State or officers and authorities thereof to be designated for the purpose by the Ruler.

(4) Where by virtue of this section powers and duties have been conferred or imposed upon a Province or Federated State or officers or authorities thereof, there shall be paid by the Federation to the Province or State such sum as may be agreed, or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by an arbitrator appointed by the Chief Justice of India, in respect of any extra costs of administration incurred by the Province or State in connection with the exercise of those powers and duties.

125. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, agreements may, and, if provision has been made in that behalf by the instrument of accession of the State, shall, be made between the Governor-General and the Ruler of a Federated State for the exercise by the Ruler or his officers of functions in relation to the administration in his State of any law of the Federal Legislature which applies therein.

(2) An agreement made under this section shall contain provisions enabling the Governor-General in his discretion to satisfy himself, by inspection or otherwise, that the administration of the law to which the agreement relates is carried out in accordance with the policy of the Federal Government and, if he is not satisfied, the Governor-General, acting in his discretion, may issue such directions to the Ruler as he thinks fit.

(3) All courts shall take judicial notice of any agreement made under this section.

126. (1) The executive authority of every Province shall be so exercised as not to impede or prejudice the exercise of the executive authority of the Federation, and the executive authority of the Federation shall extend to the giving of such directions to a Province as may appear to the Federal Government to be necessary for that purpose.

(2) The executive authority of the Federation shall also extend to the giving of directions to a Province as to the carrying into execution therein of any Act of the Federal Legislature which relates to a matter specified in part II of the Concurrent Legislative List and authorises the giving of such directions :

Provided that a bill or amendment which proposes to authorise the giving of any such directions as aforesaid shall not be introduced into or moved in either Chamber of the Federal Legislature without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in his discretion.

(3) The executive authority of the Federation shall also extend to the giving of directions to a Province as to the construction and maintenance of means of communication declared in the direction to be of military importance :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be taken as restricting the power of the Federation to construct and maintain means of communication as part of its functions with respect to naval, military and air force works.

(4) If it appears to the Governor-General that in any Province effect has not been given to any directions given under this section, the Governor-General, acting in his discretion, may issue as orders to the Governor of that Province either the directions previously given or those directions modified in such manner as the Governor-General thinks proper.

(5) Without prejudice to his powers under the last preceding sub-section, the Governor-General, acting in his discretion, may at any time issue orders to the Governor of a Province as to the manner in which the executive authority thereof is to be exercised for the purpose of preventing any grave menace to the peace or tranquillity of India or of any part thereof.

127. The Federation may, if it deems it necessary to acquire any land situate in a Province for any purpose connected with a matter with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws, require the Province to acquire the land on behalf, and at the expense, of the Federation or, if the land belongs to the Province, to transfer it to the Federation on such terms as may be agreed or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by an arbitrator appointed by the Chief Justice of India.

128. (1) The executive authority of every Federated State shall be so exercised as not to impede or prejudice the exercise of the executive authority of the Federation so far as it is exercisable in the State by virtue of a law of the Federal Legislature which applies therein.

(2) If it appears to the Governor-General that the Ruler of any Federated State has in any way failed to fulfil his obligations under the preceding sub-section, the Governor-General, acting in his discretion, may after considering any representations made to him by the Ruler issue such directions to the Ruler as he thinks fit :

Provided that, if any question arises under this section as to whether the executive authority of the Federation is exercisable in a State with respect to any matter or as to the extent to which it is so exercisable, the question may, at the instance either of the Federation or the Ruler, be referred to the Federal Court for determination by that Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction under this Act.

Chapter I.—The Federal Court

200. (1) There shall be a Federal Court consisting of a Chief Justice of India and such number of other judges as His Majesty may deem necessary, but unless and until an address has been presented by the Federal Legislature to the Governor-General for submission to His Majesty praying for an increase in the number of judges, the number of puisne judges shall not exceed six.

(2) Every judge of the Federal Court shall be appointed by His Majesty by warrant under the Royal Sign Manual and shall hold office until he attains the age of 65 years :

Provided that—

(a) a judge may by resignation under his hand addressed to the Governor-General resign his office ;

(b) a judge may be removed from his office by His Majesty by warrant under the Royal Sign Manual on the ground of misbehaviour or of infirmity of mind or body, if the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on reference being made to them by His Majesty, report that the judge ought on any such ground to be removed.

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a judge of the Federal Court unless he—

(a) has been for at least 5 years a judge of a High Court in British India or in a Federated State ; or

(b) is a barrister of England or Northern Ireland of at least 10 years' standing, or a member of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland of at least 10 years' standing ; or

(c) has been for at least 10 years a pleader of a High Court in British India or in a Federated State or of two or more such courts in succession :

Provided that—

(i) a person shall not be qualified for appointment as Chief Justice of India unless he is, or when first appointed to judicial office was, a barrister, a member of the Faculty of Advocates or a pleader ; and

(ii) in relation to the Chief Justice of India, for the references in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this sub-section to 10 years there shall be substituted references to 15 years.

In computing for the purposes of this sub-section the standing of a barrister or a member of the Faculty of Advocates, or the period during which a person has been a pleader, any period during which a person has held judicial office after he became a barrister, a member of the Faculty of Advocates or a pleader, as the case may be, shall be included.

(4) Every person appointed to be a judge of the Federal Court shall, before he enters upon his office, make and subscribe before the Governor-General or some person appointed by him an oath according to the form set out in that behalf in the fourth schedule to this Act.

203. The Federal Court shall be a court of record and shall sit in Delhi and at such other place or places, if any, as the Chief Justice of India may, with the approval of the Governor-General, from time to time appoint.

204. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Federal Court shall, to the exclusion of any other court, have an original jurisdiction in any dispute between any two or more of the following parties, that is to say, the Federation, any of the Provinces or any of the Federated States, if and in so far as the dispute involves any question (whether of law or fact) on which the existence or extent of a legal right depends :

Provided that the said jurisdiction shall not extend to—

(a) a dispute to which a State is a party, unless the dispute—

(i) concerns the interpretation of this Act or of an Order in Council made thereunder, or the extent of the legislative or executive authority vested in the Federation by virtue of the instrument of accession of that State ; or

(ii) arises under an agreement made under part VI of this Act in relation to the administration in that State of a law of the Federal Legislature, or otherwise concerns some matter with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws for that State ; or

(iii) arises under an agreement made after the establishment of the Federation, with the approval of His Majesty's representative for the exercise of the functions of the Crown in its relations with Indian States, between that State and the Federation or a Province, being an agreement which expressly provides that the said jurisdiction shall extend to such a dispute ;

(b) a dispute arising under any agreement which expressly provides that the said jurisdiction shall not extend to such a dispute.

(2) The Federal Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction shall not pronounce any judgment other than a declaratory judgment.

205. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Federal Court from any judgment, decree or final order of a High Court in British India, if the High Court certifies that the case involves a substantial question of law as to the interpretation of this Act or any Order in Council made thereunder, and it shall be the duty of every High Court in British India to consider in every case whether or not any such question is involved and of its own motion to give or to withhold a certificate accordingly.

(2) Where such a certificate is given, any party in the case may appeal to the Federal Court on the ground that any such question as aforesaid has been wrongly decided, and on any ground on which that party could have appealed without special leave to His Majesty in Council if no such certificate had been given, and, with the leave of the Federal Court, on any other ground, and no direct appeal shall lie to His Majesty in Council, either with or without special leave.

206. (1) The Federal Legislature may by Act provide that in such civil cases as may be specified in the Act an appeal shall lie to the Federal Court from a judgment decree or final order of a High Court in British India without any such certificate as aforesaid, but no appeal shall lie under any such Act unless—

(a) the amount or value of the subject matter of the dispute in the court of first instance and still in dispute on appeal was and is not less than 50,000 rupees or such other sum not less than 15,000 rupees as may be specified by the Act, or the judgment decree or final order involves directly or indirectly some claim or question respecting property of the like amount or value ; or

(b) the Federal Court gives special leave to appeal.

(2) If the Federal Legislature makes such provision as is mentioned in the last preceding sub-section, consequential provision may also be made by Act of the Federal Legislature for the abolition in whole or in part of direct appeals in civil cases from High Courts in British India to His Majesty in Council, either with or without special leave.

(3) A bill or amendment for any of the purposes specified in this section shall not be introduced into, or moved in, either Chamber of the Federal Legislature without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in his discretion.

207. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Federal Court from a High Court in a Federated State on the ground that a question of law has been wrongly decided, being a question which concerns the interpretation of this Act or of an Order in Council made thereunder or the extent of the legislative or executive authority vested in the Federation by virtue of the instrument of accession of that State, or arises under an agreement made under part VI of this Act in relation to the administration in that State of a law of the Federal Legislature.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be by way of special case to be stated for the opinion of the Federal Court by the High Court, and the Federal Court may require a case to be so stated, and may return any case so stated in order that further facts may be stated therein.

208. An appeal may be brought to His Majesty in Council from a decision of the Federal Court—

(a) from any judgment of the Federal Court given in the exercise of its original jurisdiction in any dispute which concerns the interpretation of this Act or of an Order in Council made thereunder, or the extent of the legislative or executive authority vested in the Federation by virtue of the instrument of accession of any State, or arises under an agreement made under part VI of this Act in relation to the administration in any State of a law of the Federal Legislature, without leave ; and

(b) in any other case, by leave of the Federal Court or of His Majesty in Council.

209. (1) The Federal Court shall, where it allows an appeal, remit the case to the court from which the appeal was brought with a declaration as to the judgment, decree or order which is to be substituted for the judgment, decree or order appealed against, and the court from which the appeal was brought shall give effect to the decision of the Federal Court.

(2) Where the Federal Court upon any appeal makes any order as to the costs of the proceedings in the Federal Court, it shall, as soon as the amount of the costs to be paid is ascertained, transmit its order for the payment of that sum to the court from which the appeal was brought and that court shall give effect to the order.

(3) The Federal Court may, subject to such terms or conditions as it may think fit to impose, order a stay of execution in any case under appeal to the court, pending the hearing of the appeal, and execution shall be stayed accordingly.

210. (1) All authorities, civil and judicial, throughout the Federation, shall act in aid of the Federal Court.

(2) The Federal Court shall, as respects British India and the Federated States, have power to make any order for the purpose of securing the attendance of any person, the discovery or production of any documents, or the investigation or punishment of any contempt of court, which any High Court in British India has power to make as respects the territory within its jurisdiction, and any such orders, and any orders of the Federal Court as to the costs of and incidental to any proceedings therein, shall be enforceable by all courts and authorities in every part of British India or of any Federated State as if they were orders duly made by the highest court exercising civil or criminal jurisdiction, as the case may be, in that part.

(3) Nothing in this section—

(a) shall apply to any such order with respect to costs as is mentioned in sub-section (2) of the last preceding section ; or

(b) shall, as regards a Federated State, apply in relation to any jurisdiction exercisable by the Federal Court by reason only of the making by the Federal Legislature of such provision as is mentioned in this chapter for enlarging the appellate jurisdiction of the Federal Court.

211. Where in any case the Federal Court require a special case to be stated or restated by, or remit a case to, or order a stay of execution in a case from, a High Court in a Federated State, or require the aid of the civil or judicial authorities in a Federated State, the Federal Court shall cause letters of request in that behalf to be sent to the Ruler of the State, and the Ruler shall cause such communication to be made to the High Court or to any judicial or civil authority as the circumstances may require.

212. The law declared by the Federal Court and by any judgment of the Privy Council shall, so far as applicable, be recognised as binding on, and shall be followed by, all courts in British India, and, so far as respects the application and interpretation of this Act or any Order in Council thereunder or any matter with respect to which the Federal Legislature has power to make laws in relation to the State, in any Federated State.

213. (1) If at any time it appears to the Governor-General that a question of law has arisen, or is likely to arise, which is of such a nature and of such public importance that it is expedient to obtain the opinion of the Federal Court upon it, he may in his discretion refer the question to that court for consideration, and the court may, after such hearing as they think fit, report to the Governor-General thereon.

(2) No report shall be made under this section save in accordance with an opinion delivered in open court with the concurrence of a majority of the judges present at the hearing of the case, but nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prevent a judge who does not concur from delivering a dissenting opinion.

216. (1) The administrative expenses of the Federal Court, including all salaries, allowances and pensions payable to or in respect of the officers and servants of the court, shall be charged upon the revenues of the Federation, and any fees or other moneys taken by the court shall form part of those revenues.

(2) The Governor-General shall exercise his individual judgment as to the amount to be included in respect of the administrative expenses of the Federal Court in any estimates of expenditure laid by him before the Chambers of the Federal Legislature.

Provided that, if provision has been made before the commencement of part III of this Act for the establishment of a High Court to replace any court or courts mentioned in this sub-section, then as from the establishment of the new court this section shall have effect as if the new court were mentioned therein in lieu of the court or courts so replaced.

(2) The provisions of this chapter shall apply to every High Court in British India.

220. (1) Every High Court shall be a court of record and shall consist of a Chief Justice and such other judges as His Majesty may from time to time deem it necessary to appoint :

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a judge of a High Court unless he—

(a) is a barrister of England or Northern Ireland, of at least 10 years' standing, or a member of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland of at least 10 years' standing ; or

In computing for the purposes of this sub-section the standing of a barrister or a member of the Faculty of Advocates, or the period during which a person has been a pleader, any period during which the person has held judicial office after he became a barrister, a member of the Faculty of Advocates, or a pleader, as the case may be, shall be included.

(b) in the case of persons serving in connection with the affairs of a Province, by rules made by the Governor of the Province or by some person or persons authorised by the Governor to make rules for the purpose :

Provided that it shall not be necessary to make rules regulating the conditions of service of persons employed temporarily on the terms that their employment may be terminated on one month's notice or less, and nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as requiring the rules regulating the conditions of service of any class of persons to extend to any matter which appears to the rule-making authority to be a matter not suitable for regulation by rule in the case of that class.

(3) The said rules shall be so framed as to secure—

(a) that, in the case of a person who before the commencement of part III of this Act was serving His Majesty in a civil capacity in India, no order which alters or interprets to his disadvantage any rule by which his conditions of service are regulated shall be made except by an authority which would have been competent to make such an order on the 8th day of March, 1926, or by some person empowered by the Secretary of State to give directions in that respect ;

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, but subject to any other provision of this Act, Acts of the appropriate Legislature in India may regulate the conditions of service of persons serving His Majesty in a civil capacity in India, and any rules made under this section shall have effect subject to the provisions of any such Act :

Provided that nothing in any such Act shall have effect so as to deprive any person of any rights required to be given to him by the provisions of the last preceding sub-section.

(5) No rules made under this section and no Act of any Legislature in India shall be construed to limit or abridge the power of the Governor-General or a Governor to deal with the case of any person serving His Majesty in a civil capacity in India in such manner as may appear to him to be just and equitable :

Provided that—

(a) a declaration shall not be made under this sub-section with respect to any area unless, before the execution by the Ruler of the instrument of accession, notice has been given to him of His Majesty's intention to make that declaration ;

(b) if His Majesty with the assent of the Ruler of the State relinquishes his powers and jurisdiction in relation to any such area or any part of any such area, the foregoing provisions of this sub-section shall cease to apply to that area or part, and the executive authority of the Federation and the legislative power of the Federal Legislature shall extend thereto in respect of such matters and subject to such limitations as may be specified in a supplementary instrument of accession for the State.

Nothing in this sub-section applies to any area if it appears to His Majesty that jurisdiction to administer the area was granted to him solely in connection with a railway.

(2) Subject as aforesaid and to the following provisions of this section, if, after the accession of a State becomes effective, power or jurisdiction therein with respect to any matter is, by virtue of the instrument of accession of the State, exercisable, either generally or subject to limits, by the Federation, the Federal Legislature, the Federal Court, the Federal Railway Authority, or a court or an authority exercising the power or jurisdiction by virtue of an Act of the Federal Legislature, or is, by virtue of an agreement made under part VI of this Act in relation to the administration of a law of the Federal Legislature, exercisable, either generally or subject to limits, by the Ruler or his officers, then any power or jurisdiction formerly exercisable on His Majesty's behalf in that State, whether by virtue of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890,"⁽¹⁾ or otherwise, shall not be exercisable in that State with respect to that matter or, as the case may be, with respect to that matter within those limits.

(4) Subject as aforesaid, the powers and jurisdiction exercisable by or on behalf of His Majesty before the commencement of part III of this Act in Indian States shall continue to be exercisable, and any Order in Council with respect to the said powers or jurisdiction made under "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise, and all delegations, rules and orders made under any such Order, shall continue to be of full force and effect until the Order is amended or revoked by a subsequent Order :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as prohibiting His Majesty from relinquishing any power or jurisdiction in any Indian State.

(5) An Order in Council made by virtue of and in exercise of the powers by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, empowering any person to make rules and orders in respect of courts or administrative authorities acting for any territory shall not be invalid by reason only that it confers, or delegates powers to confer, on courts or administrative authorities power to sit or act outside the territory in respect of which they have jurisdiction or functions, or that it confers, or delegates power

(7) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting any right of His Majesty to determine by what courts British subjects and subjects of foreign countries shall be tried in respect of offences committed in Indian States.

(8) Nothing in this section affects the provisions of this Act with respect to Berar.

Provided that—

(a) the Governor-General may in his discretion declare as respects any State, the Ruler of which at the date of the establishment of the Federation was by reason of his minority not exercising ruling powers, that sub-paragraph (i) of this paragraph shall not apply to any named subject, or to subjects generally, of that State until that State comes under the rule of a Ruler who is of an age to exercise ruling powers ; and

(b) sub-paragraph (ii) of this paragraph shall not apply to a Ruler who is exercising ruling powers.

5. Upon the expiration of the term for which he is appointed to serve as a member of the Federal Legislature, a person, if otherwise duly qualified, shall be eligible to be appointed to serve for a further term.

6. Subject to the special provisions hereinafter contained with respect to the appointment of persons to represent certain States and groups of States comprised in divisions XVI and XVII of the Table of Seats—

(i) the Rulers of States constituting a group of States to which a seat in the Council of State is allotted shall in rotation appoint a person to fill that seat ; and

(ii) the Rulers of the States constituting a group of States to which a seat in the Federal Assembly is allotted shall appoint jointly a person to fill that seat :

Provided that the Rulers of two or more States entitled to appoint in rotation a person to fill a seat in the Council of State allotted to a group of States may by agreement, and with the approval of the Governor-General in his discretion, appoint jointly a person to fill that seat.

(b) jointly by the Rulers of all the States in a group which have acceded to the Federation, 3 years ;

(c) by the Ruler of a State appointing in rotation, one year subject, however, to the special provisions of the next succeeding paragraph with respect to certain States therein mentioned ;

(d) jointly by Rulers of some only of the States in a group which have acceded to the Federation, a period equal to the aggregate of the periods for which each of them might in rotation have appointed a person to hold that seat or 3 years, whichever may be the shorter period ;

(e) in any other manner, 3 years ; and

(ii) in the case of a person appointed to fill a seat in the Federal Assembly, until the dissolution of the Assembly :

Provided that—

(i) a person appointed to fill a seat upon the occurrence of a casual vacancy shall be appointed to fill that seat for the remainder of the period for which his predecessor was appointed ;

(ii) in the case of first appointments to fill seats in the Council of State the Governor-General in his discretion shall make by order provision for securing that approximately one-third of the persons appointed by Rulers entitled to separate representation shall be appointed to fill seats for 3 years only, approximately one-third to fill seats for 6 years only and approximately one-third to fill seats for 9 years.

8. The Ruler of a State mentioned in this paragraph when appointing in rotation a person to fill a seat in the Council of State shall, notwithstanding anything in the preceding paragraph, be entitled to appoint that person to fill the seat—

(a) in the case of the Rulers of Panna and of Mayurbhanj, for 2 years ; and

(b) in the case of the Ruler of Pudukkottai, for 3 years.

9. Subject as hereinafter provided, the Rulers of two or more States forming a group to which one seat in either Chamber of the Federal Legislature is allotted shall, in choosing a person to be appointed by them jointly to fill that seat, each have one vote, and in the case of an equality of votes the choice shall be determined by lot or otherwise in such other manner as may be prescribed :

Provided that in choosing a person to be so appointed the Ruler of a State mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of the preceding paragraph shall be entitled to two votes and the Ruler of the State mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph shall be entitled to three votes.

10. A seat in either Chamber allotted to a single State shall remain unfilled until the Ruler of that State has acceded to the Federation, and a seat in either Chamber which is the only seat therein allotted to a group of States shall remain unfilled until the Rulers of at least one-half of those States have so acceded but, subject as hereinafter provided, so long as one-tenth of the seats in either Chamber allotted either to single States or to groups of States remain unfilled by reason of the non-accession of a State or States, whether such non-accession be due to the minority of a Ruler or to any other cause, the persons appointed by the Rulers of States to fill seats in that Chamber may from time to time in the prescribed manner appoint persons, not exceeding one-half of the number of seats so unfilled, to be additional members of that Chamber :

Provided that the right to appoint such additional members shall not be exercised after the expiration of 20 years from the establishment of the Federation.

A person appointed under this paragraph as an additional member of either Chamber shall be appointed to fill his seat for a period of one year only.

11. Persons to fill the seats in the Federal Assembly allotted to any group of States mentioned in division XVI of the Table of Seats as entitled to appoint persons to fill three such seats shall be appointed in the prescribed manner by the Rulers of such of the States in the group as have acceded to the Federation :

Provided that—

(a) until the Rulers of two of those States have so acceded, all the three seats shall remain unfilled ; and

(b) until the Rulers of four of those States have so acceded, two of the three seats shall remain unfilled ; and

(c) until the Rulers of six of those States have so acceded, one of the three seats shall remain unfilled.

Seats in the Federal Assembly remaining unfilled by reason of the provisions of this paragraph shall be treated as seats remaining unfilled for the purposes of the last preceding paragraph.

12. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply with respect to the two seats in the Council of State and the five seats in the Federal Assembly allotted to the States comprised in division XVII of the Table of Seats :—

(a) the States in question are such States, being States which on the 1st day of January, 1935, were included in the Western India States Agency, the Gujarat States Agency, the Deccan States Agency, the Eastern States Agency, the Central India Agency or the Rajputana Agency, or were in political relations with the Government of the Punjab or the Government of Assam, as may be enumerated in rules made by the Governor-General in his discretion ;

(b) the Governor-General shall, in the rules so made by him, divide the said States into five groups, and of the five seats in the Federal Assembly allotted to those States one shall be deemed to be allotted to each of the groups ;

(c) a seat in the Federal Assembly allotted to one of the said groups shall remain unfilled until the Rulers of at least one-half of the States in the group have acceded to the Federation, but, save as aforesaid, a person to fill such a seat shall be appointed in the prescribed manner by the Rulers of such of the States in the group as have acceded to the Federation ;

(d) persons to fill the two seats in the Council of State allotted to the States comprised in the said division shall be appointed in the prescribed manner by the persons appointed under the preceding sub-paragraph to fill seats in the Federal Assembly :

Provided that, so long as three of the five seats in the Federal Assembly remain unfilled, one of the two seats in the Council of State shall also remain unfilled ;

(e) seats in the Federal Assembly or Council of State remaining unfilled by reason of the provisions of this paragraph shall be treated as seats remaining unfilled for the purposes of the last but one preceding paragraph.

13. His Majesty in Council may by Order vary the Table of Seats by transferring any State from one group of States specified in column 1 or column 3 of that Table to another group of States specified in the same column, if he deems it expedient so to do—

(a) with a view to reducing the number of seats which by reason of the non-accession of a State or States would otherwise remain unfilled ; or

(b) with a view to associating in separate groups States whose Rulers do, and States whose Rulers do not, desire to make appointments jointly instead of in rotation, and is satisfied that such variation will not adversely affect the rights and interest of any State :

Provided that a State mentioned in paragraph 8 of this part of this schedule shall not be transferred to another group unless the Ruler of the State has agreed to relinquish the privileges enjoyed by him under the said paragraph and under paragraph 9.

Where an Order varying the Table of Seats is made under this paragraph, references (whether express or implied) in the foregoing provisions of this part of this schedule to the Table shall be construed as references to the Table as so varied.

14. In so far as provision in that behalf is not made by His Majesty in Council, the Governor-General may in his discretion make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this part of this schedule and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words, with respect to—

(a) the times at which and the manner in which appointments are to be made, the order in which Rulers entitled to make appointments in rotation are to make them and the date from which appointments are to take effect ;

(b) the filling of casual vacancies in seats ;

(c) the decision of doubts or disputes arising out of or in connection with any appointment ; and

(d) the manner in which the rules are to be carried into effect.

In this part of this schedule the expression “ prescribed ” means prescribed by His Majesty in Council or by rules made under this paragraph.

BURMA

Burma having previously been a Province of British India, and the policy of His Majesty's Government, as declared in January, 1931, being that "the prospects of constitutional advance held out to Burma as part of British India will not be prejudiced by" separation, the constitution of Burma, as set up by "The Government of Burma Act, 1935," is necessarily based upon the same principles as have been embodied in "The Government of India Act, 1935."⁽¹⁾ No attempt is made here to include sections which, save for inevitable verbal differences, are common to both Acts, as such sections have been set out in that part of the book which deals with India. The essential difference between the two cases is that the constitution of Burma is that of a unitary State and is not complicated by the special considerations arising from the concept of an Indian Federation, and that the Government of Burma accordingly combines in its own hands functions which, in the case of India, have necessarily been distributed between the Federation and the Provinces. Differing circumstances made it necessary to depart from the Indian model in the case of a few matters which are covered by the sections set out below. Those sections of "The Government of Burma Act, 1935," which have been omitted are in substance identical with, although they necessarily differ in some respects in form from, corresponding sections of "The Government of India Act, 1935."

The separation of Burma from India is legally effected by section 46 (2) of "The Government of India Act, 1935."

Act of the Imperial Parliament to make provision for the Government.

[26 Geo. V, c. 3.—August 2, 1935.]

Whereas by "The Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898,"⁽¹⁾ as added to, altered or amended by divers further Orders in Council provision was made for the administration of the Government of certain territories of Africa under our protection and known as "Southern Rhodesia":

And whereas by an Order in our Privy Council bearing date the 30th day of July, 1923,⁽²⁾ and known as "The Southern Rhodesia (Annexation) Order in Council, 1923," it is provided that the territories within the limits of "The Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898," and known as "Southern Rhodesia," shall, from and after the coming into operation of the said Order, be annexed to and form part of our dominions, and shall be known as "the Colony of Southern Rhodesia":

And whereas we are minded to provide for the establishment of responsible government, subject to certain limitations hereinafter set forth, in our said Colony:

Now know ye that we do declare our will and pleasure to be as follows:—

Subject to the provisos hereinafter contained, the constitution, appointment, and powers of the Legislative Council now subsisting shall continue in force and the duration of the said Council shall extend until the date of the nomination of members for election to the Legislative Assembly, and no longer:

Provided however that until the said date—

(a) The persons other than the Administrator who at the commencement of these our Letters Patent are members of the said Legislative Council now subsisting shall continue to be members thereof;

(b) The Governor of the Colony shall be a member of the said Council in place of the Administrator, and shall preside at the meetings thereof, and in his absence such other member of the said Council as may be appointed in writing by the Governor shall preside;

(c) The power of the British South Africa Company to remove or suspend nominated members of the said Council shall be vested in the Governor, and whenever the seat of a nominated member becomes vacant by death, resignation or removal, the Governor shall appoint a successor.

The Legislative Council

2. It shall be lawful at any time after the commencement of these our Letters Patent for the Legislative Assembly to pass a law, subject as hereinafter provided, constituting the Legislative Council, and until any such law shall have been passed and brought into operation the Legislative Assembly shall be for all purposes the Legislature within the meaning of these our Letters Patent.

The Legislative Assembly

3. The Legislative Assembly shall consist of 30 members who shall be elected by the voters in and for the several electoral districts as hereinafter defined, and for the purpose of constituting the Legislative Assembly the Governor, before the time appointed for the first meeting thereof, and thereafter from time to time as occasion shall require, and without undue delay, may in our name issue writs under the Public Seal of the Colony for the general election of members to serve in the Legislative Assembly.

4. It shall be lawful for the Governor by proclamation published in the Gazette to declare what number of members shall be elected to the Legislative Assembly for each district, and where more than one member is to be returned for any district to make any necessary amendments in the existing electoral laws of the Colony with regard to the method of voting and the general conduct of the election.

(3) For the purpose of the said first election the Governor shall as soon as practicable after the date of the commencement of these our Letters Patent cause lists of voters resident in each such electoral district at that date to be compiled in accordance with the existing electoral laws of the Colony, and the lists so compiled shall constitute the register of voters for the said first election.

6. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section the registration of voters, the preparation of lists of voters, the nomination of candidates, the conduct of elections and the hearing of election petitions shall be carried out in accordance with the existing electoral laws of the Colony, or any laws amending or substituted for the same hereafter to be passed by the Legislature constituted by these our Letters Patent.

7. There shall be a biennial registration of voters in every electoral district commencing not later than the last day of December in the year next but one after the commencement of the last preceding registration, and so on during each successive biennial period.

9. Any redivision of the Colony made as aforesaid shall come into operation at the next general election held after the completion of the redivision, and not earlier.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subsection it shall be lawful for the Legislative Assembly, if they see fit, to elect any suitable person other than one of their members to be Speaker, and any person so elected shall be entitled to exercise and perform all the powers and duties by these our Letters Patent, including the power and duty to exercise a casting vote as provided in section 21 thereof, or by any standing rules and orders from time to time in force under the provisions of section 23 thereof, or otherwise howsoever, vested in the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

12. The Speaker, or in his absence the Deputy Speaker, and in the absence of both Speaker and Deputy Speaker some member elected by the Legislative Assembly, shall preside at the meetings thereof.

13. The Legislative Assembly shall not be disqualified from the transaction of business on account of any vacancies among the members thereof, but the said Assembly shall not be competent to proceed to the despatch of business unless ten members be present.

Provided that no member shall, without the permission of the Legislative Assembly, resign his seat while any proceedings are pending in respect of his election if it is alleged in those proceedings that any corrupt or illegal practices took place at that election, or while any proceedings are contemplated or pending in respect of his conduct in, or as a member of, the Legislative Assembly.

15. (1) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the Legislative Assembly from any cause, other than as the result of an election petition, the Speaker shall, upon a resolution of the said Assembly declaring such vacancy, inform the Governor thereof.

(2) Provided that if such vacancy occurs when the Legislative Assembly is not in session, the Speaker, or in the case of the death, incapacity, or absence from the Colony of the Speaker, the Clerk to the Assembly, shall, on a certificate under the hands of two members of the Assembly, stating that such vacancy has occurred and the cause thereof, inform the Governor thereof.

(2) The Governor shall dissolve the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly at the expiration of 5 years from the date of the first meeting thereof.

19. 20. Provided that a person in receipt of pension from the Crown shall not be deemed to hold an office of profit under the Crown within the meaning of this section.

23. (1) The Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly in their first session, and from time to time afterwards as there shall be occasion, shall each adopt standing rules and orders, joint as well as otherwise, for the regulation and orderly conduct of their proceedings and the despatch of business, and for the order in which the said Council and Assembly shall confer, correspond, and communicate with each other, and for the passing, intituling, and numbering of bills, and for the presentation of the same to the Governor for our assent.

Provided however that no proposed law for the constitution of a Legislative Council in pursuance of section 2 of these our Letters Patent shall repeal or alter any of the provisions relating to the Legislative Council contained in these our Letters Patent, and such provisions shall not be repealed or altered save by a law passed by both Houses of the Legislature, after the constitution of a Legislative Council as aforesaid :

Provided further that no proposed law for the repeal or alteration of any such provisions of these our Letters Patent as may be repealed or altered by the Legislature as aforesaid shall be valid unless it shall be affirmed by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of each House of the Legislature or, pending the constitution of a Legislative Council, of the Legislative Assembly.

(3) Any law made in contravention of the limitations imposed by sub-section (2) of this section shall to the extent of such contravention but not otherwise be and remain absolutely void and inoperative.

27. When any law has been passed by the Legislature it shall be presented for our assent to the Governor, who shall declare according to his discretion, but subject to this constitution and any instructions in that behalf given him, under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through a Secretary of State, that he assents in our name, or that he withholds assent, or that he reserves the law for the signification of our pleasure.

28. Unless he shall have previously obtained our instructions upon such law through a Secretary of State, or unless such law shall contain a clause suspending the operation thereof until the signification in the Colony of our pleasure thereupon, the Governor shall reserve :—

(a) any law, save in respect of the supply of arms, ammunition, or liquor to natives, whereby natives may be subjected or made liable to any conditions, disabilities or restrictions to which persons of European descent are not also subjected or made liable.

(b) any law which may repeal, alter or amend, or is in any way repugnant to or inconsistent with such provisions of these our Letters Patent, as may under these our Letters Patent be repealed or altered by the Legislature.

(c) any law constituting the Legislative Council passed in pursuance of section 2 of these our Letters Patent.

(d) any law which may repeal, alter or amend, or is in any way repugnant to or inconsistent with "The Land Apportionment Act, 1930," of the Legislature of the Colony.

29. The Governor may return to the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly any proposed law so presented to him, and may transmit therewith any amendments which he may recommend, and the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly may deal with the recommendation.

30. No law passed by the Legislature shall take effect until either the Governor shall have assented thereto in our name and on our behalf, and shall have signed the same in token of such assent, or until we shall have given our assent thereto by our Order in our Privy Council.

31. It shall be lawful for us, our heirs and successors, to disallow any law within one year from the date of the Governor's assent thereto, and such disallowance, on being made known by the Governor by speech or message to the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly, or by proclamation in the Gazette, shall annul the law from the day when the disallowance is so made known.

32. A proposed law reserved for our pleasure shall not have any force unless and until, within one year from the day on which it was presented to the Governor for our assent, the Governor makes known, by speech or message to the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly, or by proclamation in the Gazette, that it has received our assent.

33. Whenever any law has been reserved for the signification of our pleasure thereon, and the Governor shall signify, either by speech or message to the Legislature or by proclamation in the Gazette, that such law has been laid before us in our Privy Council, and that we have been pleased to assent to the same, an entry shall be made in the journals of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of every such speech, message or proclamation, and a duplicate thereof duly attested shall be delivered to the proper officer, to be kept amongst the records of the Colony.

34. The Governor shall cause every law to which he shall have assented in our name or to which we shall have given our assent as aforesaid to be printed in the Gazette for general information.

35. As soon as may be after any law shall have been assented to in our name by the Governor or, having been reserved for the signification of our pleasure, our assent thereto shall, in the manner aforesaid, have been signified by the Governor, the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall cause a fair copy of such law signed by the Governor to be enrolled on record in the office of the Registrar of the High Court, and such copy shall be conclusive evidence as to the provisions of every such law : provided however, that the validity of any such law shall not depend upon the enrolment thereof.

36. Whenever any law assented to by the Governor in our name as aforesaid has been disallowed by us, the Governor shall cause notice of such disallowance to be published in the Gazette and a certificate of such disallowance, certified under the Public Seal of the Colony, to be enrolled in the office of the Registrar of the High Court.

37. (1) The Governor may appoint such officers as he thinks fit, not exceeding six in number, to be Ministers, one of whom he shall designate as head of the Ministry, who shall be styled "the Prime Minister," and may assign to each Minister the headship of such department or departments as he shall think fit.

(2) Appointments to the office of Minister shall be made by the Governor in our name, and such offices shall be held during our pleasure.

(2) shall not be removed except by the Governor in Council on an address from the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly in the same session praying for such removal on the ground of proved misbehaviour or incapacity ;

(3) shall receive such remuneration as shall from time to time be prescribed by law, but the remuneration of a judge shall not be diminished during his tenure of office, and the remuneration of the present judges shall not be diminished, and their commissions shall continue as heretofore.

Native Administration

39. (1) There shall be a Native Department, the permanent head of which shall be styled " the Chief Native Commissioner " and shall be appointed by the Governor in Council, and the Assistant Chief Native Commissioner and all Superintendents of Natives, Native Commissioners and Assistant Native Commissioners or any officers appointed to exercise the functions now exercised by the aforesaid officers or any of them shall be appointed in the like manner, and the said officers shall continue to perform the duties at present assigned to them, subject to any alterations or additions which may be made from time to time by Act of the Legislature of the Colony or order of the Governor in Council.

(2) The salaries of the officers mentioned in the preceding sub-section shall be fixed by the Governor in Council and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval.

(3) The officers mentioned in this section shall be subject to the laws of the Colony for the time being governing the public service of the Colony :

Provided that no such officer shall be removed from office without the approval of the Governor in Council :

And provided, further, that the Chief Native Commissioner shall not be removed from his office without the approval of the Secretary of State.

40. No conditions, disabilities or restrictions which do not equally apply to persons of European descent shall, without the previous consent of the Secretary of State, be imposed upon natives (save in respect of the supply of arms, ammunition and liquor) by any proclamation, regulation or other instrument issued under the provisions of any law, unless such conditions, disabilities or restrictions shall have been explicitly prescribed, defined and limited in such law.

41. (1) There shall be established a Board of Trustees, which shall consist of a chairman, who shall be nominated and appointed by the Secretary of State, and two members, one of whom shall be the person for the time being holding the office of Chief Justice of the Colony and the other shall be the person for the time being holding the office of Chief Native Commissioner in the Colony.

(2) (a) Whenever through illness, absence or other cause the chairman of the Board of Trustees is precluded from exercising his functions on the Board, a deputy chairman, who shall be nominated and appointed by the Secretary of State, shall act as chairman of the Board.

(b) Whenever through illness, absence or other cause any member of the Board of Trustees is precluded from exercising his functions on the Board, the person duly authorised to act for such member in his official capacity in the Colony shall act for such member on the Board.

(3) The Board of Trustees may make rules, which shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, for regulating the proceedings of the Board.

42. (1) The lands known as "native reserves," which are fully described in the schedule to these our Letters Patent, are hereby vested in the Board of Trustees, and, subject to the provisions of this section, are set apart for the sole and exclusive use and occupation of the indigenous native inhabitants of the Colony.

(2) Save in the exercise of any right which has been heretofore acquired in terms of the mining laws of the Colony, no person other than an indigenous native inhabitant of the Colony shall occupy any portion of a native reserve except in accordance with such regulations as may be framed by the Governor in Council with the approval of the Secretary of State.

(4) The Governor in Council may make regulations, which shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, for the control of all revenue derived from the land or other natural resources of the native reserves and for its administration in the interests of the native inhabitants of such reserves.

43. (1) Save in any special case, and then only with the permission in writing of the Secretary of State, and subject to such conditions as he may prescribe, which shall include adequate compensation in land, no native reserve or any portion thereof shall be alienated except subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) The Government of the Colony shall retain the mineral rights in the native reserves. If the Government should require any such land for the purpose of mineral development or as sites of townships or for railways or other public works, the Governor in Council may upon good and sufficient cause shown, with the approval of the Board of Trustees, order the natives to remove from such land or any portion thereof and shall assign to them just and liberal compensation in land elsewhere situate in as convenient a position as possible, sufficient and suitable for their agricultural and pastoral requirements, containing a fair and equitable proportion of springs or permanent water and, as far as possible, equally suitable for their requirements in all respects as the land from which they are ordered to remove :

Provided that natives shall not be removed from such land for the purpose of creating sites of townships unless the Board of Trustees is satisfied that such sites are required for the development of important mineral discoveries.

(3) Any land which is released from a native reserve in terms of sub-section (2) of this section shall forthwith vest in the Governor, together with any revenues accruing therefrom, for the purposes of the public service of the Colony, and any land which is assigned to the natives as compensation, whether under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of this section, shall forthwith vest in the Board of Trustees and become part of the native reserves.

(a) in civil cases—

(i) from any final judgment of the Supreme Court, where the appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim, or question respecting property or some civil right, of the value of 5,000 rupees or upwards, being a judgment from which, if it were a judgment of a District Court in the Province of Bombay, an appeal would lie to the High Court, under the Indian Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as amended prior to the appointed day; and

(ii) with the leave of the Supreme Court or of the High Court, from any other judgment of the Supreme Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, by reason of the importance of the question involved in the appeal or otherwise, the Court is satisfied that leave to appeal ought to be granted ; and

(b) in criminal cases, from any judgment of the Supreme Court from which, if it were a judgment of a Court of Session in the Province of Bombay, an appeal would lie to the High Court under the Indian Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended prior to the appointed day :

Provided that no appeal shall lie where the sentence imposed is one of imprisonment not exceeding 6 months or of fine not exceeding 500 rupees or of both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) When any person is sentenced to death and no appeal has been lodged by him within the time limited for that purpose, the Supreme Court shall transmit the record of the case to the High Court and an appeal shall thereby be deemed to have been lodged by the said person ; and the sentence shall not be carried out unless and until it shall have been confirmed by the High Court.

(3) In civil matters an appeal may be brought to His Majesty in Council from a judgment of the High Court given in pursuance of this section in the following cases :—

(a) As of right, from any final judgment of the Court, where the appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim, or question respecting property or some civil right, of the value of 10,000 rupees or upwards and, if the judgment appealed from affirms the decision of the Supreme Court, the appeal involves some substantial question of law ; and

(b) At the discretion of the High Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

(4) Every judgment of the High Court given on appeal under this section, and every Order of His Majesty in Council made on appeal from any such judgment, may be enforced in the Colony in the same manner, as nearly as may be, as if it were a judgment of the Supreme Court.

(5) (a) The High Court shall, in relation to appeals under this section, have the like powers as are conferred upon it by the Indian Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or the Indian Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended prior to the appointed day, in relation to appeals from a District Court or a Court of Session, as the case may be, in the Province of Bombay.

(b) The fees payable to the High Court in respect of appeals under this section shall be the fees prescribed from time to time in respect of similar appeals to the High Court from the said Courts in the Province of Bombay.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section the Governor may, by law made under this Order, prescribe, or enable rules of court to be made prescribing, the practice and procedure to be followed in relation to any appeals under this section including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the imposition upon rights of appeal of conditions as to the giving of security or otherwise.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice the right of His Majesty upon the humble petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the High Court, to admit his appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

(8) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "judgment" includes any order or decree and a refusal to make any order.

(9) Sections 6, 7, 8, 36, 37 and 38 of "The Aden Civil and Criminal Justice Regulation, 1933," shall cease to have effect.

21. No subject of His Majesty shall on grounds only of religion, place of birth, descent, colour, or any of them be ineligible for office under the Crown in the Colony, or be prohibited on any such ground from entering the Colony or from acquiring, holding or disposing of property or carrying on any occupation, trade, business or profession in the Colony.

The High Commissioner may on Her Majesty's behalf exercise all powers and jurisdiction which Her Majesty, at any time before or after the date of this Order, had or may have within the limits of this Order, and to that end may take or cause to be taken all such measures, and may do or cause to be done all such matters and things within the limits of this Order as are lawful, and as in the interest of Her Majesty's service he may think expedient, subject to such instructions as he may from time to time receive from Her Majesty or through a Secretary of State.

3. The High Commissioner may appoint so many fit persons as in the interest of Her Majesty's service he may think necessary to be Deputy Commissioners, or Resident Commissioners, or Assistant Commissioners, or judges, magistrates or other officers, and may define from time to time the districts within which such officers shall respectively discharge their functions.

Every such officer may exercise such powers and authorities as the High Commissioner may assign to him, subject nevertheless to such directions and instructions as the High Commissioner may from time to time think fit to give him. The appointment of such officers shall not abridge, alter, or affect the right of the High Commissioner to execute and discharge all the powers and authorities hereby conferred upon him.

The High Commissioner may remove any officer so appointed.

4. In the exercise of the powers and authorities hereby conferred upon him, the High Commissioner may, amongst other things, from time to time by proclamation provide for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of all persons within the limits of this Order, including the prohibition and punishment of acts tending to disturb the public peace.

The High Commissioner in issuing such proclamations shall respect any native laws or customs by which the civil relations of any native Chiefs, tribes, or populations under Her Majesty's protection are now regulated, except so far as the same may be incompatible with the due exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction.

6. Her Majesty may disallow any such proclamation wholly or in part, and may signify such disallowance through a Secretary of State, and upon such disallowance being publicly notified by the High Commissioner in the Gazette the provisions so disallowed shall, from and after a date to be mentioned in such notification, cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything theretofore lawfully done thereunder.

7. The courts of British Bechuanaland shall have in respect of matters occurring within the limits of this Order the same jurisdiction, civil and criminal, original and appellate, as they respectively possess from time to time in respect of matters occurring within British Bechuanaland, and the judgments, decrees, orders, and sentences of any such court made or given in the exercise of the jurisdiction hereby conferred may be enforced and executed, and appeals therefrom may be had and prosecuted in the same way as if the judgment, decree, order, or sentence had been made or given under the ordinary jurisdiction of the court.

But the jurisdiction hereby conferred shall only be exercised by such courts, and in such manner and to such extent, as the Governor of British Bechuanaland shall by proclamation from time to time direct.

8. Subject to any proclamation made under this Order, any jurisdiction exercisable otherwise than under this Order, whether by virtue of any statute or Order in Council, or of any treaty, or otherwise, and whether exercisable by Her Majesty, or by any person on her behalf, or by any colonial or other court, or under any commission, or under any charter granted by Her Majesty, shall remain in full force.

18. The Governor may at any time by proclamation in the Government Gazette dissolve the Council.

19. Unless the Council shall have been previously dissolved under article 18 or article 69 of this Order, the Governor shall dissolve the Council by proclamation in the Government Gazette on such date, either upon or after the expiration of 4 years from the completion of the last preceding general election, as shall seem to him to be most convenient to enable the polling of votes at the ensuing general election to take place in or about the month of January. The date upon which the Council may be dissolved under this article shall not be earlier than the expiration of 4 years, nor later than the expiration of 5 years, from the completion of the last preceding general election.

20. The Governor shall have the right of addressing the Council and may for that purpose require the attendance of its members.

21. Subject to the provisions of articles 22, 26, 46, and 80, all questions proposed for decision in the Council shall be determined by a majority of the votes given on such questions, provided that the Speaker or other presiding member shall not vote unless the votes of the other members shall be equally divided ; in such case he shall give the casting vote.

22. (1) If the Governor shall consider that it is necessary in the interests of public order, public faith, or other essentials of good government, or to give effect to any of the provisions of this Order, that provision should be made by legislation, then in such case, notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Order or of any standing orders made under this Order, he may, by message to the State Council addressed to the Clerk of the State Council at the State Council Chamber, explain the circumstances which in his opinion render legislation necessary, and either—

(a) enact forthwith, as a Governor's ordinance, a bill containing such provisions as he may consider necessary ; or

(b) attach to his message a draft of the bill which he considers necessary.

(2) [Governor's message to Council.]

(3) Where the Governor takes such action as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of the preceding clause, he may at any time after a period of one month reckoned from the date upon which he signed the message, enact, as a Governor's ordinance, the bill proposed by him to the State Council either in the form of the draft attached to the message or with such amendments as he deems necessary, but before doing so he shall consider any address which may have been presented to him within the said period by the State Council with reference to the bill or to amendments suggested to be made therein.

(4) Any Governor's ordinance shall be expressed to be enacted by the Governor and upon being signed by him, shall be of the same force and effect as if it had been passed by the Council and had received the Governor's assent and shall be subject to disallowance by His Majesty in the same manner ; and all the provisions of this Order which relate to bills passed by the Council, or to the assent of the Governor to such bills, shall apply to bills enacted by the Governor in accordance with this article, or to the signing of such bills by him, as the case may require.

(5) [Governor's message to have priority.]

23. (1) The Governor shall report to the Secretary of State every case in which he shall have occasion to enact a Governor's ordinance under the powers conferred by the preceding article, and shall state in such report the reasons for the enactment of the ordinance.

(2) [Objecting members may submit statements.]

(3) The Governor shall append to his report under this article a copy of any statement of objections submitted to him in accordance with the provisions of the preceding clause, and, in a case where a Governor's ordinance has been enacted under the powers conferred by clause (3) of the preceding article, a copy of any address of the nature referred to in that clause presented to him by the State Council.

24. The Council shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy or vacancies among the Officers of State or among the nominated or elected members.

25. No business, except that of adjournment or the reading of a message from the Governor under article 22, shall be transacted unless there shall be present at least twenty members, exclusive of the Officers of State, in addition to the Speaker or other presiding member.

26. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, standing orders may be made for the regulation of the business and procedure of the Council, the preservation of order at meetings of the Council, prescribing the terms and conditions upon which any remuneration or allowance payable to members by reason of their membership of the Council may be paid, and for all other purposes authorised or required by this Order.

(2) The first standing orders of the Council shall be made by the Governor, with the approval of the Secretary of State, but may be amended, rescinded, or supplemented by the Council; provided that no amendment or rescission of, and no addition to the standing orders shall have effect unless the same shall be passed by a two-thirds majority of all the members of the Council excluding the Officers of State and the Speaker or other presiding member.

27. (1) The Governor shall appoint a person to be the Clerk of the Council and such other persons to perform such duties as officers of the Council as he shall think fit, and may at any time revoke any such appointment.

(2) The power conferred upon the Governor by this article shall include a power to appoint a person to perform temporarily the duties of the Clerk or of any other officer of the Council whenever in the Governor's opinion circumstances shall so require, and to revoke any such temporary appointment at any time.

(3) In the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this article the Governor shall consult the Speaker, or the member presiding in the Council for the time being in the place of the Speaker; provided that, prior to the first election of a Speaker under this Order, or in the interval between a dissolution of the Council and the next subsequent election of a Speaker, the Governor may make any such appointment as aforesaid provisionally and may thereafter confirm or revoke the same after consultation with the Speaker; provided, also, that the Governor may, subject to such conditions as he shall prescribe, delegate to the Speaker, or other presiding member, all or any of the powers conferred upon him by this article.

28. Before the commencement of every meeting of the Council, a statement of all business to be brought before the Council at that meeting shall be communicated by the Clerk of the Council to each member and to the Governor, and the Clerk shall also transmit to the Governor a copy of every document, other than petitions, presented to the Council.

29. Minutes shall be regularly kept of all the proceedings of the Council and copies of the said minutes shall be transmitted by the Clerk of the Council to the Governor as soon as possible after each meeting of the Council and the Governor shall transmit a copy of the said minutes to the Secretary of State.

30. (1) At the first meeting of the Council after the commencement of this Order and thereafter at the first meeting after every general election, and before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, the Council shall elect a member to be the Speaker.

(2) As soon as may be after the election of Executive Committees and of Ministers in accordance with the provisions of articles 34 and 35, the Council shall elect two members to be, respectively, the Deputy Speaker and Chairman of Committees (herein called "the Deputy Speaker") and the Deputy Chairman of Committees.

(3) Each person elected to be the Speaker, Deputy Speaker or Deputy Chairman of Committees shall hold office until the next dissolution of the Council, unless he shall sooner resign such office or cease, from any cause whatsoever, to be a member of the Council.

(4) In the case of a vacancy in any of such offices, another Speaker or Deputy Speaker or Deputy Chairman of Committees, as the case may be, shall be elected by the Council at the beginning of the next meeting after the occurrence of the vacancy.

(5) The Speaker, or in his absence, the Deputy Speaker, and in the absence of both Speaker and Deputy Speaker, the Deputy Chairman of Committees shall preside at the meetings of the Council. In the absence of the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker, and the Deputy Chairman of Committees, some member elected by the Council shall preside.

(6) There shall be paid to the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker and the Deputy Chairman of Committees such salary as may be determined by the Council with the approval of the Governor.

31. (1) As soon as may be after the election of Executive Committees and Ministers after each general election in accordance with the provisions of articles 34 and 35, the Council shall be divided by the Speaker into two Standing Committees, which shall be called, respectively, "Standing Committee A" and "Standing Committee B," for the consideration of such legislative measures as the Council shall not decide to refer, in the first instance, either to a Committee of the whole Council or to a Select Committee of the Council.

(2) The said Standing Committees shall remain in office until the next succeeding dissolution of the Council after they shall have been formed.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this article, the composition of the said Standing Committees, and the procedure at meetings of the same, shall be as may be determined by the standing orders of the Council, provided that every member of the Council, except the Speaker and the Officers of State, shall be a member of one of such Committees.

(4) The Deputy Speaker, or in his absence, such member of the Committee as the Committee shall elect, shall preside over Standing Committee A, and the Deputy Chairman of Committees, or in his absence, such member of the Committee as the Committee shall elect, shall preside over Standing Committee B.

(5) The Officers of State shall have the right to attend any meeting of either of the aforesaid Standing Committees and to address the Committee upon any question before the Committee but shall not vote.

(6) Any member of the Council in charge of any bill referred to either of the aforesaid Standing Committees, if not a member of that Committee, shall nevertheless have the right to attend any meeting at which such bill shall be under discussion and to address the Committee upon the bill and, unless he is an Officer of State, to vote as a member of the Committee upon any question arising in connection with such bill.

(7) The standing orders of the Council may provide for the addition to either of the said Standing Committees of any member or members of the other Standing Committee whenever in the opinion of the Council any such addition shall be expedient in order to assist the consideration of any question referred to either of the said Committees.

Executive Functions of the Council

32. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the State Council shall be charged with the administration of the subjects and functions of Government specified in the seven groups given in the first schedule to this Order or in any amendment of that schedule or which shall be deemed to be included in any of those groups in accordance with this article.

(2) The Council may, by resolution, amend the first schedule and may declare that any subjects or functions not expressly mentioned in that schedule shall be deemed to be included in any of the groups specified therein, provided that no subject or function included in the second schedule to this Order shall be included in the first schedule, and provided, further, that the division into seven groups of such subjects and functions as may be included in the first schedule shall be preserved: but no such resolution or declaration shall have effect until it has been approved by the Governor.

(3) Until the first election of Executive Committees and the first appointment of Ministers, after the commencement of this Order shall be complete, the Governor may exercise the power given to the Council by the preceding clause of this article to declare that any subjects or functions not expressly mentioned in the first schedule shall be deemed to be included in any of the groups specified therein.

(4) If any doubt shall arise as to which group in the first schedule includes any subject or function not expressly mentioned in that schedule, or in any declaration by the Governor or by the Council in accordance with this article, the decision of the Council shall, subject to approval by the Governor, be final.

(5) Until the first election of Executive Committees and the first appointment of Ministers after the commencement of this Order shall be complete, the executive functions hereby committed to the Council shall be vested in the Governor.

33. (1) Each of the Officers of State shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, and to the directions of the Governor, have charge of the subjects and shall exercise the functions allotted to him in the second schedule to this Order or in any amendment of that schedule or which shall be deemed to be included in the group allotted to him in accordance with this article.

(2) The Governor may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, amend the second schedule, and may, in his own discretion, declare that any subject or function not expressly mentioned in the second schedule shall be deemed to be included in any of the groups specified therein, provided that no subject or function included in the first schedule to this Order shall be included in the second schedule.

(3) If any doubt shall arise as to whether any subject or function is included in the first schedule or in the second schedule, the decision of the Secretary of State shall be final.

Executive Committees and Ministers

34. (1) At the first meeting of the Council after the commencement of this Order and thereafter at the first meeting after every general election, the Council shall elect by secret ballot from among its members seven Executive Committees each of which shall be charged, until the next following dissolution of the Council, with the administration, subject to the provisions of this Order, of such one of the seven groups of subjects and functions specified in the first schedule hereto as the Council when electing the Committee shall determine.

(2) The Council shall proceed to the election of the aforesaid Committees as soon as may be after the election of a Speaker as provided by article 30, and before proceeding to the despatch of any other business. Each Committee shall contain as nearly as possible an equal number of members and every member of the Council, except the Speaker and the Officers of State, shall be elected to one of such Committees, and no member of the Council shall be elected to more than one, provided that a member of a Committee elected to be the Deputy Speaker or Deputy Chairman of Committees or to fill any vacancy in the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker or Deputy Chairman of Committees in accordance with article 30 shall, upon such election, cease to be a member of such Committee.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this article procedure for the election of Executive Committees and for the assignment to an Executive Committee of any member elected to the Council after the first meeting thereof following a general election and for the transfer of members from one Committee to another shall be as prescribed by the standing orders of the Council.

35. (1) As soon as may be after the election of Executive Committees in accordance with article 34, and before the Council proceeds to any other business, each Executive Committee shall elect a Chairman by secret ballot from among its members, and whenever the office of Chairman of an Executive Committee shall become vacant, the Committee shall, in like manner, elect a member thereof to be the Chairman of the Committee.

(2) The member elected by the Committee to be the Chairman thereof shall be appointed by the Governor to be the Minister for that group of subjects and functions which the Committee of which he is the Chairman was elected to administer; provided that the Governor may, in his discretion, decline to appoint as a Minister any member of a Committee so elected as aforesaid, and, in such case, the election of such member as the Chairman of the Committee shall be void and the Committee shall elect another member to be the Chairman thereof.

(3) If at any time any Minister shall be prevented temporarily by absence from the Island, or by illness or other sufficient cause, from exercising the functions of his office, the Committee of which that Minister is the Chairman may, with the approval of the Governor, elect another member of the Committee to act as the Chairman of the Committee until the Minister shall resume the exercise of the functions of his office. A member so elected shall be appointed by the Governor to act in place of the Minister until such time as aforesaid; provided that the Governor may, in his discretion, decline to appoint the member so elected and the Committee shall thereupon elect another member to act for the Minister. (2) The transaction of business concerning any subjects or functions in the charge of an Officer of State shall be regulated by such procedure as the Governor shall prescribe.

40. (1) The Governor shall appoint some person to be the Secretary to each Minister and may at any time revoke any such appointment.

A person appointed to be the Secretary to a Minister shall also be the Clerk to the Executive Committee of which that Minister is the Chairman.

(2) The power conferred upon the Governor by this article shall include a power to appoint a person to perform temporarily the duties of the Secretary to a Minister and Clerk to an Executive Committee whenever, in the Governor's opinion, circumstances shall so require and to revoke any such temporary appointment at any time.

(3) In the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this article the Governor shall consult the Minister concerned, provided that the Governor may, subject to such conditions as he shall prescribe, delegate to any Minister the power to make and to revoke any temporary appointment authorised by this article.

41. (1) Executive Committees shall meet whenever summoned by the Clerk either by direction of the Chairman or at the request of any three members of the Committee.

(2) In the absence of the Chairman, such member of the Committee as the Committee may elect shall preside at the meetings of the Committee.

(4) All questions proposed in an Executive Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members of the Committee there present and voting. The Chairman or presiding member shall have an original vote on all such questions, and also a casting vote if the votes shall be equally divided.

(5) A statement of all matters for discussion at any meeting of a Committee shall be forwarded by the Clerk to each member and to the Governor and to the Chief Secretary before the meeting is held. The Clerk shall also forward to the Governor and to the Chief Secretary copies of any document to be laid before the Committee if copies are available.

(6) The Clerk shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Committee and shall forward a copy of the minutes to the Governor and to the Chief Secretary as soon as may be after each meeting.

(7) An Executive Committee shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy or vacancies among the members thereof.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this article, the procedure at the meetings of any Executive Committee shall be such as the standing orders of the Council may prescribe.

(2) A Minister, or his Committee, may at any time require the head of a department concerned with subjects or functions in the charge of the Committee to attend, or to cause any other officer or officers of that department to attend, any meeting of the Committee when the affairs of that department are under discussion.

45. (1) When the decision of an Executive Committee requires that any direction shall be given to any Government department concerned with subjects or functions in the Committee's charge, every such direction shall be conveyed to the head of such department by the Minister, or in writing by the Clerk to the Committee by direction of the Minister, but save as provided by this article and by article 48, no such direction shall be given until the approval of such decision by the Council and the ratification of the same by the Governor shall have been received by the Minister in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained.

(2) When, in the opinion of an Executive Committee, any decision of the Committee shall not be of sufficient importance to require the approval of the Council or the ratification of the Governor before the issue of directions to carry the decision into effect, or when the decision shall, in the opinion of the Committee, require action to be taken too urgently to enable such prior approval or ratification to be obtained, the directions of the Committee may be conveyed to the head of the department concerned and action may be taken in accordance therewith without such prior approval or ratification. In every such case, the Committee shall without delay report to the Council the decision of the Committee and the directions issued thereon and the reasons why such directions were issued without such prior approval and ratification as aforesaid, and the Council shall report the same to the Governor.

(3) The Governor or the Council may require that in the case of such decisions, or classes of decisions, by Executive Committees as may be specified by the Governor or by the Council, as the case may be, no directions shall be issued by an Executive Committee to carry such decisions into effect without such prior approval and ratification as aforesaid.

(4) The Council may, with the approval of the Governor, by resolution, authorise any Executive Committee to issue directions, without such prior approval by the Council and ratification by the Governor as aforesaid, for the purpose of giving effect to such decisions or classes of decisions as the resolution may specify. Whenever a Committee shall issue directions in pursuance of such authority as aforesaid, the Committee shall without delay report to the Council the decision of the Committee and the directions issued thereon, and the Council shall report the same to the Governor.

46. (1) Every decision of an Executive Committee which shall require the approval of the Council shall be embodied in a report which shall include the recommendations of the Committee and shall be presented to the Council for consideration.

(2) The Council may accept or reject any such report or may refer it back to the Committee for further consideration. If passed by the Council, the report, or such part thereof as shall have been passed, shall be submitted to the Governor by the Council for ratification.

(3) The Governor may either ratify or decline to ratify any report so submitted to him as aforesaid, or may refer the same or any part thereof back to the Council for further consideration, or he may refer the same or any part thereof to the Secretary of State, or he may declare that the report involves an important question of principle, and may require that, before he shall give his decision thereon, the report shall be resubmitted to the Council and shall be passed by a two-thirds majority of all the members of the Council excluding the Officers of State and the Speaker or other presiding member.

(4) The decision of the Governor, or of the Secretary of State, upon any such report shall be communicated by the Governor to the Council, and by the Council to the Executive Committee concerned, and if the report or any part thereof shall have been ratified by the Governor or approved by the Secretary of State, the Committee shall transmit the report, or such part thereof as shall have been so ratified or approved as aforesaid, to the head of each department concerned with the subjects or functions to which the report relates, and it shall be the duty of the head of each of such departments to give effect to the report or to such part thereof as shall have been so ratified or approved as aforesaid.

(5) If the Governor shall decline to ratify any report so submitted to him as aforesaid, or any part thereof, he shall without delay report his decision and his reasons therefor to the Secretary of State, who may confirm or vary such decision. If the decision of the Governor shall be varied by the Secretary of State, the Governor shall report the Secretary of State's decision to the Council, and the Council shall communicate the same to the Executive Committee concerned and such Committee shall thereupon direct that effect be given thereto.

(3) The Council shall communicate with Executive Committees in such manner as the standing orders of the Council shall provide.

48. (1) Nothing contained in articles 45 or 46 shall apply to the exercise of any power conferred upon any Minister or Executive Committee by delegation from the Governor under article 94 or article 95 or otherwise by any written law, and directions may be issued to Government departments in the exercise of any such power without the prior approval of the Council and ratification by the Governor to which articles 45 and 46 refer; provided that the Governor may require that any power so delegated by him shall not be exercised without the prior approval of the Council or ratification by him, or without both such prior approval and ratification, or that decisions of Executive Committees in the exercise of any such power, or for the purpose of advising a Minister in the exercise of such power, shall be reported to the Council.

(2) Decisions of Executive Committees made for the purpose of advising the Governor upon the exercises of any power vested in him shall not be deemed to be decisions which must be reported to the Council unless the Governor shall so require.

49. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, whenever the Governor shall consider that a state of emergency has arisen or is imminent, whether from the danger of enemy action or of civil disorder, or from any grave cause, he may by proclamation assume control of any Government department and issue such orders to that department as he may see fit, provided that, in every such case, he shall make a full report immediately to the Secretary of State; and provided, further, that if the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council shall make provision by law to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State for the exercise by the Governor of such emergency powers, the Secretary of State may declare that this clause of this article shall cease to have effect and on the publication of such declaration in the Government Gazette this clause of this article shall cease to have effect accordingly.

(2) The Governor shall not assent to any bill repealing or amending any such law as aforesaid unless he shall have previously obtained His Majesty's instructions through the Secretary of State.

The Board of Ministers and Financial Provisions

50. (1) There shall be a Board of Ministers which shall be composed of the Officers of State and the Ministers.

(2) The Officers of State shall not be entitled to vote upon any question submitted to the Board, but shall have the rights and privileges of membership of the Board in all other respects.

(3) The Chief Secretary shall be the Chairman of the Board and there shall be a Vice-Chairman who shall be elected by the Board from among the Ministers.

(4) If at any time the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Ministers shall be prevented by absence from the Island, or by illness or other sufficient cause, from exercising the functions of his office, the Board may elect another Minister to act as Vice-Chairman until the Vice-Chairman shall resume the exercise of the functions of his office, and all the provisions of this Order which apply to the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Ministers shall apply to the Minister so elected during the period for which he shall act as Vice-Chairman of the Board.

(5) The Chief Secretary shall preside over the Board of Ministers, and in his absence the Vice-Chairman of the Board shall preside.

51. The Vice-Chairman of the Board of Ministers shall be the representative of the Board in the Council and shall be styled "the Leader of the State Council."

The Governor may also appoint a person to perform temporarily the duties of the Secretary to the Board whenever, in his opinion, circumstances shall so require, and may at any time revoke any such temporary appointment.

53. (1) The Board of Ministers shall not proceed to the despatch of business unless duly summoned by the Chief Secretary who may from time to time, and shall whenever the Vice-Chairman so requests, convene a meeting of the Board.

(2) No business shall be transacted unless there shall be present at least three members, exclusive of the Officers of State.

(3) All questions proposed to the Board of Ministers shall be decided by a majority of the Ministers there present and voting and, save as provided by article 71, no member of the Board shall have more than one vote.

(4) A statement of all matters for discussion at any meeting of the Board shall be forwarded by the Secretary to each member and to the Governor before the meeting is held. The Secretary shall also forward to the Governor a copy of any document to be laid before the Board if a copy is available.

(5) The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Board and shall forward a copy of the minutes to the Governor as soon as may be after each meeting.

(6) The Board shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy or vacancies among the members thereof.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this article, the procedure at meetings of the Board shall be such as the Board shall prescribe.

54. In the discharge of any function or duty imposed by this Order upon the Board of Ministers, the Board may require the head of any Government department to attend or to cause any other officer of his department to attend, any meeting of the Board and to give such assistance to the Board as the Board may require.

55. Subject to the provisions of article 22, the Board of Ministers shall determine the order in which any business, whether executive or legislative, to be brought before the Council, by the Board of Ministers or by any Executive Committee or Officer of State, shall be despatched, and may prescribe the procedure by which the settlement of questions affecting more than one Executive Committee shall be arranged.

56. (1) It shall be the duty of the Board of Ministers to prepare, in consultation with the Financial Secretary, the annual estimates of revenue and expenditure for the Island and all supplementary estimates of expenditure.

(2) The annual estimates of expenditure shall state under distinct heads every item which is expected to come in course of payment during the year to which the estimates relate and, in addition to items of expenditure which shall require the approval of the Council, shall include in a separate column items of expenditure already authorised by law. Each head of expenditure shall be divided into such sub-heads as the Board of Ministers shall decide.

(3) The annual estimates of revenue and expenditure and all supplementary estimates of expenditure, when approved by the Board of Ministers, shall be laid before the Council for the information of members.

57. (1) Subject to the provisions of article 22, no bill, motion, resolution, or vote for the disposal of, or the imposition of charges upon, any part of the public revenue or other funds of the Island, or for the authorisation of any prior disposal of any part of such revenue or funds or for the imposition or augmentation of any tax, or for the repeal or reduction of any tax for the time being in force, shall be introduced in the Council by any member except a Minister or an Officer of State, nor unless such bill, motion, resolution, or vote shall have received the prior approval of the Board of Ministers.

(2) Every bill, motion, resolution or vote introduced in the Council for any of the purposes mentioned in the preceding clause of this article shall be accompanied by a report from the Board of Ministers explaining the financial implications thereof and including the observations of the Financial Secretary thereon.

(3) In this article the expression "tax" does not include any tax raised by local authorities or bodies for local purposes.

58. (1) Each Minister and each Officer of State shall, not later than the month of April in each year, submit to the Board of Ministers, through the Financial Secretary, the estimates of expenditure proposed by the Minister's Executive Committee, or by the Officer of State, as the case may be, for the ensuing financial year in connection with the subjects or functions under the control of such Committee or Officer of State; provided that no such estimate shall be submitted to the Board of Ministers until the Executive Committee or Officer of State by whom the same shall be proposed shall have consulted the Financial Secretary and shall have considered his report.

(2) If any Minister or Officer of State shall fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding clause of this article, the Governor may cause to be prepared, with such assistance as he may require from the Board of Ministers and from the heads of any Government departments, an estimate of expenditure for the ensuing financial year in connection with the subjects or functions under the control of such Executive Committee or Officer of State, and may forward the same, certified under his hand, to the Board of Ministers and the Board shall deal with an estimate so received from the Governor in all respects as though it had been received from a Minister or Officer of State in accordance with this article.

59. (1) The annual estimates of expenditure for the Island, to the extent to which such expenditure shall not previously have been authorised by any law in force in the Island, shall be embodied in a bill, in this Order called "The Annual Appropriation Bill," which shall be submitted annually to the Council in or about the month of June or as soon thereafter as circumstances will permit.

(2) In every Annual Appropriation Bill the expenditure proposed shall be allocated to specific purposes under distinct heads corresponding to the heads mentioned in the annual estimates in accordance with article 56.

(3) The authority for expenditure which the passage into law of any such bill shall convey shall lapse at the end of the financial year to which the bill relates.

60. All disbursements of the public revenue or other funds of the Island in any financial year which shall not have been authorised by the passage into law of the Annual Appropriation Bill for that year or otherwise by any law in force in the Island shall be specified in a bill, in this Order called "The Supplementary Appropriation Bill", which shall be submitted to the Council as soon as may be after the close of the financial year in which such disbursements were made.

61. Whenever any payment of public money shall be, or shall have been, authorised by this Order or by any other law in force in the Island other than the Annual Appropriation Law, it shall be lawful for the Financial Secretary, with the authority of the Governor, to make any such payment, and to accept a charge upon his accounts in respect of any such payment.

62. Subject to the provisions of article 66, the Financial Secretary shall not make any payment of public money or accept any charge on his accounts in any financial year in respect of services for which provision has been made in the Annual Appropriation Law for that year, unless he shall be authorised to do so by—

(a) a general warrant, signed by the Governor, in accordance with the provisions of article 63 ;

(b) a requisition, approved by the Governor, in accordance with the provisions of article 64.

63. As soon as may be after the enactment of the Annual Appropriation Law for any year, the Financial Secretary shall prepare a complete schedule of the personal emoluments and other public services provided for in the estimates and in the Annual Appropriation Law for that year over which the Board of Ministers does not desire to retain a special control and of the provision authorised by that law in respect of the same. Such schedule shall be annexed to the general warrant which, when signed by the Governor, shall authorise payments by the Financial Secretary monthly, or at such periods as may be necessary during the year, in respect of the services therein enumerated.

64. Whenever in the opinion of an Executive Committee or of an Officer of State, after prior consultation with the Financial Secretary, it shall be necessary to incur expenditure on a service for which provision shall have been made in the Annual Appropriation Law, but the expenditure on which shall not have been authorised by the general warrant, the Minister or Officer of State, as the case may be, shall forward to the Board of Ministers, through the Financial Secretary, a requisition stating the whole extent and estimated cost of the service required and the reasons therefor, and no such expenditure shall be incurred until the requisition shall have been approved by the Board of Ministers and by the Governor.

65. (1) Whenever in the opinion of an Executive Committee or of an Officer of State, after prior consultation with the Financial Secretary, it shall be necessary to incur expenditure for which provision shall not have been made in the Annual Appropriation Law or by this Order or by any other law in force in the Island, the Minister or Officer of State, as the case may be, shall forward to the Board of Ministers, through the Financial Secretary, a statement showing the whole extent and estimated cost of the service required and the reasons therefor.

(2) If the Board of Ministers shall approve any such expenditure as aforesaid, the Board shall include the same in a supplementary estimate and shall submit the same for the approval of the Council and no such expenditure shall be incurred unless the said estimate of the Board shall have been approved by the Council and ratified by the Governor nor until the same shall be authorised by special warrant approved by the Board and signed by the Governor.

(3) Whenever the Board of Ministers shall propose any expenditure for the approval of the Council in accordance with this article, the Board shall present to the Council a report explaining the nature and extent of the expenditure and the reasons therefor and including the observations of the Financial Secretary thereon.

66. Notwithstanding anything contained in articles 62 and 65, if the Board of Ministers shall decline to include in the general warrant, or to approve a requisition or special warrant for, any expenditure which shall be provided for in the estimates and in the Annual Appropriation Law for any year, or which shall be approved by a vote passed by the Council or having effect as though it had been so passed, the Governor may, by warrant under his hand, authorise the Financial Secretary to make any payment, or to accept any charge upon his accounts, in respect of any such expenditure.

67. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in article 65, if the Board of Ministers shall consider that any expenditure to which that article refers shall be required too urgently to enable the provisions of that article to be observed before such expenditure is incurred, the Board may submit to the Governor a special warrant to authorise such expenditure, in anticipation of the approval of the Council, on the personal responsibility of every Minister who shall have approved the same, and such warrant, when signed by the Governor, shall authorise the Financial Secretary to make any payment or to accept any charge on his accounts in accordance therewith.

(2) A report of any expenditure incurred under the authority of a special warrant issued under this article, including the observations of the Financial Secretary thereon, shall be submitted by the Board of Ministers for the approval of the Council at the earliest opportunity.

68. Any Annual or Supplementary Appropriation Bill and any bill, motion, resolution, or vote to which article 57 refers may be referred by the Council to the Board of Ministers for further consideration, provided that the Council shall not so refer any such bill, motion, resolution, or vote for further consideration more than once, and provided further that if the Council shall not have passed, with or without amendment, any Annual Appropriation Bill within 3 months after the first reading of the bill shall have been moved, the Council shall be deemed to have rejected the bill.

69. (1) If the Council, with or without reference to the Board of Ministers for further consideration, shall reject the whole of any Annual Appropriation Bill, the Governor shall dissolve the Council.

(2) The Governor shall also dissolve the Council if, in his opinion, by reason of the decision of the Council upon any bill, motion, resolution, or vote, to which article 57 refers, or upon any motion expressly directed to test the confidence of the Council in the Board of Ministers, it shall be apparent that the Board no longer retains the confidence of the Council.

70. If at any time the Council shall be dissolved before financial provision shall have been made for the essential public services of the Island sufficient for the period which must elapse before such provision can be made by a new Council, it shall be lawful for the Governor by warrant under his hand to authorise the Financial Secretary to make such disbursements from the public revenue and other funds of the Island as shall be sufficient for such services during such period but no longer.

71. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, upon a dissolution of the Council and until the next succeeding election of Executive Committees and appointment of Ministers in accordance with this Order, the following provisions shall have effect :—

(a) The executive functions committed to the Council by article 32 shall be vested in the Board of Ministers as constituted immediately prior to the dissolution of the Council and that Board shall continue to be styled " the Board of Ministers " and to have and to exercise, as nearly as may be, all the powers and functions which it had and exercised immediately prior to the dissolution of the Council.

(b) All the powers and functions conferred by this Order, or by any other law, upon any Executive Committee, except the election of a Chairman of the Committee, shall be vested in the person who, immediately prior to the dissolution of the Council, was the Chairman of that Executive Committee, and such person shall continue to be styled "Minister" and to have and exercise, during the period aforesaid, all the powers and functions which, immediately prior to the dissolution of the Council, he had and exercised as a Minister.

(c) All the provisions of this Order which relate to reports from Executive Committees to the Council shall relate, as nearly as may be, to reports from Ministers to the Board of Ministers and all the provisions of this Order which relate to reports from the Council to the Governor shall relate, as nearly as may be, to reports from the Board of Ministers to the Governor.

(d) If any Minister shall be prevented by illness or by absence from the Island, or other sufficient cause, from exercising the functions of his office, the Governor may appoint a person to exercise temporarily the powers and functions of that Minister from among the Board of Ministers, excluding the Officers of State, or from among the persons who, immediately prior to the dissolution of the Council, constituted the Executive Committee of which that Minister was the Chairman. If the person so appointed shall be already a member of the Board of Ministers he shall be entitled to a vote, at meetings of the Board, by reason of such appointment, in addition to the vote to which he is entitled by reason of his prior membership of the Board.

Legislative Functions of the Council

72. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council, to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the Island : provided nevertheless and it is hereby reserved to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, with the advice of his or their Privy Council, to make from time to time all such laws as may appear necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the Island as fully and effectually as if this Order had not been made.

73. A law may be enacted in accordance with this Order defining the privileges, immunities, and powers to be held, enjoyed, and exercised by the Council and the members thereof ; provided that no such privileges, immunities, or powers shall exceed those for the time being held, enjoyed, and exercised by the Commons House of Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland or the members thereof.

74. No law made by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council, shall take effect until the Governor shall have assented thereto in the name and on behalf of His Majesty and shall have signed the same in token of such assent, provided that if the Governor shall, in accordance with this Order, reserve any bill passed by the Council for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon, such bill shall become law and take effect so soon as His Majesty shall have given his assent thereto, either by Order in Council or through the Secretary of State, and the Governor shall have signified such assent by proclamation published in the Government Gazette.

75. When the Governor assents to a law, he shall by the first convenient opportunity transmit an authentic copy of the law, in duplicate, to the Secretary of State, and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, at any time within 2 years after such copy shall have been received by the Secretary of State, to notify to the Governor his disallowance of such law through the Secretary of State, and every law so disallowed shall become null and void from and after the day on which the Governor shall signify such disallowance by proclamation in the Government Gazette.

76. When a bill passed by the Council is presented to the Governor for his assent he shall, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of this Order and of any instructions addressed to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet or through the Secretary of State, declare that he assents thereto, or refuses his assent to the same, or that he reserves the same for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure.

77. The Governor may reserve any bill passed by the Council for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure thereon, and he shall so reserve any such bill by which any provision of this Order, or of any other Order of His Majesty in Council, is repealed or varied, or which is in any way repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Order, or of any such other Order, except where by this Order, or by any such other Order, power is expressly given to the Council to make provision by law. When the Governor so reserves any bill he shall by the first convenient opportunity transmit an authentic copy in duplicate to the Secretary of State.

78. In assenting to any bill the Governor may by order declare that the law shall be withheld from operation for a period not exceeding 6 months, and in such case, notwithstanding the provisions of article 74, such law shall not take effect until the expiration of the period for which the same shall have been withheld from operation by the Governor.

79. The Governor may return to the Council for further consideration any bill presented to him for his assent, or for the ascertainment of His Majesty's pleasure thereon, and may transmit therewith any amendments to the bill which he may recommend.

80. When the Governor is of opinion that any bill introduced or about to be introduced into the Council involves an important question of principle he may at any time before the votes of members upon the third reading of the bill have been taken, communicate such opinion to the Council by message to the Speaker, and may require that the bill shall not be presented to him for his assent unless at any reading subsequent to that requirement it shall have been passed by a two-thirds majority of all the members of the Council, excluding the Officers of State and the Speaker or other presiding member.

81. (1) If the Governor shall exercise in respect of any bill any of the powers conferred upon him by articles 78 and 80, he shall forthwith report his decision to the Secretary of State and it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to cancel or vary the Governor's decision in regard to the same.

(2) The Governor shall communicate the directions of the Secretary of State to the Council and thereupon such directions shall take effect.

82. As soon as possible after the commencement of each year the Governor shall cause a complete collection of all ordinances enacted during the preceding year to be published for general information.

Audit of Public Accounts

83. There shall be an Auditor-General who shall be appointed by the Governor and shall hold office during good behaviour, provided that he shall be removed from office by the Governor upon an address praying for his removal presented to the Governor by the Council, provided also that he may be required by the Governor to retire from the public service on the ground of age or infirmity, whether of mind or body, in the like circumstances and subject to the same conditions as any other public officer in receipt of similar pensionable emoluments.

84. The Auditor-General shall be responsible for the audit and inspection of all public accounts of the Government. He shall see that in all matters relating to finance and accounts this Order and the laws of the Island and all lawful directions of the Governor, or of the Council with the approval of the Governor, are strictly observed and shall bring to the notice of the Governor and of the Council any failure in their observance. The Auditor-General and his deputies are at all times entitled to have access to all books, records, or returns relating to accounts, and all accounting officers shall give them every facility for inspecting such documents.

85. As soon as possible after the close of each financial year the Auditor-General shall prepare a report on the revenue and expenditure of the year, and in such report he shall deal with the collection of revenue, the state of the arrears, the manner in which the accounts of the Island are kept, the sufficiency of existing checks against fraud, the nature and extent of the audit applied, and any special questions arising out of the accounts. He shall furnish this report to the Governor and to the Speaker for communication to the Council.

7. Any person not otherwise disqualified shall be qualified to have his name entered in a register of voters if he is domiciled in Ceylon or if he is qualified in accordance with article 8 or article 9 of this Order ; provided that, except in the case of persons possessing Ceylon domicile of origin, domicile shall not be deemed to have been acquired for the purpose of qualifying for registration as a voter by any person who has not resided in Ceylon for a total period of or exceeding 5 years.

8. (1) Any person not otherwise disqualified shall be qualified to have his name entered in a register of voters in any year if he—

(a) is able to read and write English, Sinhalese, or Tamil, and

(b) has or holds one of the following qualifications, viz. :—

(ii) The ownership of immovable property otherwise than as lessee or usufructuary mortgagee, situate within the electoral district to which the register relates, during a continuous period of 6 months immediately prior to the 1st day of August in that year, the value of which, after allowing for any mortgage debts thereon, is not less than Rs. 1,500 ;

(3) Any person to whom such a certificate of permanent settlement has been refused may appeal to the Governor whose decision shall be final.

(4) A certificate of permanent settlement shall be cancelled and the name of the person to whom it relates shall, if registered in any register of voters by reason of his possession of such certificate, be removed from such register if at any time it is proved to the satisfaction of the registering or revising officer for the electoral district in which such person resides, or of any other person duly authorised by the Governor in that behalf, that the certificate was obtained fraudulently or by statements which were untrue or that at any time since the granting of the certificate the person to whom it relates has been absent from Ceylon for a continuous period exceeding 12 months.

At the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of November, 1893.

Present:—THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890,"⁽¹⁾ it was amongst other things enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had, or might at any time thereafter have, within a foreign country, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired that jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory.

And whereas by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the 28th day of November, 1888,⁽²⁾ Her Majesty's Settlement on the Gambia was erected into a separate Colony, under the title of "the Colony of the Gambia," and by the said Letters Patent a Legislative Council was appointed for the said Colony of the Gambia, with certain powers and authority to legislate for the said Colony as by the said Letters Patent will more fully appear.

Whereas certain magistrates and other inhabitants of the Island of Grand Cayman have from time to time, in Vestry or otherwise, passed or assumed to pass certain Acts or resolutions for the Government of the Cayman Islands: And whereas doubts are entertained whether such Acts or resolutions are of any effect in the said Islands, and by what authority laws may be made for the government of the same, and what laws are actually in force therein; and it is expedient that such doubts should be set at rest: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. All Acts or resolutions heretofore passed or purporting to have been passed at any meeting of the magistrates or representatives, or of the justices and Vestry, or of the Vestry of the Island of Grand Cayman, shall, so soon as a fair copy of the same shall have been signed by the Governor of Jamaica in verification thereof, be and be deemed to have been valid and effectual for all purposes whatever within the said Cayman Islands, from the date at which the same shall purport to have been passed.
2. It shall be competent to the Legislature of Jamaica to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the said Islands, and by such laws to alter or repeal all or any of the aforesaid Acts or resolutions; and also to give to the justices and Vestry, or other body or bodies of persons in the said Islands, such power of making laws or regulations for local purposes within the same, as to the said Legislature may seem fit.
3. Until it shall be otherwise provided by the said Legislature, it shall be lawful for the said justices and Vestry, in their accustomed manner, or in such other manner as shall be prescribed in writing under the hand and Seal of the Governor of Jamaica, to make such regulations as to them shall seem fit for the following purposes; that is to say—

Respecting their own constitution and procedure ; respecting the powers and duties of public officers ; and especially respecting the powers, functions, and procedure of justices of the peace and officers acting under their authority ; and respecting appeals from the decisions of such justices to the Supreme Court of Jamaica ;

Respecting the establishment, maintenance, discipline and powers of the police ;

Respecting the custody of offenders and accused persons ; respecting the imposition and collection of rates and taxes, and respecting the custody and expenditure of the proceeds thereof :

Provided always, that no justice of the peace shall by virtue of any such regulation try any suit or action, without the consent of the parties thereto, in which the value of the matter in dispute shall exceed £100, nor take cognisance of any capital crime, nor sentence any offender to the payment of a fine of more than £50, or to imprisonment for a longer term than 12 months.

4. No regulation made by such justices and Vestry or other legislative authority in the said Islands shall take effect until the same shall have been signed by the Officer administering the Government of Jamaica in token of his assent thereto ; and every such regulation may be disallowed by Her Majesty by Order in Council or through one of her Principal Secretaries of State, and shall cease to be of any effect so soon as the disallowance thereof shall be proclaimed within the said Islands.

5. Except as they may be inconsistent with the aforesaid Acts or resolutions, and subject to any such alterations as may be made by or by authority of the aforesaid Legislature of Jamaica, and to such regulations as may from time to time be made under authority of this Act, the laws now in force in Jamaica shall from the date of this Act be deemed to be in force in the said Islands, so far as the same shall be applicable to the circumstances thereof.

13. The Governor of Jamaica may disallow any ordinance passed by the said Board, and every ordinance so disallowed shall become null and void so soon as the disallowance thereof shall be published in the Turks and Caicos Islands, by authority of the Governor of Jamaica.

And any ordinance passed by the said Board which shall be in any respect repugnant to the provisions of any law of the Jamaica Legislature which shall extend to the Turks and Caicos Islands, or be repugnant to any order or regulation made under authority of such law, shall be read subject to such law, order, or regulation, and shall, to the extent of such repugnancy, but not otherwise, be and remain absolutely void and inoperative.

15. Any member of the said Board may move any resolution or introduce any ordinance, or propose any question for debate provided that no resolution be passed, or ordinance adopted, or question allowed for debate whenever the object of such resolution, ordinance, or question may be to dispose of or to charge any part of the revenue arising within the Turks and Caicos Islands, unless the same be moved, introduced, or proposed by the Commissioner or some other member under the instructions of the Governor of Jamaica.

27. (1) There shall be a court of record, styled "the High Court of Northern Rhodesia," with full jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over all persons and over all matters within Northern Rhodesia, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained with regard to native law and custom.

(2) Such civil and criminal jurisdiction shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the substance of the law for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before courts of justice and justices of the peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities, except so far as such law may be applicable or may have been modified by any Order in Council, regulations or proclamation or may hereafter be modified by any Order in Council or ordinance :

Provided that no Act passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom after the commencement of "The Northern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1911,"⁽¹⁾ shall be deemed to apply to the said Territory, unless it shall have been applied thereto since the commencement of the said Order, or shall hereafter be applied thereto, by any law or ordinance for the time being in force in the said Territory.

(3) The High Court shall have a seal, bearing the style of the Court and such device as a Secretary of State from time to time approves, but until such seal is provided, the seal or stamp now in use may be used instead thereof.

(4) The High Court shall sit at such place or places as the Governor may appoint.

29. If any sentence of death is pronounced by or by direction of the High Court, a copy of the evidence shall be transmitted to the Governor ; and the sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by him. The Governor may signify his confirmation by telegraph.

(b) decide all such cases according to substantial justice without undue regard to technicalities of procedure and without delay. In all other respects the court shall follow as far as possible the procedure observed in similar cases in England.

40. No conditions, disabilities, or restrictions which do not equally apply to persons of European descent shall, without the previous consent of a Secretary of State, be imposed upon natives (save in respect of the supply of arms, ammunition and liquor), by any proclamation, regulation or other instrument issued under the provisions of any law, unless such conditions, disabilities, or restrictions shall have been explicitly prescribed, defined and limited in such law.

41. (1) It shall not be lawful for any purpose whatever to alienate from the Chief and people of the Barotse the territory reserved from prospecting by virtue of the concession from Lewanika to the British South Africa Company, dated the 17th day of October, 1900, and the 11th day of August, 1909.

(2) All rights reserved to or for the benefit of natives by the aforesaid concessions as approved by the Secretary of State shall continue to have full force and effect.

42. A native may acquire, hold, encumber, and dispose of land on the same conditions as a person who is not a native, but no contract for encumbering or alienating land the property of a native shall be valid unless the contract is made in the presence of a magistrate, is attested by him, and bears a certificate signed by him stating that the consideration for the contract is fair and reasonable, and that he has satisfied himself that the native understands the transaction.

43. (1) No native shall be removed from any kraal, or from any land assigned to him for occupation, except after full inquiry by, and by order of, the Governor.

(2) If any person without such order removes or attempts to remove any native from any kraal or from any land unless in execution of the process of a competent court, he shall, in addition to any other proceeding to which he is liable, be guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction before the High Court shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding 2 years, or to a fine not exceeding £100, or to both.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to limit or affect the exercise by the Chief of the Barotse of his authority in tribal matters, or to prohibit the removal of natives from any kraal or land assigned to them, where such removal is authorised by any law for the time being in force relating to public health, provided that other suitable land be forthwith assigned to them in lieu of that from which they have been removed.

44. The Governor may refer any question relating to natives for report to any judge of the High Court, and the judge shall thereupon make such enquiry as he thinks fit, and shall report to the Governor the result of such enquiry.

45. In case of a revolt against the Government, or other misconduct committed by a native Chief or tribe, the Governor may, with the approval of a Secretary of State, impose a reasonable fine upon the offender.

I. Mandate, 1922.

The Council of the League of Nations:

Whereas the Principal Allied Powers have agreed, for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of article 22 of the Covenant of the League of Nations,⁽¹⁾ to entrust to a mandatory selected by the said Powers the administration of the territory of Palestine, which formerly belonged to the Turkish Empire, within such boundaries as may be fixed by them; and

Whereas the Principal Allied Powers have also agreed that the mandatory should be responsible for putting into effect the declaration originally made on November 2nd, 1917, by the Government of His Britannic Majesty, and adopted by the said Powers, in favour of the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, it being clearly understood that nothing should be done which might prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country; and

Whereas recognition has thereby been given to the historical connection of the Jewish people with Palestine and to the grounds for reconstituting their national home in that country; and

Whereas the Principal Allied Powers have selected His Britannic Majesty as the mandatory for Palestine; and

Whereas the mandate in respect of Palestine has been formulated in the following terms and submitted to the Council of the League for approval; and

Whereas His Britannic Majesty has accepted the mandate in respect of Palestine and undertaken to exercise it on behalf of the League of Nations in conformity with the following provisions; and

Whereas by the afore-mentioned article 22 (paragraph 8), it is provided that the degree of authority, control or administration to be exercised by the mandatory, not having been previously agreed upon by the members of the League, shall be explicitly defined by the Council of the League of Nations;

Confirming the said mandate, defines its terms as follows:

Art. 1. The mandatory shall have full powers of legislation and of administration, save as they may be limited by the terms of this mandate.

2. The mandatory shall be responsible for placing the country under such political, administrative and economic conditions as will secure the establishment of the Jewish national home, as laid down in the preamble, and the development of self-governing institutions, and also for safeguarding the civil and religious rights of all the inhabitants of Palestine, irrespective of race and religion.

3. The mandatory shall, so far as circumstances permit, encourage local autonomy.

4. An appropriate Jewish agency shall be recognised as a public body for the purpose of advising and co-operating with the administration of Palestine in such economic, social and other matters as may affect the establishment of the Jewish national home and the interests of the Jewish population in Palestine, and, subject always to the control of the administration, to assist and take part in the development of the country.

The Zionist organisation, so long as its organisation and constitution are in the opinion of the mandatory appropriate, shall be recognised as such agency. It shall take steps in consultation with His Britannic Majesty's Government to secure the co-operation of all Jews who are willing to assist in the establishment of the Jewish national home.

5. The mandatory shall be responsible for seeing that no Palestine territory shall be ceded or leased to, or in any way placed under the control of, the Government of any foreign Power.

6. The administration of Palestine, while ensuring that the rights and position of other sections of the population are not prejudiced, shall facilitate Jewish immigration under suitable conditions and shall encourage, in co-operation with the Jewish agency referred to in article 4, close settlement by Jews on the land, including State lands and waste lands not required for public purposes.

7. The administration of Palestine shall be responsible for enacting a nationality law. There shall be included in this law provisions framed so as to facilitate the acquisition of Palestine citizenship by Jews who take up their permanent residence in Palestine.

8. The privileges and immunities of foreigners, including the benefits of consular jurisdiction and protection as formerly enjoyed by capitulation or usage in the Ottoman Empire, shall not be applicable in Palestine.

Unless the Powers whose nationals enjoyed the afore-mentioned privileges and immunities on August 1st, 1914, shall have previously renounced the right to their re-establishment, or shall have agreed to their non-application for a specified period, these privileges and immunities shall, at the expiration of the mandate, be immediately re-established in their entirety or with such modifications as may have been agreed upon between the Powers concerned.

9. The mandatory shall be responsible for seeing that the judicial system established in Palestine shall assure to foreigners, as well as to natives, a complete guarantee of their rights.

Respect for the personal status of the various peoples and communities and for their religious interests shall be fully guaranteed. In particular, the control and administration of wakfs shall be exercised in accordance with religious law and the dispositions of the founders.

10. Pending the making of special extradition agreements relating to Palestine, the extradition treaties in force between the mandatory and other foreign Powers shall apply to Palestine.

11. The administration of Palestine shall take all necessary measures to safeguard the interests of the community in connection with the development of the country, and, subject to any international obligations accepted by the mandatory, shall have full power to provide for public ownership or control of any of the natural resources of the country or of the public works, services and utilities established or to be established therein. It shall introduce a land system appropriate to the needs of the country, having regard, among other things, to the desirability of promoting the close settlement and intensive cultivation of the land.

The administration may arrange with the Jewish agency mentioned in article 4 to construct or operate, upon fair and equitable terms, any public works, services and utilities, and to develop any of the natural resources of the country, in so far as these matters are not directly undertaken by the administration. Any such arrangements shall provide that no profits distributed by such agency, directly or indirectly, shall exceed a reasonable rate of interest on the capital, and any further profits shall be utilised by it for the benefit of the country in a manner approved by the administration.

12. The mandatory shall be entrusted with the control of the foreign relations of Palestine and the right to issue exequaturs to consuls appointed by foreign Powers. He shall also be entitled to afford diplomatic and consular protection to citizens of Palestine when outside its territorial limits.

13. All responsibility in connection with the Holy Places and religious buildings or sites in Palestine, including that of preserving existing rights and of securing free access to the Holy Places, religious buildings and sites and the free exercise of worship, while ensuring the requirements of public order and decorum, is assumed by the mandatory, who shall be responsible solely to the League of Nations in all matters connected herewith, provided that nothing in this article shall prevent the mandatory from entering into such arrangements as he may deem reasonable with the administration for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this article into effect; and provided also that nothing in this mandate shall be construed as conferring upon the mandatory authority to interfere with the fabric or the management of purely Moslem sacred shrines, the immunities of which are guaranteed.

14. A special commission shall be appointed by the mandatory to study, define and determine the rights and claims in connection with the Holy Places and the rights and claims relating to the different religious communities in Palestine. The method of nomination, the composition and the functions of this commission shall be submitted to the Council of the League for its approval, and the commission shall not be appointed or enter upon its functions without the approval of the Council.

15. The mandatory shall see that complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship, subject only to the maintenance of public order and morals, are ensured to all. No discrimination of any kind shall be made between the inhabitants of Palestine on the ground of race, religion or language. No person shall be excluded from Palestine on the sole ground of his religious belief.

The right of each community to maintain its own schools for the education of its own members in its own language, while conforming to such educational requirements of a general nature as the administration may impose, shall not be denied or impaired.

16. The mandatory shall be responsible for exercising such supervision over religious or eleemosynary bodies of all faiths in Palestine as may be required for the maintenance of public order and good government. Subject to such supervision, no measures shall be taken in Palestine to obstruct or interfere with the enterprise of such bodies or to discriminate against any representative or member of them on the ground of his religion or nationality.

17. The administration of Palestine may organise on a voluntary basis the forces necessary for the preservation of peace and order, and also for the defence of the country, subject, however, to the supervision of the mandatory, but shall not use them for purposes other than those above specified save with the consent of the mandatory. Except for such purposes, no military, naval or air forces shall be raised or maintained by the administration of Palestine.

Nothing in this article shall preclude the administration of Palestine from contributing to the cost of the maintenance of the forces of the mandatory in Palestine.

The mandatory shall be entitled at all times to use the roads, railways and ports of Palestine for the movement of armed forces and the carriage of fuel and supplies.

18. The mandatory shall see that there is no discrimination in Palestine against the nationals of any State member of the League of Nations (including companies incorporated under its laws) as compared with those of the mandatory or of any foreign State in matters concerning taxation, commerce or navigation, the exercise of industries or professions, or in the treatment of merchant vessels or civil aircraft. Similarly, there shall be no discrimination in Palestine against goods originating in or destined for any of the said States, and there shall be freedom of transit under equitable conditions across the mandated area.

Subject as aforesaid and to the other provisions of this mandate, the administration of Palestine may, on the advice of the mandatory, impose such taxes and customs duties as it may consider necessary, and take such steps as it may think best to promote the development of the natural resources of the country and to safeguard the interests of the population. It may also, on the advice of the mandatory, conclude a special customs agreement with any State the territory of which in 1914 was wholly included in Asiatic Turkey or Arabia.

19. The mandatory shall adhere on behalf of the administration of Palestine to any general international conventions already existing, or which may be concluded hereafter with the approval of the League of Nations, respecting the slave traffic, the traffic in arms and ammunition, or the traffic in drugs, or relating to commercial equality, freedom of transit and navigation, aerial navigation and postal, telegraphic and wireless communication or literary, artistic or industrial property.

20. The mandatory shall co-operate on behalf of the administration of Palestine, so far as religious, social and other conditions may permit, in the execution of any common policy adopted by the League of Nations for preventing and combating disease, including diseases of plants and animals.

21. The mandatory shall secure the enactment within 12 months from this date, and shall ensure the execution of a law of antiquities based on the following rules. This law shall ensure equality of treatment in the matter of excavations and archæological research to the nations of all States members of the League of Nations.

(1) "Antiquity" means any construction or any product of human activity earlier than the year A.D. 1700.

(2) The law for the protection of antiquities shall proceed by encouragement rather than by threat.

Any person who, having discovered an antiquity without being furnished with the authorisation referred to in paragraph (5), reports the same to an official of the competent department, shall be rewarded according to the value of the discovery.

(3) No antiquity may be disposed of except to the competent department, unless this department renounces the acquisition of any such antiquity.

No antiquity may leave the country without an export licence from the said department.

(4) Any person who maliciously or negligently destroys or damages an antiquity shall be liable to a penalty to be fixed.

(5) No clearing of ground or digging with the object of finding antiquities shall be permitted, under penalty of fine, except to persons authorised by the competent department.

(6) Equitable terms shall be fixed for expropriation, temporary or permanent, of lands which might be of historical or archaeological interest.

(7) Authorisation to excavate shall only be granted to persons who show sufficient guarantees of archaeological experience. The administration of Palestine shall not, in granting these authorisations, act in such a way as to exclude scholars of any nation without good grounds.

(8) The proceeds of excavations may be divided between the excavator and the competent department in a proportion fixed by that department. If division seems impossible for scientific reasons, the excavator shall receive a fair indemnity in lieu of a part of the find.

22. English, Arabic and Hebrew shall be the official languages of Palestine. Any statement or inscription in Arabic on stamps or money in Palestine shall be repeated in Hebrew, and any statement or inscription in Hebrew shall be repeated in Arabic.

23. The administration of Palestine shall recognise the holy days of the respective communities in Palestine as legal days of rest for the members of such communities.

24. The mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council as to the measures taken during the year to carry out the provisions of the mandate. Copies of all laws and regulations promulgated or issued during the year shall be communicated with the report.

25. In the territories lying between the Jordan and the eastern boundary of Palestine as ultimately determined, the mandatory shall be entitled, with the consent of the Council of the League of Nations, to postpone or withhold application of such provisions of this mandate as he may consider inapplicable to the existing local conditions, and to make such provision⁽¹⁾ for the administration of the territories as he may consider suitable to those conditions, provided that no action shall be taken which is inconsistent with the provisions of articles 15, 16 and 18.

26. The mandatory agrees that, if any dispute whatever should arise between the mandatory and another member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation or the application of the provisions of the mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for by article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations.

27. The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of this mandate.

28. In the event of the termination of the mandate hereby conferred upon the mandatory, the Council of the League of Nations shall make such arrangements as may be deemed necessary for safeguarding in perpetuity, under guarantee of the League, the rights secured by articles 13 and 14, and shall use its influence for securing, under the guarantee of the League, that the Government of Palestine will fully honour the financial obligations legitimately incurred by the administration of Palestine during the period of the mandate, including the rights of public servants to pensions or gratuities.

The present instrument shall be deposited in original in the archives of the League of Nations and certified copies shall be forwarded by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations to all members of the League.

Done at London the 24th day of July, 1922.

2. Order in Council, 1922 (as amended 1923, 1933 and 1935).

12. (1) All rights in or in relation to any public lands shall vest in and may be exercised by the High Commissioner for the time being in trust for the Government of Palestine.

(2) All mines and minerals of every kind and description whatsoever being in, under or on any land or water, whether the latter be inland rivers or seas or territorial waters, shall vest in the High Commissioner subject to any right subsisting at the date of this Order of any person to work such mines or minerals by virtue of a valid concession.

13. The High Commissioner may make grants or leases of any such public lands or mines or minerals or may permit such lands to be temporarily occupied on such terms or conditions as he may think fit subject to the provisions of any ordinance.

Provided that such grant or disposition shall be in conformity either with some Order in Council or law or ordinance now or hereafter in force in Palestine, or with such instructions as may be addressed to the High Commissioner under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or through a Secretary of State, for the purposes of executing the provisions of the mandate.⁽¹⁾

16a. The High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand to be published in the Gazette, convert such land in Palestine of the category termed "miri," as may be described in such order, into land of the category named "mulk."

16b. The High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand to be published in the Gazette, replace any tithes or taxes dedicated to a wakf of whatever category or other charitable or religious endowment by any other tax imposed in lieu thereof, and may further with the sanction of the Secretary of State and subject to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him, commute any such tithes, or tax, or substitute tax, by an annual payment or otherwise to the wakf or religious or charitable endowment.

17. (1) (a) The High Commissioner shall have full power and authority, without prejudice to the powers inherent in, or reserved by this Order to His Majesty, and subject always to any conditions and limitations prescribed by any such instructions as may be given to him under the Sign Manual and Signet or through a Secretary of State, to promulgate such ordinances as may be necessary for the peace, order, and good government of Palestine, provided that no ordinance shall be promulgated which shall restrict complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship, save in so far as is required for the maintenance of public order and morals; or which shall tend to discriminate in any way between the inhabitants of Palestine on the ground of race, religion, or language.

(b) No ordinance shall be promulgated by the High Commissioner until he has consulted the Advisory Council as constituted on the date of the commencement of this Order or such other advisory body as may after that date from time to time be constituted by him with the approval of a Secretary of State.

(c) No ordinance shall be promulgated which shall be in any way repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of the mandate, and no ordinance which concerns matters dealt with specifically by the provisions of the mandate shall be promulgated until a draft thereof has been communicated to a Secretary of State and approved by him, with or without amendment.

(d) No ordinance shall be promulgated unless a draft of the same shall first have been made public for one calendar month at the least before the enactment thereof, unless immediate promulgation shall, in the judgment of the High Commissioner, be indispensably necessary in the public interest.

(e) His Majesty reserves to himself the right to disallow an ordinance promulgated by the High Commissioner within one year of the date of promulgation and to signify such disallowance through a Secretary of State. Every such disallowance shall take effect from the time when it shall be promulgated by the High Commissioner by notice in the Gazette.

(2) From and after a date to be fixed by the High Commissioner in Executive Council, by proclamation in the Gazette, there shall be constituted a Legislative Council in and for Palestine as in this Order provided and any advisory body then existing shall be dissolved. The powers of the High Commissioner as defined and limited by clause (1) of this article shall continue in force until a Legislative Council as provided above shall have been duly constituted, when articles 18 to 34 of this Order shall apply.

31. Every member of the Legislative Council shall, before being permitted to sit or vote therein, take and subscribe the following oath before the president :—

“ I, A.B., do swear that I will be faithful and loyal to the Government of Palestine. So help me God.”

Provided that any person authorised to make a solemn affirmation or declaration instead of taking an oath may make such affirmation or declaration in lieu of such oath.

38. Subject to the provisions of this part of the Order and any ordinance or rules, the civil courts hereinafter described, and any other courts or tribunals constituted by or under any of the provisions of any ordinance, shall exercise jurisdiction in all matters and over all persons in Palestine.

39. Magistrates' courts shall be established in each district and sub-district as may be prescribed from time to time by order under the hand of the High Commissioner. These courts shall have the jurisdiction assigned to them by the Ottoman Magistrates Law of 1913, as amended, altered or extended by any subsequent law or ordinance or rules for the time being in force.

40. District courts shall be established in such districts as may be prescribed from time to time by order under the hand of the High Commissioner, and every such court shall exercise jurisdiction :—

(1) As a court of first instance :—

(a) In all civil matters not within the jurisdiction of the magistrates' courts in and for that district.

(b) In all criminal matters which are not within the jurisdiction of the Court of Criminal Assize.

(2) As an appellate court from the said magistrates' courts subject to the provisions of any ordinances or rules.

41. There shall be a Court of Criminal Assize which shall have exclusive jurisdiction with regard to offences punishable with death and such jurisdiction with regard to other offences as may be prescribed by ordinance.

42. The High Commissioner may by order establish land courts as may be required from time to time for the hearing of such questions concerning the title to immovable property as may be prescribed.

43. There shall be established a court to be called "the Supreme Court" of which the constitution shall be prescribed by ordinance. The Supreme Court sitting as a court of appeal shall have jurisdiction subject to the provisions of any ordinance to hear appeals from all judgments given by a district court in first instance or by the Court of Criminal Assize or by a land court.

The Supreme Court sitting as a high court of justice shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine such matters as are not causes or trials, but petitions or applications not within the jurisdiction of any other court and necessary to be decided for the administration of justice.

44. In civil matters when the amount or value in dispute exceeds £E.500 an appeal shall lie from the Supreme Court to His Majesty in Council. Every appeal shall be brought within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by any rules of procedure made by His Majesty in Council.

45. The High Commissioner may by order establish such separate courts for the district of Beersheba and for such other tribal areas as he may think fit. Such courts may apply tribal custom, so far as it is not repugnant to natural justice or morality.

46. The jurisdiction of the civil courts shall be exercised in conformity with the Ottoman law in force in Palestine on November 1st, 1914, and such later Ottoman laws as have been or may be declared to be in force by public notice, and such Orders in Council, ordinances and regulations as are in force in Palestine at the date of the commencement of this Order, or may hereafter be applied or enacted; and subject thereto and so far as the same shall not extend or apply, shall be exercised in conformity with the substance of the common law, and the doctrines of equity in force in England, and with the powers vested in and according to the procedure and practice observed by or before courts of justice and justices of the peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities at that date, save in so far as the said powers, procedure and practice may have been or may hereafter be modified, amended or replaced by any other provisions. Provided always that the said common law and doctrines of equity shall be in force in Palestine so far only as the circumstances of Palestine and its inhabitants and the limits of His Majesty's jurisdiction permit and subject to such qualification as local circumstances render necessary.

47. The civil courts shall further have jurisdiction, subject to the provisions contained in this part of this Order, in matters of personal status as defined in article 51 of persons in Palestine. Such jurisdiction shall be exercised in conformity with any law, ordinances or regulations that may hereafter be applied or enacted and subject thereto according to the personal law applicable.

Where in any civil or criminal cause brought before the civil court a question of personal status incidentally arises, the determination of which is necessary for the purposes of the cause, the civil court may determine the question, and may to that end take the opinion, by such means as may seem most convenient, of a competent jurist having knowledge of the personal law applicable.

48. When any person has been sentenced to death, the Chief Justice shall transmit to the High Commissioner a copy of the evidence. The sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by the High Commissioner.

51. Subject to the provisions of articles 64 to 67 inclusive jurisdiction in matters of personal status shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this part by the courts of the religious communities established and exercising jurisdiction at the date of this Order. For the purpose of these provisions matters of personal status mean suits regarding marriage or divorce, alimony, maintenance, guardianship, legitimation and adoption of minors, inhibition from dealing with property of persons who are legally incompetent, successions, wills and legacies, and the administration of the property of absent persons.

52. Moslem religious courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction in matters of personal status of Moslems in accordance with the provisions of the law of procedure of the Moslem religious courts of the 25th October, 1333, A.H., as amended by any ordinance or rules. They shall also have, subject to the provisions of any ordinance or of the order of the 20th December, 1921, establishing a Supreme Council for Moslem Religious Affairs, or of any orders amending the same, exclusive jurisdiction in cases of the constitution or internal administration of a wakf constituted for the benefit of Moslems before a Moslem religious court.

There shall be an appeal from the Court of the Qadi to the Moslem Religious Court of Appeal, whose decision shall be final.

53. The rabbinical courts of the Jewish community shall have :—

(i) Exclusive jurisdiction in matters of marriage and divorce, alimony and confirmation of wills of members of their community other than foreigners as defined in article 59.

(ii) Jurisdiction in any other matter of personal status of such persons, where all the parties to the action consent to their jurisdiction.

(iii) Exclusive jurisdiction over any case as to the constitution or internal administration of a wakf or religious endowment constituted before the rabbinical court according to Jewish law.

54. The courts of the several Christian communities shall have :—

(i) Exclusive jurisdiction in matters of marriage and divorce, alimony, and confirmation of wills of members of their community other than foreigners as defined in article 59.

(ii) Jurisdiction in any other matters of personal status of such persons, where all the parties to the action consent to their jurisdiction.

(iii) Exclusive jurisdiction over any case concerning the constitution or internal administration of a wakf or religious endowment constituted before the religious court according to the religious law of the community, if such exists.

55. Where any action of personal status involves persons of different religious communities, application may be made by any party to the Chief Justice, who shall, with the assistance, if he thinks fit, of assessors from the communities concerned, decide which court shall have jurisdiction. Whenever a question arises as to whether or not a case is one of personal status within the exclusive jurisdiction of a religious court, the matter shall be referred to a special tribunal of which the constitution shall be prescribed by ordinance.

56. The judgments of the religious courts shall be executed by the process and offices of the civil courts.

57. Subject to the provisions of any ordinance or order establishing a Supreme Council for Moslem Religious Affairs, the constitution and jurisdiction of religious courts established at the date of this Order may be varied by ordinance or order of the High Commissioner.

58. The civil courts shall exercise jurisdiction over foreigners, subject to the following provisions :—

59. For the purpose of this part of the Order, the expression "foreigner" means any person who is not a Palestinian citizen.

64. (i) Matters of personal status affecting foreigners other than Moslems shall be decided by the district courts which shall apply the personal law of the parties concerned in accordance with such regulations as may be made by the High Commissioner, provided always that the courts shall have no jurisdiction to pronounce a decree of dissolution of marriage until an ordinance is passed conferring such jurisdiction.

(ii) The personal law shall be the law of the nationality of the foreigner concerned unless that law imports the law of his domicile, in which case the latter shall be applied.

(iii) The district court in trying matters of personal status affecting foreigners shall be constituted by the British president sitting alone. In trying matters of personal status affecting foreigners other than British subjects, the president may invite the Consul or a representative of the Consulate of the foreigner concerned to sit as an assessor for the purpose of advising upon the personal law concerned. In case of an appeal from a judgment in such a case the Consul or representative of the Consulate of the foreigner concerned shall be entitled to sit as an assessor in the court of appeal.

65. Nothing in the preceding article shall be construed to prevent foreigners from consenting to such matters being tried by the courts of the religious communities having jurisdiction in like matters affecting Palestinian citizens.

The courts of the religious communities other than the Moslem religious courts shall not, however, have power to grant a decree of dissolution of marriage to a foreign subject.

For the purposes of this article, decree of dissolution of marriage includes a decree of divorce and a decree of nullity.

67. Notwithstanding anything in this part of this Order a Consul in Palestine may execute such non-contentious measures in relation to the personal status of nationals of his State as the High Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may from time to time prescribe by regulation.

69. (i) Where it is shown by evidence on oath to the satisfaction of the High Commissioner that any person is conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order in Palestine, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of Palestine and the mandatory, or is intriguing against the authority of the mandatory in Palestine, the High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand and official seal, order that person to be deported from Palestine to such place as the High Commissioner may direct.

(ii) The place shall be a place in some part (if any) of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order, or to some place under the protection of His Majesty or in the country out of His Majesty's dominions to which that person belongs.

70. An appeal shall not lie against an order of deportation made under this Order.

82. All ordinances, official notices and official forms of the Government, and all official notices of local authorities and municipalities in areas to be prescribed by order of the High Commissioner, shall be published in English, Arabic and Hebrew.

The three languages may be used in debates and discussions in the Legislative Council, and, subject to any regulations to be made from time to time, in the Government offices and the law courts.

83. All persons in Palestine shall enjoy full liberty of conscience, and the free exercise of their forms of worship subject only to the maintenance of public order and morals. Each religious community recognised by the Government shall enjoy autonomy for the internal affairs of the community subject to the provisions of any ordinance or order issued by the High Commissioner.

84. (i) From and after the constitution of the Legislative Council hereinbefore provided for, the High Commissioner shall confer upon all matters relating to the regulation of immigration with a committee consisting of not less than one-half of the unofficial members of the Legislative Council, and provision shall be made by Order in Council for investing the said committee with all such powers and authorities and otherwise for the constitution and conduct of the business of the said committee, as may be necessary to carry this article into effect.

(ii) In the event of any difference of opinion between the High Commissioner and the said committee upon any such matter as aforesaid, the High Commissioner shall make a full report on the subject to a Secretary of State, whose decision thereon shall be final.

85. If any religious community or considerable section of the population in Palestine complains that the terms of the mandate are not being fulfilled by the Government of Palestine, it shall be entitled to present a memorandum through a member of the advisory council or other advisory body constituted under article 17(1) (b) of this Order or of the Legislative Council, as the case may be, to the High Commissioner. Any memorandum so submitted shall be dealt with in such manner as may be prescribed by His Majesty in conformity with the procedure recommended by the Council of the League of Nations.

86. This Order in Council shall not apply to such parts of the territory comprised in Palestine to the east of the Jordan and the Dead Sea as shall be defined by order of the High Commissioner. Subject to the provisions of article 25 of the mandate, the High Commissioner may make such provision⁽¹⁾ for the administration of any territories so defined as aforesaid as with the approval of the Secretary of State may be prescribed.

4. Appeal to Privy Council Order in Council, 1924.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Order, an appeal shall lie—

(a) as of right, from any final judgment of the court, where the matter in dispute on the appeal amounts to or is of the value of £500 sterling or upwards, or where the appeal involves directly or indirectly some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the said value or upwards; and

(b) at the discretion of the court, from any other judgment of the court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the court, the question involved in the appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

6. Leave to appeal under article 3 shall only be granted by the court in the first instance—

(a) upon condition of the appellant, within a period to be fixed by the court, but not exceeding 3 months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the court, in a sum not exceeding £300 for the due prosecution of the appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the respondent in the event of the appellant not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the appellant to pay the respondent's costs of the appeal (as the case may be); and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the record and the despatch thereof to England as the court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

Whereas His Highness the Amir of Transjordan has set up an administration in that part of the area under mandate known as "Transjordan"; and

Whereas His Britannic Majesty is prepared to recognise the existence of an independent Government in Transjordan under the rule of His Highness the Amir of Transjordan, provided that such Government is constitutional and places His Britannic Majesty in a position to fulfil his international obligations in respect of that territory by means of an agreement to be concluded with His Highness:

Now therefore His Britannic Majesty and His Highness the Amir of Transjordan have resolved to conclude an agreement for those purposes, and to that end have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

[Here follow the names.]

Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:—

Art. 1. His Highness the Amir agrees that His Britannic Majesty shall be represented in Transjordan by a British Resident acting on behalf of the High Commissioner for Transjordan, and that communications between His Britannic Majesty and all other Powers on the one hand and the Transjordan Government on the other shall be made through the British Resident and the High Commissioner aforesaid.

His Highness the Amir agrees that all such laws, orders or regulations as may be required for the full discharge of the international responsibilities and obligations of His Britannic Majesty in respect of the territory of Transjordan shall be adopted and made, and that no laws, orders or regulations shall be adopted or made in Transjordan which may hinder the full discharge of such international responsibilities and obligations.

5. His Highness the Amir agrees to be guided by the advice of His Britannic Majesty tendered through the High Commissioner for Transjordan in all matters concerning foreign relations of Transjordan, as well as in all important matters affecting the international and financial obligations and interests of His Britannic Majesty in respect of Transjordan. His Highness the Amir undertakes to follow an administrative, financial and fiscal policy in Transjordan such as will ensure the stability and good organisation of his Government and its finances. He agrees to keep His Britannic Majesty informed of the measures proposed and adopted to give due effect to this undertaking, and further agrees not to alter the system of control of the public finances of Transjordan without the consent of His Britannic Majesty.

6. His Highness the Amir agrees that he will refer for the advice of His Britannic Majesty the annual budget law and any law which concerns matters covered by the provisions of this agreement, and any law of any of the following classes, namely :—

(1) Any law affecting the currency of Transjordan or relating to the issue of bank notes.

(2) Any law imposing differential duties.

(3) Any law whereby persons who are nationals of any States members of the League of Nations or of any State to which His Britannic Majesty has agreed by treaty that the same rights should be ensured as it would enjoy if it were a member of the said League, may be subjected or made liable to any disabilities to which persons who are British subjects or nationals of any foreign State are not also subjected or made liable.

(4) Any special law providing for succession to the Amir's throne, or for the establishment of a Council of Regency.

(5) Any law whereby the grant of land or money or other donation or gratuity may be made to himself.

(6) Any law under which the Amir may assume sovereignty over territory outside Transjordan.

(7) Any law concerning the jurisdiction of the civil courts over foreigners.

(8) Any law altering, amending or adding to the details of the provisions of the organic law.

7. Except by agreement between the two countries there shall be no customs barrier between Palestine and Transjordan.

The Government of Palestine shall pay to the Transjordan Government the estimated amount of customs duties levied on the part of the goods entering Palestine from territory other than Transjordan which subsequently enters Transjordan for local consumption, but shall be entitled to withhold from the sums to be paid on this account the estimated amount of customs duties levied by Transjordan on that part of the goods entering Transjordan from other than Palestine territory, which subsequently enters Palestine for local consumption. The trade and commerce of Transjordan shall receive at Palestinian ports equal facilities with the trade and commerce of Palestine.

8. So far as is consistent with the international obligations of His Britannic Majesty no obstacle shall be placed in the way of the association of Transjordan for customs or other purposes with such neighbouring Arab States as may desire it.

9. His Highness the Amir undertakes that he will accept and give effect to such reasonable provisions as His Britannic Majesty may consider necessary in judicial matters to safeguard the interests of foreigners.

These provisions shall be embodied in a separate agreement, which shall be communicated to the Council of the League of Nations, and, pending the conclusion of such agreement, no foreigner shall be brought before a Transjordan court without the concurrence of His Britannic Majesty.

His Highness the Amir undertakes that he will accept and give effect to such reasonable provisions as His Britannic Majesty may consider necessary in judicial matters to safeguard the law and jurisdiction with regard to questions arising out of the religious beliefs of the different religious communities.

10. His Britannic Majesty may maintain armed forces in Transjordan, and may raise, organise and control in Transjordan such armed forces as may in his opinion be necessary for the defence of the country and to assist His Highness the Amir in the preservation of peace and order.

His Highness the Amir agrees that he will not raise or maintain in Transjordan or allow to be raised or maintained any military forces without the consent of His Britannic Majesty.

11. His Highness the Amir recognises the principle that the cost of the forces required for the defence of Transjordan is a charge on the revenues of that territory. At the coming into force of this agreement, Transjordan will continue to bear one-sixth of the cost of the Transjordan Frontier Force, and will also bear, as soon as the financial resources of the country permit, the excess of the cost of the British forces stationed in Transjordan, so far as such forces may be deemed by His Britannic Majesty to be employed in respect of Transjordan, over the cost of such forces if stationed in Great Britain, and the whole cost of any forces raised for Transjordan alone.

12. So long as the revenues of Transjordan are insufficient to meet such ordinary expenses of administration (including any expenditure on local forces for which Transjordan is liable under article 11) as may be incurred with the approval of His Britannic Majesty, arrangements will be made for a contribution from the British Treasury by way of grant or loan in aid of the revenues of Transjordan. His Britannic Majesty will also arrange for the payment of the excess of the cost of the British forces stationed in Transjordan, and deemed by His Britannic Majesty to be employed in respect of Transjordan, in so far and for such time as the revenues of Transjordan are insufficient to bear such excess.

13. His Highness the Amir agrees that all such laws, orders or regulations as may from time to time be required by His Britannic Majesty for the purposes of article 10 shall be adopted and made, and that no laws, orders or regulations shall be adopted or made in Transjordan which may, in the opinion of His Britannic Majesty, interfere with the purposes of that article.

14. His Highness the Amir agrees to follow the advice of His Britannic Majesty with regard to the proclamation of martial law in all or any part of Transjordan and to entrust the administration of such part or parts of Transjordan as may be placed under martial law to such officer or officers of His Britannic Majesty's forces as His Britannic Majesty may nominate. His Highness the Amir further agrees that on the re-establishment of civil government a special law shall be adopted to indemnify the armed forces maintained by His Britannic Majesty for all acts done or omissions or defaults made under martial law.

15. His Britannic Majesty may exercise jurisdiction over all members of the armed forces maintained or controlled by His Britannic Majesty in Transjordan.

For the purposes of this and the five preceding articles, the term "armed forces" shall be deemed to include civilians attached to or employed with the armed forces.

16. His Highness the Amir undertakes that every facility shall be provided at all times for the movement of His Britannic Majesty's forces (including the use of wireless and land-line telegraphic and telephonic services and the right to lay land-lines), and for the carriage and storage of fuel, ordnance, ammunition and supplies on the roads, railways and waterways and in the ports of Transjordan.

17. His Highness the Amir agrees to be guided by the advice of His Britannic Majesty in all matters concerning the granting of concessions, the exploitation of natural resources, the construction and operation of railways, and the raising of loans.

18. No territory in Transjordan shall be ceded or leased or in any way placed under the control of any foreign Power ; this shall not prevent His Highness the Amir from making such arrangements as may be necessary for the accommodation of foreign representatives and for the fulfilment of the provisions of the preceding articles.

19. His Highness the Amir agrees that, pending the making of special extradition agreements relating to Transjordan, the extradition treaties in force between His Britannic Majesty and foreign Powers shall apply to Transjordan.

20. This agreement shall come into force so soon as it shall have been ratified by the high contracting parties after its acceptance by the constitutional Government to be set up under article 2. The constitutional Government shall be deemed to be provisional until the agreement shall have been so approved. Nothing shall prevent the high contracting parties from reviewing from time to time the provisions of this agreement with a view to any revision which may seem desirable in the circumstances then existing.

21. The present agreement has been drawn up in two languages, English and Arabic, and the plenipotentiaries of each of the high contracting parties shall sign two English copies and two Arabic copies. Both texts shall have the same validity, but in case of divergence between the two in the interpretation of one or other of the articles of the present agreement, the English text shall prevail.

In faith whereof the above-mentioned plenipotentiaries have signed the present agreement.

Done at Jerusalem, this 20th day of February, 1928.

(10) Who is related to the Amir within such degrees of consanguinity as shall be prescribed by special law.

28. Subject to the provision for dissolution in article 19 (3) the duration of the Legislative Council shall be for three ordinary sessions, one session each year, beginning from the 1st of November following the election; and if the 1st of November is an official holiday, then from the day following.

29. The Amir shall summon the Legislative Council to assemble in the capital for the ordinary session on the 1st of November of each year, subject to the provisions of article 28, and if not so summoned it shall assemble of its own accord in due course of law on the said date, when its ordinary session shall begin, and this shall extend for 3 months unless the Legislative Council be dissolved by the Amir before the expiration of that period or unless the session be prolonged by the Amir for the purpose of the despatch of business of urgent nature.

If the session be prolonged then the total period of the session shall not exceed 6 months.

The Legislative Council may adjourn from time to time in conformity with its standing orders.

The Legislative Council shall further adjourn if so required to do by the Amir not more than three times during any one session for stated periods, which shall not altogether exceed a total period of one month and a half. In computing the period of the session the period covered by such further adjournments shall not be taken into account.

32. The Chief Minister, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the Legislative Council, and in his absence such ex officio member as he shall from time to time appoint for that purpose, and in default of such appointment the senior ex officio member of the Legislative Council present shall preside.

37. Every proposal for a law shall be laid before the Council by the Chief Minister or by the head of a department. The annual budget shall likewise be laid in the form of a law before the Council.

38. No law shall take effect until the Amir shall have assented thereto and signed the same in token of such assent and until it has been promulgated in the Official Gazette.

The Amir shall, within the space of one calendar year from the date on which it is submitted to him, either assent to the bill or return it with a statement of reasons for dissent.

39. No law shall be promulgated unless a draft shall first have been made public for one calendar month at least before the enactment thereof unless immediate promulgation shall, in the judgment of the Amir in Council in agreement with the accredited representative of His Britannic Majesty, be indispensably necessary in the public interest.

40. Any member of the Council may raise in the Council a question on any matter concerning the public administration.

41. If necessity should arise, when the Legislative Council is not sitting, for urgent measures to be taken for the maintenance of public order and security, or for repelling a public danger, or for urgent expenditure not sanctioned by the budget or by special law, or for the purpose of securing the fulfilment of his treaty obligations, the Amir in Council may pass ordinances directing the necessary measures to be taken.

Such ordinances, which shall not contravene the provisions of this organic law, shall have the force of law. With the exception of those passed for the purpose of securing the fulfilment of the treaty obligations of His Highness the Amir, they shall be submitted to the Legislative Council at the beginning of its session.

If the Legislative Council shall not in two successive ordinary sessions accept any such ordinances so submitted the Government shall notify the cessation thereof and from the date of such notification the ordinance shall cease to be in force.

Throughout this organic law the expression "law" or "laws" shall include an ordinance or ordinances passed by virtue of the provisions of this article unless there is anything in the text of this organic law repugnant thereto.

Where a matter of personal status concerns both Moslems and non-Moslems, or where one of the parties in an action concerning a Moslem wakf is a non-Moslem, the civil courts shall have jurisdiction unless all parties consent to the jurisdiction of the Moslem courts.

The Moslem courts shall also have jurisdiction in applications for diyel where all the parties are Moslems or where all the parties consent to the jurisdiction of the said courts.

For the purpose of this organic law, matters of personal status mean suits regarding marriage or divorce, alimony, maintenance, guardianship, legitimation and adoption of minors, inhibition from dealing with property of persons who are legally incompetent, succession, wills and legacies and the administration of the property of absent persons.

10. (1) Whenever the seat of a nominated member shall become vacant, or whenever any nominated member shall, with the permission of the Governor, resign his seat in the Council by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor, or shall die, or be suspended from the exercise of his functions as a member of the Council, or be declared by the Governor by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony to be incapable of exercising his functions as a member of the Council, or be temporarily absent from the Colony, or being a nominated official member shall either permanently or temporarily become an ex officio member of the Council or shall be on leave of absence granted by the Governor, the Governor may, by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, provisionally appoint in his place some person to be temporarily a member of the Council.

(2) The Governor shall without delay report to His Majesty for his confirmation or disallowance signified through a Secretary of State every provisional appointment of any person as a nominated member of the Council. Every such person shall hold his place in the Council during His Majesty's pleasure and every such provisional appointment may be disallowed by His Majesty through a Secretary of State or may be revoked by the Governor by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony.

(3) Every person so provisionally appointed shall be to all intents and purposes a member of the Council until his appointment shall be disallowed, or revoked, or superseded by the definitive appointment of a nominated member of the Council, or until the person in whose place he has been appointed shall be relieved from suspension, or declared by the Governor by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony to be capable of exercising the functions of a member of the Council, or shall return to the Colony, or shall cease to be an ex officio member, or shall resume the duties of his public office, as the case may be.

11. If any nominated member of the Council, when duly summoned to attend, absents himself without sufficient cause, and persists in such absence, after being thereof admonished by the Governor, the Governor is to suspend such member until His Majesty's pleasure therein be known, giving immediate notice thereof to His Majesty through a Secretary of State.

12. If any nominated unofficial member of the Council shall, without the leave of the Governor previously obtained, be absent from the sittings of the Council for 3 months, or shall make any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance to any foreign State or Power, or shall become a citizen or subject of any foreign State or Power, or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, or shall make a composition or arrangement with his creditors, or shall be sentenced in any part of His Majesty's dominions to death or penal servitude, or to imprisonment with hard labour or for a term exceeding 12 months, or shall accept any office of emolument under the Crown or under the Government of the Colony, his seat in the Council shall thereupon become vacant.

13. (1) The Governor may, by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, suspend any nominated member from the exercise of his functions as a member of the Council.

(2) Every such suspension shall be forthwith reported by the Governor to a Secretary of State and shall remain in force unless and until either it shall be removed by the Governor by an instrument under the said Seal, or it shall be disallowed by His Majesty through a Secretary of State, and such disallowance shall be published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette.

14. The members of the Council shall take precedence as His Majesty may specially assign and, in default thereof, first the ex officio members in the order in which their respective offices are above mentioned; secondly, the nominated official members according to the priority of their respective appointments to the Council, or if appointed by the same instrument, according to the order in which they are named therein; thirdly, the unofficial members in order of date of appointment or election, or if appointed or elected on the same day, according to the alphabetical order of their names. Provided always that every such member re-appointed or re-elected on the termination of his term of office shall take precedence according to the date from which he has been continuously a member of the Council.

15. (1) No member of the Council shall sit or vote therein until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Council:—

“I, A.B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George V, his heirs and successors according to law.

“So help me God.”

(2) Provided that every person authorised by law to make an affirmation or declaration instead of taking an oath may make such affirmation or declaration instead of the said oath.

16. The elected members shall be elected by persons duly qualified as electors as hereinafter provided.

17. For the purposes of the election of members the Colony shall be divided into the following seven electoral districts :—

(6) Counties of St. David, St. Andrew, Nariva and Mayaro.

(7) Ward of Tobago.

One member shall be elected for each of the said districts.

(ii) A clear annual income of over £400 arising from any source.

Provided that—

(1) A person shall not be entitled to be elected or to be a member of the Council for any electoral district unless he is resident in that district and has resided therein for the 12 months immediately preceding the date of election, or possesses in that electoral district real estate belonging to him in his own right of the value of at least £5,000 above all charges and encumbrances affecting the same, or from which he derives a clear annual income of not less than £400.

(2) A person shall not be entitled to be elected or to be a member of the Council if he is the holder of any office of emolument under the Crown or under the Government of the Colony, or is a minister of religion.

The term "minister of religion" in this clause and in clause 20 of this Order means any clergyman, minister, priest, or other person who exercises spiritual functions or performs the offices of religion for or in respect to any Christian or other church, community or body within the Colony.

The term "office of emolument" in this clause does not include a pension or other allowance to an officer who has ceased to be in the service of the Crown or under the Government of the Colony.

19. Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the seat of an elected member has become vacant the Governor shall, as soon as possible, issue a writ for the election of a new member in the place of the member whose seat has become vacant.

21. All questions which may arise as to the right of any person to be or remain an elected member of the Council shall be referred to and decided by the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago.

22. Every person shall be entitled to be registered as a voter in any one electoral district, and, when registered, to vote at the election of a member of the Council for such district, who is qualified as follows :—

(c) he or she has been adjudged by a competent court to be of unsound mind.

24. As soon as possible after the coming into operation of this Order a register shall be made in each of the said electoral districts of the persons entitled to vote at the election of members of the Council, and shall come into force at such time as shall be appointed by the Governor by proclamation to be published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette. Thereafter a fresh register shall be made in each such district at such date, not being later than 5 years after the date of the last general election, and every such register shall come into force at such time as shall be appointed by any law enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council.

No person who is not registered as a voter shall vote at any such election.

25. For the purpose of every general election of members of the Council, and for the purpose of the election of members to supply vacancies caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, the Governor shall issue writs of election under the Public Seal of the Colony, addressed to the returning officers of the respective electoral districts for which members are to be returned. Every such writ shall specify the day and place of election, and the day on which it is returnable to the Governor ; upon receipt of such writ the returning officer shall proceed to hold the election thereby directed ; and after such election he shall certify the return of the member elected by endorsement on the writ, and shall return the writ so endorsed to the Governor within the time for that purpose specified therein. He shall also, as soon as possible, give public notice of the candidate elected, and in the case of a contested election of the number of votes given for each candidate whether elected or not.

26. In the case of a poll at an election of a member of the Council the votes shall be given by ballot. The ballot of each voter shall consist of a paper (in this Order called a " ballot paper ") showing the names and descriptions of the candidates. Each ballot paper shall have a number printed on the back, and shall have attached to it a counterfoil with the same number printed on the face. At the time of voting the ballot paper shall be marked on both sides with an official mark and delivered to the voter within the polling station, and the number of such voter on the register of voters shall be marked on the counterfoil, and the voter having secretly marked his or her vote on the paper, and folded up the paper so as to conceal his or her vote, shall place it in a closed box in the presence of the officer presiding at the polling station after having shown to him the official mark at the back.

Any ballot paper which has not on its back the official mark, or on which a vote is given to more than one candidate, or on which anything except the said number on the back is written or marked, by which the voter can be identified, shall be void and not counted.

After the close of the poll the ballot boxes shall be sealed so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers and shall be taken charge of by the returning officer, who shall, in the presence of such agents (if any) of the candidates as may be in attendance, open the ballot boxes and ascertain the result of the poll by counting the votes given to each candidate, and shall forthwith declare to be elected the candidate to whom the majority of the votes have been given.

The decision of the returning officer as to any question arising in respect of any ballot paper shall be final, subject to reversal on petition questioning the election or return.

27. Whenever there is an equality of votes between candidates at any election of a member of the Council, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer, if he is a registered elector of the electoral district for which the election is held, may give such additional vote, but the returning officer shall not, in any other case, be entitled to vote at an election for which he is the returning officer.

28. A petition complaining of an undue return or undue election of a member of the Council, in this Order called an "election petition," may be presented to the Supreme Court by any one or more of the following persons, that is to say—(1) some person who voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates, (2) some person claiming to have had a right to be returned at such election, (3) some person alleging himself to have been a candidate at such election.

29. Every election petition shall be tried before the Supreme Court in the same manner as a suit commenced by a writ of summons. At the conclusion of the trial, the Chief Justice shall determine whether the member of Council whose return or election is complained of or any and what other person was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall certify such determination to the Governor, and, upon such certificate being given, such determination shall be final; and the return shall be confirmed or altered, or a writ for a new election shall be issued, as the case may require, in accordance with such determination.

30. At the trial of an election petition the Chief Justice shall, subject to the provisions of this Order or of any proclamation to be made by the Governor, have the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority, and witnesses shall be subpoenaed and sworn in the same manner, as nearly as circumstances will admit, as in a trial of a civil action in the Supreme Court, and shall be subject to the same penalties for perjury.

31. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the election of members of the Council shall be held and the registration of voters for the election of such members shall be effected at such times, in such places, and in such manner and form, and by such officers, and with such provisions for ascertaining the qualifications of voters and candidates, and all questions and disputes arising with regard to any such matters shall be determined by such tribunals and in such manner, as may from time to time be ordained by any law or laws enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council, and in the meantime, and until provisions have been made for the purposes aforesaid by the enactment of any such law or laws as aforesaid, as shall be directed by any proclamation or proclamations to be issued by the Governor and published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette. Every proclamation made in pursuance of this clause shall from the publication thereof have the same force and effect as if it had been a law enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council as aforesaid.

32. The following persons shall be deemed guilty of bribery within the meaning of this Order :—

47. The Governor may, with the advice of the Council, from time to time make, alter, revoke, and renew such standing rules and orders as may be necessary to ensure punctuality of attendance of the members of the Council, and to prevent meetings of the Council being holden without convenient notice to the several members thereof, and to maintain order and method in the despatch of business, and in the conduct of debates in the Council, and to secure due deliberation in the passing of laws, and to provide that before the passing of any law intended to affect the interests of private persons due notice of the same is given to all persons concerned therein.

50. The sessions of the Council shall be held at such times and places as may be prescribed by the standing rules and orders of the Council or as the Governor shall from time to time by proclamation in the Trinidad Royal Gazette appoint. 55. His Majesty hereby reserves to himself, his heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter, or amend this Order, as to him, or them, shall seem fit.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

Whereas by certain Letters Patent passed under the Great Seal of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland bearing date at Westminster the 1st day of October, 1880,⁽²⁾ Her Majesty Queen Victoria did constitute, order, and declare that there should be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our island of Trinidad and its Dependencies:

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the 17th day of November, 1888,⁽³⁾ it was ordered that from and after the 1st day of January, 1889, the Colony of Trinidad and its Dependencies and the Colony of Tobago should be united into and constitute one Colony, which should be called "the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago":

And whereas by a further Order in Council bearing date the 20th day of October, 1898,⁽⁴⁾ the aforesaid Order in Council was amended:

And whereas by certain further Letters Patent bearing date at Westminster the 9th day of January, 1913,⁽⁵⁾ we did make further provision for the administration of the Government of the said Colony:

And whereas we are now minded to make fresh provision for the Government of the said Colony:

Now know ye that we do by these presents revoke the above recited Letters Patent of the 1st day of October, 1880, and the 9th day of January, 1913, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, and we do declare our will and pleasure to be as follows:—

1. There shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our Colony of Trinidad and Tobago (hereinafter referred to as "the Colony"), and appointments to the said office shall be by Commission under our Sign Manual and Signet.
2. We do hereby authorise, empower, and command the said Governor and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called "the Governor") to do and execute all things that belong to his said office, according to the tenour of these our Letters Patent and of any Order or Orders in our Privy Council relating to the Colony and of such Commission as may be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by our Order in our Privy Council, or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and to such laws as are or shall hereafter be in force in the Colony.
3. Every person appointed to fill the office of Governor shall, with all due solemnity, before entering on any of the duties of his office, cause the Commission appointing him to be Governor to be read and published at the seat of Government, in the presence of the Chief Justice, or some other judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony, and of such members of the Executive Council thereof as can conveniently attend, which being done, he shall then and there take before them the oath of allegiance, in the form provided by an Act passed in the session holden in the 31st and 32nd years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths"⁽¹⁾; and likewise the usual oath for the due execution of the office of Governor and for the due and impartial administration of justice; which oaths the said Chief Justice or judge is hereby required to administer.
4. The Governor shall keep and use the Public Seal of the Colony for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Public Seal.
5. There shall be an Executive Council for the Colony, and the said Council shall consist of such persons as we shall direct by Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet, and all such persons shall hold their places in the Executive Council during our pleasure.
6. On and after a date⁽²⁾ to be fixed by the Governor by proclamation in the Trinidad Royal Gazette the Legislative Council of the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago shall cease to exist and in place thereof there shall be a Legislative Council constituted in such manner and consisting of the Governor and such persons as are directed by our Order in our Privy Council dated the 16th day of April, 1924,⁽¹⁾ and known as "The Trinidad and Tobago (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924," or by any Order in our Privy Council amending or substituted for the same, or by any Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet.

7. The persons who shall from time to time compose the said Legislative Council shall have full power and authority, subject always to any conditions, provisos, and limitations prescribed by any Order in Council or by any Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet, to establish such ordinances, and to constitute such courts and officers, and to make such provisions and regulations for the proceedings in such courts, and for the administration of justice, as may be necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony.

The Governor shall have a negative voice in the making and passing of all such ordinances :

Provided nevertheless, and we do hereby reserve to ourselves, our heirs and successors, full authority, through one of our principal Secretaries of State, to disallow any such ordinances or with the advice of our or their Privy Council to repeal, alter, or amend the same, or to make from time to time, with the advice of our or their Privy Council, all such laws as may to us or them appear necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony.

Every such disallowance, repeal, alteration, and amendment shall take effect from the time when the same shall be promulgated in the Colony by the Governor.

Until repealed or revoked by any such Order in Council or by or in pursuance of any law or ordinance passed by the Legislative Council hereby constituted, all laws, ordinances, proclamations, regulations, or other enactments in force in the Colony at the date of the coming into operation of these our Letters Patent shall remain in force and continue to have full effect in the Colony.

8. When a bill passed by the Legislative Council is presented to the Governor for his assent, he shall, according to his discretion, but subject to any instruction addressed to him under our Sign Manual and Signet or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, declare that he assents thereto, or refuses his assent to the same, or that he reserves the same for the signification of our pleasure.

9. No law shall take effect until either the Governor shall have assented thereto in our name and on our behalf, and shall have signed the same in token of such assent, or until we shall have given our assent thereto through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

10. A bill reserved for the signification of our pleasure shall take effect so soon as we shall have given our assent to the same by Order in Council or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and the Governor shall have signified such assent by message to the Legislative Council or by proclamation: provided that no such message or proclamation shall be issued after 2 years from the day on which the bill was presented to the Governor for his assent.

11. In the making of any ordinances the Governor and the Legislative Council shall conform to and observe all rules, regulations, and directions in that behalf contained in any Order by us in our Privy Council or in any Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet.

12. The Governor in our name and on our behalf may make and execute under the Public Seal of the Colony grants and dispositions of any lands which may lawfully be granted or disposed of by us, within the Colony: provided that every such grant or disposition be made in conformity either with some law in force in the Colony, or with some instructions addressed to the Governor under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, or with some regulation in force in the Colony.

13. The Governor may constitute and appoint all such judges, magistrates, justices of the peace, and other necessary officers and ministers, in the Colony, as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by us, all of whom shall hold their offices during our pleasure.

14. The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss any public officer not appointed by virtue of a warrant from us, whose pensionable emoluments do not exceed £100 a year in the case of an officer appointed to an office in the Colony before the date of the coming into operation of these our Letters Patent, or £150 a year in the case of an officer appointed to an office in the Colony on or after such date, provided that in every such case unless the officer has been convicted on a criminal charge the grounds of intended dismissal are definitely stated in writing, and communicated to the officer in order that he may have full opportunity of exculpating himself, and the matter is investigated by the Governor with the aid of the head for the time being of the department in which the officer is serving. If such an officer has been convicted on a criminal charge, the Governor may call for the records of the trial and form his decision thereon, with the assistance, if necessary, of the officer who tried the case.

The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, also suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any office within the Colony whether appointed by virtue of any commission or warrant from us or in our name or by any other mode of appointment. Such suspension shall continue and have effect only until our pleasure therein shall be signified to the Governor.

If the suspension is confirmed by one of our Principal Secretaries of State, the Governor shall forthwith cause the officer to be so informed, and thereupon his office shall become vacant. In proceeding to any such suspension, the Governor is strictly to observe the directions in that behalf given to him by our Instructions as aforesaid.

15. When any crime or offence has been committed within the Colony, or for which the offender may be tried therein, the Governor may, as he shall see occasion, in our name and on our behalf, grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime or offence who shall give such information and evidence as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders, if more than one; and further, may grant to any offender convicted of any crime or offence in any court, or before any judge, justice or magistrate, within the Colony, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence, for such period as the Governor thinks fit, and may remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures, due or accrued to us. Provided always, that the Governor shall in no case, except where the offence has been of a political nature unaccompanied by any other grave crime, make it a condition of any pardon or remission of sentence that the offender shall be banished from or shall absent himself or be removed from the Colony.

16. In the event of the Governor having occasion at any time to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government, or to leave the island of Trinidad for the purpose of visiting the island of Tobago or, in the exercise or discharge of any powers or duties conferred or imposed upon him by us, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, to visit any neighbouring colony or State, he may by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony appoint any person resident in the island of Trinidad to be his deputy during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform and execute for and on behalf of the Governor during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in the Governor as shall in and by such instrument be specified and limited, but no others. Every such deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as the Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided nevertheless that by the appointment of a deputy as aforesaid the power and authority of the Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected otherwise than we may at any time hereafter think proper to direct.

17. The Governor during his passage by sea to or from any island included in his government, or when on a visit to a neighbouring colony or State as herein provided, shall not be considered absent from the Colony.

18. Whenever the office of Governor is vacant, or if the Governor become incapable or be absent from the Colony, such person or persons as we may appoint under our Sign Manual and Signet, and in default of such appointment, or in the absence of all persons so appointed, then the person for the time being lawfully discharging the functions of Colonial Secretary for the Colony shall, during our pleasure, administer the Government of the Colony, first taking the oaths hereinbefore directed to be taken by the Governor and in the manner herein prescribed, which being done, we do hereby authorise, empower, and command such administrator as aforesaid, to do and execute during our pleasure, all things that belong to the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief, according to the tenour of these our Letters Patent, and of any Order by us in our Privy Council, and according to our Instructions as aforesaid, and the laws of the Colony.

19. And we do hereby require and command all our officers, civil and military, and all other the inhabitants of the Colony, to be obedient, aiding and assisting unto the Governor, or to such person or persons as may, from time to time, under the provisions of these our Letters Patent, administer the Government of the Colony.

20. In the construction of these our Letters Patent, the term "the Governor," unless inconsistent with the context, shall include every person for the time being administering the Government of the Colony.

21. And we do hereby reserve to ourselves, our heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter, or amend these our Letters Patent as to us or them shall seem fit.

22. And we do direct and enjoin that these our Letters Patent shall be published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette and shall come into operation on a day⁽¹⁾ to be fixed by the Governor by proclamation in the said Gazette.

In witness whereof we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness ourself at Westminster the 6th day of June, in the 15th year of our reign.

By warrant under the King's Sign Manual.

3. Royal Instructions, 1924.

GEORGE R.I.

Instructions to our Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our Colony of Trinidad and Tobago, or other officer for the time being administering the Government of our said Colony.

Whereas by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing even date herewith,⁽¹⁾ we have ordered and declared that there shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief (therein and hereinafter called "the Governor") in and over our Colony of Trinidad and Tobago (therein and hereinafter called "the Colony"): and whereas we have thereby authorised, empowered and commanded the Governor to do and execute all things that belong to his said office, according to the tenour of our said Letters Patent, and of any Order or Orders in our Privy Council relating to the Colony, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under our Sign Manual and Signet and according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him under our Sign Manual and Signet, or by our Order in our Privy Council, or by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and to such laws as are or shall hereafter be in force in the Colony:

And whereas His late Majesty King Edward VII did issue certain Instructions under his Sign Manual and Signet bearing date the 30th day of August, 1905, and whereas we did issue certain Additional Instructions bearing date the 5th day of February, 1923, amending the second and eleventh clauses of the said Instructions.

And whereas we are minded to issue fresh Instructions under our Sign Manual and Signet for the guidance of the Governor, or other officer administering the Government of the Colony:

Now therefore, as from the date of the coming into operation of the above recited Letters Patent bearing even date herewith, we do hereby revoke the aforesaid Instructions bearing date the 30th day of August, 1905, and Additional Instructions bearing date the 5th day of February, 1923, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, and instead thereof we do hereby direct and enjoin and declare our will and pleasure, as follows:—

1. The Governor may, whenever he thinks fit, require any person in the public service of the Colony to take the oath of allegiance, in the form prescribed by the Act mentioned in the said recited Letters Patent, together with such other oath or oaths as may from time to time be prescribed by any laws in force in the Colony. The Governor is to administer such oaths or cause them to be administered by some public officer of the Colony.

2. The Executive Council of the Colony shall consist of the persons for the time being lawfully discharging the functions of the respective offices of Colonial Secretary, of Attorney-General, and of Treasurer of the Colony, and of such other persons as at the date of the coming into operation of these our Instructions are members of the said Council, or as the Governor, in pursuance of instructions from us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, may from time to time appoint. The said members shall have seniority and precedence as we may specially assign, and, in default thereof, first the above-mentioned officers in the order in which their offices are mentioned herein, and then other persons according to the priority of their respective appointments, or if appointed by the same instrument, according to the order in which they are named therein.

3. Whenever any person appointed by the Governor, in pursuance of instructions from us, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, shall, by writing under his hand, resign his seat in the Executive Council, or shall die, or be suspended from the exercise of his functions as a member of the Executive Council, or be declared by the Governor by an instrument under the Public Seal to be incapable of exercising his functions as a member of the Council, or be absent from the Colony, or shall either permanently or temporarily become an ex officio member of the Council, the Governor may, by an instrument under the Public Seal, appoint some person to be provisionally a member of the Council in the place of the member so resigning or dying, or being suspended or declared incapable, or being absent, or becoming either permanently or temporarily an ex officio member.

Such person shall forthwith cease to be a member of the Council if his appointment is disallowed by us, or if the member in whose place he was appointed shall be released from suspension, or as the case may be, shall be declared by the Governor capable of again discharging his functions in the Council, or shall return to the Colony, or shall cease to sit in the Council as an ex officio member.

The Governor shall forthwith report every such provisional appointment to us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, and every such appointment may be disallowed by us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, or may be revoked by the Governor by any such instrument as aforesaid.

4. The Governor shall forthwith communicate these our Instructions to the said Executive Council, and likewise all such others, from time to time, as he shall find convenient for our service to impart to them.

5. The said Executive Council shall not proceed to the despatch of business unless duly summoned by authority of the Governor, nor unless two members at the least (exclusive of himself or of the member presiding) be present and assisting throughout the whole of the meetings at which any such business shall be despatched.

6. The Governor, unless prevented by illness or other grave cause, shall attend and preside at the meetings of the Executive Council, and in his absence such member as the Governor may appoint, or in default thereof, or in the absence of such member, the senior member of the said Council actually present shall preside.

7. Full and exact journals or minutes shall be kept of all the proceedings of the Executive Council: and at each meeting of the said Council the minutes of the last preceding meeting shall be confirmed or amended, as the case may require, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business. Twice in each year a full transcript of all the said minutes for the preceding half year shall be transmitted to us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

8. In the execution of the powers and authorities granted to the Governor by the said recited Letters Patent, or by any other Letters Patent adding to, amending, or substituted for the same, or by any Order or Orders in our Privy Council relating to the Colony, he shall in all cases consult with the Executive Council, excepting only in cases which may be of such a nature that, in his judgment, our service would sustain material prejudice by consulting the said Council thereupon, or when the matters to be decided shall be too unimportant to require their advice, or too urgent to admit of their advice being given by the time within which it may be necessary for him to act in respect of any such matters. In all such urgent cases he shall, at the earliest practical period, communicate to the Executive Council the measures which he may so have adopted, with the reasons thereof.

9. The Governor shall alone be entitled to submit questions to the Executive Council for their advice or decision; but if the Governor decline to submit any question to the said Council when requested in writing by any member so to do, it shall be competent to such member to require that there be recorded upon the minutes his written application, together with the answer returned by the Governor to the same.

10. In the exercise of the powers and authorities granted to the Governor by the said recited Letters Patent, or any other Letters Patent adding to, amending, or substituted for the same or by any Order or Orders in our Privy Council relating to the Colony, he may act in opposition to the advice given to him by the members of the Executive Council, if he shall in any case deem it right to do so; but in any such case he shall fully report the matter to us, by the first convenient opportunity, with the grounds and reasons of his action. In every such case it shall be competent to any member of the Council to require that there be recorded at length on the minutes the grounds of any advice or opinion he may give upon the question.

11. In the making of laws within the Colony the Governor and the Legislative Council shall observe, as far as practicable, the following rules:—

(1) All laws shall be styled "ordinances," and the enacting words shall be "Enacted by the Governor of Trinidad and Tobago with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof."

(2) All ordinances shall be distinguished by titles, and shall be divided into successive clauses or paragraphs consecutively numbered, and to every such clause there shall be annexed in the margin a short summary of its contents. The ordinances of each year shall be distinguished by consecutive numbers, commencing in each year with the number one. Except in the case of bills reserved for the signification of our pleasure, all bills passed by the Legislative Council in any one year shall, if assented to by the Governor, be assented to by him in that year, and shall be dated as of the day on which the assent of the Governor is given and shall be numbered as of the year in which they are passed. Bills not so assented to by the Governor, but reserved by him for the signification of our pleasure, shall be dated as of the day and numbered as of the year on and in which they are brought into operation.

(3) Each different matter shall be provided for by a different ordinance without intermixing into one and the same ordinance such things as have no proper relation to each other ; and no clause is to be inserted in or annexed to any ordinance which shall be foreign to what the title of such ordinance imports, and no perpetual clause shall be part of any temporary ordinance.

12. The Governor shall not, except in the cases hereunder mentioned, assent in our name to any bill of any of the following classes :—

(1) Any bill for the divorce of persons joined together in holy matrimony ;

(2) Any bill whereby any grant of land or money, or other donation or gratuity, may be made to himself ;

(3) Any bill affecting the currency of the Colony or relating to the issue of bank notes ;

(4) Any bill establishing any banking association, or amending or altering the constitution, powers, or privileges of any banking association ;

(5) Any bill imposing differential duties ;

(6) Any bill the provisions of which shall appear inconsistent with obligations imposed upon us by treaty ;

(7) Any bill interfering with the discipline or control of our forces by land, sea, or air ;

(8) Any bill of an extraordinary nature and importance, whereby our prerogative or the rights and property of our subjects not residing in the Colony, or the trade and shipping of our United Kingdom and its dependencies, may be prejudiced ;

(9) Any bill whereby persons not of European birth or descent may be subjected or made liable to any disabilities or restrictions to which persons of European birth or descent are not also subjected or made liable ;

(10) Any bill containing provisions to which our assent has once been refused, or which have been disallowed by us ;

unless the Governor shall previously have obtained our instructions upon such bill through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, or unless such bill shall contain a clause suspending the operation of such bill until the signification of our pleasure thereupon, or unless the Governor shall have satisfied himself that an urgent necessity exists requiring that such bill be brought into immediate operation, in which case he is authorised to assent in our name to such bill, unless the same shall be repugnant to the law of England, or inconsistent with any obligations imposed on us by treaty. But he is to transmit to us, by the earliest opportunity, the bill so assented to, together with his reasons for assenting thereto.

13. Every bill intended to affect or benefit some particular person, association, or corporate body, shall contain a section saving the rights of us, our heirs and successors, all bodies politic and corporate, and all others, except such as are mentioned in the bill and those claiming by, from, or under them. No such bill, not being a Government measure, shall be introduced into the Legislative Council until due notice has been given by not less than three successive publications of the bill in the Trinidad Royal Gazette; and the Governor shall not assent thereto in our name unless it has been so published. A certificate under the hand of the Governor signifying that such publication has been made shall be transmitted to us with the bill.

14. When any ordinance shall have been passed, or when any bill shall have been reserved for the signification of our pleasure, the Governor shall forthwith lay it before us for our approval, disallowance, or other direction thereupon, and shall transmit to us, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, a transcript in duplicate of the same, with the marginal summary thereof, duly authenticated under the Public Seal of the Colony, and by his own signature. Such transcript shall be accompanied by such explanatory observations as may be required to exhibit the reasons and occasion for passing such ordinance or bill.

15. In the month of January, or at the earliest practicable period at the commencement of each year, the Governor shall cause a complete collection to be published, for general information, of all ordinances enacted during the preceding year.

16. Before disposing of any vacant or waste lands to us belonging, the Governor shall cause the same to be surveyed, and such reservations to be made thereout as he may think necessary for roads or other public purposes. The Governor shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase for himself any of such lands without our special permission given through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

17. All commissions to be granted by the Governor to any person or persons exercising any office or employment shall be granted during pleasure only; and whenever the Governor shall appoint to any vacant office or employment, of which the initial emoluments exceed £150 a year, any person not by us specially directed to be appointed thereto, he shall, at the same time, expressly apprise such person that such appointment is to be considered only as temporary and provisional until our allowance or disallowance thereof has been signified.

18. Whenever any offender shall have been condemned by the sentence of any court in the Colony to suffer death, the Governor shall call upon the judge who presided at the trial to make to him a written report of the case of such offender, and shall cause such report to be taken into consideration at the first meeting of the Executive Council which may be conveniently held thereafter, and he may cause the said judge to be specially summoned to attend at such meeting and to produce his notes thereat. The Governor shall not pardon nor reprove any such offender unless it shall appear to him expedient so to do, upon receiving the advice of the said Executive Council thereon; but in all such cases he is to decide either to extend or to withhold a pardon or reprove, according to his own deliberate judgment, whether the members of the Executive Council concur therein or otherwise; entering, nevertheless, on the minutes of the said Executive Council a minute of his reasons at length, in case he should decide any such question in opposition to the judgment of the majority of the members thereof.

19. Before suspending from the exercise of his office any public officer whose annual pensionable emoluments exceed £100 in the case of an officer appointed to an office in the Colony before the date of the coming into operation of our above recited Letters Patent bearing even date herewith, or £150 in the case of an officer appointed to an office in the Colony on or after such date, the Governor shall signify to such officer, by a statement in writing, the grounds of the intended suspension, and shall call upon him to state in writing the grounds upon which he desires to exculpate himself, and if the officer does not furnish such a statement within the time fixed by the Governor, or fails to exculpate himself to the satisfaction of the Governor, the Governor shall appoint a committee of the Executive Council to investigate the charges made and to make a full report to the Executive Council. The Governor shall forthwith cause such report to be considered by the Council, and shall cause to be recorded in the minutes whether the Council, or the majority thereof, does or does not assent to the suspension; and if the Governor thereupon proceeds to such suspension he shall transmit the report of the committee and the evidence taken by it, together with the minutes of the proceedings of the Council, to us through one of our Principal Secretaries of State at the earliest opportunity. But if in any case the interests of our service shall appear to the Governor to demand that a person shall cease to exercise the powers and functions of his office instantly, or before there shall be time to take the proceedings hereinbefore directed, he shall then interdict such person from the exercise of the powers and functions of his office.

20. The Governor shall punctually forward to us, from year to year, through one of our Principal Secretaries of State, the annual book of returns commonly called "the blue book," relating to the revenue and expenditure, defence, public works, legislation, civil establishments, pensions, population, schools, course of exchange, imports and exports, agricultural produce, manufactures, and other matters in the said blue book more particularly specified, with reference to the state and condition of the Colony.

21. Except in the case provided for by our above-recited Letters Patent, the Governor shall not upon any pretence whatever quit the Colony without having first obtained leave from us for so doing under our Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

22. In these our Instructions the term "the Governor" shall include every person for the time being administering the Government of the Colony.

Given at our Court at Saint James's, this 6th day of June, 1924, in the 15th year of our reign.

- I. Court of Appeal Order in Council, 1928 (as amended 1930, 1934 and 1935).

Whereas it is expedient to make further and other provision than that heretofore in force for the hearing and determining of appeals from His Majesty's Supreme Court of Nigeria and from His Majesty's Supreme Court of the Gold Coast and from other courts of the Gold Coast, by which term is meant the Gold Coast Colony, Ashanti, the Northern Territories of the Gold Coast and Togoland under British Mandate as though they were a single territory, and from His Majesty's Supreme Courts of the Colonies of Sierra Leone and the Gambia and from His Majesty's High Court of the Protectorate of Nigeria and from His Majesty's courts in the territories of West Africa known as the Protectorates of Sierra Leone and the Gambia, wherein by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or other lawful means, His Majesty has power and jurisdiction :

And whereas it is expedient that a court should be established as hereinafter provided for the hearing and determining of such appeals as aforesaid :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The British Settlements Act, 1887,"⁽¹⁾ and "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890,"⁽²⁾ or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

3. There shall be a Court of Appeal (in this Order referred to as "the Court of Appeal" for the courts of the Colonies and other territories in West Africa mentioned in the preamble to this Order, which shall be a superior court of record, and shall be called "the West African Court of Appeal."

5. The judges of the Court of Appeal shall be the judges of the Supreme Court of Nigeria and of the Supreme Court of the Gold Coast and the judges of the Supreme Courts of the Colonies to which this Order applies, and the judges of the High Court of the Protectorate of Nigeria.

8. The Court may, in any case in which it appears to it to be expedient, call in the aid of one or more assessors specially qualified, and hear such cases wholly or partially with the assistance of such assessors. The remuneration (if any) to be paid to such assessors shall be determined by the Court.

9. (1) The Court of Appeal shall be duly constituted if it consists of an uneven number, not being less than three, of the judges of the Court of Appeal. Provided always that—

(a) In civil cases arising in the Colony of the Gold Coast or in Ashanti or in the territories known as the Northern Territories of the Gold Coast or in the British Sphere of Togoland, where the parties to the appeal consent, the Court of Appeal shall be deemed to be duly constituted if it consists of not less than two judges ; and

(b) Provision may be made by rules of court for the hearing and determining of specified classes of cases by two judges of the Court of Appeal.

(2) In all appeals, causes or matters brought before the Court of Appeal the opinion of the majority, if any, shall, in the event of the judges disagreeing, be deemed and taken to be the judgment of the Court of Appeal. If the court consists of two judges and they disagree the judgment of the court below shall be deemed and taken to be the judgment of the court.

9A. (1) The powers conferred upon the Court of Appeal in respect of criminal appeal by any laws in force in any of the Colonies and territories to which this Order applies may be exercised by a single judge of the Court of Appeal in any matters not involving the decision of the appeal in the same manner as they may be exercised by the Court of Appeal, and subject to the same provisions, but if such judge refuses an application on the part of an appellant to exercise any such power in his favour, the appellant shall be entitled to have his application determined by the Court of Appeal as duly constituted under this Order.

(2) A single judge of the Court of Appeal shall have power in respect of any civil appeal pending before the Court of Appeal to make any order and give any directions incidental thereto not involving the decision of the appeal, provided that any order or direction so made or given may be varied, discharged or reversed by the Court of Appeal.

10. A judge of the Court of Appeal shall not sit as a judge—

(a) on the hearing of an appeal from any judgment or order made by himself or made by any court, if he was present and acting as a member of the court at the time when the decision appealed from was made, or at the argument of the case decided, or

(b) on the hearing of an appeal against a conviction or sentence if he was the judge by or before whom the appellant was convicted.

11. (1) The Court of Appeal shall have jurisdiction and power to hear and determine appeals from any of the courts of the Colonies and territories to which this Order applies (including reserved questions of law and appeals against convictions by or in, and sentences imposed by, any of the said courts) wherever under any law for the time being in force in any of the said Colonies or territories respectively an appeal lies to the Court of Appeal, subject however to the provisions of this Order and to any law for the time being so in force, and to rules of court made under this Order.

(2) The process of the Court of Appeal shall run throughout the Colonies and territories to which this Order applies, and any judgment, decree, or order of the Court of Appeal shall have full force and effect in every such Colony and territory, and shall be executed and enforced in like manner as if it were an original judgment, decree or order of the court from which the appeal is brought, and for all purposes of and incidental to the hearing and determination of any appeal within its jurisdiction the Court of Appeal shall have all the power, authority and jurisdiction vested in the court from which the appeal is brought.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing subsections of this section, the Court of Appeal shall in relation to appeals in criminal causes or matters from any of the courts of the Colonies and territories to which this Order applies and in relation to convictions by or in, and sentences imposed by, any of the said courts, have all the power, authority and jurisdiction which may be vested in the Court of Appeal under any law for the time being in force in any of the said Colonies or territories respectively.

(4) In the hearing of an appeal from any Colony or territory, the law to be applied shall be the law in operation in that Colony or territory.

2. Appeal to Privy Council Order in Council, 1930 (as amended 1935).

Whereas, by an Order in Council bearing date the 1st day of November, 1928,⁽¹⁾ and known as "The West African Court of Appeal Order in Council 1928," as amended by "The West African Court of Appeal (Amendment) Order in Council, 1930,"⁽¹⁾ "The West African Court of Appeal (Further Amendment) Order in Council, 1934,"⁽¹⁾ and "The West African Court of Appeal (Further Amendment) Order in Council, 1935,"⁽¹⁾ provision has been made for the establishment of a Court called "the West African Court of Appeal" for the hearing and determining of appeals from the Colonies of Sierra Leone and the Gambia, the Protectorates of Sierra Leone and the Gambia, and from the Gold Coast, by which term is meant the Gold Coast Colony, Ashanti, the Northern Territories of the Gold Coast and Togoland under British Mandate as though they were a single territory.⁽²⁾

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made for regulating appeals from the West African Court of Appeal to His Majesty in Council :

It is hereby ordered, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all the powers in that behalf in His Majesty vested, and by and with the advice of his Privy Council, as follows :—

⁽²⁾ The amending Order in Council of 1934 provided that the Order of 1930 should have effect as if the Colony and Protectorate of Nigeria were included in the Colonies and other territories mentioned in the preamble to the latter Order.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Order, an appeal shall lie—

(a) As of right, from any final judgment of the Court, where the matter in dispute on the appeal amounts to or is of the value of £500 sterling or upwards, or where the appeal involves directly or indirectly some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the said value or upwards ; and

(b) at the discretion of the Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

4. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the judges, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding according to the opinion of the senior member of the Court or in his absence of the member of the Court next in seniority, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an appeal therefrom and not for any other purpose.

5. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within 21 days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

6. Leave to appeal under article 3 shall only be granted by the Court in the first instance—

(a) Upon condition of the appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court, but not exceeding 3 months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, in a sum not exceeding £500 for the due prosecution of the appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the respondent in the event of the appellant not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the appellant to pay the respondent's costs of the appeal (as the case may be) ; and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the record and the dispatch thereof to England as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

7. A single judge of the Court shall have power and jurisdiction to hear and determine any application to the Court for leave to appeal under article 3 (a), and generally in respect of any appeal pending before His Majesty in Council to make such other order and to give such other directions as he shall consider the interests of justice or the circumstances of the case to require, provided always that any order or directions so made or so given by a single judge as aforesaid may be varied, discharged or reversed by the Court.

8. Where the judgment appealed from requires the appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the Court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the appeal, as to the Court shall seem just, and in case the Court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the due performance of such Order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

19. An appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

20. Where an appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such an order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the appeal and security entered into by the appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

21. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may enquire whether notice or sufficient notice of the application has been given by the appellant to all parties concerned and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

22. An appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his appeal in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in appeals to His Majesty in Council.

23. Where an appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the dispatch of the record to England, to withdraw his appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the appeal has been withdrawn, and the appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by the appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

24. Where an appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the record to England, the respondent may, after giving the appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate the appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by the appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

25. Where at any time between order granting final leave to appeal and the dispatch of the record to England, the record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

26. Where the record subsequently to its dispatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death or change of status of a party to the appeal, the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered on the record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

29. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an appeal incurred in any of the said territories such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

30. The Court shall conform with, and execute, any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

31. Nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty upon the humble petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

(2) The whole or any part of the jurisdiction and authority of the High Commissioner's Court may, subject and according to the provisions of this Order, be exercised in relation to any district, as herein defined, by a Deputy Commissioner, being authorised by the terms of his appointment to act for and in respect of that district, and being within that district.

(3) The term "district" in this Order means the particular district for and in respect of which a Deputy Commissioner is assigned to act.

(4) Each member of the High Commissioner's Court exercising, for the time being, the jurisdiction and authority thereof in conformity with this Order shall, for the purposes of this Order, be deemed to form the High Commissioner's Court.

(5) The term "the court" in this Order includes and applies to every member so exercising jurisdiction and authority.

(6) Subject to any directions of the Secretary of State, the High Commissioner, from time to time, by writing under his hand, may define districts, and declare the islands and places to be comprised therein, and may prescribe an official name or designation of any such district, and appoint a place or places therein at which the court may be held, and assign a Deputy Commissioner to act in respect thereof and prescribe a seal of the court for such district.

(7) The court when held in and for any such district is in this Order referred to as a "district court."

(8) Any Deputy Commissioner who has been or may be appointed generally may hold a district court at any place within the limits of this Order: provided that he shall not hold such court within a district for which a Deputy Commissioner is appointed, except in case of the illness or absence of such Deputy Commissioner, or in case of emergency, or with the previous sanction of the High Commissioner.

15. The Supreme Court shall be the Court of Appeal for the purposes of this Order.

The Supreme Court or a judge thereof sitting in Fiji shall also have original jurisdiction to hear and determine in Fiji any civil or criminal cause or matter arising at any place within the limits of this Order, and may (subject as hereinafter provided), as it thinks just, proceed either according to the procedure for the time being in use in Fiji or according to the procedure under this Order.

18. Any officer holding Her Majesty's Commission and being in command of any of Her Majesty's ships or acting for the purposes of this article with the written consent of the officer in command of any such ship, within the limits of this Order, exercise any of the powers following, that is to say—

(1) He may exercise any power which can be exercised by a Deputy Commissioner for the purpose of enforcing the attendance or apprehension of any person alleged to have committed an offence, and for the purpose of taking a preliminary examination and committing such person for trial.

(2) He may, with the consent in writing of such person in any case in which the offence is triable without assessors, hear and determine the case summarily, and for that purpose may exercise any of the powers of a Deputy Commissioner.

(3) He may, in any case, take any depositions on oath, and transmit them to any court acting under this Order; and thereupon such court may, if it think fit, issue its summons or warrant for the attendance or apprehension of any person appearing by such depositions to have been guilty of any offence.

(4) He may apprehend and cause to be conveyed within the local jurisdiction of any court acting under this Order any person against whom a warrant has been issued by any court acting under this Order, and may do so without being in possession of such warrant.

(5) He may authorise any person under his command to aid and assist him in exercise of any of the powers aforesaid in his presence or otherwise.

(6) He may, with the consent in writing of the parties to any civil dispute, exercise any of the powers which can be exercised by a Deputy Commissioner, either by way of conciliation or arbitration or by way of judicial determination.

Provided (1) that in all cases in which an officer exercises any power or jurisdiction under this section he shall, so soon as may be, report the particulars of the case with signed minutes of the proceedings to the nearest court or to the High Commissioner.

(2) That the High Commissioner may in any case, on such terms as he thinks just, vary or revoke any order or determination made under this article, and may direct a rehearing of any matter by such court as he thinks convenient.

An officer acting in good faith in the supposed exercise of powers under this article shall have all the like immunities and protection as a Commissioner acting under this Order in a matter within his jurisdiction.

PART III.—General Law

20. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the civil and criminal jurisdiction exercisable under this Order shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the substance of the law for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before courts of justice and justices of the peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

21. Except as to crimes or offences made or declared such by this Order, or by any regulation or rule made under it—

Any act other than an act that would by a court of justice having criminal jurisdiction in England be deemed a crime or offence, making the person doing such act liable to punishment in England, shall not, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order, be deemed a crime or offence, making the person doing such act liable to punishment.

22. The provisions of any treaty with Her Majesty or her successors for the time being in force with respect to any place within the limits of this Order shall have effect as part of the law to be enforced under this Order in relation to such place, and in case of inconsistency between such provisions and the law in force in England, or anything contained in this Order, effect shall be given to such provisions.

23. Crimes, offences, wrongs, and breaches of contract against or affecting the person, property, or rights of natives or foreigners, committed by persons subject to this Order, are, subject to the provisions of this Order, punishable or otherwise cognisable in the same manner as if they were committed against or affected the person, property, or rights of British subjects.

PART IV.—General Powers of Court and General Procedure

25. In any matter, civil or criminal, a district court within whose district (in civil matters) the matter of complaint wholly or in part arose or happened, or the subject in dispute is wholly or partly situate, or the contract in question was wholly or partly made, or the breach thereof wholly or partly occurred, or the defendant resides or carries on business, or (in criminal matters) the crime was wholly or partly committed, or the accused person happens to be, shall have jurisdiction, and may deal with the case, as if every material fact or thing had happened or was situate within its district ; but any such court, if, in its opinion, justice or convenience so requires, may decline or suspend the exercise of jurisdiction, and may, if it thinks necessary or just, require security from the defendant or accused person for his appearance before some other court having jurisdiction in the matter, and for obedience to any judgment or order of such other court, and further, in a criminal case, if necessary, may arrest and commit the accused person, and cause him to be removed under warrant and in custody, to be dealt with by such other court.

26. A court acting under this Order shall have power to rehear any civil matter, and to review its judgment or orders in any civil case in which, in the opinion of the court, justice so requires, on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the court thinks just.

27. (1) The High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, on the application of any party to any civil proceeding before a Deputy Commissioner, order a rehearing thereof before himself, with the Deputy Commissioner before whom it was heard, or with any other Deputy Commissioner.

(2) If, on the rehearing, there is a difference of opinion between the High Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner sitting with him, the opinion of the High Commissioner shall prevail.

(3) The provisions of this Order respecting a hearing shall extend, as far as may be, to such a rehearing.

34. The court may promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way of any suit or proceeding pending before it.

The court may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration the final determination of any suit or proceeding pending before it, or of all matters in difference between the parties, on such terms and with such directions as to appointment of an arbitrator and other things as may seem fit, and may, if it thinks fit, take from the parties, or any of them, security to abide by the result of the reference.

In any such case the award shall be final and conclusive.

On the application of any party a decree of the court may be entered in conformity with the award, and such decree shall not be open to any appeal or rehearing whatever, except on the ground that it is not in conformity with the award.

Every agreement for reference to arbitration or submission to arbitration by consent may, on the application of any party, be made a rule of a court having jurisdiction in the matter of the reference or submission, which court shall thereupon have power and authority to enforce the agreement or submission and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceeding before and after the award in such manner and on such terms as may be just.

PART V.—Special Powers (Bankruptcy, Admiralty, Probate, Divorce, &c.)

The court shall be a court of bankruptcy, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, with respect to persons subject to the jurisdiction of the court and to their debtors and creditors, all such jurisdiction as, for the time being, belongs to any judicial authority having for the time being jurisdiction in bankruptcy in England.

ADMIRALTY

37. "The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890,"⁽¹⁾ shall apply to the court.

Jurisdiction under the said Act shall not be exercised by a Deputy Commissioner unless with the previous consent of the High Commissioner, but such consent may be given generally or for a specified time in relation to a specified district.

The 3rd sub-section of section 16 of the said Act (relating to rules of court) shall apply as if the limits of this Order were a British possession.

PROBATE

38.⁽²⁾ The court shall be a court of probate, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within its jurisdiction, with respect to the property of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the court appearing to the court to have at the time of death their fixed places of abode in the jurisdiction of the court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to any court exercising probate jurisdiction in England.

Probate or administration granted by a court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within the jurisdiction, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, and that notwithstanding any defect afterwards appears in the grant.

⁽²⁾ So far as it relates to the Solomon Islands, Gilbert and Ellice Islands and Ocean Island, this article was repealed by the Order in Council of January 21, 1914.

Such a grant shall not be impeachable by reason only that the deceased had not at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction.

DIVORCE

47. The court shall be a court for matrimonial causes, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself with respect to residents subject to the jurisdiction of the court all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the High Court of Justice in England in matrimonial causes.

Jurisdiction under this article shall be exercised only by the High Commissioner or a Judicial Commissioner or the Supreme Court.

48. The court, by a Judicial Commissioner, shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, with respect to residents subject to the jurisdiction of the court, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind, as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other person or persons in England entrusted by virtue of the Queen's Sign Manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of persons found by inquisition in England idiot, lunatic, or of unsound mind.

PART VI.—Criminal Law and Procedure

49. The crimes punishable under this Order are :—

(1) Any acts or omissions which are for the time being punishable in England on indictment with death, penal servitude, or imprisonment, as treasons, felonies, or misdemeanours.

(2) Acts or omissions by this Order, or by any regulations made by virtue of this Order, declared to be punishable as offences against this Order.

50. In case an act or omission is punishable both as a crime under the law in force in England and as an offence against this Order, the accused person may be tried and punished for such act or omission either as a crime as aforesaid, or as an offence against this Order, but he shall not be liable to be tried or punished in both ways.

51. Any person may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for the crime of piracy wheresoever committed.

OFFENCES AGAINST THIS ORDER

52. If any person subject to the jurisdiction of the court does any of the following things without Her Majesty's authority, that is to say :—

Levies war, or takes any part in any operation of war against, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against any King, Chief, tribe, or Power, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable (in the discretion of the court before which he is convicted) to be punished by imprisonment for any term not exceeding 2 years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding £1,000, or by a fine not exceeding £1,000 without imprisonment, and any vessels, arms, munitions of war, stores, or other things used or provided for the purposes of an offence against this article may be seized, and may by any court having cognisance of the offence be declared to be and thereupon shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

In addition to such punishment, every such conviction shall of itself, and without further proceeding, make the person convicted liable to deportation, and the court before which he is convicted may order that he be deported to such place as the court directs.

53. A person shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order—

(1) Who wilfully or knowingly acts in contravention of any treaty as defined in this Order, or of any regulations appended thereto.

(2) Who acts in contravention of any of the Queen's Regulations to be made under this Order, or of any rules or regulations for the time being in force made under the authority of the recited Orders in Council.

(3) Who, without reasonable and lawful excuse (proof of which shall lie on the accused person), endangers peace by disturbing any religious ceremony or observance, or publicly insulting any minister of any religion, or violating or insulting any place or object of religious worship, or doing any other act of a similar nature, whether in relation to any native or other form of religion or superstition.

54. A person shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order—

Who smuggles or imports into or exports from any place any goods with intent to avoid payment of any duty payable thereon to any recognised Chief, or King, Government, tribe, or people, or any goods the importation or exportation whereof (as the case may be) into such place is prohibited by any such Chief, King, Government, tribe, or people of such place.

A person convicted of an offence against this article shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding 3 months, or fine not exceeding £50, or both of those punishments; and any goods smuggled or imported in contravention of this article may, on conviction of the offender, or if he absconds or evades trial, be declared forfeited to Her Majesty, together with any ship, boat, cask, case, or receptacle, wholly or partly belonging to the offender, and containing such goods.

55. If any person subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the court does any of the following things, namely :—

(1) Wilfully by act or threat obstructs any officer of or person executing any process of the court in the performance of duty ; or

(2) Within or close to the room or place where the court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner to the disturbance of the court, or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting thereto ; or

(3) Wilfully insults any member of the court, or any assessor, or any person acting as a clerk or officer of the court during his sitting or attendance in court, or in his going to or returning from court ; or

(4) Does any act in relation to the court or a judge thereof, or a matter pending therein, which, if done in relation to a superior court in England, would be punishable as a contempt of such court, or as a libel on such court, or the judges thereof, or the administration of justice therein ; such person shall be liable to be apprehended by order of the court with or without warrant, and on inquiry and consideration, and after the hearing of any defence which such person may offer, without further process or trial, to be punished with a fine not exceeding £10, or with imprisonment not exceeding 24 hours. A minute shall be made and kept of every such case of punishment recording the facts of the offence and the extent of the punishment, and a copy of the minute shall be forthwith sent to the High Commissioner.

Provided that, if the court thinks fit, instead of proceeding under the preceding provisions, it may direct or cause the offender to be tried in a separate criminal prosecution or proceeding in which the offender shall be liable to be tried and punished for his offence as an offence against this Order.

Nothing herein shall interfere with the power of the court to remove or exclude persons who interrupt or obstruct the proceedings of the court.

56. If any person subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the court does any act or makes any publication of such kind, and under such circumstances, that, in the opinion of the court, grave danger to public order is thereby occasioned, the court shall have the same powers as it has in relation to apprehended breaches of the peace.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

60. The court may cause to be apprehended and brought before it any person within and subject to the jurisdiction of the court and charged with having committed a crime triable by the court, and may deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the court and in conformity with the provisions of this Order ; or where the crime is triable, and is to be tried, in Her Majesty's dominions, may take the preliminary examination, and commit the accused for trial, and cause or allow him to be taken to the place of intended trial.

61. (1) Where a person, subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the court, is charged with an offence on a summons or warrant issuing out of the court, he shall be brought before the court within 48 hours after service of the summons or execution of the warrant, unless, in any case, circumstances unavoidably prevent his being brought before the court within that time, which circumstances shall be recorded in the minutes.

(2) In every case, he shall be brought before the court as soon as circumstances reasonably admit, and the time and circumstances shall be recorded in the minutes.

62. (1) Where an accused person is in custody, he shall not be remanded at any time for more than 7 days, unless circumstances appear to the court to make it necessary or proper that he should be remanded for a longer time, which circumstances, and the time of remand, shall be recorded in the minutes.

(2) In no case shall a remand be for more than 14 days at one time, unless in case of illness of the accused person or other case of necessity.

63. Except in cases of murder, an accused person may be admitted to bail at any stage of the proceedings.

64. Where the offence charged is one of the following, it shall be in the discretion of the court to admit the accused to bail or not, according to the circumstances, namely :—

Felony (not being murder).

Riot.

Assault on an officer of the court in the execution of his duty, or on any person acting in his aid.

Neglect or breach of duty by an officer of the court.

65. In all other cases except murder the court shall admit the accused to bail, unless in any instance the court, having regard to the circumstances, see good reason to the contrary, which reason shall be recorded in the minutes.

66. Where a person is charged before a court elsewhere than in Fiji with a crime punishable with death or penal servitude for 7 years or upwards, the court, on being satisfied by information or evidence on oath that there is reasonable ground for putting such person upon his trial for such crime, shall, if arrangement can be made for his trial at or near the place where he is charged by a Judicial Commissioner, arrange accordingly, or otherwise shall cause him to be removed for trial before the Supreme Court in Fiji, if the court is satisfied that the attendance of the necessary witnesses for the prosecution and defence respectively in Fiji can be secured, but in any case other than as aforesaid shall commit him for trial.

In case a person is so removed for trial, the provisions of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," section 6, or any enactment substituted for the same, shall be observed.

Where a person is, under, or by reason of, any provision of this Order, tried in Fiji or elsewhere in Her Majesty's dominions for an offence alleged to have been committed within the limits of this Order, the criminality of the alleged offence and the nature and amount of the punishment to which the person is liable shall be determined according to this Order, but in all other respects the trial shall be had and sentence passed and executed as if the offence had been committed at the place of the trial and according to the ordinary course of law at that place.

67. In the case of any crime other than as in the last preceding article mentioned, and which is by the law administered in the court punishable with imprisonment for 12 months or upwards, or with any greater punishment, it shall be in the discretion of the court, regard being had to all the circumstances of the case, and in particular to the practicability of procuring the necessary witnesses for the prosecution and defence to attend at a trial elsewhere than within the jurisdiction of the court, either to cause the accused person to be removed for trial as in the last preceding article mentioned, or to commit him for trial.

In the case of any such crime, where it appears to the court at any time before the trial that the charge, if proved, would be adequately punished by a sentence either of imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, with or without hard labour, or of a money penalty not exceeding £50, the court, if it thinks fit, may try the case summarily, with or without assessors.

68. A person tried elsewhere than in Fiji for a crime to which either of the two last preceding articles applies shall, if practicable, be tried by the court with assessors, unless he consents to be tried summarily without assessors.

69. A person charged with a crime which is not punishable with imprisonment for 12 months or upwards, or with any greater punishment, or charged with an offence against this Order, shall be tried with assessors, or summarily without assessors, as the court thinks fit.

70. In every case in which a person is to be tried summarily without assessors, the court shall proceed to try him, without any commitment or other preliminary formality, forthwith or after such adjournment as may be proper for the purpose of obtaining evidence for the prosecution or defence, or for any other purpose.

71. (1) Every court and authority in imposing and inflicting punishments shall have regard, so far as circumstances admit and subject to the other provisions of this Order, to the punishments imposed by the law of England in like cases, and to the mode in which the same are inflicted in England.

(2) The court may in addition to or in lieu of any other punishment order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to enter into a recognisance and find sureties to keep the peace or be of good behaviour or otherwise, and may, in default of compliance with the order, sentence such person to be imprisoned, for any period not exceeding 6 months.

72. The court may order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to pay all or any part of the expenses of or preliminary to his trial, and of his imprisonment or other punishment.

Where it appears to the court that any charge made before it is malicious, or is frivolous and vexatious, the court may order all or any part of the expenses of the prosecution to be paid by the person making the charge.

In either of the two last-mentioned cases, the amount ordered to be paid shall be deemed a debt due to the Crown, and may, by virtue of the order, without further proceedings, be levied on the property of the person convicted or making the charge, as the case may be, or may be enforced by imprisonment for not exceeding one month or until payment.

73. (1) The court may, if it thinks fit, order a person convicted of an assault to pay to the person assaulted, by way of damages, any sum not exceeding £20.

(2) Damages so ordered to be paid may be either in addition to or in lieu of a fine, and shall be recoverable in like manner as a fine.

(3) The person convicted shall not be liable to an action for the assault.

74. If, on a trial, the court is of opinion that the accused attempted to commit the offence with which he is charged, but did not complete it, he shall not be therefore acquitted, but the court may find him guilty of the attempt, and may adjudge him to be punished as if he had been charged with the attempt.

He shall not be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for the offence.

75. If, on the trial of a person charged with robbery, the court is of opinion that the accused committed an assault with intent to rob, but did not commit robbery, he shall not be therefore acquitted, but the court may find him guilty of the assault, and may adjudge him to be punished as if he had been charged with the assault.

He shall not be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for the assault.

76. If, on a trial for any of the following offences, namely, burglary, or stealing in a dwelling-house, or breaking and entering and stealing in a shop, warehouse, or counting-house, or a building within the curtilage of a dwelling-house, or larceny, or feloniously receiving property stolen, embezzled, or otherwise feloniously taken, obtained, or disposed of, the facts proved authorise a conviction for one of those offences, not being the offence charged, the court may find the accused guilty of that other offence, and may adjudge him to be punished, as if he had been charged with that other offence.

He shall not be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for that other offence.

77. If any person procures or endeavours to procure or incites any other person to commit a crime or offence, he shall be punishable on conviction in the same manner as if he were convicted of an attempt to commit that crime or offence. If the crime or offence is actually committed in pursuance of the procurement or incitement, both persons may be tried and punished for that crime or offence as principal offenders.

78. Sentences of imprisonment shall be carried into effect in such prisons and in such manner as the High Commissioner from time to time directs.

If there be no such prison, or if, by reason of the condition of such prison, or the state of health of the prisoner, or on any other ground, the court thinks that the sentence ought not to be carried into effect in such prison, the prisoner shall, by warrant, be removed in custody to Fiji, there to undergo his sentence.

Any sentence of imprisonment under this Order may be with or without hard labour, as the court directs.

Any sentence of death shall be carried into effect in Fiji, or in such other place (being within the limits of this Order) as the High Commissioner may direct.

When a person is sent to Fiji for execution of a sentence of death or imprisonment, the provisions of the 7th section of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or any enactment substituted for the same, shall be observed.

80. The High Commissioner may remit or commute, in whole or in part, any sentence of the court, and may suspend the execution of any sentence other than of the court when held before a Judicial Commissioner.

In every case of sentence of death the minutes of the trial shall be transmitted to the High Commissioner, and the sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by him.

When the court held otherwise than before the High Commissioner or a Judicial Commissioner sentences a person to imprisonment exceeding 6 months or fine exceeding £100, or in any other case, if a Secretary of State by any general or particular instruction so directs, or if the High Commissioner so directs, the sentence shall be submitted to the Court of Appeal for review in the manner hereinafter in this Order prescribed.

81. Where a sentence is, under this Order, submitted for review, the court shall transmit a copy of the minutes of the case, sealed with the seal of the court, and the notes of evidence, with such observations as it thinks necessary, and the Court of Appeal shall return the minutes, with such instructions as they think fit to give, either as to findings of fact, or as to law, or as to mitigation or alteration of sentence, and the court shall give effect to such instructions.

Pending the review of a sentence, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence, but is not obliged so to do unless so directed by the Court of Appeal, or by a Secretary of State or the High Commissioner. In either case the court may (unless otherwise directed) take such security, by way of bail or otherwise, and if necessary by commitment to prison for safe custody, as it thinks necessary for submission to the ultimate sentence.

84. (1) In cases of murder or manslaughter, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened within the jurisdiction of a court acting under this Order, such court shall have the like jurisdiction over any person subject to the jurisdiction of the court who is charged either as the principal offender or as accessory before the fact to murder, or as accessory after the fact to murder or manslaughter, as if both such criminal act and the death had happened within such jurisdiction.

(2) In the case of any crime committed on the high seas, or within the admiralty jurisdiction, by any person on board a British ship, or any British subject on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, a court acting under this Order shall have jurisdiction as if the crime had been committed within the district of such court. In cases tried under this provision no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the crime were tried there.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or any Act substituted for the same, of the following enactments described in the first schedule to that Act (that is to say) :—

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849."⁽¹⁾

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860."⁽²⁾

"The Merchant Shipping Act, 1867,"⁽³⁾ section 11.

And the said enactments shall, so far as they are repeated and adapted by this article (but not further or otherwise), extend to all places within the limits of this Order.

85. "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881,"⁽⁴⁾ shall apply to the limits of this Order as if such limits were a British possession, subject to the provisions following, that is to say :—

(1) The High Commissioner or a Judicial Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner is, for the purposes of the said Act, substituted, within the limits of this Order, for the Governor of a British possession and for a superior court in a British possession or a judge thereof, and for a magistrate or justice of the peace in a British possession.

(2) The 4th, 5th and 6th sections of the said Act shall, within the limits of this Order, be subject to the following qualifications :—

(a) Any report under the 4th section shall be made to the High Commissioner, or if the provisional warrant under that section is issued by him, no such report shall be made ;

(b) Any certificate or report under the 5th section shall be sent to the High Commissioner, or if the committal is made by him no such certificate or report shall be sent ;

(c) So much of the 5th section as relates to the information to be given by the magistrate to a fugitive shall be excepted, and in lieu of such information the person acting as the magistrate shall inform the fugitive that in Fiji or any other British possession to which he may be conveyed, he has the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or like other process ;

(d) So much of the 6th section as requires the expiration of 15 days before the issue of a warrant shall be excepted.

(3) Before the issue of a warrant for the return of a fugitive to a British possession, evidence may be required that the proceedings to obtain such return are taken with the consent of the Governor of that possession.

(4) For the purposes of part II of the said Act the whole of the limits of this Order and Fiji shall be deemed to be one group of

British possessions, and any particular district constituted under this Order shall be deemed to be a British possession in such group.

(5) The expression "offence punishable on indictment" in the said Act, includes any offence for which imprisonment for 6 months or upwards can be inflicted under this Order or under the laws in force in a British possession to which this article applies.

The foregoing provisions of this article shall be deemed to be adaptations for the purposes of this Order, and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or any Act substituted for the same, and of "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881."

87. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect Her Majesty's prerogative of pardon.

PART VII.—Appeals

88. In civil matters an appeal shall lie from a court to the Court of Appeal by the leave of the court, or without such leave where leave is given by the Court of Appeal.

The appeal shall be brought within such time and in such manner, as regards the form and transmission of the appeal, and as to stay of execution and otherwise, as may be prescribed by any rules of procedure made under this Order, or as in any case by any special leave or order the said Court of Appeal may direct.

A court may, before deciding any civil matter, state a case in writing for the opinion of the Court of Appeal, and shall give effect to such opinion, and when a case has been so stated, no appeal shall be brought against the decision of the court in conformity therewith unless by leave of the Court of Appeal.

As regards matters not provided for by this article, the procedure on appeal in the Court of Appeal may be the same as the ordinary procedure of that court upon the hearing of any application for a new trial, or upon a case stated or reserved for the opinion of the court, and the judgment or order of such court in the appeal shall be certified under its seal to the court which shall give effect thereto.

The decision of a Court of Appeal under this Order shall be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council, in the same manner and on the same conditions as to the amount involved and otherwise as any other decision of the same Court of Appeal.

PART VIII.—Evidence

PART IX.—Assessors

98. Where a court proceeds, in pursuance of this Order, to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with assessors, the court shall nominate and summon as assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent persons subject to the jurisdiction of the court, of good repute, resident in the district of the court or belonging to a British ship.

Where, however, by reason of local circumstances, the court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as assessor, the court may sit with him alone as assessor; and where, for like reasons, the court is not able to obtain the presence of any fit person as assessor, the court may (notwithstanding anything in this Order) sit without an assessor; but in every such case the courts shall record in the minutes of proceedings its reasons for sitting with one assessor only, or without an assessor.

An assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the court in any case, civil or criminal; but an assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the court, or in a criminal case from any decision of the court, or the conviction, or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the minutes of proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof; and an assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the minutes.

99. Where a suit relates to money, goods, or other property of a less amount or value than £300—and does not relate to or involve, directly or indirectly, a question respecting any matter at issue of the amount or value of £300 or upwards—and is not brought for recovery of damages of a greater amount than £300—the court may hear and determine the case without assessors.

In all other civil cases the court (subject to the provisions of this Order respecting inability to obtain an assessor) shall hear and determine the case with assessors.

PART X.—Rules of Procedure

PART XI.—Treaties and Queen's Regulations

108.⁽¹⁾ The High Commissioner shall have power to make, alter, and revoke regulations (to be called "Queen's Regulations") for the following purposes (that is to say):—

⁽¹⁾ Under article 6 of the Order in Council of November 10, 1915, this article no longer applies to the Gilbert and Ellice Islands.

(1) For securing the observance of any treaty for the time being in force relating to any place to which this Order applies, or of any native or local law or custom whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter.

(2) For the peace, order, and good government of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the court within the limits of this Order in relation to matters not provided for by this Order, including the prohibition and punishment of acts tending to disturb the peace between native Chiefs, tribes, or populations.

(3) For requiring returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into any place within which jurisdiction is for the time being exercised under this Order, or any part thereof, by or on account of any person subject to the jurisdiction of the court or in any British ship, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which, and the persons by whom, such returns are to be made.

(4) For the governance, visitation, care and superintendence of prisons.

(5) For registration of British subjects in accordance with the provisions of this Order, and prescribing the court in which such registration is to be made.

Any regulations under this article may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such regulations, or of any treaty or any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is provided for by such regulations.

Any regulations made under this article shall be published in the like manner in which this Order is herein directed to be published, and shall from and after the date of such publication or from and after any date which may be specified in lieu thereof in any such regulations, and thereafter, until disallowed by a Secretary of State, have effect as if contained in this Order.

Any rules or regulations heretofore made under the authority of any Order in Council repealed by this Order, and which are in force at the time of the commencement of this Order, and which are not expressly repealed by this Order, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of that Order, continue in force until revoked by the High Commissioner, but shall be subject to the provisions of this Order, and so far as they are inconsistent with any provisions of this Order, or with any regulations or rules made under this Order, this Order, and any regulations or rules made under it, shall have effect.

A breach of any such regulations shall be deemed to be an offence against this Order, and shall be punishable accordingly in addition to any forfeiture as aforesaid.

PART XII.—Foreigners and Foreign Courts

SUITS BY OR AGAINST FOREIGNERS

109. (1) Where a foreigner desires to institute or take a suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a British subject, or a British subject desires to institute or take a suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a foreigner, the court may entertain the suit or proceeding, and hear and determine it (and if all parties desire, or the court directs a trial with assessors, then with assessors) at a place where such trial might be had if all parties were British subjects, and in all other respects according to the ordinary course of the court.

(2) Provided that the foreigner (i) first files in the court his consent to the jurisdiction of the court; and (ii) also, if required by the court, obtains and files a certificate in writing from a competent authority of his own Government, to the effect that no objection is made by that Government to the foreigner submitting in the particular cause or matter to the jurisdiction of the court; and (iii) also, if required by the court, gives security to the satisfaction of the court, to such reasonable amount as the court directs, by deposit of money or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, damages, and expenses, and to abide by and perform the decision to be given by the court or on appeal.

(3) A counter-claim or cross suit cannot be brought or instituted in the court against a plaintiff, being a foreigner, who has submitted to the jurisdiction, by a defendant, except by leave of the court first obtained.

(4) The court, before giving leave, requires proof from the defendant that his claim arises out of the matter in dispute, and that there is reasonable ground for it, and that it is not made for vexation and delay.

(5) Nothing in this article prevents the defendant from instituting or taking in the court against the foreigner, after the termination of the suit or proceeding in which the foreigner is plaintiff, any suit or proceeding that the defendant might have instituted or taken in the court against the foreigner if no provision restraining counter-claims or cross suits had been inserted in this Order.

(6) Where a foreigner obtains in the court an order against a defendant, being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(7) Where a plaintiff, being a foreigner, obtains in the court an order against two or more defendants, being British subjects, jointly, and in another suit one of them is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit without prejudice to the right of the British subject to require contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(8) Where a foreigner is co-plaintiff in a suit with a British subject who is within the particular jurisdiction, it is not necessary for the foreigner to make deposit or give security for costs unless the court so directs ; but the co-plaintiff British subject is responsible for all fees and costs.

The foregoing provisions of this article shall take effect only in places within the limits of the Order which are not British settlements or under the protection of Her Majesty.

FOREIGN TRIBUNALS

110. (1) Where it is shown to the court that the attendance of any person subject to the jurisdiction of the court to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a native or foreign court, or before a native or foreign judicial officer, or in a court, or before a judicial officer, of any State in amity with Her Majesty, the court may, if it thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which it would require his attendance before itself, order that he do attend and give evidence and produce documents as so required. The order may be made subject to conditions as to payment or tender of expenses or otherwise.

(2) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the court, or if he refuses to give evidence, or wilfully gives false evidence, or fails to produce documents which he is properly required to produce, he is, independently of any other liability, guilty of an offence against this Order, and for every such offence, on conviction thereof, by summary trial, is liable to a fine not exceeding £100 or to imprisonment for not exceeding one month in the discretion of the court.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Order, "The Pacific Order in Council"⁽¹⁾ shall (with the exception of article 108), notwithstanding the cession of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands and their annexation to His Majesty's dominions, be and remain in force, and continue to have full effect to the Colony until other provision shall be made by His Majesty in Council.

7. Subject to the directions of a Secretary of State, the High Commissioner may appoint a Resident Commissioner and so many fit persons as, in the interest of His Majesty's service, he may think necessary to be Deputy Commissioners or other officers as provided by "The Pacific Order in Council," and may define from time to time the districts within which such officers shall respectively discharge their functions, provided that every officer appointed under the provisions of the said Order and holding office in the Gilbert and Ellice Islands at the commencement of this Order shall continue to hold his office in the Colony subject to the provisions of this Order.

Every such officer may exercise such powers and authorities as the High Commissioner may, with the like approval, assign to him, subject nevertheless to such directions and instructions as the High Commissioner may from time to time think fit to give him. The appointment of such officers shall not abridge, alter, or affect the right of the High Commissioner to execute and discharge all the powers and authorities hereby conferred upon him.

The High Commissioner may, subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State, remove any officer appointed as aforesaid whether before or after the commencement of this Order.

8. In the exercise of the powers and authorities hereby conferred upon him, the High Commissioner may, amongst other things, from time to time, by ordinance, provide for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony, and of all persons therein, including the prohibition and punishment of acts tending to disturb the public peace.

Provided as follows :—

(1) That nothing in any such ordinance or ordinances contained shall take away or affect any rights secured to any native in the Colony by any treaties or agreements made on behalf or with the sanction of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, His late Majesty King Edward VII, or of His Majesty, and all such treaties and agreements shall be and remain operative and in force, and all pledges and undertakings therein contained shall remain mutually binding on all parties to the same.

(2) That all laws, King's Regulations, bye-laws, and regulations of whatsoever nature in force in the Gilbert and Ellice Islands at the date of the commencement of this Order shall continue in force in the Colony until repealed, revoked, or amended by or in pursuance of any ordinance passed by the High Commissioner.

(3) That the High Commissioner, in making ordinances, shall respect any native laws and customs by which the civil relations of any native Chiefs, tribes, or populations under His Majesty's protection are now regulated, except so far as the same may be incompatible with the due exercise of His Majesty's power and jurisdiction, or clearly injurious to the welfare of the said natives.

(3) In either of the foregoing cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the High Court may order that he be deported from Zanzibar to such place and for such period as the Court directs.

1. Order in Council, 1922.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of June, 1922.

Present: THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty has jurisdiction within the Islands of the Pacific Ocean known as "the New Hebrides," including the Banks Islands and Torres Islands:

And whereas under and by virtue of "The Pacific Order in Council, 1893,"⁽¹⁾ provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction within the said Islands:

And whereas by "The Pacific Order in Council, 1907,"⁽²⁾ the said Order was amended in certain respects:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the 2nd day of November, 1907,⁽³⁾ and an Order in Council bearing date the 24th day of October, 1911,⁽⁴⁾ and entitled "The New Hebrides Order in Council, 1911," further provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction within the said Islands:

And whereas by a protocol signed at London on the 6th day of August, 1914,⁽⁵⁾ by representatives of the Government of His Majesty the King and the Government of the French Republic, it was amongst other things provided that the Islands known as "the New Hebrides," including the Banks and Torres Islands, should form a region of joint influence in which the subjects and citizens of Great Britain and France respectively should enjoy equal rights of residence, personal protection, and trade, each of the two said Powers retaining jurisdiction over its subjects and citizens, and neither exercising a separate control over the Group, and that the subjects or citizens of other Powers should enjoy the same rights, and should be subject to the same obligations as British subjects or French citizens:

And whereas the said protocol of the 6th day of August, 1914, was on the 18th day of March, 1922, ratified by His Majesty's Government and the Government of the French Republic:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in virtue of the powers by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890,"⁽¹⁾ and all other powers thereto him enabling, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

The High Commissioner may, subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State, remove any officer so appointed.
